About the Bible

The Holy Bible is the sacred book or Scriptures of Judaism and Christianity. The Bible of Judaism and the Bible of Christianity are different in some important ways. The Jewish Bible is the Hebrew Scriptures, 39 books originally written in Hebrew, except for a few sections in Aramaic. The Christian Bible is in two parts, the Old Testament and the 27 books of the New Testament. The Old Testament is structured in two slightly different forms by the two principal divisions of Christendom. The version of the Old Testament used by Roman Catholics is the Bible of Judaism plus 7 other books and additions to books; some of the additional books were originally written in Greek, as was the New Testament. The version of the Old Testament used by Protestants is limited to the 39 books of the Jewish Bible. The other books and additions to books are called the Apocrypha by Protestants; they are generally referred to as deuterocanonical books by Roman Catholics.

The term Bible is derived through Latin from the Greek biblia, or “books,” the diminutive form of byblos, the word for “papyrus” or “paper,” which was exported from the ancient Phoenician port city of Biblos. By the time of the Middle Ages the books of the Bible were considered a unified entity.

Order of the Books

The order as well as the number of books differs between the Jewish Bible and the Protestant and Roman Catholic versions of the Bible. The Bible of Judaism is in three distinct parts: the Torah, or Law, also called the books of Moses; the Nevi'im, or Prophets, divided into the Earlier and Latter Prophets; and the Ketubim, or Writings, including Psalms, wisdom books, and other diverse literature. The Christian Old Testament organizes the books according to their type of literature: the Pentateuch, corresponding to the Torah; historical books; poetical or wisdom books; and prophetic books. Some have perceived in this table of contents a sensitivity to the historical perspective of the books: first those that concern the past; then, the present; and then, the future. The Protestant and Roman Catholic versions of the Old Testament place the books in the same sequence, but the Protestant version includes only those books found in the Bible of Judaism. The New Testament includes the four Gospels; the Acts of the Apostles, a history of early Christianity; Epistles, or letters, of Paul and other writers; and an apocalypse, or book of revelation. Some books identified as letters, particularly the Book of Hebrews, are theological treatises.

Use

The Bible is a religious book, not only by virtue of its contents but also in terms of its use by Christians and Jews. It is read in practically all services of public worship, its words form the basis for preaching and instruction, and it is used in private devotion and study. The language of the Bible has informed and shaped the prayers, liturgy, and hymnody of Judaism and Christianity. Without the Bible these two religions would have been virtually speechless. Both the confessed and actual importance of the Bible differ considerably among the various subdivisions of Judaism and Christianity, but all adherents ascribe some degree of authority to it. Many confess that the Bible is the full and sufficient guide in all matters of faith and practice; others view the authority of the Bible in the light of tradition, or the continuous belief and practice of the church since apostolic times.

Biblical Inspiration

Early Christianity inherited from Judaism and took for granted a view of the Scriptures as authoritative. No formal doctrine of the inspiration of Scripture was initially propounded, as was the case in Islam, which held that the Koran was handed down from heaven. Christians generally believed, however, that the Bible contained the word of God as communicated by his Spirit—first through the patriarchs and prophets and then through the apostles. The writers of the New Testament books, in fact, appealed to the authority of the Hebrew Scriptures to support their claims concerning Jesus Christ. The actual doctrine of the inspiration of the Bible by the Holy Spirit and the inerrancy of its words arose during the 19th century in response to the development of biblical criticism, scholarly studies that seemed to challenge the divine origin of the Bible. This doctrine holds that God is the author of the Bible in such a way that the Bible is his word. Many theories explaining the doctrine have been suggested by biblical scholars and theologians. The theories range from a direct, divine, verbal dictation of the Scriptures to an illumination aiding the inspired writer to understand the truth he expressed, whether this truth was revealed or learned by experience.

Importance and Influence

The importance and influence of the Bible among Christians and Jews may be explained broadly in both external and internal terms. The external explanation is the power of tradition, custom, and creed: Religious groups confess that they are guided by the Bible. In one sense the religious community is the author of Scripture, having developed it, cherished it, used it, and eventually canonized it (that is, developed lists of officially recognized biblical books). The internal explanation, however, is what many Christians and Jews continue to experience as the power of the contents of the biblical books themselves. Ancient Israel and the early church knew of many more religious books than the ones that constitute the Bible. The biblical books, however, were cherished and used because of what they said and how they said it; they were officially canonized because they had come to be used and believed so widely. The Bible truly is the foundation document of Judaism and Christianity. It is commonly known that the Bible, in its hundreds of different translations, is the most widely distributed book in human history. Moreover, in all its forms, the Bible has been enormously influential, and not only among the religious communities that hold it sacred. The literature, art, and music of Western culture in particular are deeply indebted to biblical themes, motifs, and images. Translations of the Bible, such as the Authorized Version (or King James Version, 1611) and Martin Luther’s translation of the Bible into German (first completed in 1534) not only influenced literature but also shaped the development of languages. Such effects continue to be felt in emerging nations, where translations of the Bible into the vernacular help to shape language traditions.
The Old Testament

It is remarkable that Christianity includes within its Bible the entire scriptures of another religion, Judaism. The term Old Testament (from the Latin word for “covenant”) came to be applied to those Scriptures on the basis of the writings of Paul and other early Christians who distinguished between the “Old Covenant” that God made with Israel and the “New Covenant” established through Jesus Christ. Because the early church believed in the continuity of history and of divine activity, it included in the Christian Bible the written records of both the Old and the New covenants. Old Testament Literature The Old Testament may be viewed from many different perspectives. From the viewpoint of literature, the Old Testament—indeed, the entire Bible—is an anthology, a collection of many different books. The Old Testament is by no means a unified book in terms of authorship, date of composition, or literary type; it is instead a veritable library. Generally speaking, the books of the Old Testament and their component parts may be identified as narratives, poetic works, prophetic works, law, or apocalypses. Most of these are broad categories that include various distinct types or genres of literature and oral tradition. None of these categories is limited to the Old Testament; all are found in other ancient literature, especially that of the Near East. It is noteworthy, however, that certain types did not find their way into the Old Testament. Letters, or epistles, so important in the New Testament, are not found as separate books (except for the Letter of Jeremiah in some manuscript traditions). Autobiography, drama, and satire are not found at all. It is particularly striking that most Old Testament books contain several literary genres. Exodus, for example, contains narrative, laws, and poetry; most prophetic books include narratives and poetry in addition to prophetic genres as such. Narratives In both outline and content, a great many Old Testament books are narratives; that is, they report the events of the past. If they have, as most do, a plot (or at least the development of tension and its resolution), characterization of the participants, and a description of the setting where the events occurred, then they are stories. On the other hand, a great many narrative works of the Old Testament are histories—although they would not fit a scholarly definition of the term. A history is a written narrative of the past that is guided by the facts, as far as the writer can determine and interpret them, and not by some aesthetic, religious, or other consideration. The historical narratives of the Old Testament are popular rather than critical works, because the writers often used oral traditions, some of them unreliable, to write their accounts. Moreover, all these narratives were written for a religious purpose; they may therefore be called salvation histories, because they are concerned with showing how God was active in human events. Examples of such works are the Deuteronomistic History (Deuteronomy through 2 Kings; see below), the Tetrateuch (Genesis through Numbers), and the Chronicler’s History (1 and 2 Chronicles, Ezra, and Nehemiah). The so-called Throne Succession History of David (see 2 Samuel 9-20, 1 Kings 1-2) comes closer to the modern understanding of history than does any other biblical narrative. The writer was sensitive to the details of historical events and characters, and he interpreted the course of affairs in the light of human motivations. Nonetheless, he could see the hand of God moving behind the scenes. Other narrative books are Ruth, a short story; Jonah, a didactic, or teaching, story; and Esther, a historical romance or a festival legend. It is likely that such books developed from folktales or legends. Several didactic stories are found in the deuterocanonical books of the Bible and in the Apocrypha: Tobit, Judith, Susanna, and Bel and the Dragon. Many of these and other narrative genres are found within the books of the Old Testament.

The Book of Genesis is composed, as are most of the other narrative works, of numerous individual stories, most of which originally circulated independently and orally. The patriarchal stories in Genesis 11-50 have been called legends, sagas, and—more accurately—family stories. Many of them are etiological; that is, they explain some place, practice, or name in terms of its origin.

Poetic Works

The poetic books of the Old Testament may be taken to include Psalms, Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon (Songs), and in the deuterocanonical books and the Apocrypha, Sirach and the Prayer of Manasseh. The Book of Wisdom has much in common with the poetic wisdom books, but it is not poetry. Most of the prophetic books are written in Hebrew poetry, but they are sufficiently distinctive to be considered separately.

General Characteristics

Hebrew poetry has two major characteristics, one relatively easy to recognize even in translation and the other difficult to discern. The more obvious characteristic is the use of parallelismus membrorum, or parallelism of lines or other parts. For example, the meaning of one line may be restated or paralleled by a second line, as in Psalms 6:1: “O Lord, rebuke me not in thy anger, nor chasten me in thy wrath.” These two lines are synonymous. On the other hand, the second line in the unit may state the negative side of the first line’s point, as in Proverbs 15:1: “A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.” In other cases, the second line may extend or explain the first, and in still others, the parallelism is merely formal. Parallelism can in some instances extend to three or more lines. One major advantage of most modern English translations of the Bible is that they retain the poetic form of the Hebrew, enabling the reader to enjoy and understand the structure of the original. The other major feature of Hebrew poetry is rhythm, which seems to have been based on the number of accents in each line. One of the more easily recognized meters is that of the qina, or dirge, in which the first line has three beats or accented syllables and the second line has two. The poetic books include a great many diverse genres. The most widespread types are the various songs of worship (Psalms) and wisdom poetry. In addition, the Bible contains one book of love poetry, the Song of Solomon (Songs).

Lyrical Poetry

Israel’s worship literature was lyrical poetry, that is, poetry meant to be sung. Most, but not all, of these songs are collected in the books of Psalms. Many are hymns—songs in praise of God himself, his works on behalf of Israel, or his creation. Others are communal laments or complaint songs, which were, in effect, prayers of petition sung by the people when they were faced with trouble. Approximately one-third of the Psalms are individual laments or complaints, songs used by or on behalf of individuals facing death or disaster. When the nation or the individual has been saved from trouble, thanksgiving songs would be sung. A few Psalms, such as 2, 45, and 110, celebrate the coronation of a king in Israel as God’s special servant.

Wisdom Poetry

The wisdom poetry includes collections of wisdom sayings and short poems, as in the Book of Proverbs, and long compositions such as Job, Ecclesiastes, and Sirach. The shorter wisdom materials are proverbs, sayings, and admonitions, commonly only two lines long. Some were undoubtedly traditional or popular sayings; others bear the marks of thoughtful and creative composition. Proverbs 1-9 contains a collection of poems on the nature of wisdom itself, but the Book of Job is a lengthy poetic composition in the form of a dialogue framed by a folktale. Ecclesiastes is a somewhat disjointed work; Sirach is a book written by a Jewish teacher and later translated by his grandson. The subject matter of the wisdom sayings ranges from practical advice for living a good and successful life to reflections on the relationship between following the wise path and obedience to the divinely revealed law. Job, at least on one level, agonizes over the question of the suffering of the righteous, and Ecclesiastes meditates sadly on the meaning of life in the face of death.

Prophetic Materials

Prophets were known elsewhere in the ancient Near East, but no other culture developed a body of prophetic literature comparable to that of Israel. Ancient Egyptian writers produced literary works called “prophecies,” for example, but these writings are different in both form and content from the biblical prophetic books. Most Hebrew prophetic books contain three kinds of literature: narratives, prayers, and prophetic speeches. The narratives generally are stories or reports of prophetic activity, either attributed to the prophet himself or told by some third person. They include vision reports, reports of symbolic actions, accounts of prophetic activities such as conflicts between the prophets and their opponents, and historical narratives or notes. One book in the prophetic collection, Jonah, is actually a story about a prophet, including only one line of prophetic address (see Jonah 3:4). The prayers include hymns and petitions such as Jeremiah’s complaints (for example, Jeremiah 15:10-21). Speeches predominate in the prophetic literature, for the essence of prophetic activity was to announce the word of God concerning the immediate future. The most common addresses are prophecies of punishment or of salvation. Both of these are framed, as are most prophetic speeches, by formulas that identify the words as revealed by God; for example, “thus says the Lord.” The prophecy of punishment usually gives reasons for the punishment in terms of social injustice, religious arrogance, or apostasy and spells out the nature of the disaster—military or otherwise—to be visited upon the nation, group, or individual addressed. The prophecies of salvation announce God’s impending intervention to rescue Israel. Other speeches include prophecies against foreign nations, woe speeches enumerating the sins of the people, and admonitions or warnings.
Legal materials are sufficiently prominent in the Hebrew Scriptures that the term Torah (Law) came to be applied in Judaism to the first five books, and in early Christianity to the entire Old Testament. Legal writings dominate in the books of Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers. The fifth book of the Bible was called Deuteronomy (“second law”) by its Greek translators, although the book is primarily a report of the last words and deeds of Moses. It does, however, contain numerous laws, often in the context of interpretation and preaching. According to biblical tradition, the will of God was revealed to Israel through Moses when the covenant was made at Mount Sinai. Consequently, all the laws—except those in Deuteronomy—are found in Exodus 20 through Numbers 10, where the events at Mount Sinai are reported. Scholars have recognized in the Hebrew laws two major types, the apodictic and the casuistic. Apodictic law is represented by, but not limited to, the Ten Commandments (see Exodus 20:1-21, 34:14-26; Deuteronomy 5:6-21). These laws, usually found in collections of five or more, are short, unambiguous, and unequivocal statements of the will of God for human behavior. They are either commands (positive) or prohibitions (negative). The casuistic laws, on the other hand, each consist of two parts. The first part states a condition (“If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it or sells it …”) and the second part the legal consequences (“… he shall pay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep,” Exodus 22:1). These laws generally concern problems that arise in agricultural and town life. The casuistic laws are parallel in form, and frequently in content, to laws found in the Code of Hammurabi and other ancient Near Eastern law codes.

Apocalyptic Writings

The apocalypse as a distinctive genre arose in Israel in the postexilic period, that is, after the Babylonian Captivity of the Jews from 586 to 538 BC. An apocalypse, or revelation, contains the disclosure of future events by means of a lengthy and detailed dream or vision report. It makes use of highly symbolic and often bizarre images, which in turn are explained and interpreted. Apocalyptic writings generally reflect the author’s historical view of his own era as a time when the powers of evil are gathering to make their final struggle against God, after which a new age will be established. Daniel is the only apocalyptic book as such in the Hebrew Scriptures, and its first half (chap. 1-6) is actually a series of legendary stories. Sections of other books, however, are similar in many respects to apocalyptic literature (see Isaiah 24-27; Zechariah 9-14; and some parts of Ezekiel). In the Apocrypha, 2 Esdras is an apocalypse. Judaism in the last two centuries BC and the first century AD produced numerous other apocalyptic works that were never considered canonical. These include Enoch, the War of the Sons of Light and the Sons of Darkness, and the Apocalypse of Moses. Until recently, most scholars argued that the development of apocalyptic literature and thought was strongly influenced by Persian religion. That view is being challenged by the recognition of the roots of apocalyptic literature in Israelite thought itself, especially the prophetic understanding of the future, and in older Near Eastern traditions.
The Development of the Old Testament

By no means did all the books of the Old Testament originate at the same time and in the same place; rather, they are the product of Israelite faith and culture over a thousand years or more. Consequently, another literary perspective examines the books and their component parts in terms of their authorship and their literary and preliterary history. Virtually all the books went through a long history of transmission and development before they were collected and canonized. Moreover, it is necessary to distinguish between traditional Jewish and Christian views concerning the authorship and date of the books and their actual literary history as it has been reconstructed by modern scholarship from the evidence in the biblical books and elsewhere. It is not the aim of this survey to present a detailed account of the literary history of the Old Testament. Many of the facts are not known, the history is long and often complicated, and older conclusions regularly are being revised under the weight of new evidence and methods. The general contours of that history can, however, be summarized. For most Old Testament books it was a long journey from the time the first words were spoken or written to the work in its final form. That journey usually involved many people, such as storytellers, authors, editors, listeners, and readers. Not only individuals but different communities of faith played their parts. See the individual entries for each book of the Old Testament. Behind many of the present literary works stand oral traditions. Most of the stories in Genesis, for example, circulated orally before they were written down. Prophetic speeches, now encountered in written form, were first delivered orally. Virtually all the Psalms, whether originally written down or not, were composed to be sung or chanted aloud in worship. It is not safe to infer, however, that oral transmission was merely the precursor of written literature and ceased once books came into being. In fact, oral traditions existed side by side with written materials for centuries.

The Pentateuch

According to Jewish and Christian tradition, Moses was the author of the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Bible. Nowhere in the books themselves, however, is this claim made; tradition stemmed in part from the Hebrew designation of them as the books of Moses, but that meant concerning Moses. As early as the Middle Ages, Jewish scholars recognized a problem with the tradition: Deuteronomy (the last book of the Pentateuch) reports the death of Moses. The books are actually anonymous and composite works. On the basis of numerous duplications and repetitions, including two different designations of the deity, two separate accounts of creation, two intertwined stories of the flood, two versions of the Egyptian plagues, and many others, modern scholars have concluded that the writers of the Pentateuch drew upon several different sources, each from a different writer and period. The sources differ in vocabulary, literary style, and theological perspective. The oldest source is the Jehovistic, or Yahwist (J, from its use of the divine name Jahwe—modern Jehovah—or Yahweh), commonly dated in the 10th or 9th century BC. The second is the Elohist (E, from its use of the general name Elohim for God), usually dated in the 8th century BC. Next is Deuteronomy (D, limited to that book and a few other passages), dated in the late 7th century BC. Last is the Priestly Writer (P, for its emphasis on cultic law and priestly concerns), dated in the 6th or 5th century BC. J includes a full narrative account from creation to the conquest of Canaan by Israel. E is no longer a complete narrative, if it ever was; its earliest material concerns Abraham. P concentrates on the covenant and the revelation of the law at Mount Sinai, but sets that into a narrative that begins with creation. None of the writers of these documents—if they were individuals and not groups—was a creative author in the modern sense. Rather, they worked as editors who collected, organized, and interpreted older traditions, both oral and written. Therefore, most of the contents of the sources are much older than the sources themselves. Some of the oldest written elements are parts of poetic works such as the Song of the Sea (see Exodus 15), and some of the legal material was derived from ancient legal codes. One recent view suggests that the individual stories of the Pentateuch were collected under the heading of several major themes (Promise to the Patriarchs, Exodus, Wandering in the Wilderness, Sinai, and Taking of the Land) and took their basic shape by about 1100 BC. In any case, the story of Israel’s roots was formed in and under the influence of the community of faith.

Deuteronomistic History

In recent years the books of Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, 1 and 2 Samuel, and 1 and 2 Kings have been recognized as a unified account of the history of Israel from the time of Moses (13th century BC) to the Babylonian exile (the period from the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC to the reconstruction in Palestine of a new Jewish state after 538 BC). Because the literary style and theological perspective are similar to those of Deuteronomy, this account is called the Deuteronomistic History. On the basis of the last events it reports, among other evidence, it seems to have been written about 560 BC, during the exile. It is possible, however, that at least one edition was written earlier. The writer (or writers) of the work set out to record Israel’s history and also to account for the disaster that befell the nation at the hands of the Babylonians. On the one hand, he worked as any other historian would, by collecting and organizing older sources, both written and oral. He used materials of many kinds, including stories of the prophets, lists of various sorts, earlier histories, and even court records. In fact, he often refers the reader to his sources (for example, see Joshua 10:13; 2 Samuel 1:18; 2 Kings 15:6). On the other hand, however, he worked as a theologian—and one who already had firm convictions about the course and meaning of the events he recorded. He expressed those convictions by the way he organized the material and by placing speeches, which he had written, into the mouths of the major characters (for example, see Joshua 1). He believed that Israel had fallen to the Babylonians because of disobedience to the law of Moses (as in Deuteronomy), especially in its worship of false gods in false places of worship; he also believed that the prophets had warned of the exile long before it happened.

The Poetic Books

Both the cultic and wisdom poetry of the Old Testament are difficult to date or to attribute to particular authorship, primarily because they contain so few historical allusions. David is regarded as the author of the Psalms because of the tradition that he was a singer and composer; in fact, only 70 of the 150 Psalms are specifically identified with David, and far fewer than that originated during his era. The attributions to David and to others are found in the superscriptions, which were added long after the Psalms were written. The identification of Proverbs and other wisdom books with Solomon stems from the tradition of that king’s great wisdom, and is reliable to the extent that Solomon did encourage institutions that developed such literature. Wisdom poetry contains in the sayings some of the oldest material in the Hebrew Scriptures, and in compositions such as Ecclesiastes and Sirach some of the latest. The Book of Psalms became the hymn and prayer book of Israel’s second temple, but many of the songs predate the second temple. They contain motifs, themes, and expressions that Israel inherited from its Canaanite predecessors in the land. Many voices speak in and through the Psalms, but above all they are the voices of the community at worship.

The Prophetic Books

Few if any of the prophetic books were written entirely by the person whose name serves as the title. Moreover, in most instances even the words of the original prophet were recorded by others. The story of Jeremiah’s scribe Baruch (see Jeremiah 36; see also Isaiah 8:16) illustrates one of the ways the spoken prophetic words became books. The various utterances of the prophets would have been remembered and collected by their followers and eventually written down. Later, most of the books were edited and expanded. For example, when the Book of Amos (circa 755 BC) was used in the time of the exile, it was given a new and hopeful ending (Amos 9:8-15). The Book of Isaiah reflects centuries of Israelite history and the work of several prophets and other figures: Isaiah 1-39 stems primarily from the original prophet (742-700 BC); chapters 40-55 come from an unknown prophet of the Exile, called Second Isaiah (539 BC); and chapters 56-66, identified as Third Isaiah, come from various writers of the period after the exile. The Canon The Hebrew Bible and the Christian versions of the Old Testament were canonized in different times and places, but the development of the Christian canons must be understood in terms of the Jewish Scriptures.

The Hebrew Canon

The idea in Israel of a sacred book dates at least from 621 BC. During the reform of Josiah, king of Judah, when the temple was being repaired, the high priest Hilkiah discovered “the book of the law” (see 2 Kings 22). The scroll was probably the central part of the present Book of Deuteronomy, but what is important is the authority that was ascribed to it. More reverence was paid to the text read by Ezra, the Hebrew priest and scribe, to the community at the end of the 5th century BC (see Nehemiah 8). The Hebrew Bible became Holy Scripture in three stages. The sequence corresponds to the three parts of the Hebrew canon: the Torah, the Prophets, and the Writings. On the basis of external evidence it seems clear that the Torah, or Law, became Scripture between the end of the Babylonian exile (538 BC) and the separation of the Samaritans from Judaism, probably by 300 BC. The Samaritans recognized only the Torah as their Bible. The second stage was the canonization of the Neviim (Prophets). As the superscriptions to the prophetic books indicate, the recorded words of the prophets came to be considered the word of God. For all practical purposes the second part of the Hebrew canon was closed by the end of the 3rd century, not long before 200 BC. In the meantime other books were being compiled, written, and used in worship and study. By the time the Book of Sirach was written (circa 180 BC), an idea of a tripartite Bible had developed. The contents of the third part, the Ketubim (Writings), remained somewhat fluid in Judaism until after the fall of Jerusalem to the Romans in AD 70. By the end of the 1st century AD the rabbis in Palestine had established the final list. Both positive and negative forces were at work in the process of canonization. On the one hand, most of the decisions had already been made in practice: The Law, the Prophets, and most of the Writings had been serving as Scripture for centuries. Controversy developed around only a few books in the Writings, such as Ecclesiastes and the Song of Solomon (Songs). On the other hand, many other religious books, also claiming to be the word of God, were being written and circulated. These included the books in the present Protestant Apocrypha, some of the New Testament books, and many others. Consequently, the official action of establishing a Bible took place in response to a theological question: According to which books would Judaism define itself and its relationship to God?

The Christian Canon

The second canon—what is now the Roman Catholic version of the Old Testament—arose first as a translation of the earlier Hebrew books into Greek. The process began in the 3rd century BC outside of Palestine, because Jewish communities in Egypt and elsewhere needed the Scriptures in the language of their culture. The additional books in this Bible, including supplements to older books, arose for the most part among such non-Palestinian Jewish communities. By the end of the 1st century AD, when the earliest Christian writings were being collected and disseminated, two versions of Scripture from Judaism were already in existence: the Hebrew Bible and the Greek Old Testament (known as the Septuagint). The Hebrew Bible, however, was the official standard of belief and practice; no evidence indicates that an official list of Greek Scriptures ever existed in Judaism. The additional books of the Septuagint were only given official recognition in Christianity. The writings of the early Fathers of the Church contain numerous different lists, but it is clear that the longer Greek Old Testament prevailed.

The last major step in the history of the Christian canon took place during the Protestant Reformation. When Martin Luther translated the Bible into German, he rediscovered what others—notably St. Jerome, the 4th-century biblical scholar—had known: that the Old Testament had originated in Hebrew. He removed from his Old Testament the books that were not in the Bible of Judaism and established them as the Apocrypha. This step was an effort to return to the presumed earliest—and therefore best—text and canon, and to establish in opposition to the authority of the church the authority of that older version of the Bible.
Texts and Ancient Versions

All contemporary translators of the Bible attempt to recover and use the oldest text, presumably the one closest to the original. No original copies or autographs exist; rather, hundreds of different manuscripts contain numerous variant readings. Consequently, every attempt to determine the best text of a given book or verse must be based on the meticulous work and informed judgment of scholars.

Masoretic Texts

With regard to the Old Testament, the chief distinction is between texts in Hebrew and the versions, or translations into other ancient languages. The most important, and generally most reliable, witnesses to the Hebrew are the Masoretic texts, those produced by Jewish scholars (called the Masoretes) who assumed the task of faithfully copying and transmitting the Bible. These scholars, active from the early Christian centuries into the Middle Ages, also provided the text with punctuation, vowel points (the original of the Hebrew text contains only consonants), and various notes. The standard printed Hebrew Bible in use today is a reproduction of a Masoretic text written in AD 1088. The manuscript, in codex or book form, is in the collection of the Saint Petersburg Public Library. Another Masoretic manuscript, the Aleppo Codex from the first half of the 10th century AD, is the basis for a new publication of the text in preparation at Hebrew University in Israel. The Aleppo Codex is the oldest manuscript of the entire Hebrew Bible, but it dates from well more than a millennium after the latest biblical books were written, and perhaps as much as two millennia later than the earliest ones. Extant, however, are older Hebrew manuscripts—Masoretic and other texts—of individual books. Many from as early as the 6th century were discovered during the late 19th century in the genizah (storage room for manuscripts) of the Cairo synagogue. Numerous manuscripts and fragments, many from the pre-Christian era, have been recovered from the Dead Sea region since 1947. Although many of the most important manuscripts are quite late, the Masoretic texts in particular preserve a textual tradition that goes back to at least a century or more before the Christian era.

The Septuagint and Other Greek Versions

The most valuable versions of the Hebrew Bible are the translations into Greek. In some instances the Greek versions actually offer readings superior to the Hebrew, being based on older Hebrew texts than are now available. Many of the Greek manuscripts are much older than the manuscripts of the full Hebrew Bible; they were included in copies of the entire Christian Bible that date from the 4th and 5th centuries. The major manuscripts are Codex Vaticanus (in the Vatican Library), Codex Sinaiticus, and Codex Alexandrinus (both in the British Museum). The major Greek version is called the Septuagint (“seventy”) because of the legend that the Torah was translated in the 3rd century BC by 72 scholars. The legend is probably accurate in several respects: The first Greek translation included only the Torah, and it was done in Alexandria in the 3rd century BC. Eventually the remaining Hebrew Scriptures were translated, but obviously they were translated by other scholars whose skills and viewpoints differed. Numerous other Greek translations were made, most of them extant only in fragments or quotations by the early Fathers of the Church and others. These include the versions of Aquila, Symmachus, Theodotion, and Lucian. The 3rd-century Christian theologian Origen studied the problems presented by these different versions and prepared a Hexapla, an arrangement in six parallel columns of the Hebrew text, the Hebrew text transliterated into Greek, Aquila, Symmachus, the Septuagint, and Theodotion. Peshitta, Old Latin, Vulgate, and Targums Other versions include the Peshitta, or Syriac, begun perhaps as early as the 1st century AD; the Old Latin, translated not from the Hebrew but from the Septuagint in the 2nd century; and the Vulgate, translated from the Hebrew into Latin by St. Jerome at the end of the 4th century AD. Also to be considered with the versions are the Aramaic Targums. In Judaism, when Aramaic replaced Hebrew as the language of everyday life, translations became necessary, first accompanying the oral reading of Scriptures in the synagogue and later set down in writing. The Targums were not literal translations, but rather paraphrases or interpretations of the original. The two major Targums are those that originated in Palestine and those that were revised in Babylon. Recently a complete manuscript of the Palestinian Targum has come to light—Neofiti I of the Vatican Library. The best-known Babylonian Targums are Onkelos for the Pentateuch and Jonathan for the Prophets. The versions often are good, sometimes even the best, witnesses to the original text. Moreover, they are important as evidence for the history of thought among the communities that took the Bible seriously.

The Old Testament and History

On virtually all its pages the Old Testament calls attention to the reality and importance of history. The Pentateuch and the historical books contain salvation histories; the prophets constantly refer to events of the past, present, and future. As the history of Israel was told in the Old Testament, it came to be organized in a series of pivotal events or periods: the exodus (including the stories from the patriarchs to the conquest of Canaan), the monarchy, the exile in Babylon, and the return to Palestine with the restoration of the religious institutions. Separating Interpretation from History It is important to distinguish between the Old Testament’s interpretation of what happened and critical history. In order to write a reliable account, the historian needs more or less objective sources contemporary with the events themselves. The major source of information concerning Israel’s history is the Old Testament, and its writers generally are concerned primarily with the theological meaning of the past. Moreover, most of the documents are later—sometimes by centuries—than the events they describe. A significant body of written evidence does not exist before the time of the monarchy, which was established with the anointing of Saul as the first king of Israel in the 11th century BC. Other evidence, both written and artifactual, has been recovered through archaeology, but all the evidence—both biblical and archaeological—must be evaluated critically. To be sure, all biblical texts that can be dated at all furnish important historical information. They reveal facts concerning the period in which they were written, but they do not necessarily contain literally accurate accounts of the events they report.

The Historical Core

Israel’s life was a part of the history of the ancient Near East. Like the other small nations of the eastern Mediterranean, Israel was at the mercy of the major powers of Egypt, Assyria, and Babylonia and could prosper independently only when they were in decline or preoccupied with struggles among themselves.
Early History and Development of Israel

A considerable body of information concerning the history of the ancient Near East is available from the 3rd millennium BC on, but a detailed history of Israel can begin only about the time of David (1000-961 BC). This does not mean that nothing at all can be said about the preceding eras, or that all the reports of events before David are inaccurate. It does mean that historical evidence can be separated from later interpretation only with difficulty, and that relatively few details can be known with certainty. The Genesis stories of the patriarchs, for example, are not intended as history. History deals with public events; the accounts of the patriarchs are family stories, concerned for the most part with private matters. Archaeological evidence, however, has shown that the background or setting of the stories gives a reasonable picture of life in the late Bronze Age. The stories suggest that the ancestors of Israel were seminomads and provide an indication of their religious beliefs and practices. Careful analysis of the biblical record and judicious use of archaeological evidence suggest a date for the exodus from Egypt in the second half of the 13th century BC. Even the route of the exodus, however, is unknown; the Old Testament preserves at least two major traditions on that point. Not all of Israel would have been involved, and most likely only the Joseph tribes. Joshua 1-12 and Judges 1-2 present two different versions of Israel’s entrance into the land of Canaan. The summary statements in Joshua report a sudden conquest by the Israelites under the leadership of Joshua; but Judges 1-2 and other traditions support the conclusion that individual tribes moved into the land gradually and that it was decades if not centuries before Israel acquired its territory. The period of the conquest and that of the Judges thus overlap. For the most part, during the two centuries after 1200 BC individual tribes were sometimes on their own and sometimes together, only gradually becoming one nation, Israel.

The Monarchy

The monarchy arose during the 11th century BC in the midst of internal strife and external threat. The internal strife concerned the question of the proper form of government for the nation. Some favored the more traditional form of charismatic leadership in times of crisis; others wanted a stable kingship. Kingship won out because of the external threat from the militarily superior Philistines, who occupied five cities on the coastal plain. Saul united the tribes and established a monarchy, but was killed, along with his son Jonathan, in a battle with the Philistines. David then became king, first in the south and then of the entire nation. It was left to him to put an end forever to the Philistine threat and then to establish an empire that exerted control from Syria to the border of Egypt. His reign was long and prosperous, although not without internal conflict over his throne. He was succeeded by his son Solomon, who set up a court after the manner of other oriental monarchs. Solomon built a palace and the great Temple in Jerusalem, and overtaxed the resources of the country for his luxurious programs. The Kingdoms of Israel and Judah After the death of Solomon, the northern tribes rebelled under his son Rehoboam. The two nations, Israel in the north and Judah in the south, were never again reunited, and they often fought each other. In Judah the dynasty of David continued until the Babylonians took the country (597 and 586 BC), but in Israel numerous kings and several dynasties came and went. The period of the divided monarchy was marked by threats from the Assyrians, the Arameans, and the Babylonians. Israel, with its capital Samaria, fell to the Assyrian army in 722-21 BC, its people were deported, and foreigners settled in their place. Judah suffered two humiliations at the hand of the Babylonians: the surrender of Jerusalem in 597 and its destruction in 586 BC. Captives were carried off to Babylon on both occasions, but because foreigners were not settled in Judah, and the captives were allowed some measure of freedom—at least to associate with one another—the life of the people continued both in Babylon and in their native land. The exile was a disaster long announced by the prophets as a divine judgment, but the experience led the Israelites to a reconsideration of their own meaning as a people, and to the writing down and interpretation of their old traditions.

The Exilic Period

The people were set free from Babylon in 538 BC, when the Persian king Cyrus established the Persian Empire. The prophets Ezra and Nehemiah were leaders in the era after the exile when institutions were reestablished and the Temple was rebuilt. Judah became a province of the Persian Empire, and the people had relative autonomy, especially in religion. At some point during the postexilic period, the history of Israel became the history of Judaism, but at precisely what time is debated. By the beginning of the Christian era the people had survived the rise of the Hellenistic empire (333 BC), the Maccabean revolution (168-165 BC) and rule, and the establishment of Roman control in Palestine (63 BC). After an abortive revolution in AD 70 that led to the destruction of Jerusalem, their life changed dramatically.

Theological Themes of the Old Testament

The theological themes of the Old Testament are rich, deep, and diverse. No single theology is found in these writings, because they emerged from many individuals and groups over several centuries. They reflect not only a development of thought but also differences of opinion and even conflicts. For example, different interpretations of creation are preserved side by side, and prophets on more than one occasion challenged the views of priests. The themes of the Old Testament are coherent with and related to one another, but they are not a systematic theology. The canonization of the Bible, while establishing an official list, also recognized substantial diversity.

The God of Israel

The most obvious theological theme of the Old Testament is both the most pervasive and the most important one: Yahweh (the personal name of God in the Old Testament) is the God of Israel, of the whole earth, and of history. This theme echoes from Exodus 20:3 (“You shall have no other gods before me”) throughout the Hebrew Scriptures, and it is the basis for all other theological reflection. It would be misleading, however, to identify this theme as monotheism; that term is too abstract for the texts in question, and in all but some of the latest materials the existence of other gods is taken for granted. Generally the other gods are held to be subordinate to Yahweh, and in any case Israel is to be loyal to only one God. That God is affirmed to be the creator of the earth, the king active in history to save and to judge, all-powerful but concerned for his people. He is known to reveal himself in diverse ways—through the law, through events, and through prophets and priests. The distinctive Old Testament language about God links the name of Yahweh with events: “I am the Lord [Yahweh] your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage” (Exodus 20:2). Israel confesses who God is in terms of what he has done or will do, rather than in terms of his nature. History then takes on special importance as the sphere of divine action and interaction with his people. The only significant exception to this use of historical language is the wisdom literature.

Covenant and Law

Two other themes fundamental to the Old Testament, covenant and law, are closely related. Covenant signifies many things, including an agreement between nations or individuals, but above all it refers to the pact between Yahweh and Israel sealed at Mount Sinai. The language concerning that covenant has much in common with that of ancient Near Eastern treaties; both are sworn agreements sealed by oaths. Yahweh is seen to have taken the initiative in granting the covenant by electing a people. Perhaps the simplest formulation of the covenant is the sentence: “I will take you for my people, and I will be your God” (Exodus 6:7). The law was understood to have been given as a part of the covenant, the means by which Israel became and remained the people of God. The law contains regulations for behavior in relation to other human beings as well as rules concerning religious practices, but by no means does it give a full set of instructions for life. Rather, it seems to set forth the limits beyond which the people could not go without breaking the covenant.

The Human Person

The Old Testament stresses an understanding of human beings in community, something important for the people of such a covenant. The individual human being was conceived of as an animated body, as Genesis 2:7 suggests: “Then the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.” That “breath” should not be viewed as a “soul” but simply as “life.” In the Old Testament, the human being was seen as a unity of physical matter and life, the whole a gift from God. Consequently, death was a vivid reality; views of afterlife or resurrection appear only rarely and late in Israelite thought. Another theme that appears in the prophets and is basic elsewhere is that Yahweh is a just God who expects justice and righteousness from his people. That includes fairness in all human affairs, care for the weak, and the establishment of just institutions. With these and other themes, it is small wonder that the Hebrew Scriptures provided the foundation for two world religions, Judaism and Christianity.

The New Testament

The New Testament consists of 27 documents written between AD 50 and 150 concerning matters of belief and practice in Christian communities throughout the Mediterranean world. Although some have argued that Aramaic originals lie behind some of these documents (especially the Gospel of Matthew and the Epistle to the Hebrews), all have been handed down in Greek, very likely the language in which they were composed. Text, Canon, and Early Versions For a time, some Christian scholars treated the Greek of the New Testament as a special kind of religious language, providentially given as a proper vehicle for the Christian faith. It is now clear from extrabiblical writings of the period that the language of the New Testament is koine, or common Greek, that which was used in homes and marketplaces.

Manuscripts and Textual Criticism

Extant Greek manuscripts of the New Testament—complete, partial, or fragmentary—now number about 5000. None of these, however, is an autograph, an original from the writer. Probably the oldest is a fragment of the Gospel of John dated about AD 120-40. The similarities among these manuscripts is most remarkable when one considers differences of time and place of origin as well as the methods and materials of writing. Dissimilarities, however, involve omissions, additions, terminology, and different ordering of words. Comparing, evaluating, and dating the manuscripts, placing them in family groups, and developing criteria for ascertaining the text that most likely corresponds to what the authors wrote are the tasks of critics. They are aided in their judgments by thousands of scriptural citations in the writings of the early Fathers of the Church and by a number of early translations of the Bible into other languages. The fruit of the labor of text critics is an edition of the Greek New Testament that offers not only what is judged to be the best text but also includes notes indicating variant readings among the major manuscripts. The more significant of these variants usually appear in English translations as footnotes citing what other ancient authorities say (see, for example, Mark 16:9-20; John 7:53-8:11; Acts 8:37). Critical editions of the Greek New Testament have appeared with some regularity since the work of the Dutch scholar Desiderius Erasmus in the 16th century.

Precanonical Writings

The 27 books of the New Testament are only a fraction of the literary production of the Christian communities in their first three centuries. The principal types of New Testament documents (gospel, epistle, apocalypse) were widely imitated, and the names of apostles or other leading figures were attached to writings designed to fill in the silence of the New Testament (for example, on the childhood and youth of Jesus), to satisfy the appetite for more miracles, and to argue for new and fuller revelations. As many as 50 Gospels were in circulation during this time. Many of these noncanonical Christian writings have been collected and published as New Testament Apocrypha.

Knowledge of the literature of the period was greatly increased by the discovery in 1945 of the library of a heretical Christian group, the Gnostics, at Naj Hammadi, Egypt. This collection, written in Coptic, has been translated and published. Major scholarly attention has been focused on the Gospel of Thomas, which purports to be sayings of Jesus, 114 in all, delivered privately to Thomas, one of the 12 apostles. The Canon No clear records are available documenting what determined the church’s decision to adopt an official canon of Christian writings or the process by which this occurred. For Jesus and his followers, the Law, Prophets, and Writings of Judaism were “Holy Scriptures.” Interpretation of these writings was, however, governed by the work, words, and person of Jesus as he was understood by his followers. The apostles who preserved the words and deeds of Jesus and who continued his mission were regarded as having special authority. That Paul, for instance, expected his letters to be read aloud in churches and even exchanged among the churches (see Colossians 4:16; 1 Thessalonians 5:26 ff.) indicates that a new norm for belief and practice was developing in the Christian communities. This norm consisted of two parts: the Lord (preserved in the “gospels”) and the Apostles (preserved primarily in “epistles”). Tracing the history of the development of the New Testament canon by noting which of the books were quoted or cited by the early Fathers of the Church is an uncertain process. Too much is made of silence. It seems that the earliest attempt to establish a canon was made about AD 150 by a heretical Christian named Marcion whose acceptable list included the Gospel of Luke and ten Pauline Epistles, edited in a strong anti-Jewish direction. Perhaps opposition to Marcion accelerated efforts toward a canon of wide acceptance. By AD 200, 20 of the 27 books of the New Testament seem to have been generally regarded as authoritative. Local preferences prevailed here and there, and some differences existed between the eastern and western churches.

Generally speaking, the books that were disputed for some time but were finally included were James, Hebrews, 2 John, 3 John, Jude, 2 Peter, and Revelation. Other books, widely favored but finally rejected, were Barnabas, 1 Clement, Hermas, and the Didache; the authors of these books are generally referred to as the apostolic fathers. The 39th festal letter of St. Athanasius, bishop of Alexandria, sent to the churches under his jurisdiction in 367, ended all uncertainty about the limits of the New Testament canon. In the so-called festal letter, preserved in a collection of annual Lenten messages given by Athanasius, he listed as canonical the 27 books that remain the contents of the New Testament, although he arranged them in a different order. Those books of the New Testament, in their present-day order, are the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John), the Acts of the Apostles, Romans, 1 Corinthians, 2 Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, 1 Thessalonians, 2 Thessalonians, 1 Timothy, 2 Timothy, Titus, Philemon, Hebrews, James, 1 Peter, 2 Peter, 1 John, 2 John, 3 John, Jude, and Revelation.

Early Versions

Because the New Testament was written in Greek, the story of the transmission of the text and the establishing of the canon sometimes neglects the early versions, some of which are older than the oldest extant Greek text. The rapid spread of Christianity beyond the regions where Greek prevailed necessitated translations into Syriac, Old Latin, Coptic, Gothic, Armenian, Ethiopian, and Arabic. Syriac and Latin versions existed as early as the 2nd century, and Coptic translations began to appear in the 3rd century. These early versions were in no sense official translations but arose to meet regional needs in worship, preaching, and teaching. The translations were, therefore, trapped in local dialects and often included only selected portions of the New Testament. During the 4th and 5th centuries efforts were made to replace these regional versions with more standardized and widely accepted translations. Pope Damasus I in 382 commissioned St. Jerome to produce a Latin Bible; known as the Vulgate, it replaces various Old Latin texts. In the 5th century, the Syriac Peshitta replaced the Syriac versions that had been in popular use up to that time. As is usually the case, the old versions slowly and painfully gave way to the new. The Literature of the New Testament From a literary point of view, the documents of the New Testament are of four major types or genres: gospel, history, epistle, and apocalypse. Of these four, only gospel seems to be a literary form originating in the Christian community.
Gospels

A gospel is not a biography, although it bears some resemblance to biographies of heroes, human and divine, in the Greco-Roman world. A gospel is a series of individual accounts of acts or sayings, each having a kind of completeness, but arranged to create a cumulative effect. The writers of the Gospels apparently had some interest in chronological order, but that was not primary. Theological concerns and readers’ needs strongly influenced arrangement of materials. One would expect, therefore, that even though all four New Testament Gospels center on Jesus of Nazareth and all four are gospels in literary form, differences would still exist among them. And that is the case. Apart from the accounts of Jesus’ arrest, trial, death, and resurrection, which are strikingly similar in all four, the Gospels differ in important details, perspectives, and accents of interpretation. In all these ways, the Gospel of John stands most noticeably apart from the others. In this Gospel, Jesus Christ is portrayed more obviously as divine, all-knowing, all-controlling, and “from above.” The other three are called synoptic (viewed together) Gospels because, despite differences, they can be viewed together. Placed in parallel columns, Matthew, Mark, and Luke impress the reader with such similarities that they have spawned many theories about their relationships. The most widely held scholarly opinion is that Mark was the earliest written and became a source for Matthew and Luke. Most likely, Matthew and Luke each had other sources as well as a common source, a conjecture made on the basis of much shared material not found in Mark. This theorized but as yet unidentified source has simply been called Q, or Quelle (German, “source”). In a preface, the author of the Gospel of Luke speaks of having researched many narratives about Jesus (see Luke 1:1-4).

History

Historical narrative is best represented in the New Testament by the Acts of the Apostles, which is the second of two volumes (sometimes called Luke-Acts) ascribed to St. Luke. These two books tell the story of Jesus and the church that arose in his name as one continuous narrative, set in the history of Israel and of the Roman Empire. The history is theologically presented; that is, it interprets what God is doing in this event or with that person. Acts is unique in the New Testament in its use of historical narrative for purposes of proclamation.

Epistles

The epistle or letter in the Greco-Roman world was a fairly standardized literary form consisting of signature, address, greeting, eulogy or thanksgiving, message, and farewell. St. Paul found this form congenial to his relation to the churches he had established and convenient for an itinerant apostle. The form became widely accepted in the Christian community and was used by other church leaders and writers. The epistles that they wrote, some of which appear in the New Testament, are really sermons, exhortations, or treatises thinly disguised as epistles.
Apocalyptic Writing

Apocalyptic writing appears throughout the New Testament but is most extensive in the Book of Revelation. Apocalypses are usually written in times of severe crisis for a community, times in which people look beyond the present and beyond human sources for help and hope. This literature is highly visionary, symbolic, pessimistic about world conditions, and hopeful only in terms of the invisible beyond the visible and the victory beyond history. Just retribution and reward characterize the visions of the end of the world. Apparently, Revelation was written during the persecution of Christians under the Roman emperor Domitian, who reigned from 81 to 96.

Literary Forms

Within these four major types of literature, many forms appear: poems, hymns, confessional formulas, proverbs, miracle stories, beatitudes, diatribes, lists of duties, parables, and others. Recent scholarship has given a great deal of attention to literary form not only as necessary in understanding content but also as a vehicle by which the reader can share the experience created in a given passage. Forms have the power to create worlds and to define relationships; they are not mere accessories to content. In the writings of biblical scholars, much attention in the past was focused on the parable, which for centuries was regarded as an allegory. At the close of the last century, the German biblical scholar Adolph Jülicher (1857-1938) took a new direction in the interpretation of parables. He insisted that the New Testament parables be understood as real similes, rather than as allegories. Thus, he held that Jesus’ stories should be understood as illustrations, the meanings of which could be restated in single themes or propositions. More recently, parables have been respected as works of literary art, having a force and function similar to poetry, and therefore not to be destroyed by paraphrase or summary or propositional digest. As literary art, a parable does not simply make its point, but it does its work on the reader—creating, altering, or even shattering a particular view of life and reality. Scholarly explorations into other literary forms in the New Testament are also under way.

History in the New Testament

The New Testament is not a collection of maxims, reflections, and meditations dissociated from historical concreteness. On the contrary, its documents focus on a historical figure, Jesus of Nazareth, and address the problems faced by his followers in a variety of specific contexts in the Roman Empire. This concern with historical events, persons, and situations does not mean, however, that the New Testament submits itself to purely historical and chronological interests.

Determining the Broad Chronological Outline

A number of difficulties are encountered in a historical reconstruction of the period as revealed in New Testament sources. First, the documents are arranged theologically, not chronologically. The Gospels are first because they tell the story of Jesus, but they were written between 70 and 90, as much as 60 years after his death. The Acts of the Apostles is also from this period. The Epistles of Paul, however, are earlier; they date from the decade between 50 and 60 because they were written at the very time Paul was involved in missionary work. The remaining books, which can be dated between 90 and 150, reflect church conditions of the postapostolic period. Second, the documents do not evidence much interest in history as a chronological process, partly because their authors believed in the impending end of history. Third, the New Testament is not one book but an ecclesiastical collection, preserved for the specific purposes of worship, preaching, teaching, and polemics. Fourth, all the documents were written by advocates of the Christian faith for purposes of proclamation and instruction; hence, although they contain historical references, they are not pieces of historical reporting. Add to these difficulties the lack of many references to Jesus and his followers from other contemporary sources, and the possibility of a detailed history grows dimmer. Nevertheless, scholars are in general agreement as to the broad chronological outline. The major anchor points are provided by Luke and Acts, which set the story of Jesus and the beginning of the church in the context of Jewish and Roman history. The Gospel of Luke states that Jesus began his ministry in the 15th year of the reign of Tiberius (see Luke 3:1), which would be AD 28-29. All four Gospels agree that Jesus was crucified when Pontius Pilate was governor (AD 26-36) of Judea. Jesus’ ministry was conducted between 29 and 30, according to the view that he ministered one year; between 29 and 33, according to the theory that his work extended three to four years.

The Infancy Narratives
Before his public life, little is known of Jesus. He was from Nazareth of Galilee, although both Luke and Matthew place his birth in Bethlehem of Judea, the ancestral home of King David. Only the books of Luke and Matthew contain birth and infancy stories, and these differ in several details. Luke (see 1:5-2:52) relates the stories in poem and song woven from Old Testament texts that highlight God’s concern for the poor and despised. Matthew (see 1:18-2:23) patterns his story on that of Moses in the Old Testament. Just as Moses spent his childhood among the rich and wise of Egypt, so was Jesus visited and honored by rich and wise magi. As Moses was hidden from a wicked king slaughtering Jewish male children, so was Jesus saved from Herod’s massacre. (Since Herod the Great died in 4 BC, Jesus was probably born between 6 and 4 BC.) The remainder of the New Testament is silent about Jesus’ miraculous birth. Throughout the history of the church, some Christians have insisted that the infancy narratives be taken literally; others have regarded them as one among many ways of expressing belief in Jesus’ relation to God as Son. The tendency of the New Testament to proclaim the meaning of events without giving a reporter’s account of the events themselves has always provided much room for disagreement among those involved in the historian’s quest.

The Apostles and the Early Church
Following the ministry of Jesus, which is described in the four Gospels, the religious movement he had launched came under the leadership of the 12 men he had chosen to be his apostles. Most of the Twelve faded into obscurity and legend, but three of them are mentioned as continuing leaders: James, who was killed by Herod Agrippa I sometime before 44, the date of Herod’s own death; John, his brother, who apparently lived to old age (see John 21:20-24); and Peter, who was an early leader of the Jerusalem church but also made several missionary journeys and, according to tradition, was martyred in Rome in the mid-60s. In addition to these three, James, called the brother of Jesus, was prominent in the Jerusalem church until he was killed by mob violence in 61. Before the Jewish revolt against Rome erupted in Jerusalem in 66, the Christians left the city and were not involved in the violence that destroyed Jerusalem in 70. Major attention in the record provided by the Acts of the Apostles is focused on Paul, a Jew from Tarsus, who became a convert to Christianity near Damascus about 33-35. After 14 silent years, Paul began to write his Epistles, marking a missionary career that took him through Syria, Galatia, Asia Minor, Macedonia, Greece, and Rome. Apparently his life ended in Rome in the early 60s. Paul’s Epistles and the Acts offer the reader some understanding of the life of these early Christian communities and their relationship to the larger cultures. The remaining books of the New Testament provide little historical information and almost no basis for exact dating. Generally, they seem to have been written for a second- or third-generation community. In these documents, the immediate followers of Jesus are dead, early enthusiasm and high expectation of the final return of Christ to end history has now waned, and the need for preservation, entrenchment, and institutionalization is evident. Heretics and apostates are identified and attacked, and the membership is called to a tenacity of faith adequate for the persecution soon to come. The second Epistle of Peter, probably the last of the New Testament books to be written, makes a vigorous effort to rehabilitate the earlier expectancy of an imminent end to history. This attempt to recover the zeal and conviction of a former era is itself an indication of the end of an age.

Major Themes in the New Testament
Like the theological themes of the Old Testament, those of the New Testament are varied and rich in content.

God
Nowhere is the continuity of the New Testament with the Old more clearly or more consistently presented than in its teaching about God. Any view that the God of Jesus or of the early church was different from the God of Judaism was rejected as heresy. The God of the New Testament is creator of all life and sustainer of the universe. This one God, who is the source and final end of all things, takes the initiative to seek with love all humankind, entering into covenants with those who respond, and behaving toward them with justice and mercy, with judgment and forgiveness. God has never left himself without witnesses in the world, having revealed himself in many times, manners, and places; but the New Testament claims in Jesus of Nazareth a unique revelation of God. The person, words, and activity of Jesus were understood as bringing followers into the presence of God. In the days of its beginning within Judaism, the church could assume belief in God and focus its message on Jesus as revealer of God. Beyond the bounds of Judaism, however, faith in the one true God became basic to the proclamation of Christianity.

Jesus
The New Testament presents its understanding of Jesus in titles, descriptions of his person, and accounts of his word and work. In the context of Judaism, the Old Testament provided titles and images that the New Testament writers used to convey the meaning of Jesus for his disciples. He was portrayed, for example, as a prophet like Moses, the Davidic king, the promised Messiah, the second Adam, a priest like Melchizedek, an apocalyptic figure like the Son of man, the Suffering Servant of Isaiah, and the Son of God. The Hellenistic culture provided other images: a preexistent divine being who came to earth, accomplished his work, and returned to glory; the Lord above all caesars; the eternal mediator of creation and redemption; the cosmic figure who gathers all creation to himself in one harmonious body. The Gospels present the ministry of Jesus as the presence of God in the world. His words revealed God and God’s way for his people; his actions demonstrated the healing power of God bringing wholeness of body, mind, and spirit; his sufferings and death testified to God’s relentless love; and his resurrection was God’s sign of approval of Jesus’ life, death, and message. St. Paul and others developed views of Jesus’ death as sacrifice and atonement for sin and of Jesus’ resurrection as guarantee of the resurrection of his disciples. Documents written during persecution (see 1 Peter, Revelation) interpreted Jesus’ suffering as the model for Christians in the hour of martyrdom.

Holy Spirit

Some of the prophets of Israel had characterized the “last days” as a time when God would pour out his Spirit on the whole of humanity. The New Testament claims that promise was fulfilled in the days of Jesus. The Spirit of God, an expression representing the active presence of God, is therefore used throughout the New Testament; this entity is variously referred to as the Spirit, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Spirit of Christ, or the Spirit of truth. The Spirit empowered Jesus, and it enabled the church to continue what Jesus had begun to do and to teach. Within the individual disciple, the Spirit produced the qualities appropriate to that life and equipped the person to work and serve the good of the community. Understandably, the category “Spirit” was subject to a wide range of interpretations and created problems in many churches. The New Testament reflects the struggle to find clear criteria for determining if a congregation or a person really was influenced by the Holy Spirit.

Kingdom of God

According to the New Testament, the central message of Jesus was the kingdom of God. He called for repentance in preparation for the kingdom that was “at hand.” The kingdom of God referred to the reign or rule of God, and in Jesus’ ministry that reign of God was announced as present. The presence of the kingdom, however, was not full and complete, and, therefore, was often referred to as a future event. Students of the New Testament have argued over whether Jesus and his followers expected the kingdom of God to be fully present in their generation. The unresolved state of that debate is registered in the two expressions often used to characterize the New Testament teaching about the kingdom: “already” and “not yet.” Salvation The kingdom of God seems not to have survived as the central subject of the church’s message. According to the New Testament, the church did not identify itself as the kingdom, and in its preaching it began to speak more of salvation. The term generally referred to a person’s reconciled relationship to God and participation in a community that was both reconciled and reconciling. In this sense, salvation was a present reality—but not completely. The consummation of salvation would be in a fullness of life beyond the struggle, futility, and mortality that mark this world. Paul believed that in the ultimate fulfillment of God’s purpose, salvation would be cosmic in scope. The realm of redemption would be coextensive with the realm of creation. This meant that finally even the hostile spirit powers that, according to the New Testament, inhabit the heavens, earth, and subterranean regions would be brought into harmony with the benevolent plan of God. This final vision differs from that of the Book of Revelation, in which the end is characterized by the vindication and reward of the saints and the damnation of the wicked.

Ethics

In the meantime, the followers of Christ are to manifest in their conduct and relationships that they have been reconciled with God. This is the instruction of the entire New Testament and a legacy from the Old: the inseparable connection between religious belief and moral and ethical behavior. The Law, the Prophets, and the Writings had insisted on it, and the New Testament continued that accent. This life is variously referred to as righteous, sanctified, godly, faithful. The books of the New Testament are filled with instructions about this life not only in an inward sense but in relation to neighbors, enemies, family members, masters, servants, and government officials, as well as in relation to God. These instructions draw upon the Old Testament, the words of Jesus, the example of Jesus, apostolic commands, laws of nature, common lists of household duties, and ideals from Greek moralists. All these sources were understood as having one source in a God who expects his own faithfulness to be met with faithfulness in those who have been reconciled as the family of God.

The Bible in English

The history of the English Bible is the history of the movement of the Bible from its possession and use by clergy alone to the hands of the laity. It is also the history of the formation of the English language from a mixture of French, Anglo-Norman, and Anglo-Saxon. Even though Christianity reached England in the 3rd century, the Bible remained in Latin and almost exclusively in the hands of the clergy for a thousand years. Between the 7th and 14th centuries, portions of the Bible were translated into English, and some rough paraphrases appeared for instructing parishioners. In literary circles, poetic translations of favorite passages were made. Interest in translation from Latin to English grew rapidly in the 14th century, and in 1382 the first complete English Bible appeared in manuscript. It was the work of the English reformer John Wycliffe, whose goal was to give the Bible to the people.

Translations of the Reformation Period

In 1525 the English reformer William Tyndale translated the New Testament from the Greek text, copies of which were printed in Germany and smuggled into England. Tyndale’s translation of the Old Testament from the Hebrew text was only partly completed. His simple prose and popular idiom established a style in English translation that was continued in the Authorized Version of 1611 (the King James Version) and eventually in the Revised Standard Version of 1946-52. In 1535 the English reformer Miles Coverdale published an English translation based on German and Latin versions in addition to Tyndale’s. This was not only the first complete English Bible to appear in printed form, but unlike its predecessors, it was an approved translation that had been requested by the Canterbury Convocation. Shortly thereafter, the English reformer and editor John Rogers produced a slightly revised edition of Tyndale’s Bible. This appeared in 1537 and was called Matthew’s Bible. In 1538 the English scholar Richard Taverner issued another revision. At about the same time, Oliver Cromwell commissioned Coverdale to produce a new Bible, which appeared in six editions between 1539 and 1568. This Bible, called the Great Bible, in its final revision in 1568 by scholars and bishops of the Anglican church was known as the Bishops’ Bible. The Bishops’ Bible was designed to replace not only the Great Bible, which was primarily a pulpit Bible, but also a translation for the laity, produced in Geneva in 1560 by English Protestants in exile, called the Geneva Bible. The Bishops’ Bible was the second authorized Bible.

The Douay and Other Roman Catholic Versions

The Douay or Douay-Rheims (spelled also Douai-Reims) Bible, completed between 1582 and 1609, was commonly used by Roman Catholics in English-speaking countries until the 1900s, when it was considerably revised by the English bishop Richard Challoner. The Douay Bible was translated from the Latin Vulgate, primarily by two English exiles in France, William Allen and Gregory Martin. During the 19th and 20th centuries, the Douay and Challoner Bibles were replaced with other translations by Roman Catholics. In the United States, one of the most widely used is the New American Bible of 1970, the first complete Bible to be translated from Hebrew and Greek by American Roman Catholics.

The King James Version and Its Revisions

In 1604 King James I commissioned a new revision of the English Bible; it was completed in 1611. Following Tyndale primarily, this Authorized Version, also known as the King James Version, was widely acclaimed for its beauty and simplicity of style. In the years that followed, the Authorized Version underwent several revisions, the most notable being the English Revised Version (1881-85), the American Standard Version (1901), and the revision of the American Standard Version undertaken by the International Council of Religious Education, representing 40 Protestant denominations in the U.S. and Canada. This Revised Standard Version (RSV) appeared between 1946 and 1952. Widely accepted by Orthodox, Protestant, and Roman Catholic Christians, it provided the basis for the first ecumenical English Bible. The New Revised Standard Version (NRSV, 1989) eliminated much archaic and ambiguous usage. The New King James Bible, with contemporary American vocabulary, was published in 1982.

Other Modern Translations

In the first half of the 20th century many modern speech translations, mostly by individuals, appeared: Weymouth (1903); Goodspeed and Smith (1923-27); Moffatt (1924-26); Phillips (1947); and others. Since 1960, major translation projects have been underway to produce English Bibles that are not revisions of the Tyndale-King James-RSV tradition. The more significant among these are the following: the Jerusalem Bible (1966), an English translation of the work of French Dominicans (1956); Today’s English Version (1966-76) in idiomatic English by the American Bible Society; the New English Bible, commissioned in 1946 by the Church of Scotland and designed to be neither stilted nor colloquial; the New International Bible (1973-79), a revision by conservative American Protestants based largely on the King James Version and similar to the New American Standard Version; and the Living Bible (1962-71), not a translation but a paraphrase into the modern American idiom. The latter was designed by its author, Kenneth Taylor, to make the Bible interesting, but to propagate “a rigid evangelical position.” The multivolume Anchor Bible (1964- ), an international and interfaith project, offers modern readers an exact translation, with extended exegesis (exposition). Jewish translations of the Hebrew Bible into English have been appearing for two centuries. A new translation, sponsored by the Jewish Publication Society of America, was published in three segments in 1962, 1974, and 1983. It is called the New Jewish Version. The continuing flow of new translations testifies to the changing nature of language, the discovery of new manuscript evidence, and most of all the abiding desire to read and to understand the Bible.
Preface to PDF Version of the King James Version of the Holy Bible

The text of the King James Version (KJV) of the Holy Bible (also called the Authorized Version (AV) by some) is in the public domain. You may copy and publish it freely. This PDF version of the King James Version of the Holy Bible is also placed into the public domain. It was created directly from the public domain text and into PDF format using "DaVince Tools", a software product that converts text files and other file formats into PDF (http://www.davince.com).

Minor formatting changes were made to the public domain text, which primarily consisted of removal of the public domain notice in each book. Instead, the public domain notice has been placed in this preface. The text was automatically word wrapped by the software to fit into a column representation. A bookmark and article thread was also automatically created for each book. The bookmark allows the reader to easily switch between books of the Bible by simply clicking on the appropriate bookmark. The article thread allows easy reading of each book by guiding the reader through the text using mouse clicks. The use of articles also allows a user to find a book alphabetically instead of chronologically.
Zeal to promote the common good, whether it be by devising anything ourselves, or revising that which hath been laboured by others, deserveth certainly much respect and esteem, but yet findeth but cold entertainment in the world. It is welcomed with suspicion instead of love, and with emulation instead of thanks: and if there be any hole left for cavil to enter, (and cavil, if it do not find a hole, will make one) it is sure to be misconstrued, and in danger to be condemned. This will easily be granted by as many as know story, or have any experience. For, was there ever any-projected, that savoured any way of newness or renewing, but the same endured many a storm of gainsaying, or opposition? A man would think that Civility, wholesome Laws, learning and eloquence, Synods, and Church-maintenance, (that we speak of no more things of this kind) should be as safe as a Sanctuary, and out of shot, as they say, that no man would lift up the heel, no, nor dog move his tongue against the motioners of them. For by the first, we are distinguished from brute beasts lead with sensuality; By the second, we are bridled and restrained from outrageous behaviour, and from doing of injuries, whether by fraud or by violence; By the third, we are enabled to inform and reform others, by the light and feeling that we have attained unto ourselves; Briefly, by the fourth being brought together to a parley face to face, we sooner compose our differences than by writings which are endless; And lastly, that the Church be sufficiently provided for, is so agreeable to good reason and conscience, that those mothers are holden to be less cruel, that kill their children as soon as they are born, than those nursing fathers and mothers (wheresoever they be) that withdraw from them who hang upon their breasts (and upon whose breasts again themselves do hang to receive the Spiritual and sincere milk of the word) livelihood and support fit for their estates. Thus it is apparent, that these things which we speak of, are of most necessary use, and therefore, that none, either without absurdity can speak against them, or without note of wickedness can spurn against them.

Yet for all that, the learned know that certain worthy men [Anacharsis with others] have been brought to untimely death for none other fault, but for seeking to reduce their Countrymen to god order and discipline; and that in some Commonwealths [e.g. Locri] it was made a capital crime, once to motion the making of a new Law for the abrogating of an old, though the same were most pernicious; And that certain [Cato the elder], which would be counted pillars of the State, and patterns of Virtue and Prudence, could not be brought for a long time to give way to good Letters and refined speech, but bare themselves as averse from them, as from rocks or boxes of poison; And forthright, that he was no babe, but a great clerk [Gregory the Divine], that gave forth (and in writing to remain to posterity) in passion peradventure, but yet he gave forth, that he had not seen any profit to come by any Synod, or meeting of the Clergy, but rather the contrary; And lastly, against Church-maintenance and allowance, in such sort, as the Ambassadors and messengers of the great King of Kings should be furnished, it is not unknown what a fiction or fable (so it is esteemed, and for no better by the reporter himself [Nauclerus], though superstitious) was devised; Namely, that at such a time as the professors and teachers of Christianity in the Church of Rome, then a true Church, were liberally endowed, a voice forsooth was heard from heaven, saying:  Now is poison poured down into the Church, etc.  Thus not only as oft as we speak, as one saith, but also as oft as we do anything of note or consequence, we subject ourselves to everyone’s censure, and happy is he that is least tossed upon tongues; for utterly to escape the snatch of them it is impossible. If any man conceit, that this is the lot and portion of the meaner sort only, and that Princes are privileged by their high estate, he is deceived. "As the sword devoureth as well one as the other," as it is in Samuel [2 Sam 11:25], nay as the great Commander charged his soldiers in a certain battle, to strike at no part of the enemy, but at the face; And as the King of Syria commanded his chief Captains to "fight neither with small nor great, save only against the King of Israel:" [1 Kings 22:31] so it is too true, that Envy striketh most spitefully at the fairest, and at the chiefest. David was a worthy Prince, and no man to be compared to him for his first deeds, and yet for as worthy as act as ever he did (even for bringing back the Ark of God in solemnity) he was scorned and scoffed at by his own wife [2 Sam
6:16]. Solomon was greater than David, though not in virtue, yet in power: and by his power and wisdom he built a Temple to the Lord, such a one as was the glory of the land of Israel, and the wonder of the whole world. But was that his magnificence liked of by all? We doubt it. Otherwise, why do they lay it in his son’s dish, and call unto him for easing the burden, “Make”, say they, “the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke, lighter?” [1 Kings 12:4] Belike he had charged them with some levies, and troubled them with some carriages; Hereupon they raise up a tragedy, and wish in their heart the Temple had never been built. So hard a thing it is to please all, even when we please God best, and do seek to approve ourselves to every one’s conscience.

If we will descend to later times, we shall find many the like examples of such kind, or rather unkind acceptance. The first Roman Emperor [C. Caesar, Plutarch] did never do a more pleasing deed to the learned, nor more profitable to posterity, for conserving the record of times in true supputation; than when he corrected the Calendar, and ordered the year according to the course of the Sun; and yet this was imputed to him for novelty, and arrogance, and procured to him great obloquy. So the first Christened Emperor [Constantine] (at the least-wise that openly professed the faith himself, and allowed others to do the like) for strengthening the Empire at his great charges, and providing for the Church, as he did, got for his labour the name Pupillus, as who would say, a wasteful Prince, that had need of a Guardian or overseer [Aurel. Victor]. So the best Christened Emperor [Theodosius], for the love that he bare unto peace, thereby to enrich both himself and his subjects, and because he did not see war but find it, was judged to be no man at arms [Zosimus], (though indeed he excelled in feats of chivalry, and showed so much when he was provoked) and condemned for giving himself to his ease, and to his pleasure. To be short, the most learned Emperor of former times [Justinian], (at the least, the greatest politician) what thanks had he for cutting off the superfluities of the laws, and digesting them into some order and method? This, that he had been blotted by some to be an Epitomist, that is, one that extinguishes worthy whole volumes, to bring his abridgments into request. This is the measure that hath been rendered to excellent Princes in former times, even, Cum bene facerent, male audire, For their good deeds to be evil spoken of. Neither is there any likelihood, that envy and malignity died, and were buried with the ancient. No, no, the reproof of Moses taketh hold of most ages; “You are risen up in your fathers’ stead, and increase of sinful men.” [Num 32:14] "What is that that hath been done? that which shall be done; and there is no new thing under the Sun," saith the wiseman: [Ecc 1:9] and S. Stephen, "As your fathers did, so do you." [Acts 7:51]

HIS MAJESTY’S CONSTANCY, NOTWITHSTANDING CULMINATION, FOR THE SURVEY OF THE ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS

This, and more to this purpose, His Majesty that now reigneth (and long, and long may he reign, and his offspring forever, "Himself and children, and children’s always") knew full well, according to the singular wisdom given unto him by God, and the rare learning and experience that he hath attained unto; namely that whosoever attempteth anything for the public (especially if it pertain to Religion, and to the opening and clearing of the word of God) the same setteth himself upon a stage to be gloated upon by every evil eye, yea, he casteth himself headlong upon pikes, to be gored by every sharp tongue. For he that medleth with men’s Religion in any part, medleth with their custom, nay, with their freehold; and though they find no content in that which they have, yet they cannot abide to hear of altering. Notwithstanding his Royal heart was not daunted or discouraged for this that colour, but stood resolute, "as a statue immovable, and an anvil not easy to be beaten into plates," as one [Suidas] saith; he knew who had chosen him to be a Soldier, or rather a Captain, and being assured that the course which he intended made for the glory of God, and the building up of his Church, he would not suffer it to be broken off for whatsoever speeches or practices.

It doth certainly belong unto Kings, yea, it doth specially belong unto them, to have care of Religion, yea, it doth specially belong unto them, to have care of Religion, yea, to know it aright, yea, to profess it zealously, yea to promote it to the uttermost of their power. This is their glory before all nations which mean well, and this will bring unto them a far most excellent weight of glory in the day of the Lord Jesus. For the Scripture saith not in vain, "Them that honor me, I will honor," [1 Sam 2:30] neither was it a vain word that Eusebius delivered long ago, that piety towards God was the weapon and the only weapon, that both preserved Constantine’s person, and avenged him of his enemies [Eusebius lib 10 cap 8].

THE PRAISE OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

But now what piety without truth? what truth (what saving truth) without the word of God? What word of God (whereof we may be sure) without the Scripture? The Scriptures we are commanded to search. John 5:39. Isa 8:20. They are commended that searched and studied them. Acts 17:11 and 8:28,29. They are reproved that were unskillful in them, or slow to believe them. Matt 22:29. Luke 24:25. They can make us wise unto salvation. 2 Tim 3:15. If we be ignorant, they will instruct us; if out of the way, they will bring us home; if out of order, they will reform us; if in heaviness, comfort us; if dull, quicken us; if cold, inflame us.

Tolle, lege; Tolle, lege, Take up and read, take up and read and read the Scriptures [S. August. confess. lib 8 cap 12], (for unto them was the direction) it was said unto S. Augustine by a supernatural voice. "Whatsoever is in the Scriptures, believe me," saith the same S. Augustine, "is high and divine; there is verily truth, and a doctrine most fit for the refreshing of men’s minds, and truly so tempered, that everyone may draw from thence that which is sufficient for him, if he come to draw with a devout and pious mind, as true Religion requireth." [S. August. de utilitcredendi cap. 6] Thus S. Augustine, and S. Jerome: "Ama scripturas, et amabit te sapientia etc." [S. Jerome. ad Demetriad] Love the Scriptures, and wisdom will love thee. And S. Cyril against Julian; "Even boys that are bred up in the Scriptures, become most religious, etc. [S. Cyril. 7 contra Julianum] But what mention we three or four uses of the Scripture, whereas whatsoever is to be believed or practiced, or hoped for, is contained in them? or three or four sentences of the Fathers, since whosoever is worthy the name of a Father, from Christ’s time downward, hath likewise written not only of the riches, but also of the perfection of the Scripture? "I adore the fulness of the Scripture," saith Tertullian against Hermogenes. [Tertul. advers. Hermo.] And again, to Apelles an heretic of the like stamp, he saith; "I do not admit that which thou bringest in (or concludest) of thine own (head or store, de tuo) without Scripture." [Tertul. de carne Christi.] So Saint Justin Martyr before him; "We must know by all means," saith he, "that it is not lawful (or possible) to learn (anything) of God or of right piety, save only out of the Prophets, who teach us by divine inspiration." So Saint Basil after Tertullian, "It is a manifest falling way from the Faith, and a fault of presumption, either to reject any of those things that are written, or to bring in (upon the head of them) any of those things that are not written. We omit to cite to the same effect, S. Cyril B. of Jerusalem in his 4::Cataches., Saint Jerome against Helvidius, Saint Augustine in his 3::book against the letters of Petilian, and in very many other places of his works. Also we forebear to descend to later Fathers, because we will not weary the reader. The Scriptures then being acknowledged to be so full and so perfect, how can we excuse ourselves of negligence, if we do not study them, of curiosity, if we be not content with them? Men talk much of [an olive bow wrapped about with wood, whereupon did hang figs, and bread, honey in a pot, and oil], how many sweet and goodly things it had hanging on it; of the Philosopher’s stone, that it turned copper into gold; of Cornucopia, that it had all things necessary for food in it, of Panaces the herb, that it was good for diseases, of Catholicon the drug, that it is instead of all purges; of Vulcan’s armor, that it was an armor of proof against all thrusts, and all blows, etc. Well, that which they falsely or vainly attributed to these things for bodily god, we may justly and with full measure ascribe unto the Scripture, for spiritual. It is not only an armor, but also a whole armory of weapons, both offensive and defensive; whereby we may save ourselves and put the enemy to flight. It is not an herb, but a tree, or rather a whole paradise of trees of life, which bring forth fruit every month, and the fruit thereof is for meat, and the leaves for medicine. It is not a pot of Manna, or a cruse of oil, which were for memory only, or for a meal’s meat or two, but as it were a shower of heavenly bread sufficient for a whole host, be it never so great; and as it were a whole cellar full of oil vessels; whereby all our necessities may be provided for, and our debts discharged. In a word, it is a Panary of wholesome food, against fenowed traditions; a Physician’s shop (Saint Basil called it) [S. Basil in Psal. primum.] of preservatives against poisoned heresies; a Pandect of profitable laws, against rebellious spirits; a treasury of most costly jewels, against beggarly rudiments; finally a fountain of most pure water springing up unto everlasting life. And what marvel? The original thereof being from heaven, not from earth; the author being God, not man; the inditer, the holy spirit, not the wit of the Apostles or Prophets; the Penmen such as were sanctified from the womb, and endued with a principal portion of God’s spirit; the matter, verity, piety, purity, uprightness; the form, God’s word, God’s testimony, God’s oracles, the word of truth, the word of salvation, etc.; the effects, light of understanding, stableness of persuasion, repentance from dead works, newness of life, holiness, peace, joy in the holy Ghost; lastly, the end and reward of the study thereof, fellowship with the Saints, participation of the heavenly nature, fruition of an inheritance immortal, undefiled, and that never shall fade away: Happy is the man that delighted in the Scripture, and thrice happy that meditateth in it day and night.

TRANSLATION NECESSARY

But how shall men meditate in that, which they cannot understand? How shall they understand that which is kept close in an unknown tongue? as it is written, “Except I know the power of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian to me.” [1 Cor 14] The Apostle excepteth no tongue; not Hebrew the ancientest, not Greek the most copious, not Latin the finest. Nature taught a natural man to confess, that all of us in those tongues which we do not understand, are plainly deaf; we may turn the deaf ear unto them.

The Scythian counted the Athenian, whom he did not understand, barbarous; [Clem. Alex. 1 Strom.] so the Roman did the Syriac, and the Jew (even S. Jerome himself called the Hebrew tongue barbarous, belike because it was strange to so many) [S. Jerome. Damas.] so the Emperor of Constantinople [Michael, Theophili fil.] calleth the Latin tongue, barbarous, though Pope Nicolas do storm at it: [2::Tom. Concil. ex edit. Petri Crab] so the Jews long before Christ called all other nations, Lignazim, which is little better than barbarous. Therefore as one complaineth, that always in the Senate of Rome, there was one or other that called for an interpreter: [Cicero 5::de finibus.] so lest the Church be driven to the like exigent, it is necessary to have translations in a readiness. Translation it is that openeth the window, to let in the light; that breaketh the shell, that we may eat the kernel; that putteth aside the curtain, that we may look into the most Holy place; that removeth the cover of the well, that we may come by the water, even as Jacob rolled away the stone from the mouth of the well, by which means the flocks of Laban were watered [Gen 29:10]. Indeed without translation into the vulgar tongue, the unlearned are but like children at Jacob’s well (which is deep) [John 4:11] without a bucket or something to draw with; or as that person mentioned by Isaiah, to whom when a sealed book was delivered, with this motion, "Read this, I pray thee," he was fain to make this answer, "I cannot, for it is sealed." [Isa 29:11]

THE TRANSLATION OF THE OLD TESTAMENT OUT OF THE HEBREW INTO GREEK

While God would be known only in Jacob, and have his Name great in Israel, and in none other place, while the dew lay on Gideon’s fleece only, and all the earth besides was dry; then for one and the same people, which spake all of them the language of Canaan, that is, Hebrew, one and the same original in Hebrew was sufficient. [S. August. lib 12 contra Faust c32] But, when the fulness of time drew near, that the Sun of righteousness, the Son of God should come into the world, whom God ordained to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, not of the Jew only, but also of the Greek, yea, of all them that were scattered abroad; then lo, it pleased the Lord to stir up the spirit of a Greek Prince (Greek for descent and language) even of Ptolemy Philadelph King of Egypt, to procure the translating of the Book of God out of Hebrew into Greek. This is the translation of the Seventy Interpreters, commonly so called, which prepared the way for our Saviour among the Gentiles by written preaching, as Saint John Baptist did among the Jews by vocal. For the Grecians being desirous of learning, were not wont to suffer books of worth to lie moulding in Kings’ libraries, but had many of their servants, ready scribes, to copy them out, and so they were dispersed and made common. Again, the Greek tongue was well known and made familiar to most inhabitants in Asia, by reason of the conquest that there the Grecians had made, as also by the Colonies, which thither they had sent. For the same causes also it was well understood in many places of Europe, yea, and of Africa too. Therefore the word of God being set forth in Greek, becometh hereby like a candle set upon a candlestick, which giveth light to all that are in the house, or like a proclamation sounded forth in the market place, which most men presently take knowledge of; and therefore that language was fittest to contain the Scriptures, both for the first Preachers of the Gospel to appeal unto for witness, and for the learners also of those times to make search and trial by. It is certain, that that Translation was not so sound and so perfect, but it needed in many places correction; and who had been so sufficient for this work as the Apostles or Apostolic men? Yet it seemed good to the holy Ghost and to them, to take that which they found, (the same being for the greatest part true and sufficient) rather than making a new, in that new world and green age of the Church, to expose themselves to many exceptions and cavillations, as though they made a Translations to serve their own turn, and therefore bearing a witness to themselves, their witness not to be regarded. This may be supposed to be some cause, why the Translation of the Seventy was allowed to pass for current. Notwithstanding, though it was commended generally, yet it did not fully content the learned, no not of the Jews. For not long after Christ, Aquila fell in hand with a new Translation, and after him Theodotion, and after him Symmachus; yea, there was a fifth and a sixth edition, the Authors whereof were not known. [Epiphan. de mensur. et ponderibus.] These with the Seventy made up the Hexapla and were worthily and to great purpose compiled together by Origen. Howbeit the Edition of the Seventy went away with the credit, and therefore not only was placed in the midst by Origen (for the worth and excellency thereof above the rest, as Epiphanius gathered) but also was used by the Greek fathers for the ground and foundation of their Commentaries. Yea, Epiphanius above named doeth attribute so much unto it, that he holdeth the Authors thereof not only for Interpreters, but also for Prophets in some respect [S. August. 2︰de doctrin. Christian c. 15]; and Justinian the Emperor enjoining the Jews his subjects to use especially the Translation of the Seventy, rendreth this reason thereof, because they were as it were enlightened with prophetical grace. Yet for all that, as the Egyptians are said of the Prophet to be men and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirit [Isa 31:3]; so it is evident, (and Saint Jerome affirneth as much) [S. Jerome. de optimo genere interpret.] that the Seventy were Interpreters, they were not Prophets; they did many things well, as learned men; but yet as men they stumbled and fell, one while through oversight, another while through ignorance, yea, sometimes they may be noted to add to the Original, and sometimes to take from it; which made the Apostles to leave them many times, when they left the Hebrew, and to deliver the sense thereof according to the truth of the word, as the spirit gave them utterance.
This may suffice touching the Greek Translations of the Old Testament.

TRANSLATION OUT OF HEBREW AND GREEK INTO LATIN

There were also within a few hundred years after CHRIST, translations many into the Latin tongue: for this tongue also was very fit to convey the Law and the Gospel by, because in those times very many Countries of the West, yea of the South, East and North, spake or understood Latin, being made Provinces to the Romans. But now the Latin Translations were too many to be all good, for they were infinite (Latini Interprets nullo modo numerari possunt, saith S. Augustine.) [S. Augustin.
de doctr. Christ. lib 2 cap II]. Again they were not out of the Hebrew fountain (we speak of the Latin Translations of the Old Testament) but out of the Greek stream, therefore the Greek being not altogether clear, the Latin derived from it must needs be muddy. This moved S. Jerome a most learned father, and the best linguist without controversy, of his age, or of any that went before him, to undertake the translating of the Old Testament, out of the very fountain with that evidence of great learning, judgment, industry, and faithfulness, that he had forever bound the Church unto him, in a debt of special remembrance and thankfulness.

THE TRANSLATING OF THE SCRIPTURE INTO THE VULGAR TONGUES

Now through the Church were thus furnished with Greek and Latin Translations, even before the faith of CHRIST was generally embraced in the Empire; (for the learned know that even in S. Jerome’s time, the Consul of Rome and his wife were both Ethics, and about the same time the greatest part of the Senate also) [S. Jerome. Marcell.Zosim] yet for all that the godly-learned were not content to have the Scriptures in the Language which they themselves understood, Greek and Latin, (as the good Lepers were not content to fare well themselves, but acquainted their neighbors with the store that God had sent, that they also might provide for themselves) [2 Kings 7:9] but also for the behoof and edifying of the unlearned which hungered and thirsted after righteousness, and had souls to be saved as well as they, they provided Translations into the vulgar for their Countrymen, insomuch that most nations under heaven did shortly after their conversion, hear CHRIST speaking unto them in their mother tongue, not by the voice of their Minister only, but also by the written word translated. If any doubt hereof, he may be satisfied by examples enough, if enough will serve the turn. First S. Jerome saith, Multarum gentium linguis Scriptura ante translata, docet falsa esse quae addita sunt, etc. i.e. "The Scripture being translated before in the languages of many Nations, doth show that those things that were added (by Lucian and Hesychius) are false." [S. Jerome. praef. in 4::Evangel.] So S. Jerome in that place. The same Jerome elsewhere affirmeth that he, the time was, had set forth the translation of the Seventy suae linguae hominibus, i.e., for his countrymen of Dalmatia [S. Jerome. Sophronio.] Which words not only Erasmus doth understand to purport, that S. Jerome translated the Scripture into the Dalmatian tongue, but also Sixtus Senensis [Six. Sen. lib 4], and Alphonsus a' Castro [Alphon. lb 1 ca 23] (that we speak of no more) men not to be excepted against by them of Rome, do ingenuously confess as much. So, S. Chrysostom that lived in S. Jerome’s time, giveth evidence with him: "The doctrine of S. John [saith he] did not in such sort [as the Philosophers’ did] vanish away: but the Syrians, Egyptians, Indians, Persians, Ethiopians, and infinite other nations being barbarous people translated it into their [mother] tongue, and have learned to be [true] Philosophers," he meaneth Christians. [S. Chrysost. in Johan. cap.I. hom.I.] To this may be added Theodoret, as next unto him, both for antiquity, and for learning.

His words be these, "Every Country that is under the Sun, is full of these words (of the Apostles and Prophets) and the Hebrew tongue [he meaneth the Scriptures in the Hebrew tongue] is turned not only into the Language of the Grecians, but also of the Romans, and Egyptians, and Persians, and Indians, and Armenians, and Scythians, and Sauromatians, and briefly into all the Languages that any Nation useth. [Theodor. 5. Therapeut.] So he. In like manner, Ulfilas is reported by Paulus Diaconus and Isidor (and before them by Sozomen) to have translated the Scriptures into the Gothic tongue: [P. Diacon. li. 12.] John Bishop of Sevil by Vasseus, to have turned them into Arabic, about the year of our Lord 717; [Vaseus in Chron. Hispan.] Bede by Cistertiensis, to have turned a great part of them into Saxon: Efnard by Trithemius, to have abridged the French Psalter, as Beded had done the Hebrew, about the year 800: King Alfred by the said Cistertiensis, to have turned the Psalter into Saxon: [Polydor. Virg. 5 histor.] Methodius by Aventinus (printed at Ingolstadt) to have turned the Scriptures into Slavonian: [Aventin. lib. 4.] Valdo, Bishop of Frising by Beatus Rhenanus, to have caused about that time, the Gospels to be translated into Dutch rhythm, yet extant in the Library of Corbinian: [Circa annum 900. B. Rhenan. rerum German. lib 2.] Valdus, by divers to have turned them himself into French, about the year 1160: Charles the Fifth of that name, surnamed the Wise, to have caused them to be turned into French, about 200 years after Valdus his time, of which translation there be many copies yet extant, as witnesseth Beroaldus. Much about that time, even in our King Richard the second’s days, John Trevisa translated them into English, and many English Bibles in written hand are yet to be seen with divers, translated as it is very probable, in that age. So the Syrian translation of the New Testament is in most learned men’s Libraries, of Widminstadius his setting forth, and the Psalter in Arabic is with many, of Augustinus Nebiensis’ setting forth. So Postel affirmeth, that in his travel he saw the Gospels in the Ethiopian tongue; And Ambrose Theusi allegeth the Pslater of the Indians, which he testifieth to have been set forth by Potken in Syrian characters. So that, to have the Scriptures in the mother tongue is not a quaint conceit lately taken up, either by the Lord Cromwell in England, [Thuan.] or by the Lord Radevile in Polony, or by the Lord Ungnadius in the Emperor’s dominion, but hath been thought upon, and put in practice of old, even from the first times of the conversion of any Nation; no doubt, because it was esteemed most profitable, to cause faith to grow in men’s hearts the sooner, and to make them to be able to say with the words of the Psalms, "As we have heard, so we have seen." [Ps 48:8]

THE UNWILLINGNESS OF OUR CHIEF ADVERSARIES, THAT THE SCRIPTURES SHOULD BE DIVULGED IN THE MOTHER TONGUE, ETC.

Now the Church of Rome would seem at the length to bear a motherly affection towards her children, and to allow them the Scriptures in their mother tongue: but indeed it is a gift, not deserving to be called a gift, an unprofitable gift: [Sophecles] they must first get a licence in writing before they may use them, and to get that, they must approve themselves to their
Preface to 1611 Translation

Confessor, that is, to be such as are, if not frozen in the dregs, yet soured with the leaven of their superstition. Howbeit, it seemed too much to Clement the Eighth that there should be any Licence granted to have them in the vulgar tongue, and therefore he overruleth and frustrateth the grant of Pius the Fourth. [See the observation (set forth by Clemen. His authority) upon the 4. rule of Pius the 4. his making in the index, lib. prohib. pag. 15. ver. 5.] So much are they afraid of the light of the Scripture, (Lucifugae Scripturarum, as Tertulian speaketh) that they will not trust the people with it, no not with the Licence of their own Bishops and Inquisitors. Yea, so unwilling they are to communicate the Scriptures to the people's understanding in any sort, that they are not ashamed to confess, that we forced them to translate it into English against their wills. This seemeth to argue a bad cause, or a bad conscience, or both.

Sure we are, that it is not he that hath good gold, that is afraid to bring it to the touchstone, but he that hath the counterfeit; [Tertul. de resur. carnis.] neither is it the true man that shunneth the light, but the malefactor, lest his deeds should be reproved [John 3:20]: neither is it the plaindealing Merchant that is unwilling to have the weights, or the meteyard brought in place, but he that useth deceit. But we will let them alone for this fault, and return to translation.

THE SPEECHES AND REASONS, BOTH OF OUR BRETHREN, AND OF OUR ADVERSARIES AGAINST THIS WORK

Many men’s mouths have been open a good while (and yet are not stopped) with speeches about the Translation so long in hand, or rather perusals of Translations made before: and ask what may be the reason, what the necessity of the employment: Hath the Church been deceived, say they, all this while? Hath her sweet bread been mingled with leaven, here silver with dross, her wine with water, her milk with lime? (Lacte gypsum male miscetur, saith S. Ireney,) [S. Iren. 3. lib. cap. 19.] We hoped that we had been in the right way, that we had the Oracles of God delivered unto us, and that though all the world had cause to be offended and to complain, yet that we had none. Hath the nurse holden out the breast, and nothing but wind in it? Hath the bread been delivered by the fathers of the Church, and the same proved to be lapidosus, as Seneca speaketh? What is it to handle the word of God deceitfully, if this be not? Thus certain brethren. Also the adversaries of Judah and Jerusalem, like Sanballat in Nehemiah, mock, as we hear, both the work and the workmen, saying; "What do these weak Jews, etc. will they make the stones whole again out of the heaps of dust which are burnt? although they build, yet if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stony wall." [Neh 4:3] Was their Translation good before? Why do they now mend it? Was it not good? Why then was it obtruded to the people? Yea, why did the Catholics (meaning Popish Romanists) always go in jeopardy, for refusing to go to hear it? Nay, if it must be translated into English, Catholics are fittest to do it. They have learning, and they know when a thing is well, they can manum de tabula. We will answer them both briefly: and the former, being brethren, thus, with S. Jerome, "Damnamus veteres? Mineme, sed post priorum studia in domo Domini quod possums laboramus." [S. Jerome. Apolog. advers. Ruffin.] That is, "Do we condemn the ancient? In no case: but after the endeavors of them that were before us, we take the best pains we can in the house of God." As if he said, Being provoked by the example of the learned men that lived before my time, I have thought it my duty, to assay whether my talent in the knowledge of the tongues, may be profitable in any measure to God’s Church, lest I should seem to laboured in them in vain, and lest I should be thought to glory in men, (although ancient,) above that which was in them. Thus S. Jerome may be thought to speak.

A SATISFACTION TO OUR BRETHREN

And to the same effect say we, that we are so far off from condemning any of their labors that travailed before us in this kind, either in this land or beyond sea, either in King Henry’s time, or King Edward’s (if there were any translation, or correction of a translation in his time) or Queen Elizabeth’s of ever renowned memory, that we acknowledge them to have been raised up of God, for the building and furnishing of his Church, and that they deserve to be had of us and of posterity in everlasting remembrance. The judgment of Aristotle is worthy and well known: "If Timotheus had not been, we had not had much sweet music; but if Phrynis [Timotheus his master] had not been, we had not had Timotheus." Therefore blessed be they, and most honoured be their name, that break the ice, and giveth onset upon that which helpeth forward to the saving of souls. Now what can be more available thereto, than to deliver God’s book unto God’s people in a tongue which they understand? Since of a hidden treasure, and of a fountain that is sealed, there is no profit, as Ptolemy Philadelph wrote to the Rabbins or masters of the Jews, as witnesseth Epiphanius: [S. Epiphan. loco ante citato.] and as S. Augustin saith; "A man had rather be with his dog than with a stranger (whose tongue is strange unto him)." [S. Augustin. lib. 19. de civil. Dei. c. 7.] Yet for all that, as nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the later thoughts are thought to be the wiser: so, if we building upon their foundation that went before us, and being holpen by their labours, do endeavor to make that better which they left so good; no man, we are sure, hath cause to dislike us; they, we persuade ourselves, if they were alive, would thank us. The vintage of Abienzer, that strake the stroke: yet the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim was not to be despised. See Judges 8:2. Joash the king of Israel did not satisfy himself, till he had smitten the ground three times; and yet he offended the Prophet, for giving over then. [2 Kings 13:18-19] Aquila, of whom we spake before, translated the Bible as carefully, and as skillfully as he could; and yet he thought good to go over it again, and then it got the credit with the Jews, to be called accurately done, as Saint Jerome witnesseth. [S. Jerome. in Ezech. cap. 3.] How many books of profane learning have been gone over again and again, by the same translators, by others? Of one and the same book of Aristotle’s Ethics, there are extant not so few as six or seven several translations. Now if this cost may be bestowed upon the gourd, which affordeth us a little shade, and which today flourisheth, but tomorrow is cut down; what may we bestow, nay what ought we not to bestow upon the Vine, the fruit whereof maketh glad the conscience of man, and the stem whereof abideth forever? And this is the word of God, which we translate. "What is the chaff to the wheat, saith the Lord?" [Jer 23:28] Tanti vitreum, quanti verum margaritum (saith Tertullian.) [Tertul. ad Martyr.] if a toy of glass be of that reckoning with us, how ought we to value the true pearl? [Jerome. ad Salvin.] Therefore let no man’s eye be evil, because his Majesty’s is good; neither let any be grieved, that we have a Prince that seeketh the increase of the spiritual wealth of Israel (let Sanballats and Tobiahs do so, which therefore do bear their just reproof) but let us rather bless God from the ground of our heart, for working this religious care in him, to have the translations of the Bible maturely considered of and examined. For by this means it cometh to pass, that whatsoever is sound already (and all is sound for substance, in one or other of our editions, and the worst of ours far better than their authentic vulgar) the same will shine as gold more brightly, being rubbed and polished; also, if anything be halting, or superfluous, or not so agreeable to the original, the same may be corrected, and the truth set in place. And what can the King command to be done, that will bring him more true honour than this? and wherein could they that have been set a work, approve their duty to the King, yea their obedience to God, and love to his Saints more, than by yielding their service, and all that is within them, for the furnishing of the work? But besides all this, they were the principal motives of it, and therefore ought least to quarrel it: for the very Historical truth is, that upon the importunate petitions of the Puritans, at his Majesty’s coming to this Crown, the Conference at Hampton Court having been appointed for hearing their complaints: when by force of reason they were put from other grounds, they had recourse at the last, to this shift, that they could not with good conscience subscribe to the Communion book, since it maintained the Bible as it was there translated, which was as they said, a most corrupted translation. And although this was judged to be but a very poor and empty shift; yet even hereupon did his Majesty begin to bethink himself of the good that might ensue by a new translation, and presently after gave order for this Translation which is now presented unto thee. Thus much to satisfy our scrupulous Brethren.

AN ANSWER TO THE IMPUTATIONS OF OUR ADVERSARIES

Now to the latter we answer; that we do not deny, nay we affirm and avow, that the very meanest translation of the Bible in English, set forth by men of our profession, (for we have seen none of theirs of the whole Bible as yet) containeth the word of God, nay, is the word of God. As the King’s speech, which he uttereth in Parliament, being translated into French, Dutch, Italian, and Latin, is still the King’s speech, though it be not interpreted by every Translator with the like grace, nor peradventure so fitly for phrase, nor so expressly for sense, everywhere. For it is confessed, that things are to take their denomination of the greater part; and a natural man could say, Verum ubi multa nitent in carmine, non ego paucis offender
A man may be counted a virtuous man, though he have made many slips in his life, (else, there were none virtuous, for in many things we offend all) [James 3:2] also a comely man and lovely, though he have some warts upon his hand, yea, not only freckles upon his face, but also scars. No cause therefore why the word translated should be denied to be the word, or forbidden to be current, notwithstanding that some imperfections and blemishes may be noted in the setting forth of it. For whatever was perfect under the Sun, where Apostles or Apostolic men, that is, men endued with an extraordinary measure of God’s spirit, and privileged with the privilege of infallibility, had not their hand? The Romanists therefore in refusing to hear, and daring to burn the Word translated, did no less than despite the spirit of grace, from whom originally it proceeded, and whose sense and meaning, as well as man’s weakness would enable, it did express. Judge by an example or two. Plutarch writeth, that after that Rome had been burnt by the Gauls, they fell soon to build it again: but doing it in haste, they did not cast the streets, nor proportion the houses in such comely fashion, as had been most slightly and convenient; [Plutarch in Camillo.] was Catiline therefore an honest man, or a good patriot, that sought to bring it to a combustion? or Nero a good Prince, that did indeed set it on fire? So, by the story of Ezra, and the prophecy of Haggai it may be gathered, that the Temple built by Zerubbabel after the return from Babylon, was by no means to be compared to the former built by Solomon (for they that remembered the former, wept when they considered the latter) [Ezra 3:12] notwithstanding, might this latter either have been abhorred and forsaken by the Jews, or profaned by the Greeks? The like we are to think of Translations. The translation of the Seventy dissenteth from the Original in many places, neither doth it come near it, for perspicuity, gravity, majesty; yet which of the Apostles did condemn it? Condemn it? Nay, they used it, (as it is apparent, and as Saint Jerome and most learned men do confess) which they would not have done, nor by their example of using it, so grace and commend it to the Church, if it had been unworthy of the appellation and name of the word of God. And whereas they urge for their second defence of their vilifying and abusing of the English Bibles, or some pieces thereof, which they meet with, for that heretics (forsooth) were the Authors of the translations, (heretics they call us by the same right that they call themselves Catholics, both being wrong) we marvel what divinity taught them so. We are sure Tertullian was of another mind: Ex personis probamus fidem, an ex fide personas? [Tertul. de praescript. contra haereses.] Do we try men’s faith by their persons? we should try their persons by their faith. Also S. Augustine was of another mind: for he lighting upon certain rules made by Tychonius a Donatist, for the better understanding of the word, was not ashamed to make use of them, yea, to insert them into his own book, with giving commendation to them so far forth as they were worthy to be commended, as is to be seen in S. Augustine’s third book De doctrina Christiana. [S. August. 3. de doct. Christ. cap. 30.] To be short, Origen, and the whole Church of God for certain hundred years, were of another mind: for they were so far from treading under foot, (much more from burning) the Translation of Aquila a Proselyte, that is, one that had turned Jew; of Symmachus, and Theodotion, both Ebionites, that is, most vile heretics, that they joined together with the Hebrew Original, and the Translation of the Seventy (as hath been before signified out of Epiphanius) and set them forth openly to be considered of and perused by all. But we weary the unlearned, who need not know so much, and trouble the learned, who know it already.

Yet before we end, we must answer a third cavil and objection of theirs against us, for altering and amending our Translations so oft; wherein truly they deal hardly, and strangely with us. For to whomever was it imputed for a fault (by such as were wise) to go over that which he had done, and to amend it where he saw cause? Saint Augustine was not afraid to exhort S. Jerome to a Palinodia or recantation; [S. Aug. Epist. 9.] and doth even glory that he seeth his infirmities. [S. Aug. Epist. 8.] If we be sons of the Truth, we must consider what it speaketh, and trample upon our own credit, yea, and upon other men’s too, if either be any way an hindrance to it. This to the cause: then to the persons we say, that of all men they ought to be most silent in this case. For what varieties have they, and what alterations have they made, not only of their Service books, Portesses and Breviaries, but also of their Latin Translation? The Service book supposed to be made by S. Ambrose (Officium Ambrosianum) was a great while in special use and request; but Pope Hadrian calling a Council with the aid of Charles the Emperor, abolished it, yea, burnt it, and commanded the Service book of Saint Gregory universally to be used. [Durand. lib. 5. cap. 2.] Well, Officium Gregorianum gets by this means to be in credit, but doth it continue without change or altering? No, the very Roman Service was of two fashions, the New fashion, and the Old, (the one used in one Church, the other in another) as is to be seen in Pamelius a Romanist, his Preface, before Micrologus. the same Pamelius reporteth out Radulphus de Rivo, that about the year of our Lord, 1277, Pope Nicolas the Third removed out of the Churches of Rome, the more ancient books (of Service) and brought into use the Missals of the Friers Minorites, and commanded them to be observed there; insomuch that about an hundred years after, when the above name Radulphus happened to be at Rome, he found all the books to be new, (of the new stamp). Neither were there this chopping and changing in the more ancient times only, but also of late: Pius Quintus himself confesseth, that every Bishopric almost had a peculiar kind of service, most unlike to that which others had: which moved him to abolish all other Breviaries, though never so ancient, and privileged and published by Bishops in their Dioceses, and to establish and ratify that only which was of his own setting forth, in the year 1568. Now when the father of their Church, who gladly would heal the sore of the daughter of his people softly and slightly, and make the best of it, findeth so great fault with them for their odds and jarring; we hope the children have no great cause to vaunt of their uniformity. But the difference that appeareth between our Translations, and our often correcting of them, is the thing that we are specially charged with; let us see therefore whether they themselves be without fault this way, (if it be to be counted a fault, to correct) and whether they be fit men to throw stones at us: O tandem maior parcas insane minori: they that are less sound themselves, out not to object infirmities to others. [Horat.] If we should tell them that Valla, Stapulensis, Erasmus, and Vives found fault with their vulgar Translation, and consequently wished the same to be mended, or a new one to be made, they would answer peradventure, that we produced their enemies for witnesses against them; albeit, they were in no other sort enemies, than as S. Paul was to the Galatians, for telling them the truth [Gal 4:16]: and it were to be wished, that they had dared to tell it them plainlier and oftener. But what will they say to this, that Pope Leo the Tenth allowed Erasmus’ Translation of the New Testament, so much different from the vulgar, by his Apostolic Letter and Bull; that the same Leo exhorted Pagnine to translate the whole Bible, and bare whatsoever charges was necessary for the work? [Sixtus Senens.] Surely, as the Apostle reasoneth to the Hebrews, that if the former Law and Testament had been sufficient, there had been no need of the latter: [Heb 7:11 and 8:7] so we may say, that if the old vulgar had been at all points allowable, to small purpose had labour and charges been undergone, about framing of a new. If they say, it was one Pope’s private opinion, and that he consulted only himself; then we are able to go further with them, and to aver, that more of their chief men of all sorts, even their own Trent champions Paiva and Vega, and their own Inquisitors, Hieronymus ab Oleastro, and their own Bishop Isidorus Clarius, and their own Cardinal Thomas a Vio Caietan, do either make new Translations themselves, or follow new ones of other men’s making, or note the vulgar Interpreter for halting; none of them fear to dissent from him, nor yet to except against him. And call they this an uniform tenor of text and judgment about the text, so many of their Worthies disclaiming the now received conceit? Nay, we will yet come nearer the quick: doth not their Paris edition differ from the Lovaine, and Hentenius his from them both, and yet all of them allowed by authority? Nay, doth not Sixtus Quintus confess, that certain Catholics (he meaneoth certain of his own side) were in such an humor of translating the Scriptures into Latin, that Satan taking occasion by them, though they thought of no such matter, did strive what he could, out of so uncertain and manifold a variety of Translations, so to mingle all things, that nothing might seem to be left certain and firm in them, etc.? [Sixtus 5. praeafat. fixa Bibliis.] Nay, further, did not the same Sixtus ordain by an inviolable decree, and that with the counsel and consent of his Cardinals, that the Latin edition of the old and new Testament, which the Council of Trent would have to be authentic, is the same without controversy which he then set forth, being diligently corrected and printed in the Printinghouse of Vatican? Thus Sixtus in his Preface before his Bible. And yet Clement the Eighth his immediate successor, published another edition of the Bible, containing in it infinite differences from that of Sixtus, (and many of them weighty and material) and yet this must be authentic by all means. What is to have the faith of our glorious Lord JESUS CHRIST with Yea or Nay, if this be not? Again, what is sweet harmony and consent, if this be? Therefore, as Demaratus of Corinth advised a great King, before he talked of the dissensions of the Grecians, to compose his domestic broils (for at that time his Queen and his son and heir were at deadly feud with him) so all the while that our adversaries do make so many and so various editions themselves, and do jar so much about the worth and authority of them, they can with no show of equity challenge us for changing and correcting.

THE PURPOSE OF THE TRANSLATORS, WITH THEIR NUMBER, FURNITURE, CARE, ETC.
But it is high time to leave them, and to show in brief what we proposed to ourselves, and what course we held in this our perusal and survey of the Bible. Truly (good Christian Reader) we never thought from the beginning, that we should need to make a new Translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one, (for then the imputation of Sixtus had been true in some sort, that our people had been fed with gall of Dragons instead of wine, with whey instead of milk:) but to make a good one better, or out of many good ones, one principal good one, not justly to be excepted against; that hath been our endeavor, that our mark. To that purpose there were many chosen, that were greater in other men’s eyes than in their own, and that sought the truth rather than their own praise. Again, they came or were thought to come to the work, not exercendi causa (as one saith) but exercitati, that is, learned, not to learn: For the chief overseer and [NOTE: Greek letters omitted] under his Majesty, to whom not only we, but also our whole Church was much bound, knew by his wisdom, which thing also Nazianzen taught so long ago, that it is a preposterous order to teach first and to learn after, yea that [NOTE: Greek letters omitted] to learn and practice together, is neither commendable for the workman, nor safe for the work. [Idem in Apologet.] Therefore such were thought upon, as could say modestly with Saint Jerome, Et Hebreaeum Sermonem ex parte didicimus, et in Latino pene ab ipsis incunabulis etc. detriti sumus. "Both we have learned the Hebrew tongue in part, and in the Latin we have been exercised almost from our very cradle." S. Jerome maketh no mention of the Greek tongue, wherein yet he did excel, because he translated not the old Testament out of Greek, but out of Hebrew. And in what sort did these assemble? In the trust of their own knowledge, or of their sharpness of wit, or deepness of judgment, as it were in an arm of flesh? At no hand. They trusted in him that hath the key of David, opening and no man shutting; they prayed to the Lord the Father of our Lord, to the effect that S. Augustine did; "O let thy Scriptures be my pure delight, let me not be deceived in them, neither let me deceive by them." [S. Aug. lib. II. Confess. cap. 2.] In this confidence, and with this devotion did they assemble together; not too many, lest one should trouble another; and yet many, lest many things haply might escape them. If you ask what they had before them, truly it was the Hebrew text of the Old Testament, the Greek of the New. These are the two golden pipes, or rather conduits, where-through the olive branches empty themselves into the gold. Saint Augustine calleth them precedent, or original tongues; [S. August. 3. de doctr. c. 3. etc.] Saint Jerome, fountains. [S. Jerome. ad Suniam et Fretel.] The same Saint Jerome affirmeth, [S. Jerome. ad Lucinium, Dist. 9 ut veterum.] and Gratian hath not spared to put it into his Decree, That "as the credit of the old Books" (he meaneth of the Old Testament) "is to be tried by the Hebrew Volumes, so of the New by the Greek tongue," he meaneth by the original Greek. If truth be tried by these tongues, then whence should a Translation be made, but out of them? These tongues therefore, the Scriptures we say in those tongues, we set before us to translate, being the tongues wherein God was pleased to speak to his Church by the Prophets and Apostles. Neither did we run over the work with that posting haste that the Septuagint did, if that be true which is reported of them, that they finished it in 72 days; [Joseph. Antiq. lib. 12.] neither were we barred or hindered from going over it again, having once done it, like S. Jerome, if that be true which himself reporteth, that he could no sooner write anything, but presently it was caught from him, and published, and he could not have leave to mend it: [S. Jerome. ad Pammac. pro libr. advers. Iovinian.] neither, to be short, were we the first that fell in hand with translating the Scripture into English, and consequently destitute of former helps, as it is written of Origen, that he was the first in a manner, that put his hand to write Commentaries upon the Scriptures, [Sophoc. in Elect.] and therefore no marvel, if he overshot himself many times. None of these things: the work hath not been huddled up in 72 days, but hath cost the workmen, as light as it seemeth, the pains of twice seven times seventy two days and more:

matters of such weight and consequence are to be speeded with maturity: for in a business of movement a man feareth not the blame of convenient slackness. [S. Chrysost. in II. Thess. cap. 2.] Neither did we think much to consult the Translators or Commentators, Chaldee, Hebrew, Syrian, Greek or Latin, no nor the Spanish, French, Italian, or Dutch; neither did we disdain to revise that which we had done, and to bring back to the anvil that which we had hammered: but having and using as great helps as were needful, and fearing no reproach for slowness, nor coveting praise for expedition, we have at length, through the good hand of the Lord upon us, brought the work to that pass that you see.
Some peradventure would have no variety of senses to be set in the margin, lest the authority of the Scriptures for deciding of controversies by that show of uncertainty, should somewhat be shaken. But we hold their judgment not to be sound in this point. For though, "whatsoever things are necessary are manifest," as S. Chrysostom saith, [S. Chrysost. in II. Thess. cap. 2.] and as S. Augustine, "In those things that are plainly set down in the Scriptures, all such matters are found that concern Faith, Hope, and Charity. [S. Aug. 2. de doctr. Christ. cap. 9.] Yet for all that it cannot be dissembled, that partly to exercise and whet our wits, partly to wean the curious from the loathing of them for their everywhere plainness, partly also to stir up our devotion to crave the assistance of God's spirit by prayer, and lastly, that we might be forward to seek aid of our brethren by conference, and never scorn those that be not in all respects so complete as they should be, being to seek in many things ourselves, it hath pleased God in his divine providence, here and there to scatter words and sentences of that difficulty and doubtfulness, not in doctrinal points that concern salvation, (for in such it hath been vouchèd that the Scriptures are plain) but in matters of less moment, that fearfulness would better beseem us than confidence, and if we will resolve upon modesty with S. Augustine, (though not in this same case altogether, yet upon the same ground) Melius est debitare de occultis, quam litigare de incertis. [S. Aug li. S. de Genes. ad liter. cap. 5.] "it is better to make doubt of those things which are secret, than to strive about those things that are uncertain." There be many words in the Scriptures, which be never found there but once, (having neither brother or neighbor, as the Hebrews speak) so that we cannot be holpen by conference of places.

Again, there be many rare names of certain birds, beasts and precious stones, etc. concerning the Hebrews themselves are so divided among themselves for judgment, that they may seem to have defined this or that, rather because they would say something, than because they were sure of that which they said, as S. Jerome somewhere saith of the Septuagint. Now in such a case, doth not a margin do well to admonish the Reader to seek further, and not to conclude or dogmatize upon this or that peremptorily? For as it is a fault of incredulity, to doubt of those things that are evident: so to determine of such things as the Spirit of God hath left (even in the judgment of the judicious) questionable, can be no less than presumption. Therefore as S. Augustine saith, that variety of Translations is profitable for the finding out of the sense of the Scriptures: [S. Aug. 2. De doctr. Christian. cap. 14.] so diversity of signification and sense in the margin, where the text is no so clear, must needs do good, yea, is necessary, as we are persuaded. We know that Sixtus Quintus expressly forbiddeth, that any variety of readings of their vulgar edition, should be put in the margin, [Sixtus 5. praef. Bibliae.] (which though it be not altogether the same thing to that we have in hand, yet it looketh that way) but we think he hath not all of his own side his favorers, for this conceit. They that are wise, had rather have their judgments at liberty in differences of readings, than to be captivated to one, when it may be the other. If they were sure that their high Priest had all laws shut up in his breast, as Paul the Second bragged, [Plat. in Paulo secundo.] and that he were as free from error by special privilege, as the Dictators of Rome were made by law inviolable, it were another matter; then his word were an Oracle, his opinion a decision. But the eyes of the world are now open, God be thanked, and have been a great while, they find that he is subject to the same affections and infirmities that others be, that his skin is penetrable, and therefore so much as he proveth, not as much as he claimeth, they grant and embrace.

Another things we think good to admonish thee of (gentle Reader) that we have not tied ourselves to an uniformity of phrasing, or to an identity of words, as some peradventure would wish that we had done, because they observe, that some learned men somewhere, have been as exact as they could that way. Truly, that we might not vary from the sense of that which we had translated before, if the word signified that same in both places (for there be some words that be not the same sense everywhere) we were especially careful, and made a conscience, according to our duty. But, that we should express the same notion in the same particular word; as for example, if we translate the Hebrew or Greek word once by PURPOSE, never to call it INTENT; if one where JOURNEYING, never TRAVELING; if one where THINK, never SUPPOSE; if one where PAIN, never ACHE; if one where JOY, never GLADNESS, etc. Thus to mince the matter, we thought to savour more of curiosity than wisdom, and that rather it would breed scorn in the Atheist, than bring profit to the godly Reader. For is the kingdom of God to become words or syllables? why should we be in bondage to them if we may be free, use one precisely when we may use another no less fit, as commodiously? A godly Father in the Primitive time showed himself greatly moved, that one of newfangledness called [NOTE: Greek omitted but was a dispute over the word for "a bed"] [Niceph. Calist. lib.8. cap.42.] though the difference be little or none; and another reporteth that he was much abused for turning "Cucurbita" (to which reading the people had been used) into "Hedera". [S. Jerome in 4. Ionae. See S. Aug: epist. 10.] Now if this happens in better times, and upon so small occasions, we might justly fear hard censure, if generally we should make verbal and unnecessary changings. We might also be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words. For as it is written of a certain great Philosopher, that he should say, that those logs were happy that were made images to be worshipped; for their fellows, as good as they, lay for blocks behind the fire: so if we should say, as it were, unto certain words, Stand up higher, have a place in the Bible always, and to others of like quality, Get ye hence, be banished forever, we might be taxed peradventure with S. James his words, namely, "To be partial in ourselves and judges of evil thoughts." Add hereunto, that niceness in words was always counted the next step to trifling, and so was to be curious about names too: also that we cannot follow a better pattern for elocution than God himself; therefore he using divers words, in his holy writ, and indifferently for one thing in nature: [see Euseb. li. 12. ex Platon.] we, if we will not be superstitious, may use the same liberty in our English versions out of Hebrew and Greek, for that copy or store that he hath given us. Lastly, we have on the one side avoided the scrupulosity of the Puritans, who leave the old Ecclesiastical words, and betake them to other, as when they put WASHING for BAPTISM, and CONGREGATION instead of CHURCH: as also on the other side we have shunned the obscurity of the Papists, who use AZIMES, TUNIKE, RATIONAL, HOLOCAUSTS, PRAEPUCE, PASCHE, and a number of such like, whereof their late Translation is full, and that of purpose to darken the sense, that since they must needs translate the Bible, yet by the language thereof, it may be kept from being understood. But we desire that the Scripture may speak like itself, as in the language of Canaan, that it may be understood even of the very vulgar.

Many other things we might give thee warning of (gentle Reader) if we had not exceeded the measure of a Preface already. It remaineth, that we commend thee to God, and to the Spirit of his grace, which is able to build further than we can ask or think. He removeth the scales from our eyes, the vail from our hearts, opening our wits that we may understand his word, enlarging our hearts, yea correcting our affections, that we may love it to the end. Ye are brought unto fountains of living water which ye digged not; do not cast earth into them with the Philistines, neither prefer broken pits before them with the wicked Jews. [Gen 26:15. Jer 2:13.] Others have laboured, and you may enter into their labours; O receive not so great things in vain, O despise not so great salvation! Be not like swine to tread under foot so precious things, neither yet like dogs to tear and abuse holy things. Say not to our Saviour with the Gergesites, Depart out of our coast [Matt 8:34]; neither yet with Esau sell your birthright for a mess of pottage [Heb 12:16]. If light be come into the world, love not darkness more than light; if food, if clothing be offered, go not naked, starve not yourselves. Remember the advice of Nazianzene, "It is a grievous thing” (or dangerous) "to neglect a great fair, and to seek to make markets afterwards: also the encouragement of S. Chrysostom, "It is altogether impossible, that he that is sober” (and watchful) "should at any time be neglected:" [S. Chrysost. in epist. ad Rom. cap. 14. oral. 26.] Lastly, the admonition and menacing of S. Augustine, "They that despise God’s will inviting them, shall feel God’s will taking vengeance of them." [S. August. ad artic. sibi falso object. Artic. 16.] It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God; [Heb 10:31] but a blessed thing it is, and will bring us to everlasting blessedness in the end, when God speaketh unto us, to hearken; when he setteth his word before us, to read it; when he stretcheth out his hand and calleth, to answer, Here am I, here we are to do thy will, O God. The Lord work a care and conscience in us to know him and serve him, that we may be acknowledged of him at the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom with the holy Ghost, be all praise and thanksgiving.

Amen.
Old Testament
{1:1} In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. {1:2} And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness [was] upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

{1:3} And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. {1:4} And God saw the light, that [it was] good: and God divided the light from the darkness. {1:5} And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

{1:6} And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. {1:7} And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. {1:8} And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

{1:9} And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry [land] appear: and it was so. {1:10} And God called the dry [land] Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that [it was] good. {1:11} And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature, and herd of cattle, and every fowl of the air; and let them multiply in the earth. {1:12} And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature, and herd of cattle, and every fowl of the air; and let them multiply in the earth.

{1:13} And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, [and] the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed [is] in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. {1:14} And the earth brought forth grass, the herb yielding seed, [and] the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed [was] in itself, after his kind: and God saw that [it was] good. {1:15} And the evening and the morning were the third day.

{1:16} And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: {1:17} And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. {1:18} And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: [he made] the stars also. {1:19} And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, [to give] light upon the earth. {1:20} And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that [it was] good. {1:21} And God made the morning and the evening the fourth day. {1:22} And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl [that] may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. {1:23} And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that [it was] good. {1:24} And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. {1:25} And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

{1:26} And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. {1:27} So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. {1:28} And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

{1:29} And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which [is] upon the face of the earth, and every tree, in which [is] the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. {1:30} And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein [there is] life, [I have given] every green herb for meat: and it was so. {1:31} And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, [it was] very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

{2:1} Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. {2:2} And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. {2:3} And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

{2:4} These [are] the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, {2:5} And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and [there was] not a man to till the ground. {2:6} But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. {2:7} And the LORD God formed man [of] the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

{2:8} And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. {2:9} And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. {2:10} And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. {2:11} The name of the first [is] Pison: that [is] it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where [there is] gold: {2:12} And the gold of that land [is] good: there [is] bdellium and the onyx stone. {2:13} And the name of the second river [is] Gihon: the same [is] it which compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia. {2:14} And the name of the third river [is] Hiddekel: that [is] it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river [is] Euphrates. {2:15} And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. {2:16} And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: {2:17} But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

{2:18} And the LORD God said, [It is] not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. {2:19} And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought [them] unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that [was] the name thereof. {2:20} And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him. {2:21} And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; {2:22} And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. {2:23} And Adam said, This is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. {2:24} Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh. {2:25} And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

{3:1} Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

{3:2} And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: {3:3} But of the fruit of the tree which [is] in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. {3:4} And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: {3:5} For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. {3:6} And when the woman saw that the tree [was] good for food, and that it [was] pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. {3:7} And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they [were] naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. {3:8} And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. {3:9} And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where [art] thou? {3:10} And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden; and I was afraid, because I [was] naked; and I hid myself. {3:11} And he said, Who told thee that thou [wast] naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? {3:12} And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. {3:13} And the LORD God said unto the woman, What [is] this [that] thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. {3:14} And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou [art] cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: {3:15} And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. {3:16} Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire [shall be] to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. {3:17} And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed [is] the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; {3:18} Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth unto thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; {3:19} In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou [art] and unto dust shalt thou return. {3:20} And Adam called his wife’s name Eve; because she was the mother of all living. {3:21} Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them. {3:22} And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever: {3:23} Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. {3:24} So he drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

{4:1} And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD. {4:2} And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. {4:3} And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD. {4:4} And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering: {4:5} But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell. {4:6} And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? {4:7} If thou dost well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou dost not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee [shall be] his desire, and thou shalt rule over him. {4:8} And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

{4:9} And the LORD said unto Cain, Where [is] Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: [Am] I my brother’s keeper? {4:10} And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother’s blood crieth unto me from the ground. {4:11} And now [art] thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother’s blood from thy hand; {4:12} When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth. {4:13} And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment [is] greater than I can bear. {4:14} Behold, thou hast driven me out from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, [that] every one that findeth me shall slay me. {4:15} And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

{4:16} And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden. {4:17} And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch. {4:18} And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

{4:19} And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one [was] Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. {4:20} And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and [of such as have] cattle. {4:21} And his brother’s name [was] Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ. {4:22} And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-\-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain [was] Naamah. {4:23} And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounded, and a young man to my hurt. {4:24} If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

[4:25] And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, [said she] hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew. [4:26] And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Adam, in the day when they were created.

[5:1] This [is] the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; [5:2] Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

[5:3] And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat [a son] in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth: [5:4] And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred and ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:5] And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died. [5:6] And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos: [5:7] And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:8] And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

[5:9] And Enos lived ninety years, and begat Cainian: [5:10] And Enos lived after he begat Cainian eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:11] And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

[5:12] And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat Mahalaleel: [5:13] And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:14] And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

[5:15] And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jared: [5:16] And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:17] And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

[5:18] And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch: [5:19] And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:20] And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.

[5:21] And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat Methuselah: [5:22] And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:23] And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years: [5:24] And Enoch walked with God: and he [was] not; for God took him. [5:25] And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lamech: [5:26] And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:27] And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died.

[5:28] And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years: and he begat a son: [5:29] And he called his name Noah, saying, This [same] shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD hath cursed. [5:30] And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters: [5:31] And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died. [5:32] And Noah was five hundred years old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

[6:1] And it came to pass, when men began to multiply upon the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, [6:2] That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they [were] fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. [6:3] And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also [is] flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. [6:4] There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare [children] to them, the same [became] mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

[6:5] And GOD saw that the wickedness of man [was] great in the earth, and [that] every imagination of the thoughts of his heart [was] only evil continually. [6:6] And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. [6:7] And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. [6:8] But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

[6:9] These [are] the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man [and] perfect in his generations, [and] Noah walked with God. [6:10] And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. [6:11] The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. [6:12] And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. [6:13] And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

[6:14] Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. [6:15] And this [is the fashion] which thou shalt make it [of]: The length of the ark [shall be] three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits. [6:16] A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; [with] lower, second, and third [stories] shalt thou make it. [6:17] And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein [is] the breath of life, from under heaven; [and] every thing that [is] in the earth shall die. [6:18] But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. [6:19] And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every [sort] shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep [them] alive with thee; they shall be male and female. [6:20] Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every [sort] shall come unto thee, to keep [them] alive. [6:21] And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather [it] to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them. [6:22] Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

[7:1] And the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation. [7:2] Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that [are] not clean by two, the male and his female. [7:3] Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.
[7:4] For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth. [7:5] And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him. [7:6] And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

[7:7] And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons’ wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. [7:8] Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth. [7:9] There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah. [7:10] And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

[7:11] In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened. [7:12] And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. [7:13] In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah’s wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark; [7:14] They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort. [7:15] And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein [is] the breath of life: [7:16] And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

[7:17] And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth. [7:18] And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters. [7:19] And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered. [7:20] Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered. [7:21] And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man: [7:22] All in whose nostrils [was] the breath of life, of all that [was] in the dry [land,] died. [7:23] And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and beast, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth; and Noah only remained [alive,] and they that [were] with him in the ark. [7:24] And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

[8:1] And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that [was] with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged; [8:2] The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained; [8:3] And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated. [8:4] And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. [8:5] And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth [month,] on the first [day] of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

[8:6] And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made: [8:7] And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth. [8:8] Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground; [8:9] But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark. [8:10] And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark; [8:11] And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth [was] an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. [8:12] And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

[8:13] And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first [month,] the first [day] of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry. [8:14] And in the second month, on the seventh and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

[8:15] And God spake unto Noah, saying, [8:16] Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons’ wives with thee. [8:17] Bring forth with thee every living thing that [is] with thee, of all flesh, [both] of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. [8:18] And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons’ wives with him: [8:19] Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, [and] whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

[8:20] And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. [8:21] And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man’s sake; for the imagination of man’s heart [is] evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more any thing living, as I have done. [8:22] While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

[9:1] And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. [9:2] And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth [upon] the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered. [9:3] Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. [9:4] But flesh with the life thereof, [which is] the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. [9:5] And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man’s brother will I require the life of man. [9:6] Whoso sheddeth man’s blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. [9:7] And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

[9:8] And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, [9:9] And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you; [9:10] And with every living creature that [is] with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you: from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth. [9:11] And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth. [9:12] And

<td>And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan. These [are] the three sons of Noah: and of them was the whole earth overspread. 9:20 And Noah began [to be] an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard: 9:21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent. 9:22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without. 9:23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid [it] upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces [were] backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness. 9:24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him. 9:25 And he said, Cursed [be] Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren. 9:26 And he said, Blessed [be] the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant. 9:27 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant. 9:28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. 9:29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.</td>

<td>Now these [are] the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were born sons after the flood. 10:2 The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. 10:3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. 10:4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. 10:5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations. 10:6 And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan. 10:7 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan. 10:8 And Cush begat Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one in the earth. 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. 10:10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. 10:11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, 10:12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same [is] a great city. 10:13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 10:14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim (out of whom came Philistim), and Caphtorim. 10:15 And Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth, 10:16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite, and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. 10:19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha. 10:20 These [are] the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, [and] in their nations. 10:21 Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were [children] born. 10:22 The children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram. 10:23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash. 10:24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber. 10:25 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one [was] Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name [was] Joktan. 10:26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazar-maveth, and Jerah, 10:27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, 10:28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, 10:29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these [were] the sons of Joktan. 10:30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar a mount of the east. 10:31 These [are] the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations. 10:32 These [are] the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.</td>

| 11:1 | And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. 11:2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. 11:3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. 11:4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top [may reach] unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of all the earth. 11:5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. 11:6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people [is] one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. 11:7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth; and they left off to build the city. 11:9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth. 11:10 These [are] the generations of Shem: Shem [was] an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood: 11:11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. 11:12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah: 11:13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters. 11:14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber: 11:15 And Allah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters. 11:16 And Eber lived after him four hundred years, and begat Peleg: 11:17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters. 11:18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu: 11:19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters. {11:20} And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug: {11:21} And Serug lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters. {11:22} And Serug lived three years, and begat Nahor: {11:23} And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters. {11:24} And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah: {11:25} And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters. {11:26} And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

{11:27} Now these [are] the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot. {11:28} And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees. {11:29} And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram’s wife [was] Sarai; and the name of Nahor’s wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah. {11:30} But Sarai was barren; she [had] no child. {11:31} And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son’s son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram’s wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there. {11:32} And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

{12:1} Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house, unto a land that I will shew thee: {12:2} And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: {12:3} And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: {12:4} So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram [was] seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran. {12:5} And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother’s son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan they came.

{12:6} And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite [was] then in the land. {12:7} And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him. {12:8} And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, [having] Bethel on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD. {12:9} And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

{12:10} And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine [was] grievous in the land. {12:11} And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou [art] a fair woman to look upon: {12:12} Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This [is] his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive. {12:13} Say, I pray thee, thou [art] my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

{12:14} And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she [was] very fair. {12:15} The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house. {12:16} And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

{12:17} And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram’s wife. {12:18} And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What [is] this [that] thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she [was] thy wife? {12:19} Why saidst thou, She [is] my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take [her,] and go thy way. {12:20} And Pharaoh commanded [his] men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

{13:1} And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south. {13:2} And Abram [was] very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. {13:3} And he went on his journeys from the south even to Bethuel, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Hai; {13:4} Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

{13:5} And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. {13:6} And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. {13:7} And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram’s cattle and the herdmen of Lot’s cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land. {13:8} And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen: for we [be] brethren. {13:9} [Is] not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if [thou wilt take] the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if [thou depart] to the right hand, then I will go to the left. {13:10} And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it [was] well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, [even] as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. {13:11} Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other. {13:12} Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched [his] tent toward Sodom. {13:13} But the men of Sodom [were] wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

{13:14} And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: {13:15} For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. {13:16} And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, [then] shall thy seed also be numbered. {13:17} Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee. {13:18} Then Abram removed [his] tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which [is] in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

{14:1} And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations: {14:2} [That these] made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. {14:3} All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea. {14:4} Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. {14:5} And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that [were] with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim, [14:6] And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El paran, which [is] by the wilderness.

{14:7} And they returned, and came to En mishpat, which [is] Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwelt in Hazezon tamar. {14:8} And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (the same [is] Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim; [14:9] With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five. [14:10] And the vale of Siddim [was full of] slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain. [14:11] And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way. [14:12] And they took Lot, Abram’s brother’s son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

{14:13} And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these [were] confederate with Abram. [14:14] And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained [servants,] born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued [them] unto Dan. [14:15] And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which [is] of Spima, upon the left hand of Damascus. [14:16] And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

{14:17} And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that [were] with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which [is] the king’s dale. [14:18] And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he [was] the priest of the most high God. [14:19] And he blessed him, and said, Blessed [be] Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth: [14:20] And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all. [14:21] And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself. [14:22] And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth, [14:23] That I will not [take] from a thread even to a shoelatch, and that I will not take any thing that [is] thine. lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich: [14:24] Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Aner, Eschol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

{15:1} After these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram: I [am] thy shield, [and] thy exceeding great reward. [15:2] And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus? [15:3] And Abram said, Behold, to me thou gavest no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir. [15:4] And, behold, the word of the LORD [came] unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir. [15:5] And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be. [15:6] And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness. [15:7] And he said unto him, I [am] the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it. [15:8] And he said, Lord GOD, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? [15:9] And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. [15:10] And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not. [15:11] And when the fowls came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away. [15:12] And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him. [15:13] And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land [that is] not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years; [15:14] And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance. [15:15] And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace: thou shalt be buried in a good old age. [15:16] But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites [is] not yet full. [15:17] And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces. [15:18] In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates: [15:19] The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, [15:20] And the Canaanites, and the Girgasites, and the Jebusites.

{16:1} Now Sarai Abram’s wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name [was] Hagar. [16:2] And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. [16:3] And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai. [16:4] And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. [16:5] And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong [be] upon thee: I have given my maid into thy hand; and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee. [16:6] And Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid [is] in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

{16:7} And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. [16:8] And he said, Hagar, Sarai’s maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai. [16:9] And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and be in service to her: great trouble [is] before her: and she shall return to thee. [16:10] And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and be in service to her: great trouble [is] before her: and she shall return to thee. [16:11] And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou [art] with child, and shall bear a son, and shall call his name Ishmael; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction. [16:12] And he will be a wild man; his hand [will be] against every man, and every man’s hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren. [16:13] And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me? [16:14] Wherefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; behold, [it is] between Kadesh and Bered.

[16:15] And Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael. [16:16] And Abram [was] fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

[17:1] And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I [am] the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect. [17:2] And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. [17:3] And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying, [17:4] As for me, behold, my covenant [is] with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. [17:5] Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. [17:6] And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. [17:7] And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. [17:8] And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

[17:9] And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. [17:10] This [is] my covenant, which thou shalt keep, between me and thee and thy seed after thee: Every man child among you shall be circumcised. [17:11] And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. [17:12] And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which [is] not of thy seed. [17:13] He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. [17:14] And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

[17:15] And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah [shall] her name [be]. [17:16] And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be [a mother] of nations; kings of people shall be of her. [17:17] Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall [a child] be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear? [17:18] And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee! [17:19] And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, [and] with his seed after him. [17:20] And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation. [17:21] But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year. [17:22] And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

[17:23] And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house: and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him. [17:24] And Abraham [was] ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. [17:25] And Ishmael his son [was] thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. [17:26] In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son. [17:27] And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

[18:1] And the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre; and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day; [18:2] And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw [them,] he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground. [18:3] And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant: [18:4] Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree: [18:5] And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said. [18:6] And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead [it,] and make cakes upon the hearth. [18:7] And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave [it] unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it. [18:8] And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set [it] before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

[18:9] And they said unto him, Where [is] Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. [18:10] And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life: and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard [it] in the tent door, which [was] behind him. [18:11] Now Abraham and Sarah [were] old [and] well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. [18:12] Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? [18:13] And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old? [18:14] Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. [18:15] Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh. [18:16] And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way. [18:17] And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; [18:18] Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? [18:19] For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. [18:20] And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; [18:21] I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know. [18:22] And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD. [18:23] And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? {18:24} Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that [are] therein? {18:25} That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? {18:26} And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. {18:27} And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which [am but] dust and ashes: {18:28} Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for [lack of] five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy [it.] {18:29} And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do [it] for forty’s sake. {18:30} And he said [unto him,] Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do [it] if I find thirty there. {18:31} And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy [it] for twenty’s sake. {18:32} And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy [it] for ten’s sake. {18:33} And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left commuting with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

{19:1} And there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing [them] rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground; {19:2} And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, unto your servants’ house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night. {19:3} And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

{19:4} But before they lay down, the men of the city, [even] the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter: {19:5} And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where [are] the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them. {19:6} And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him. {19:7} And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly: {19:8} Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as [is] good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing: for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. {19:9} And they said, Stand back. And they said [again,] This one [fellow] came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, [even] Lot, and came near to break the door. {19:10} But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door. {19:11} And they smote the men that [were] at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great; so that they weared themselves to find the door.

{19:12} And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring [them] out of this place: {19:13} For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD: and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it. {19:14} And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

{19:15} And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. {19:16} And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

{19:17} And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. {19:18} And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord: {19:19} Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die: {19:20} Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, ([is] it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. {19:21} And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for which thou hast spoken. {19:22} Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

{19:23} The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. {19:24} Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the L ORD out of heaven; {19:25} And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

{19:26} But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

{19:27} And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD: {19:28} And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

{19:29} And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt.

{19:30} And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters. {19:31} And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father [is] old, and [there is] not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth: {19:32} Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. {19:33} And they made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with his father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. {19:34} And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: and let me make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, [and] lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. {19:35} And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he
[20:1] And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar. [20:2] And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She [is] my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. [20:3] But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou [art but] a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she [is] a man's wife. [20:4] But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation? [20:5] Said he not unto me, She [is] my sister? and she, even she herself said, He [is] my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this. [20:6] And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. [20:7] Now therefore restore the man [his] wife; for he [is] a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore [her] not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that [are] thine. [20:8] Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid. [20:9] Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what hast thou done unto this land, and to me? [20:10] And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What [mean] these seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves? [20:11] And Abimelech said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God [is] not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake. [20:12] And yet indeed [she is] my sister; she [is] the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. [20:13] And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This [is] thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, I am thy bridegroom, and thou shalt be my wife. [20:14] And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and men servants, and maidservants, and gave [them] unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife. [20:15] And Abimelech said, Behold, my land [is] before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee. [20:16] And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver, behold, he [is] to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that [are] with thee, and with all [other:] thus she was reproved.

[20:17] So Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare [children.] [20:18] For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

[20:19] And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking. [20:20] Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, [even] with Isaac. [21:1] And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

[21:2] And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice: for in Isaac shall thy seed be called. [21:3] And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for it is necessary that this child shall not be heir with my son, [even] with Isaac. [21:4] And Abraham said, O Lord God, whereas thou poudest me the seed, how shall I know that I shall inherit it? [21:5] And he said, Bring me a child of the house of thy servants; of your maidservant I will take for thee. [21:6] And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, [so that] all that hear will laugh with me. [21:7] And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born [him] a son in his old age. [21:8] And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the [same] day that Isaac was weaned.

[21:9] And Sarah said unto Abraham, Cast out this servant and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, [even] with Isaac. [21:10] And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

[21:11] And God said unto Abraham, What [mean] these seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves? [21:12] And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God [is] not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake. [21:13] And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne unto Abraham, mocking. [21:14] And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave [it] unto Hagar, putting [it] on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba. [21:15] And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. [21:16] And she went, and sat down over against [him] a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against [him], and lift up her voice, and wept. [21:17] And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he [is]. [21:18] Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. [21:19] And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. [21:20] And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. [21:21] And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

[21:22] And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God [is] with thee in all that thou doest: [21:23] Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. [21:24] And Abraham said, I will swear. [21:25] And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. [21:26] And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day. [21:27] And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant. [21:28] And Abimelech set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. [21:29] And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What [mean] these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves? [21:30] And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well. [21:31] Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba: because there they sware both of them. [21:32] Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

[21:33] And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken. [21:34] For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. [21:35] And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac. [21:36] And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him. [21:37] And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.
[21:33] And [Abraham] planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. [21:34] And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

[22:1] And it came to pass after these things, that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, [here] I [am. ]

[22:2] And he said, Take now thy son, thine only [son] Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

[22:3] And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him. [22:4] Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. [22:5] And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass, and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

[22:6] And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid [it] upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together. [22:7] And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here [am] I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where [is] the lamb for a burnt offering? [22:8] And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

[22:9] And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar. [22:10] And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son. [22:11] And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here [am] I. [22:12] And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only [son] from me. [22:13] And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and beheld behind [him] a ram caught in a thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. [22:14] And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh: as it is said [to] this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

[22:15] And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time. [22:16] And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only [son: ]

[22:17] That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which [is] upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; [22:18] And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice. [22:19] So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

[22:20] And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor; [22:21] Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, [22:22] And Chedor, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel. [22:23] And Bethuel begat Rebekah; these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother. [22:24] And his concubine, whose name [was] Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maacah.

[23:1] And Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: [these were] the years of the life of Sarah. [23:2] And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same [is] Hebron in the land of Canaan; and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

[23:3] And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke unto the sons of Heth, saying, [23:4] I [am] a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight. [23:5] And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him, [23:6] Hear us, my lord: thou [art] a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead. [23:7] And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, [even] to the children of Heth. [23:8] And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat me for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, [23:9] That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which [is] in the end of his field: for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.

[23:17] And the field of Ephron, which [was] in Machpelah, which [was] before Mamre, the field, and the cave which [was] therein, and all the trees that [were] in the field, that [were] in all the borders round about, were made sure [23:18] Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city. [23:19] And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of Machpelah before Mamre: the same [is] Hebron in the land of Canaan, [23:20] And the field, and the cave that [is] therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

[24:1] And Abraham was old, [and] well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. [24:2] And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had; Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh: [24:3] And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell; [24:4] But thou shalt go unto my country, and unto my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac. [24:5] And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest? [24:6] And Abraham said, unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

[24:7] The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that swear unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence. [24:8] And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again. [24:9] And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

[24:10] And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master [were] in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor. [24:11] And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, [even] the time that women go out to draw [water. ] [24:12] And he said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham. [24:13] Behold, I stand [here] by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water: [24:14] And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: [let the same be] she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

[24:15] And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. [24:16] And the damsel [was] very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. [24:17] And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher. [24:18] And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. [24:19] And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw [water] for thy camels also, until they have done drinking. [24:20] And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw [water;] and drew for all his camels. [24:21] And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not. [24:22] And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten [shekels] weight of gold; [24:23] And said, Whose daughter [art] thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room [in] thy father's house for us to lodge in? [24:24] And she said unto him, I [am] the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor. [24:25] She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in. [24:26] And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD. [24:27] And he said, Blessed [be] the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: [being] in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren. [24:28] And the damsel ran, and told [them of] her mother's house these things.

[24:29] And Rebekah had a brother, and his name [was] Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well. [24:30] And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me: that he came unto me, and beheld the earring which I had put upon my hand, and the bracelets upon my feet, [24:31] And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD: wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

[24:32] And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that [were] with him. [24:33] And there was set [meat] before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on. [24:34] And he said, I [am] Abraham's servant. [24:35] And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses. [24:36] And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath. [24:37] And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell: [24:38] But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son. [24:39] And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me. [24:40] And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house: [24:41] Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee [one,] thou shalt be clear from my oath. [24:42] And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do shew kindness unto my master, and to his house, and wilt perform my way which I go; [24:43] Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw [water,] and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink; [24:44] And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: [let the same be] the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son. [24:45] And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew [water:] and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee. [24:46] And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her [shoulder,] and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also. [24:47] And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter [art] thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands. [24:48] And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son. [24:49] And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left. [24:50] Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good. [24:51] Behold, Rebekah [is] before thee, take [her,] and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken. [24:52] And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. [24:53] And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave [them] to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things. [24:54] And they did eat and drink, he and the men that [were] with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master. [24:55] And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsels abide with us a few days, and let the damsel abide with us till the sun is down; and afterward she shall go. [24:56] And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master. [24:57] And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth. [24:58] And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. [24:59] And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham’s servant, and his men. [24:60] And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou [art] our sister, be thou [the mother] of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

[24:61] And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way. [24:62] And Isaac came from the way of the well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country. [24:63] And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels [were] coming. [24:64] And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel. [24:65] For she [had] said unto the servant, What man [is] this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant [had] said, It [is] my master: therefore she took a vail, and covered herself. [24:66] And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done. [24:67] And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother’s [death].

[25:1] Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name [was] Keturah. [25:2] And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. [25:3] And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim. [25:4] And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abidah, and Eldad. All these [were] the children of Keturah.

[25:5] And Keturah gave all that he had unto Isaac. [25:6] But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country. [25:7] And these [are] the days of the years of Abraham’s life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years. [25:8] Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full [of years; and was] gathered to his people. [25:9] And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which [is] before Mamre; [25:10] The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

[25:11] And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi.

[25:12] Now these [are] the generations of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah’s handmaid, bare unto Abraham: [25:13] And these [are] the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generation: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and the name of the second, Zebul; and the name of the third, Kedemah; and the name of the fourth, Jokshan; and the name of the fifth, Medan; and the name of the sixth, Midian; and the name of the seventh, Ishbak; and the name of the eighth, Shuah. [25:14] And these [are] the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Ishmael’s sons, by their names, even these [are] the names of the princes according to their nations.
behold, Isaac [was] sporting with Rebekah his wife. {26:9}
And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she [is] thy wife: and how saidst thou, She [is] my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her. {26:10}
And Abimelech said, What [is] this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us. {26:11}
And Abimelech charged all [his] people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. {26:12}
Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him. {26:13}
And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great: {26:14}
For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him. {26:15}
For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth. {26:16}
And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we. {26:17}
And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. {26:18}
And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them. {26:19}
And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. {26:20}
And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water [is] ours: and he called the name of the well Esek; because they strove with him. {26:21}
And they digged another well, and strive for that also: and he called the name of it Sitnah. {26:22}
And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land. {26:23}
And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba. {26:24}
And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I [am] the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I [am] with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. {26:25}
And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well. {26:26}
Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army. {26:27}
And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you? {26:28}
And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath between us, [even] betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee; {26:29}
That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou [art] now the blessed of the LORD. {26:30}
And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink. {26:31}
And they rose up betimes in the morning, and spake one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. {26:32}
And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water. {26:33}
And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of the city [is] Beer-sheba unto this day. {26:34}
And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite: {26:35}
Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah. {27:1}
And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, [here am] I. {27:2}
And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death: {27:3}
Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me [some] venison; {27:4}
And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring [it] to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless thee before I die. {27:5}
And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt [for] venison, [and] to bring [it].

{[27:6]} And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying, {27:7}
Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death. {27:8}
Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee. {27:9}
Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth: {27:10}
And thou shalt bring [it] to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death. {27:11}
And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother [is] a hairy man, and I [am] a smooth man: {27:12}
My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall shall feel me as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. {27:13}
And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me [them]. {27:14}
And he went, and he fetched, and brought [them] to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved. {27:15}
And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which [were] with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son: {27:16}
And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck: {27:17}
And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here [am] I: who [art] thou, my son? {27:19}
And Jacob said unto his father, I [am] Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me. {27:20}
And Isaac said unto his son, How [is] it that thou hast found [it] so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought [it] to me. {27:21}
And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou [be] my very son Esau or not. {27:22}
And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice [is] Jacob's voice, but the hands [are] the hands of Esau. {27:23}
And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him. {27:24}
And he said, [Art] thou my very son Esau? And he said, I [am]. [27:25]
And he said, Bring [it] near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought [it] near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank. {27:26}
And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. {27:27}
And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed: {27:28}
Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: {27:29}
Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother’s sons bow down to thee: cursed [be] every one that curseth thee, and blessed [be] he that blesseth thee.

(27:30) And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. [27:31] And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son’s venison, that thy soul may bless me. [27:32] And Isaac his father said unto him, Who [art] thou? And he said, I [am] thy son, thy firstborn Esau. [27:33] And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where [is] he that hath taken venison, and brought [it] me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, [and] he shall be blessed. [27:34] And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, [even] me also, O my father. [27:35] And he said, Thy brother came with subtlety, and hath taken away thy blessing. [27:36] And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me? [27:37] And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son? [27:38] And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, [even] me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. [27:39] And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; [27:40] And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

(27:41) And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob. [27:42] And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, That Jacob have taken away my blessing. [27:43] And Jacob heard the words of his father, and he saw that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; {28:6} And Jacob said to Rebekah, Speak, I pray thee, of the matter that concerneth me: what shall I do now? [28:7] And God said unto Abraham, [28:8] And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; [28:9] Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

(28:10) And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran. [28:11] And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and [put] them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. [28:12] And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. [28:13] And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed: [28:14] And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. [28:15] And, behold, I [am] with thee, and will keep thee in all [places] whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done [that] which I have spoken to thee of.

(28:16) And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place, and I knew [it] not. [28:17] And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful [is] this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this [is] the gate of heaven. [28:18] And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put [for] his pillows, and set it up [for] a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it. [28:19] And he called the name of that place Bethel: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first. [28:20] And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on, [28:21] So that I come again to my father’s house in peace; then shall the LORD be my God: [28:22] And this stone, which I have set [for] a pillar, shall be God’s house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

(29:1) Then Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east. [29:2] And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there [were] three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone [was] upon the well’s mouth. [29:3] And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well’s mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well’s mouth in his place. [29:4] And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence [be] ye? And they said, Of Haran [are] we. [29:5] And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know [him]. [29:6] And he said unto them, [Is] he well? And they said, [He is] well: and, behold, [he] sent word, and said, Behold, I come. [29:7] And he said, Lo, [it is] yet high day, neither [is it] time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go [and] feed [them]. [29:8] And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and [till] they roll the stone from the well’s mouth; then we water the sheep.

[29:9] And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep: for she kept them. [29:10] And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother’s brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother’s brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well’s mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother’s brother. [29:11] And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept. [29:12] And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father’s brother, and that he was Rebekah’s son: and she ran and told her father. [29:13] And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister’s son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things. [29:14] And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

[29:15] And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou [art] my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what [shall] thy wages [be]? [29:16] And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. [29:17] Leah [was] tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured. [29:18] And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter. [29:19] And Laban said, [It is] better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me. [29:20] And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him [but] a few days, for the love he had to her.

[29:21] And Jacob said unto Laban, Give [me] my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her. [29:22] And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast. [29:23] And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him: and he went in unto her. [29:24] And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid [for] an handmaid. [29:25] And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah. [29:26] And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. [29:27] Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years. [29:28] And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also. [29:29] And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah her handmaid to be her maid. [29:30] And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with her yet seven other years.

[29:31] And when the LORD saw that Leah [was] hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel [was] barren. [29:32] And Leah conceived, and bare a son; and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me. [29:33] And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I [was] hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon. [29:34] And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi. [29:35] And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing.
all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and [of such] shall be my hire. (30:33) So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that [is] not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me. (30:34) And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word. (30:35) And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, [and] every one that had [some] white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave [them] into the hand of his sons. (30:36) And he set three days journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

(30:37) And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of hazel and chesnut tree; and piled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which [was] in the rods. (30:38) And he set the rods which he had piled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink. (30:39) And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted. (30:40) And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle. (30:41) And it came to pass, whenever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. (30:42) But when the cattle were feeble, he put [them] not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. (30:43) And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maid servants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

(31:1) And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that [was] our father's; and of that which [was] our father's hath he gotten all this glory. (31:2) And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it [was] not toward him as before. (31:3) And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee. (31:4) And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock. (31:5) And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it [is] not toward me as before; but the God of your father hath been with me. (31:6) And ye know that with all my power I have served your father. (31:7) And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me. (31:8) If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages: then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked. (31:9) Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given [them] to me. (31:10) And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw the herd of cattle in the mountains of Ephraim, and saw the she goats that were ringstraked speckled, and grised: (31:11) And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, [saying,] Jacob: And I said, Here [am] I. (31:12) And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle [are] ringstraked, speckled, and grised: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee. (31:13) I [am] the God of Bethel, where thou anointedst the pillar, [and] where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred. (31:14) And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, [Is there] yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? (31:15) Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money. (31:16) For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that [is] ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

(31:17) Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels; (31:18) And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan. (31:19) And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that [were] her father's. (31:20) And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled. (31:21) So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face [toward] the mount Gilead. (31:22) And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled. (31:23) And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead. (31:24) And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

(31:25) Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead. (31:26) And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives [taken] with the sword? (31:27) Wherefore didst thou flee secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp? (31:28) And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing. (31:29) It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. (31:30) And now, [though] thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, [yet] wherefore hast thou stolen my gods? (31:31) And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. (31:32) With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what [is] thine with me, and take [it] to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them. (31:33) And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found [them] not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. (31:34) Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. (31:35) And Laban searched all the tent, but found [them] not. (31:36) And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What [is] my trespass, what [is] my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? (31:37) Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set [it] here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both. (31:38) This twenty years [have] I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp? (31:28) And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing. (31:29) It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. (31:30) And now, [though] thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, [yet] wherefore hast thou stolen my gods? (31:31) And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. (31:32) With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what [is] thine with me, and take [it] to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them. (31:33) And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found [them] not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. (31:34) Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. (31:35) And Laban searched all the tent, but found [them] not. (31:36) And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What [is] my trespass, what [is] my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? (31:37) Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set [it] here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both. (31:38) This twenty years [have] I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?
and my sleep departed from mine eyes. {31:41} Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times. {31:42} Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked [thee] yesternight.

{31:43} And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, [These] daughters [are] my daughters, and [these] children [are] my children, and [these] cattle [are] my cattle, and all that thou seest [is] mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born? {31:44} Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee. {31:45} And Jacob took a stone, and set it up [for] a pillar. {31:46} And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap. {31:47} And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed. {31:48} And Laban said, This heap [is] a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed; {31:49} And Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another. {31:50} If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take [other] wives beside my daughters, no man [is] with us; see, God [is] witness betwixt me and thee. {31:51} And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold [this] pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee; {31:52} This heap [be] witness, and [this] pillar [be] witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm. {31:53} The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac. {31:54} Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount. {31:55} And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

{32:1} And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. {32:2} And when Jacob saw them, he said, This [is] God’s host; and he called the name of that place Mahanaim. {32:3} And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom. {32:4} And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau: Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and have stayed there until now: {32:5} And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

{32:6} And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him. {32:7} Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that [was] with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands; {32:8} And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

{32:9} And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee: {32:10} I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. {32:11} Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: lest he will come and smite me, [and] the mother with the children. {32:12} And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. {32:13} And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother: {32:14} Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams. {32:15} Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals. {32:16} And he delivered [them] into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove. {32:17} And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose [art] thou? and whither goest thou? and whose [are] these before thee? {32:18} Then thou shalt say, [They be] thy servant Jacob’s; it [is] a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he [is] behind us. {32:19} And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him. {32:20} And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob [is] behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me. {32:21} So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company. {32:22} And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womanservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok. {32:23} And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

{32:24} And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. {32:25} And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of Jacob’s thigh in the ford Jabbok. {32:26} And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had. {32:27} And Jacob said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me. {32:28} And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. {32:29} And Jacob asked [him,] and said, Tell [me,] I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore [is] it [that] thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there. {32:30} And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. {32:31} And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh. {32:32} Therefore the children of Israel eat not [of] the sinew which shrank, which [is] upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob’s thigh in the sinew that shrank.

{33:1} And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. {33:2} And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost. {33:3} And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. {33:4} And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept, {33:5} And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who [are] those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant. {33:6} Then the handmaidens came near, and they and their children, and they bowed Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, ‘Damsel to wife. {34:13} And the sons of Jacob answered, “We will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.” {34:14} And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, ‘Let me take my choice of one of your daughters for my wife. {34:15} And the sons of Jacob said unto them, “We will not consent unto your doing this thing. {34:16} For we will take our daughters unto you, and give your daughters unto us, and ye shall dwell with us, and ye shall trade therein; for the land, behold, [it is] large enough for you: let us take our daughters unto you, and we will give you of our daughters, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. {34:17} But if ye will not hearken unto us to be circumcised, then will we take our daughters, and we will be gone. {34:18} And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor’s son. {34:19} And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob’s daughter: and he [was] more honourable than all the house of his father.

{34:20} And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, ‘These men [are] peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, [it is] large enough for them: let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. {34:22} Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they [are] circumcised. {34:23} [Shall] not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs [be] ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us. {34:24} And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

{34:25} And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. {34:26} And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem’s house, and went out. {34:27} The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister. {34:28} They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which [was] in the field, and that which [was] in the city, and that which [was] in the houses. {34:29} And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that [was] in the house. {34:30} And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, ‘Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I [being] few in number, shall they gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house. {34:31} And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?’

{35:1} And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went. {35:4} And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which [were] in their hand, and [all their] earrings which [were] in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which [was] by Shechem. {35:5} And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that [were] round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

{35:6} So Jacob came to Luz, which [is] in the land of Canaan, that [is], Bethel, he and all the people that [were] with him. {35:7} And he built there an altar, and called the place El-beth-el: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother. {35:8} But Deborah Reuben's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bethel under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth.

{35:9} And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him. {35:10} And God said unto him, Thy name [is] Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel. {35:11} And God said unto him, I [am] God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins; {35:12} And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land. {35:13} And God went up from him in the place where he talked with him. {35:14} And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, [even] a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon. {35:15} And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Bethel.

{35:16} And they journeyed from Bethel; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. {35:17} And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also. {35:18} And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called her name Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin. {35:19} And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which [is] Bethlehem. {35:20} And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that [is] the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

{35:21} And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar. {35:22} And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard [it.] Now the sons of Jacob were twelve: {35:23} The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun: {35:24} The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin: {35:25} And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Gad, and Asher; these [are] the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

{35:26} And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah, which [is] Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned. {35:27} And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years. {35:28} And the days of Abraham were an hundred and thirty years. {35:29} And Jacob took the daughter of his brother Esau, who was the mother of his sons Esau and Benjamin. {35:30} And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people, [being] old and full of days: and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

{36:1} Now these [are] the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir: {36:2} Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Timna, the daughter of Elah, the son of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite; {36:3} And Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth. {36:4} And Adah bare to Esau Eliphaz; and Bashemath bare Reuel. {36:5} And Adah bare to Esau Jeush, and Taalim, and Korah. {36:6} And they journeyed from Bethel; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. {36:7} And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him. {36:8} But Deborah Reuben's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bethel under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth.

{36:9} And these [are] the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir: {36:10} These [are] the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau. {36:11} And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz. {36:12} And Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek: these [were] the sons of Adah Esau's wife. {36:13} And these [are] the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Basemath Esau's wife.

{36:14} And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

{36:15} These [are] the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn [son] of Esau; Esau's son; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz. {36:16} Duke Korah, duke Gatam, [and] duke Amalek: these [were] the sons of Adah, these [were] the sons of Esau's firstborn.

{36:17} And these [are] the sons of Reuel Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these [were] the sons of Basemath Esau's wife.

{36:18} And these [are] the sons of Aholibamah Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these [were] the sons of Esau's son Reuel; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz. {36:19} And these [were] the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Esau, Esau's wife. {36:20} These [are] the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these [are] the sons of Seir the Horite, the children of Seir in the land of Edom. {36:21} And these [were] the sons of Lotan; Hori, and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna. {36:22} And the children of Shobal were these; Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. {36:23} And these [are] the children of Seir; both the Horites, and the children of Lotan, who were the sons of Zibeon the Horite.

{36:24} And these [are] the sons of Anah that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father. {36:25} And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. {36:26} And these [are] the sons of Anah's wife, the daughter of Zibeon; both the Horites, and Reuel the son of Esau, Esau's brother. {36:27} And these [were] the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these [were] the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife, the daughter of Seir the Horite.

{36:28} These [are] the generations of the Horites; the chief of the Ishhodethites, the chief of the Ishhodethites, the chief of the leubnites, the chief of the Ishshaites, the chief of the Dairishites, the chief of the Edaites, the chief of the Jathlemites, the chief of the Leuphisites, the chief of the Elephanites, the chief of the Jdishites. {36:29} These [are] the sons of Esau, who dwelt in Seir; these [are] the sons of Adah Esau's wife, the daughter of Eliphaz. {36:30} These [are] the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife, the daughter of Reuel Esau's son. {36:31} And these [are] the generations of Eliphaz Esau's son; and these [are] the sons of Reuel, Esau's son. {36:32} These [are] the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. {36:33} And the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife, the daughter of Reuel, Esau's son; these [are] the sons of Esau, the father of the Edomites.
And Jacob dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan. 37:2 These [are] the generations of Jacob. Joseph, [being] seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad [was] wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? 37:3 And he told it to his brethren, that they hated him more than all his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream which I have dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down to thee? 37:4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told [it] his brethren: and they hated him yet the more for his dream. 37:6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed: 37:7 For, behold, we [were] binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. 37:8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. 37:10 And he told [it] to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What [is] this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth? 37:11 And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. 37:13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed [the flock] in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here [am] I. 37:14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

And a certain man found him, and, behold, [he was] wandering in the field; and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou? 37:16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed [their flocks]. 37:17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan. 37:18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. 37:19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh. 37:20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams. 37:21 And Reuben heard [it], and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. 37:22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, [but] cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him: that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, [his] coat of [many] colours that [was] on him; 37:24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit [was] empty, [there was] no water in it. 37:25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry [it] down to Egypt. 37:26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit [is it] if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood? 37:27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he [is] our brother [and] our flesh. And his brethren were content. 37:28 Then there passed by Midianites merchantsmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty [pieces] of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph [was] not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. 37:30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child [is] not; and I, whither shall I go? 37:31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood; 37:32 And they sent the coat of [many] colours, and they brought [it] to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it [be] thy son's coat or no. 37:33 And he knew it, and said, [It is] my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces. 37:34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days. 37:35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him. 37:36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, [and] captain of the guard.

And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name [was] Hirah. 38:2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name [was] Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her. 38:3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. 38:4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan. 38:5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him. 38:6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name [was] Tamar. 38:7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him. 38:8 And Judah went down from his brethren, and came to Lachish, which belongeth to Judah, unto the house of his friend Ishma, an Adullamite. 38:9 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Adullamite, whose name [was] Hirah. 38:10 And Judah took her, and went in unto her, and she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. 38:11 And Judah took a wife for Onan his son, whose name [was] Tamar. 38:12 And it came to pass, when she bare him, that she said unto him, A husband of the field hath conceived me. 38:13 And Judah said unto his friend, the Adullamite, Say, Let her be dealt with according to her will: only let not my son go down with you, to the dead man, to be slain there. 38:14 And Judah said unto his friend the Adullamite, Let not my son go down to the dead man, to be slain there: for, behold, thou knowest how I hate to look on my son's blood. 38:15 And Judah took a stone and placed it in the opening of the pit, [and] laid his wilderness Spices, and Balm, and Myrrh, going to carry [it] down to Egypt. 38:20 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also. 38:21 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest...
[38:12] And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. [38:13] And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep. [38:14] And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which [is] by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife. [38:15] When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face. [38:16] And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she [was] his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me? [38:17] And he said, I will send [thee] a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give [me] a pledge, till thou send [it]? [38:18] And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that [is] in thine hand. And he gave [it] her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. [38:19] And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. [38:20] And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive [his] pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not. [38:21] Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where [is] the harlot, that [was] openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this [place]. [38:22] And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, [that] there was no harlot in this [place]. [38:23] And Judah said, Let her take [it] to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

[38:24] And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she [is] with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt. [38:25] When she [was] brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these [are, am] I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose [are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff. [38:26] And Judah acknowledged [them,] and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more.

[38:27] And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins [were] in her womb. [38:28] And it came to pass, when she travailed, that [the one] put out [his] hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first, [38:29] And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his second came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? [this] breach [be] upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez. [38:30] And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

[39:1] And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither. [39:2] And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. [39:3] And his master saw that the LORD [was] with him, and that the LORD made all [that] he did to prosper in his hand. [39:4] And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. [39:5] And it came to pass from the time [that] he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. [39:6] And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was [a] goodly [person,] and well favoured.

[39:7] And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me. [39:8] But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what [is] with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand: [39:9] [There is] none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou [art] his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? [39:10] And it came to pass, as he spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie with her, or to be with her. [39:11] And it came to pass about this time, that [Joseph] went into the house to do his business; and [there was] none of the men of the house there within. [39:12] And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out. [39:13] And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, [39:14] That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice: [39:15] And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out. [39:16] And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home. [39:17] And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, whom thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me: [39:18] And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out. [39:19] And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled. [39:20] And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners [were] bound: and he was there in the prison.

[39:21] But the LORD was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison. [39:22] And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that [were] in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer [of it. [39:23] The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing [that was] under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and [that] which he did, the LORD made [it] to prosper.

[40:1] And it came to pass after these things, [that] the butler of the king of Egypt and [his] baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt. [40:2] And Pharaoh was wroth against two [of] his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers. [40:3] And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph [was] bound. [40:4] And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

[40:5] And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which [were] bound in the prison. [40:6]
And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they [were] sad. [40:7] And he asked Pharaoh's officers that [were] with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye [so] sadly to day? [40:8] And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and [there is] no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, [Do] not interpretations [belong] to God? tell me [them], I pray you. [40:9] And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine [was] before me; [40:10] And in the vine [were] three branches: and it [was] as though it budded, [and] her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes: [40:11] And Pharaoh's cup [was] in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. [40:12] And Joseph said unto him, This [is] the interpretation of it: The three branches [are] three days: [40:13] Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. [40:14] But speak unto me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house: [40:15] For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon. [40:16] When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also [was] in my dream, and, behold, [I had] three white baskets on my head: [40:17] And in the uppermost basket [there was] of all manner of bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head. [40:18] And Joseph answered and said, This [is] the interpretation thereof: The three baskets [are] three days: [40:19] Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

[40:20] And it came to pass the third day, [which was] Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants. [40:21] And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand: [40:22] But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them. [40:23] Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him.

[41:1] And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river. [41:2] And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow. [41:3] And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness: [41:20] And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they [were] still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke. [41:22] And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, full and good: [41:23] And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, [and] blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. [41:24] And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told [this] unto the magicians; but [there was] none that could declare [it] to me.

[41:14] Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved [himself,] and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh. [41:15] And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and [there is] none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, [that] thou canst understand a dream to interpret it. [41:16] And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, [It is] not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. [41:17] And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river: [41:18] And, behold, there came up out of the river seven fat kine: [41:21] And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they [were] still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke. [41:22] And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good: [41:23] And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, [and] blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. [41:24] And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told [this] unto the magicians; but [there was] none that could declare [it] to me.

[41:25] And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh [is] one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he [is] about to do. [41:26] The seven good kine [are] seven years; and the seven good ears [are] seven years: the dream [is] one. [41:27] And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them [are] seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. [41:28] This [is] the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God [is] about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh. [41:29] Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt: [41:30] And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land: [41:31] And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it [shall be] very grievous. [41:32] And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; [it is] because the thing [is] established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. [41:33] Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. [41:34] Let Pharaoh do [this,] and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years. [41:35] And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. [41:36] And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

[41:37] And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. [41:38] And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find [such a one] as this [is,] a man in whom the Spirit of God is? {41:39} And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, [there is] none so discreet and wise as thou [art: ] [41:40] Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou. {41:41} And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. {41:42} And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; [41:43] And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him [ruler] over all the land of Egypt. {41:44} And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I [am] Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt. {41:45} And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneach; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over [all] the land of Egypt.

{41:46} And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. {41:47} And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls. {41:48} And he gathered all up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which [was] round about every city, laid he up in the same. {41:49} And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for [it was] without number. {41:50} And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him. {41:51} And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: For God, [said he], hath made me forgett all my toil, and all my father's house. {41:52} And the name of the second called he Ephraim: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

{41:53} And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended. {41:54} And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. {41:55} And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do. {41:56} And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt. {41:57} And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy [corn;] because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

{41:58} Now when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another? {41:59} And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die.

{41:60} And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt. {41:61} But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him. {41:62} And the sons of Israel came to buy [corn] among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan. {41:63} And Joseph was the governor over the land, [and he] was [the] governor over all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him [with] their faces to the earth. {41:64} And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made themselves strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. {41:65} And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him. {41:66} And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye [are] spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. {41:67} And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come. {41:68} We [are] all one man's sons; we [are] true [men,] thy servants are no spies. {41:69} And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. {41:70} And they said, Thy servants [are] twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest [is] this day with our father, and one [is] not. {41:71} And Joseph said unto them, That [is] it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye [are] spies: {41:72} Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither. {41:73} Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether [there be any] truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye [are] spies. {41:74} And he put them all together into ward three days. {41:75} And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; [for] I fear God: {41:76} If ye [be] true [men,] let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses: {41:77} But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

{41:78} And they said one to another, We [are] verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us. {41:79} And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required. {41:80} And they knew not that Joseph understood [them;] for he spake unto them by an interpreter. {41:81} And they said, We [are] spies. {41:82} And Joseph said, Ye are spies. {41:83} And he said unto them, Whither go ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. {41:84} And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him. {41:85} And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye [are] spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. {41:86} And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come. {41:87} We [are] all one man's sons; we [are] true [men,] thy servants are no spies. {41:88} And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. {41:89} And they said, Thy servants [are] twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest [is] this day with our father, and one [is] not. {41:90} And Joseph said unto them, That [is] it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye [are] spies: {41:91} Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither. {41:92} Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether [there be any] truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye [are] spies. {41:93} And he put them all together into ward three days. {41:94} And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; [for] I fear God: {41:95} If ye [be] true [men,] let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses: {41:96} But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

{41:97} And they said one to another, We [are] verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us. {41:98} And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required. {41:99} And they knew not that Joseph understood [them;] for he spake unto them by an interpreter. {41:100} And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

{41:101} Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them. {41:102} And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence. {41:103} And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it [was] in his sack's mouth. {41:104} And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, [it is] even in my sack: and their heart failed [them,] and they were afraid, saying one to another, What [is] this [that] God hath done unto us?

{41:105} And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying, {41:106} The man, [who is] the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. {41:107} And we said unto him, We [are] true [men;] we are no spies: {41:108} We [be] twelve brethren, sons of our father; one [is] not, and the youngest [is] this day with our father. {41:109} And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye [are] true [men,] leave one of your brethren [here] with me, and take food for your households: and the bread of your lives: and be gone: {41:110} And bring your youngest brother unto me; then shall I know that ye [are] no spies, but [that] ye [are] true [men; so] will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.
[42:35] And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money [was] in his sack: and when [both] they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. [42:36] And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved [of my children:] Joseph [is] not, and Simeon [is] not, and ye will take Benjamin [away:] all these things are against me. [42:37] And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again. [42:38] And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

[43:1] And the famine was sore in the land. [43:2] And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food. [43:3] And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother [be] with you. [43:4] If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food: [43:5] But if thou wilt not send [him,] we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother [be] with you. [43:6] And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, that ye would bring down my son again to fail me? [43:7] And they said, The man asked strictly of us about our youngest brother, whether ye had yet a brother? [43:8] And he said, Peace be with thee. [43:9] And it came to pass, as soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their father. [43:10] Except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time. [43:11] And their father Israel said unto them, If [it must be] so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds: [43:12] And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry [it] again in your hand; peradventure it [was] an oversight: [43:13] Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man: [43:14] And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved [of my children,] I am bereaved.

[43:15] And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. [43:16] And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring [these] men home, and slay, and make ready; for [these] men shall dine with me at noon. [43:17] And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. [43:18] And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. [43:19] And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of Joseph's house, and they communed with him. [43:20] And said, Sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food: [43:21] And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, [every] man's money [was] in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand. [43:22] And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks. [43:23] And he said, Peace [be] to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them. [43:24] And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave [them] water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender. [43:25] And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they said that they should eat bread there.

[43:26] And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which [was] in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. [43:27] And he asked them of [their] welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? [43:28] And they answered, Thy servant our father [is] in good health, he [is] yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance. [43:29] And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son. [43:30] And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought [where] to weep; and he entered into [his] chamber, and wept there. [43:31] And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread. [43:32] And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that [is] an abomination unto the Egyptians. [43:33] And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another. [43:34] And he took [and sent] messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

[44:1] And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks [with] food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth. [44:2] And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. [44:3] As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. [44:4] And when they were gone out of the city, [and] not [yet] far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good? [44:5] Is it not [this] in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

[44:6] And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words. [44:7] And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing: [44:8] Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then shall we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? [44:9] With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen. [44:10] And he said, Now is it true that my lord is a man of truth, and regardeth not man: for he said, See, the man is not in this world to shew lies unto his lord, and to perceiue not the matter that lieth in his hand. Then said they, Let a little bread also be given unto thy servant to eat, that I may live, for why should I live, except they see my lord, and that I behold the face of my lord? [44:12] And he searched, and found the cup of his lord, and, behold, in the young man's sack. Then said Joseph unto the young man, What is this that ye have done? [44:13] And he bowed himself down, and rent his garment. And he said, Verily, ye are strangers, and GUI" Benjamin’s sack. (44:13) Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

(44:14) And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph’s house; for [he] was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground. (44:15) And Joseph said unto them, What deed [is] this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine? (44:16) And Judah said, What shall we say unto our lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we [are] my lord’s servants, both we, and [he] also with whom the cup is found. (44:17) And he said, God forbid that I should do so: [but] the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

(44:18) Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord’s ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant; for thou [art] even as Pharaoh. (44:19) My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother? (44:20) And we said unto our lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him. (44:21) And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him. (44:22) And we said unto our lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for [if] he should leave his father, [his] father would die. (44:23) And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more. (44:24) And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. (44:25) And our father said, Go again, [and] buy us a little food. (44:26) And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man’s face, except our youngest brother [be] with us. (44:27) And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two [sons]: [1]44:28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since: (44:29) And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. (44:30) Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad [be] not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad’s life; (44:31) It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad [is] not [with us], that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy father our servant with sorrow to the grave. (44:32) For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever; (44:33) Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren. (44:34) For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad [be] not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

(44:35) Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh wept. (44:36) And they spoke unto him privily, saying, Behold, if we had kept our counsel we should not be in such a calamity. (44:37) And he said unto them, What shall we do for our father, and for all the land of Egypt? (44:38) And they told him how Joseph had said unto them; and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived: (44:39) And Israel said, [It is] enough; Joseph my son [is] yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

(45:1) Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. (45:2) And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. (45:3) And Joseph said unto his brethren, I [am] Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence. (45:4) And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I [am] Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt. (45:5) Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. (45:6) For these two years [hath] the famine [been] in the land: and yet [there are] five years, in the which [there shall] neither [be] earing nor harvest. (45:7) And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. (45:8) So now [it was] not you [that] sent me hither, but God; and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. (45:9) Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not: (45:10) And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children’s children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast: (45:11) And there will I nourish thee; for yet [there are] five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty. (45:12) And, behold, thy eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that [it is] my mouth that speaketh unto you. (45:13) And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither. (45:14) And he fell upon his brother Benjamin’s neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck. (45:15) Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

(45:16) And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh’s house, saying, Joseph’s brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants. (45:17) And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan: (45:18) And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land. (45:19) Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. (45:20) Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt [is] yours. (45:21) And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. (45:22) To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred [pieces] of silver, and five changes of raiment. (45:23) And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way. (45:24) So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

(45:25) And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father. (45:26) And told him, saying, Joseph [is] yet alive, and he [is] governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob’s heart fainted, for he believed them not. (45:27) And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived: (45:28) And Israel said, [It is] enough; Joseph my son [is] yet alive: I will go and see him before I die. (45:29) And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices unto the God of his father Isaac. (45:30) And God spake unto Israel in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here [am] I. (45:31) And he said, I [am] God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation: (45:32) I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up [again:] and Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes. [46:5] And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
[46:6] And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt.
[46:7] His sons, and his sons’ sons with him, his daughters, and his sons’ daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.
[46:8] And these [are] the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn. [46:9] And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.
[46:10] And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman.
[46:11] And the sons of Levi; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
[46:12] And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul.
[46:13] And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.
[46:14] And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel. [46:15] These [be] the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the souls of his sons and his daughters [were] thirty and three.
[46:16] And the sons of Gad; Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.
[46:17] And the sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel. [46:18] These [are] the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she bare unto Jacob, [even] sixteen souls. [46:19] The sons of Rachel Jacob’s wife; Joseph, and Benjamin.
[46:20] And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-phera priest of On bare unto him.
[46:21] And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard. [46:22] These [are] the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls [were] fourteen.
[46:24] And the sons of Naphtali; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem. [46:25] These [are] the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob: all the souls [were] seven. [46:26] All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob’s sons’ wives, all the souls [were] threescore and six: [46:27] And the sons of Joseph, which were born him in Egypt, [were] two souls: all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, [were] threescore and ten.
[46:28] And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen. [46:29] And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. [46:30] And Israel said unto Joseph,
Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou [art] yet alive. [46:31] And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father’s house, I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father’s house, which [were] in the land of Canaan, are come unto me; [46:32] And the men [are] shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have. [46:33] And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What [is] your occupation? [46:34] That ye shall say, Thy servants’ trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, [and] also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd [is] an abomination unto the Egyptians.
[47:1] Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they [are] in the land of Goshen. [47:2] And he took some of his brethren, [even] five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh. [47:3] And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What [is] your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants [were] shepherds, both we, [and] also our fathers. [47:4] They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine [is] sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen. [47:5] And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee: [47:6] The land of Egypt [is] before thee;
in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell;
in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest [any] men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle. [47:7] And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed himself unto him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. [47:8] And Israel said unto Joseph, days of the years of my pilgrimage [are] an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage. [47:10]
And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.
[47:11] And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. [47:12] And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father’s household, with bread, according to [their] families.
[47:13] And [there was] no bread in all the land; for the famine [was] very sore, so that the land of Egypt and [all] the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. [47:14]
And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's command. [47:15] And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth. [47:16] And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if you sell your fields. [47:17] And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread [in exchange] for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herd, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year. {47:18} When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide [it] from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands: {47:19} Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give [us] seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate. {47:20} And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh’s. {47:21} And as for the people, he removed them to cities from [one] end of the borders of Egypt even to the [other] end thereof. {47:22} Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion [assigned them] of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands. {47:23} Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, [here is] seed for you, and ye shall sow the land. {47:24} And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth [part] unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. {47:25} And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of our lord, and we will be Pharaoh’s servants. {47:26} And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, [that] Pharaoh should have the fifth [part]: except the land of the priests only, [which] became not Pharaoh’s.

{47:27} And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly. {47:28} And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years. {47:29} And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in the sight of my lord, put thy right hand upon his head. {47:30} But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in the land of Canaan. And he said, I will do as thou hast said. {47:31} And he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed’s head.

And it came to pass after these things, that [one] told Joseph, Behold, thy father [is] sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. {48:2} And [one] told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. {48:3} And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. {48:4} And said unto me, Behold, I make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee [for] an everlasting possession.

And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, [are] mine: as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. {48:6} And thy issue, which thou shalt beget after them, shall be thine, and [shall be] called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance. {48:7} And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet [there was] but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath: the same is Bethlehem. {48:8} And Israel beheld Joseph’s sons, and said, Who [are] these? {48:9} And Joseph said unto his father, They [are] my sons, whom God hath given me in this [place.] And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them. {48:10} Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, [so that] he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. {48:11} And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed. {48:12} And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. {48:13} And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel’s left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel’s right hand, and brought [them] near unto him. {48:14} And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim’s head, who [was] the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh’s head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh [was] the firstborn.

And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day, {48:16} The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth. {48:17} And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, he displeased him: and he took up his father’s hand, to remove it from Ephraim’s head unto Manasseh’s head. {48:18} And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this [is] the firstborn: put thy right hand upon his head. {48:19} And his father refused, and said, I know [it], my son, I know [it]: he shall also be great; but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. {48:20} And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. {48:21} And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. {48:22} Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

{49:1} And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you [that] which shall befall you in the last days. {49:2} Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

{49:3} Reuben, thou [art] my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: {49:4} Unstable as water, thou shalt be: for thou shalt go to thy fathers’ grave; and thou shalt be gathered unto them. {49:5} Simeon and Levi [are] brethren; instruments of cruelty are [in] their habitation. {49:6} O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they digged down a wall. {49:7} Cursed be their anger, for [it was] fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

{49:8} Judah, thou [art he] whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand [shall be] in the neck of thine enemies; thy father’s children shall bow down before thee. {49:9} Judah [is] a lion’s whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up:
he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion: who shall rouse him up? {49:10} The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him [shall] the gathering of the people [be.] {49:11} Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes: {49:12} His eyes [shall be] red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

{49:13} Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he [shall be] for an haven of ships; and his border [shall be] unto Zidon.

{49:14} Issachar [is] a strong ass couching down between two burdens: {49:15} And he saw that rest [was] good, and the land that [it was] pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

{49:16} Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel. {49:17} Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward. {49:18} I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

{49:19} Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

{49:20} Out of Asher his bread [shall be] fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

{49:21} Naphtali [is] a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

{49:22} Joseph [is] a fruitful bough, [even] a fruitful bough by a well; [whose] branches run over the wall: {49:23} The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot [at him,] and hated him: {49:24} But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty [God] of Jacob; (from thence [is] the shepherd, the stone of Israel:) {49:25} [Even] by the God of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb: {49:26} The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of thy progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

{49:28} All these [are] the twelve tribes of Israel: and this [is it] that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them. {49:29} And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite, {49:30} In the cave that [is] in the field of Machpelah, which [is] before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a buryingplace. {49:31} There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. {49:32} The purchase of the field and of the cave that [is] therein [was] from the children of Heth. {49:33} And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

{50:1} And Joseph fell upon his father’s face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. {50:2} And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and they embalmed Israel. {50:3} And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days. {50:4} And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, {50:5} My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again. {50:6} And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

{50:7} And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, {50:8} And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father’s house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen. {50:9} And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company. {50:10} And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which [is] beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days. {50:11} And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This [is] a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which [is] beyond Jordan. {50:12} And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them: {50:13} For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

{50:14} And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

{50:15} And when Joseph’s brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him. {50:16} And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, {50:17} So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spoke unto him. {50:18} And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we [be] thy servants. {50:19} And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for [am] I in the place of God? {50:20} But as for you, ye thought evil against me; [but] God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as [it is] this day, to save much people alive. {50:21} Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly unto them.

{50:22} And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father’s house, and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years. {50:23} And Joseph saw Ephraim’s children of the third [generation:] the children also of Machir the son Manasseh were brought up upon Joseph’s knees. {50:24} And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. (50:25) And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. (50:26) So Joseph died, [being] an hundred and ten years old:
The Second Book of Moses, Called Exodus

{1:1} Now these [are] the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob. {1:2} Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, {1:3} Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, {1:4} Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. {1:5} And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already. {1:6} And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

{1:7} And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them. {1:8} Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph. {1:9} And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel [are] more and mightier than we: {1:10} Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and [so] get them up out of the land. {1:11} Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses. {1:12} But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel. {1:13} And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour: {1:14} And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in morter, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, [was] with rigour.

{1:15} And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one [was] Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah: {1:16} And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see [them] upon the stools; if it [be] a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it [be] a daughter, then she shall live. {1:17} But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. {1:18} And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive? {1:19} And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women [are] not as the Egyptian women; for they [are] lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them. {1:20} Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty. {1:21} And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made them houses. {1:22} And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

{2:1} And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took [to wife] a daughter of Levi. {2:2} And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he [was] a goodly [child], she hid him three months. {2:3} And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid [it] in the flags by the river’s brink. {2:4} And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

{2:5} And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash [herself] at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river’s side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it. {2:6} And when she had opened [it] she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This [is one] of the Hebrews’ children. {2:7} Then said his sister to Pharaoh’s daughter, Shall I go and call thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee? {2:8} And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child’s mother. {2:9} And Pharaoh’s daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give [thee] thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. {2:10} And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

{2:11} And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren. {2:12} And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that [there was] no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. {2:13} And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow? {2:14} And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killdest the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. {2:15} Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well. {2:16} Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew [water,] and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock. {2:17} And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. {2:18} And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How [is it that] ye are come so soon to day? {2:19} And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew [water] enough for us, and watered the flock. {2:20} And he said unto his daughters, Where is he? why [is] it [that] ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread. {2:21} And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter. {2:22} And she bare [him] a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

{2:23} And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage. {2:24} And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. {2:25} And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them.

{3:1} Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, [even] to Horeb. {3:2} And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush [was] not consumed. {3:3} And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. {3:4} And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here [am] I. {3:5} And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. {3:6} Moreover he said, I [am] the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God.

3:7] And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which [are] in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows: 3:8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. 3:9

Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. 3:10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

3:11] And Moses said unto God, Who [am] I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? 3:12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this [shall be] a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

3:13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, [when] I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? 3:14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. 3:15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this [is] my name for ever, and this [is] my memorial unto all generations. 3:16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and [seen] that which is done to you in Egypt: 3:17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey: 3:18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

3:19] And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand. 3:20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go. 3:21 And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall have this sign; upon the children of Israel shall be the roe, and upon the stranger shall it not be.

4:1] And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee. 4:2] And the LORD said unto him, What [is] that in thine hand? And he said, A rod. 4:3] And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4:4] And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand: 4:5] That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

4:6] And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand [was] leprous as snow. 4:7] And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his [other] flesh. 4:8] And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. 4:9] And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe these two signs, neither hearken thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour [it] upon the dry [land:] and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry [land].

4:10] And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I [am] not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I [am] slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. 4:11] And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD? 4:12] Now therefore, go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say. 4:13] And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand [of him whom] thou wilt send. 4:14] And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, [Is] not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he goeth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart. 4:15] And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. 4:16] And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, [even] he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God. 4:17] And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

4:18] And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which [are] in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace. 4:19] And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life. 4:20] And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt; and Moses took the rod of God in his hand. 4:21] And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go. 4:22] And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel [is] my son, [even] my firstborn: 4:23] And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, [even] thy firstborn.

4:24] And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him. 4:25] Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast [it] at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband [art] thou to me. 4:26] So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband [thou art], because of the circumcision.
[4:27] And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God; and kissed him. [4:28] And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

[4:29] And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel: [4:30] And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. [4:31] And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

[5:1] And afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness. [5:2] And Pharaoh said, Who [is] the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, how then should I obey his voice to let Israel go? [5:3] And they said, The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days’ journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword. [5:4] And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens. [5:5] And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now [are] many, and ye make them rest from their burdens. [5:6] And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying, [5:7] Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves. [5:8] And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish [ought] thereof: for they [be] idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go [and] sacrifice to our God. [5:9] Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

[5:10] And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw. [5:11] Go ye, get stubble abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for yourselves. [5:12] So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw. [5:13] And the taskmasters hasted [them,] saying, Fulfil your works, [your] daily tasks, as when there was straw. [5:14] And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, [and] demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

[5:15] Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealtest thou thus with thy servants? [5:16] There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault [is] in thine own people. [5:17] But he said, Ye [are] idle, [ye are] idle: therefore ye say, Let us go [and] do sacrifice to the LORD. [5:18] Go therefore now, [and] work; for there shall straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks. [5:19] And the officers of the children of Israel did see [that] they [were] in evil [case:] after it was said, Ye shall not minish [ought] from your bricks of your daily task.

[5:20] And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh: [5:21] And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us. [5:22] And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou [so] evil entreated this people? why [is] it [that] thou hast sent me? [5:23] For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

[6:1] Then the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land. [6:2] And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I [am] the LORD: [6:3] And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by [the name of] God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. [6:4] And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. [6:5] And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. [6:6] Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I [am] the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will redeem you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: [6:7] And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I [am] the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. [6:8] And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I [am] the LORD.

[6:9] And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage. [6:10] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [6:11] Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. [6:12] And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who [am] of uncircumcised lips? [6:13] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

[6:14] These [be] the heads of their fathers’ houses: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Heznor, and Carmi: these [be] the families of Reuben. [6:15] And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these [are] the families of Simeon.

[6:16] And these [are] the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: and the years of the life of Levi [were] an hundred thirty and seven years. [6:17] The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families. [6:18] And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: and the years of the life of Kohath [were] an hundred thirty and three years. [6:19] And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these [are] the families of Levi according to their generations. [6:20] And Amram took him Jochebed his father’s sister to wife: and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram [were] an hundred and thirty and seven years.

[6:21] And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and
[7:1] And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. [7:2] Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet. [7:3] And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. [7:4] But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; as the LORD had said.

[7:5] And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. [7:6] And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they. [7:7] And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

[7:8] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying. [7:9] When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

[7:10] And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

[7:11] Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. [7:12] And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

[7:13] And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart [is] hardened, he refuseth to let the people go. [7:14] Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the waters; and thou shalt stand before the river's brink against him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand. [7:15] And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear. [7:16] Thus saith the LORD. In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that [is] in mine hand upon the waters which [are] in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. [7:17] And the fish that [is] in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the water of the river.

[7:18] And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and [that] there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in [vessels of] wood, and in [vessels of] stone. [7:19] And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that [were] in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that [were] in the river were turned to blood. [7:20] And the fish that [was] in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. [7:21] And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said. [7:22] And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also. [7:23] And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river. [7:24] And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

[8:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me. [8:2] And if thou refuse to let [them] go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs. [8:3] And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bed chamber, and upon thy hand, and into thine house, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneadingtroughs: [8:4] And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

[8:5] And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt. [8:6] And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. [8:7] And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought frogs upon the land of Egypt.

[8:8] Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD. [8:9] And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, [that] they may remain in the river only? [8:10] And he said, To morrow. And he said, [Be it] according to thy word: that thou mayest know that [there is] none like unto the LORD our God. [8:11] And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only. [8:12] And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh. [8:13] And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields. [8:14] And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank. [8:15] But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.
[8:16] And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. [8:17] And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. [8:18] And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast. [8:19] Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This [is] the finger of God: and Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

[8:20] And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me. [8:21] Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms [of flies:] and also the ground wherein they [are]. [8:22] And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. [8:23] And I will put a division between the people and thy people: to morrow shall this sign be. [8:24] And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm [of flies] into the house of Pharaoh, and [into] his servants’ houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm [of flies].

[8:25] And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land. [8:26] And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? [8:27] We will go three days’ journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us. [8:28] And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God, in the land, which ye do call; and Moses said unto Pharaoh, [If] I let them go, will they not steal away? [8:29] And Pharaoh said, Go out from among my people, and sacrifice whithersoever ye think good; only let my people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD. [8:30] And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Shall I sacrifice to the LORD your God, and thou wilt harden thine heart, and persecute my people, and say, The LORD hath dealt deceitfully with me? [8:31] And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms [of flies] from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. [8:32] And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

[9:1] Then the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. [9:2] For if thou refuse to let [them] go, and wilt hold them still, [9:3] Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which [is] in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: [there shall be] a very grievous murrain. [9:4] And the LORD shall separate between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children’s of Israel. [9:5] And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow shall this thing be done in the land. [9:6] And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one. [9:7] And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

[9:8] And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. [9:9] And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth [with] blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt. [9:10] And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth [with] blains upon man, and upon beast. [9:11] And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians. [9:12] And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

[9:13] And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. [9:14] For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, that thou mayest know that [there is] none like me in all the earth. [9:15] For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth. [9:16] And in very deed for this [cause] have I raised thee up, for to shew [in] thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. [9:17] As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go? [9:18] Behold, the morrow shall be the same like unto my hand shall be upon thee, and upon all thy people, and upon thy servants, and upon thy land; and the very swarms [of flies] may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go, for the swarms [of flies] shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I [am] the LORD in the midst of the earth. [9:19] Send therefore now, [and] gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; [for upon] every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die. [9:20] He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses: [9:21] And he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

[9:22] And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. [9:23] And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. [9:24] So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. [9:25] And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that [was] in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field. [9:26] Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel [were.] there was none hail.

[9:27] And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD [is] righteous, and I and my people [are] wicked. [9:28] Intreat the LORD (for [it is] enough) that there be no [more] mighty thunders and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer. [9:29] And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; [and] the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth [is] the LORD'S. {9:30} But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God. {9:31} And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the flax [was] bollled. {9:32} But the wheat and the rie were not smitten: for they [were] not grown up. {9:33} And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth. {9:34} And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. {9:35} And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

{10:1} And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs before him: {10:2} And that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son’s son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them: that ye may know how that I [am] the LORD. {10:3} And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long will thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me. {10:4} Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast: {10:5} And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field: {10:6} And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh. {10:7} And Pharaoh’s servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not that Egypt is destroyed? {10:8} And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but [who] are [they] that shall go? {10:9} And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we [must hold] a feast unto the LORD. {10:10} And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look [to it:] for evil [is] before you. {10:11} Not so: go now ye [that are] men, and serve the LORD: for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

{10:12} And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, [even] all that the hail hath left. {10:13} And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all [that] night: [and] when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. {10:14} And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous [were they:] before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. {10:15} For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened: and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

{10:16} Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste: and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. {10:17} Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only. {10:18} And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD. {10:19} And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. {10:20} But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

{10:21} And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness [which] may be felt. {10:22} And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days: {10:23} They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

{10:24} And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD: only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you. {10:25} And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. {10:26} Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be lost behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

{10:27} But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let them go. {10:28} And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee hence from me, get thee from my sight, see my face no more; for in [that] day thou seest my face thou shalt die. {10:29} And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well. I will see thy face again no more.

{11:1} And the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let [you] go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether. {11:2} Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold. {11:3} And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses [was] very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants, and in the sight of the people. {11:4} And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt: {11:5} And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that [is] behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts. {11:6} And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. {11:7} But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the children of Israel and the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers’ fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh. {11:8} And Pharaoh’s servants said unto him, How long shall you be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not that Egypt is destroyed? {11:9} And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but [who] are [they] that shall go? {11:10} And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we [must hold] a feast unto the LORD. {11:10} And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look [to it:] for evil [is] before you. {11:11} Not so: go now ye [that are] men, and serve the LORD: for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

{11:12} And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, [even] all that the hail hath left. {11:13} And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all [that] night: [and] when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. {11:14} And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous [were they:] before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. {11:15} For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened: and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.
(12:1) And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, (12:2) This month [shall be] unto you the beginning of months: it [shall be] the first month of the year to you.

(12:3) Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth [day] of this month they shall take to every man a lamb, according to the house of [their] fathers, a lamb for an house: [12:4] And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take [it] according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb. [12:5] Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year; ye shall take [it] out from the sheep, or from the goats; [12:6] And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. [12:7] And they shall take of the blood, and strike [it] on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it. [12:8] And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; [and] with bitter [herbs] they shall eat it. [12:9] Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast [with] fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof. [12:10] And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

(12:11) And thus shall ye eat it; [with] your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it [is] the LORD'S passover. [12:12] For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I [am] the LORD. [12:13] And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye [are:] and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy [you,] when I smite the land of Egypt. [12:14] And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever. [12:15] Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. [12:16] And in the first day [there shall be] an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save [that] which every man must eat, that only may be done of you. [12:17] And ye shall observe [the feast of] unleavened bread: for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt; therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

(12:18) In the first [month,] on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even. [12:19] Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. [12:20] Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

(12:21) Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover. [12:22] And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip [it] in the blood that [is] in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that [is] in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. [12:23] For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite [you.]

(12:24) And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. [12:25] And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service. [12:26] And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service? [12:27] That ye shall say, It [is] the sacrifice of the LORD'S passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped. [12:28] And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

(12:29) And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that [was] in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. [12:30] And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for [there was] not a house where [there was] not one dead.

(12:31) And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, [and] get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. [12:32] Also take your flocks and herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also. [12:33] And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We [be] all dead men. [12:34] And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs before they were bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. [12:35] And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: [12:36] And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them [such things as they required.] And they spoiled the Egyptians.

(12:37) And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot [that were] men, beside children. [12:38] And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, [even] very much cattle. [12:39] And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

(12:40) Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, [was] four hundred and thirty years. [12:41] And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. [12:42] It [is] a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this [is] that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.
And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, [both] of man and of beast; it [is] mine.

And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this [place:] there shall no leavened bread be eaten. This day came ye out in the month Abib.

And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers, and shall give it thee, that thou shalt keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thy fathers, and shall give it thee, that thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males [shall be] the LORD'S. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day [shall be] a feast to the LORD. Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall be no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, [This is done] because of that [which] the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD'S law may be in thy mouth; for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt. Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, that thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males [shall be] the LORD'S. And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power; thy covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone. And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap; [and] the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power; thy covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone. And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap; [and] the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

And the Egyptians shall know that I [am] the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go [back] by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry [land,] and the waters were divided.

And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry [ground:] and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, [even] all Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned, and covered the chariots, and his horsemen. And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for their chariot wheels, [and] all the host of Pharaoh that came after them, were broken.

And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap; [and] the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians.

And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and his horsemen.

And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and his horsemen.

unto the LORD: bake [that] which ye will bake [to day], for the LORD hath said, To morrow [is] the rest of the holy sabbath. {16:23} And he said unto them, This [is that] which the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings against him: and what [are] we? your murmurings [are] not against us, but against the LORD.

(16:9) And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings. {16:10} And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

(16:11) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:12} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him. {16:13} And it came to pass, [that] at even, there went out water, and the people did eat bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings against him: and what [are] we? your murmurings [are] not against us, but against the LORD.

(16:14) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:15} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him. {16:16} And the children of Israel said unto Moses, It [is] not enough for us, that we should eat the flesh which we took in the day, but now we long for meat.

(16:17) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:18} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him. {16:19} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:20} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him.

(16:21) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:22} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him.

(16:23) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:24} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him.

(16:25) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {16:26} I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD your God is come among you, for there shall be an eating of manna, for he hath heard your murmurings against him.

(16:27) Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no. {16:28} And it shall come to pass, [that] on the sixth day they shall prepare [that] which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily. {16:29} And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt: {16:30} And in the morning, ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that ye heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what [are] we, that ye murmur against us? {16:31} And Moses said, This shall be, [when] the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what [are] we? your murmurings [are] not against us, but against the LORD.

(16:32) And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, This [is] the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. {16:33} And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. {16:34} As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. {16:35} And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan. {16:36} Now an omer [is] the tenth [part] of an ephah.

(17:1) And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and [there was] no water for the people to drink. {17:2} Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, saying, Where is that water that I drank when I served the LORD in Egypt? [17:3] And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore [is] this [that] thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? {17:4} And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me. {17:5} And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go. {17:6} Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. {17:7} And he called the name thereof Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

(17:8) Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. {17:9} And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand. {17:10} So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. {17:11} And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. [17:12] But Moses' hands [were] heavy; and they took a stone, and put [it] under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. [17:13] And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. [17:14] And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this [for] a memorial in a book, and rehearse [it] in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. [17:15] And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi: [17:16] For he said, Because the LORD hath sworn [that] the LORD [will have] war with Amalek from generation to generation.

[18:1] When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, [and] that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt; [18:2] Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back. [18:3] And her two sons; of which the name of the one [was] Gershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land: [18:4] And the name of the other [was] Eliezer; for the God of my father, [said he, was] mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh: [18:5] And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God: [18:6] And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

[18:7] And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of [their] welfare; and they came into the tent. [18:8] And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, [and] all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and [how] the LORD delivered them. [18:9] And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, and was glad. [18:10] And Jethro said, Blessed [be] the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. [18:11] Now I know that the LORD [is] greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly [he was] above them. [18:12] And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before God.

[18:13] And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood from Moses from the morning unto the evening. [18:14] And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What [is] this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even? [18:15] And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God: [18:16] When they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and I do make [them] know the statutes of God, and his laws. [18:17] And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest [is] not good. [18:18] Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that [is] too heavy for thee: thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. [18:19] Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to Godward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God: [18:20] And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do. [18:21] Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place [such] over them, [to be] rulers of thousands, [and] rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens: [18:22] And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, [that] every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear [the burden] with thee. [18:23] If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee [so,] then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace. [18:24] So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said. [18:25] And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. [18:26] And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

[18:27] And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

[19:1] In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they [into] the wilderness of Sinai. [19:2] For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come [to] the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount. [19:3] And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: [19:4] Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and [how] I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself. [19:5] Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth [is] mine: [19:6] And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These [are] the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

[19:7] And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him. [19:8] And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken will we do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD. [19:9] And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

[19:10] And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes, [19:11] And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai. [19:12] And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, [that ye] go [not] up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: [19:13] There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether [it be] beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

[19:14] And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. [19:15] And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at [your] wives.
[20:1] And God spake all these words, saying, [20:2] I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. [20:3] Thou shalt have no other gods before me. [20:4] Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: [20:5] Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; [20:6] And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

[20:7] Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the name of the LORD thy God is a holy name. [20:8] Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. [20:9] Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: [20:10] But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: [in it] thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: [20:11] For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them [is], and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

[20:18] And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw [it] they removed, and stood afar off. [20:19] And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die. [20:20] And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not. [20:21] And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

[20:22] And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. [20:23] Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

[20:24] An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee. [20:25] And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it. [20:26] Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

[21:1] Now these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them. [21:2] If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing. [21:3] If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him. [21:4] If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be his master’s, and he shall go out by himself. [21:5] And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free: [21:6] Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

[21:7] And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do. [21:8] If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her. [21:9] And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. [21:10] If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

[21:11] And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

[21:12] He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death. [21:13] And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver [him] into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. [21:14] But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

[21:15] And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

[21:16] And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

[21:17] And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

[21:18] And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with [his] fist, and he die not, but keepeth [his] bed: [21:19] If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote [him] be quit: only he shall pay [for] the loss of his time, and shall cause [him] to be thoroughly healed.

(21:20) And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished. (21:21) Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he [is] his money.

(21:22) If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart [from her,] and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman’s husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges [determine. ]

(21:26) And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; then he shall let him go free for his eye’s sake. (21:27) And if he smite out his manservant’s tooth, or his maidservant’s tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth’s sake.

(21:28) If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox [shall be] quit. (21:29) But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death. (21:30) If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him. (21:31) When he have gored a son or a daughter; according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

(21:32) If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

(21:33) And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein; (21:34) The owner of the pit shall make [it] good, [and] give money unto the owner of them; and the dead [beast] shall be his.

(21:35) And if one man’s ox hurt another’s, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead [ox] also they shall divide. (21:36) Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

(21:37) If a man steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or (21:38) sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

(21:39) If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, [there shall] no blood [be shed] for him. (21:40) If the sun be risen upon him, [there shall be] blood [shed] for him; [for] he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. (21:41) If the thief be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

(21:42) If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man’s field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

(22:1) If a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, (22:2) And if a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, [there shall] no blood [be shed] for him. (22:3) If the sun be risen upon him, [there shall be] blood [shed] for him; [for] he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. (22:4) If the thief be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

(22:6) If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed [therewith,] he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

(22:7) If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man’s house; if the thief be found, let him pay double. (22:8) If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, [to see] whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour’s goods. (22:9) For all manner of trespass, [whether it be] for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, [or] for any manner of lost thing, which [another] challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; [and] whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour. (22:10) If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing [it: ] (22:11) Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour’s goods; and the owner of it shall accept [thereof,] and he shall not make [it] good. (22:12) And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof. (22:13) If it be torn in pieces, [then] let him bring it [for] witness, [and] he shall not make good that which was torn.

(22:14) And if a man borrow [ought] of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof [being] not with it, he shall surely make [it] good. (22:15) [But] if the owner thereof [be] with it, he shall not make [it] good: if it [be] an hired [thing,] it came for his hire.

(22:16) And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife. (22:17) If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

(22:18) Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

(22:20) He that sacrificeth unto [any] god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

(22:21) Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

(22:22) Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child. (22:23) If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry; (22:24) And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

(22:25) If thou lend money to [any of] my people [that is] poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury. (22:26) If thou at all take money of poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury. (22:27) For that [is] his covering only, it [is] his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I [am] gracious.

(22:28) Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

(22:29) Thou shalt not delay [to offer] the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me. [22:30] Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, [and] with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

[22:31] And ye shall be holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat [any] flesh [that is] torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

[23:1] Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

[23:2] Thou shalt not follow a multitude to [do] evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

[23:3] Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

[23:4] If thou meet thine enemy’s ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again. [23:5] If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldst forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him. [23:6] Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause. [23:7] Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

[23:8] And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

[23:9] Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. [23:10] And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof: [23:11] But the seventh [year] thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, [and] with thy oliveyard. [23:12] Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. [23:13] And in all [things] that I have said unto you be circumspect: and the handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. [23:14] Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year. [23:15] Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:) [23:16] And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou sowing in the field: and the feast of ingathering, [which is] in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. [23:17] Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God. [23:18] Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning. [23:19] The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother’s milk.

[23:20] Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. [23:21] Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name [is] in him. [23:22] But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries. [23:23] For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off. [23:24] Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images. [23:25] And ye shall serve the Lord your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

[23:26] There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil. [23:27] I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee. [23:28] And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee. [23:29] I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee. [23:30] By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land. [23:31] And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. [23:32] Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. [23:33] They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

[24:1] And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off. [24:2] And Moses alone shall come near the Lord: but they shall not come nigh: neither shall the people go up with him.

[24:3] And Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said will we do. [24:4] And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel. [24:5] And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the Lord. [24:6] And Moses took half of the blood, and put [it] in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. [24:7] And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said will we do, and be obedient. [24:8] And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled [it] on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words.

[24:9] Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel: [24:10] And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in [his] clearness. [24:11] And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

[24:12] And the Lord said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there; and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them. [24:13] And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God. [24:14] And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur [are] with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them. {24:15} And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount. {24:16} And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud. {24:17} And the sight of the glory of the LORD [was] like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel. {24:18} And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

{25:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {25:2} Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering. {25:3} And this [is] the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass, {25:4} And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats [hair,] {25:5} And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood. {25:6} Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense. {25:7} Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate. {25:8} And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them. {25:9} According to all that I shew thee, [after] the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make [it].

{{25:10} And they shall make an ark [of] shittim wood: two cubits and a half [shall be] the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. {25:11} And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shall make upon it a crown of gold round about. {25:12} And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put [them] in the four corners thereof; and two rings [shall be] in the one side thereof, and two rings in the other side of it. {25:13} And thou shalt make staves [of] shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. {25:14} And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them. {25:15} The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it. {25:16} And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee. {25:17} And thou shalt make a mercy seat [of] pure gold: two cubits and a half [shall be] the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof. {25:18} And thou shalt make two cherubims [of] gold, [of] beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat. {25:19} And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: [even] of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof. {25:20} And the cherubim shall stretch forth [their] wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces [shall look] one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be. {25:21} And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee. {25:22} And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which [are] upon the ark of the testimony, of all [things] which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.}

{25:23} Thou shalt also make a table [of] shittim wood: two cubits [shall be] the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. {25:24} And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereeto a crown of gold round about. {25:25} And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about. {25:26} And thou shalt make for it four rings

And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up. (26:15)

Ten cubits [shall be] the length of a board, and a cubit and a half [shall be] the breadth of one board. (26:16)

Two tenons [shall there be] in one board, set in order one against another; thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle. (26:18)

And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward. (26:19)

And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons. (26:20)

And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side [there shall be] twenty boards: (26:21)

And their forty sockets [of] silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. (26:22)

And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards. (26:23)

And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. (26:24)

And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring; thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners. (26:25)

And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets [of] silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. (26:26)

And thou shalt make bars [of] shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, (26:27)

And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward. (26:28)

And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. (26:29)

And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings [of] gold [for] places for the bars; and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold. (26:30)

And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount. (26:31)

And thou shalt make a vail [of] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work; with cherubims shall it be made: (26:32)

And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim [wood] overlaid with gold: their hooks [shall be of] gold, upon the four sockets of silver. (26:33)

And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy [place] and the most holy. (26:34)

And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy [place]. (26:35)

And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the candlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side. (26:36)

And thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, [of] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework. (26:37)

And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars [of] shittim [wood,] and overlay them with gold, [and] their hooks [shall be of] gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.
speak unto all [that are] wise hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. [28:4] And these [are] the garments which they shall make; a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office. [28:5] And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

[28:6] And they shall make the ephod [of] gold, [of] blue, and [of] purple, [of] scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning work. [28:7] It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and [so] it shall be joined together. [28:8] And the curious girdle of the ephod, which [is] upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; [even of] gold, [of] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. [28:9] And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel: [28:10] Six of their names on one stone, and [the other] six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth. [28:11] With the work of an engraver in stone, [like] the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to set in ouches of gold. [28:12] And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod [for] stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

[28:15] And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; [of] gold, [of] blue, and [of] purple, and [of] scarlet, and [of] fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. [28:16] Foursquare it shall be [being] doubled; a span [shall be] the length thereof, and a span [shall be] the breadth thereof. [28:17] And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, [even] four rows of stones: [the first] row [shall be] a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle; [this shall be] the first row. [28:18] And the second row [shall be] an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. [28:19] And the third row a figure, a agate, and an amethyst. [28:20] And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings. [28:21] And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, [like] the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

[28:26] And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which [is] in the side of the ephod inward. [28:27] And two [other] rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the [other] coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod. [28:28] And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that [it] may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod. [28:29] And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy [place.] for a memorial before the LORD continually.

[28:30] And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

[28:31] And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all [of] blue. [28:32] And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent.

[28:33] And [beneath] upon the hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates [of] blue, and [of] purple, and [of] scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about: [28:34] A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about. [28:35] And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy [place] before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

[28:36] And thou shalt make a plate [of] pure gold, and grave upon it, [like] the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. [28:37] And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forehead of the mitre it shall be. [28:38] And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

[28:39] And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre [of] fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle [of] needlework.

[28:40] And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty. [28:41] And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. [28:42] And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach: [28:43] And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy [place:]; that they bear not iniquity, and die: [it shall be] a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

[29:1] And this [is] the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish, [29:2] And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: [of] wheaten flour shalt thou make them. [29:3] And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams. {29:4} And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water. {29:5} And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod: {29:6} And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre. {29:7} Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour [it] upon his head, and anoint him. {29:8} And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them. {29:9} And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them: and the priest’s office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons. {29:10} And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock. {29:11} And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, [by] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. {29:12} And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and sprinkle [it] upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon the sons of Aaron. {29:13} And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. {29:14} And thou shalt take the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn [them] upon the altar. {29:15} Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. {29:16} And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle [it] round about upon the altar. {29:17} And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put [them] unto his pieces, and unto his head. {29:18} And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it [is] a burnt offering unto the LORD: it [is] a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. {29:19} And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. {29:20} Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put [it] upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. {29:21} And thou shalt take of the blood that [is] upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle [it] upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons’ garments with him. {29:22} Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the [caul] above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that [is] upon them, and the right shoulder; for it [is] a ram of consecration: {29:23} And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that [is] before the LORD: {29:24} And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them [for] a wave offering before the LORD. {29:25} And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn [them] upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it [is] an offering made by fire unto the LORD. {29:26} And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron’s consecration, and wave it [for] a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part. {29:27} And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, [even] of [that] which [is] for Aaron, and of [that] which is for his sons: {29:28} And it shall be Aaron’s and his sons’ by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it [is] an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, [even] their heave offering unto the LORD. {29:29} And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons’ after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them. {29:30} And this exacting of the people be gift to be priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

{[29:31] And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place. {29:32} And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that [is] in the basket, [by] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. {29:33} And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate [and] to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat [thereof,] because they [are] holy. {29:34} And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it [is] holy. {29:35} And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all [things] which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. {29:36} And thou shalt offer every day a bullock [for] a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. {29:37} Seven days shalt thou make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy. {29:38} Now this [is that] which thou shalt offer upon the altar: two lambs of the first year day by day continually. {29:39} The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even: {29:40} And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine [for] a drink offering. {29:41} And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. {29:42} This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. {29:43} And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and [the tabernacle] shall be sanctified by my glory. {29:44} And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest’s office. {29:45} And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. {29:46} And they shall know that I [am] the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I [am] the LORD their God.
by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make [it;] and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal. [30:5] And thou shalt make the staves [of] shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. [30:6] And thou shalt put it before the vail that [is] by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that [is] over the testimony, where I will meet with thee. [30:7] And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. [30:8] And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. [30:9] Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon. [30:10] And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements; once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it [is] most holy unto the LORD.

[30:11] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [30:12] When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them, when [thou] numberest them. [30:13] This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel [is] twenty gerahs;) an half shekel [shall be] the offering of the LORD. [30:14] Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD. [30:15] The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when [they] give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls. [30:16] And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

[30:17] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [30:18] Thou shalt also make a laver [of] brass, and his foot [also of] brass, to wash [withal:] and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein. [30:19] For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereof: [30:20] When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD: [30:21] So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, [even] to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

[30:22] Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [30:23] Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred [shekels,] and of sweet cinnamon half so much, [even] two hundred and fifty [shekels,] and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty [shekels, ][30:24] And of cassia five hundred [shekels,] after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin: [30:25] And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oil. [30:26] And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony, [30:27] And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, [30:28] And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot. [30:29] And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy. [30:30] And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that [they] may minister unto me in the priest’s office. [30:31] And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations. [30:32] Upon man’s flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make [any] other like it, after the composition of it: it [is] holy, [and] it shall be holy unto you. [30:33] Whosoever compoundeth [any] like it, or whosoever putteth [any] of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

[30:34] And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; [these] sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like [weight: ][30:35] And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure [and] holy: [30:36] And thou shalt beat [some] of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy. [30:37] And [as for] the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the LORD. [30:38] Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.

[31:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [31:2] See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah: [31:3] And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship. [31:4] To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, [31:5] And in cutting of stones, to set [them,] and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship, [31:6] And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee; [31:7] The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that [is] thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle, [31:8] And the table and his furniture, and the pure candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense, [31:9] And the altar of burnt offering with all his furniture, and the laver and his foot, [31:10] And the cloths of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest’s office, [31:11] And the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy [place:] according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.

[31:12] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [31:13] Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I [am] the LORD that doth sanctify you. [31:14] Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it [is] holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth [any] work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. [31:15] Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth [any] work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. [31:16] Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath: to observe the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. [31:17] It [is] a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for [in] six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.
[31:18] And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

(32:1) And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for [as for] this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. (32:2) And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which [are] in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring [them] unto me. (32:3) And all the people brake off the golden earrings which [were] in their ears, and brought [them] unto Aaron. (32:4) And he received [them] at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These [be] thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. (32:5) And when Aaron saw [it], he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow [is] a feast unto the LORD. (32:6) And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

(32:7) And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted [themselves: ] (32:8) They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These [be] thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. (32:9) And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it [is] a stiffnecked people: (32:10) Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them in the way. (32:11) And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? (32:12) Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them in the way. (32:13) Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst, Unto thy seed will I give this land, [it is] a covenant of inheritance unto thee. (32:14) And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people. (32:15) And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony [were] in his hand: the tables [were] written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other [were] they written. (32:16) And the tables [were] the work of God, and the writing [was] the writing of God, graven upon the tables. (32:17) And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, [There is] a noise of war in the camp. (32:18) And he said, [It is] not the voice of [them that] shout for mastery, neither [is it] the voice of [them that] cry for being overcome: [but] the noise of [them that] sing do I hear. (32:19) And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount. (32:20) And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt [it] in the fire, and ground [it] to powder, and strawed [it] upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink [of it]. (32:21) And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them? (32:22) And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot; thou knowest the people, that they are [set] on mischief. (32:23) For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for [as for] this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. (32:24) And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break [it] off. So they gave [it] me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

(32:25) And when Moses saw that the people [were] naked, (for Aaron had made them naked unto [their] shame among their enemies:) (32:26) Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who [is] on the LORD'S side? [let him come] unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. (32:27) And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, [and] go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. (32:28) And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. (32:29) For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

(32:30) And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin. (32:31) And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. (32:32) Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin--; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. (32:33) And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. (32:34) Therefore now go, lead the people unto [the place] of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them. (32:35) And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

(33:1) And the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, [and] go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I sware unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it: (33:2) And I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: (33:3) Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou [art] a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way.

(33:4) And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments. (33:5) For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye [are] a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee. (33:6) And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb. (33:7) And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, [that] every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which [was] without the camp. [33:8] And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, [that] all the people rose up, and stood every man [at] his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle. [33:9] And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood [at] the door of the tabernacle, and [the] LORD talked with Moses. [33:10] And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand [at] the tabernacle door; and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man [in] his tent door. [33:11] And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

[33:12] And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people, and thou shalt not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. [33:13] Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation [is] thy people. [33:14] And he said, My presence shall go with thee: and I will give thee rest. [33:15] And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. [33:16] For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? [is it] not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that [are] upon the face of the earth. [33:17] And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. [33:18] And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. [33:19] And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee: and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. [33:20] And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live. [33:21] And the LORD said, Behold, [there is] a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: [33:22] And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cliff of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by: [33:23] And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen.

[33:24] And the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon [these] tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest. [33:25] And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount. [33:26] And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

[34:1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon [these] tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest. [34:2] And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount. [33:24] And no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

[34:4] And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone. [34:5] And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. [34:6] And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, [34:7] Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear [the guilty];] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, unto the third and to the fourth [generation. [34:8] And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. [34:9] And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for it [is] a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance.

[34:10] And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among whom thou [art] shall see the work of the LORD: for it [is] a terrible thing that I will do with thee. [34:11] Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. [34:12] Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: [34:13] But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves: [34:14] For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name [is] Jealous, [is] a jealous God: [34:15] Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and [one] call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; [34:16] And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods. [34:17] Thou shalt make thee no molten gods.

[34:18] The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib did I bring thee out from Egypt. [34:19] All that openeth the matrix [is] mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, [whether] ox or sheep, [that is male.] [34:20] But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem [him] not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.

[34:21] Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

[34:22] And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year’s end.

[34:23] Thrice in the year shall all your men children appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. [34:24] For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enslave thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year. [34:25] Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning. [34:26] The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother’s milk. [34:27] And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel. [34:28] And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

[34:29] And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses’ hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he
And Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These [are] the words which the LORD hath commanded, that [ye] should do them. [35:2] Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death. [35:3] Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

[35:4] And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This [is] the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, [35:5] Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: whosoever [is] of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass, [35:6] And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' [hair, ]

[35:7] And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood, [35:8] And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, [35:9] And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate; [35:10] And every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded: [35:11] The tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets, [35:12] The ark, and the staves thereof, [with] the mercy seat, and the vail of the covering, [35:13] The table, and his staves, and all his vessels, and the shewbread, [35:14] The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light, [35:15] And the incense altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle, [35:16] The altar of burnt offering, with his brased grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot, [35:17] The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court, [35:18] The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords, [35:19] The cloths of service, to do service in the holy [place,] the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

[35:20] And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. [35:21] And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, [and] they brought the LORD'S offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments. [35:22] And they brought, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, [and] brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold; and every man that offered [offered] an offering of gold unto the LORD. [35:23] And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' [hair,] and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought [them. ] [35:24] Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD'S offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought [it. ] [35:25] And all the women that were wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, [both] of blue, and of purple, [and] of scarlet, and of fine linen. [35:26] And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' [hair. ] [35:27] And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breastplate; [35:28] And spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. [35:29] The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

[35:30] And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; [35:31] And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; [35:32] And to devise curious works, to work in gold, in silver, and in brass, [35:33] And in the cutting of stones, to set [them,] and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work. [35:34] And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, [both] he, and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. [35:35] Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, [even] of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

[36:1] Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded. [36:2] And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, [even] every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it: [36:3] And they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it [w ithal.] And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning. [36:4] And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

[36:5] And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make. [36:6] And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing. [36:7] For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

[36:8] And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains [of] fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: [with] cherubins of cunning work made he them. [36:9] The length of one curtain [was] twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains [were] all of one size. [36:10] And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and [the other] five curtains he coupled one unto another. [36:11] And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of [another] curtain, in the coupling of the second. [36:12] Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which [was] in the coupling of the second: the loops held one [curtain] to another. [36:13] And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

[36:14] And he made curtains [of] goats’ [hair] for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. [36:15] The length of one curtain [was] thirty cubits, and four cubits [was] the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains [were] of one size. [36:16] And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. [36:17] And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second. [36:18] And he made fifty taches [of] brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one. [36:19] And he made a covering for the tent [of] rams’ skins dyed red, and a covering [of] badgers’ skins above [that.

[36:20] And he made boards for the tabernacle [of] shittim wood, standing up. [36:21] The length of a board [was] ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half. [36:22] One board had ten tenons, equally one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle. [36:23] And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward: [36:24] And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons. [36:25] And for the other side of the tabernacle, which [is] toward the north corner, he made twenty boards, [36:26] And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. [36:27] And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. [36:28] And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. [36:29] And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners. [36:30] And there were eight boards; and their sockets [were] sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

[36:31] And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, [36:32] And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward. [36:33] And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other. [36:34] And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings [of] gold [to be] places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

[36:35] And he made a vail [of] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: [with] cherubims made he it of cunning work. [36:36] And he made thereunto four pillars [of] shittim [wood,] and overlaid them with gold: their hooks [were] of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

[36:37] And he made an hanging for the tabernacle door [of] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needlework; [36:38] And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapiters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets [were] of brass.

[37:1] And Bezaleel made the ark [of] shittim wood: two cubits and a half [was] the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it: [37:2] And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about. [37:3] And he cast for it four rings of gold, [to be set] by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it. [37:4] And he made staves [of] shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold. [37:5] And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

[37:6] And he made the mercy seat [of] pure gold: two cubits and a half [was] the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof. [37:7] And he made two cherubims [of] gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat; [37:8] One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the [other] end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof. [37:9] And the cherubims spread out [their] wings on high, [and] covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another; [even] to the mercy seatward were the faces of the cherubims.

[37:10] And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits [was] the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof: [37:11] And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about. [37:12] Also he made thereunto a border of an handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about. [37:13] And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that [were] in the four feet thereof. [37:14] Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table. [37:15] And he made the staves [of] shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table. [37:16] And he made the vessels which [were] upon the table, his dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, [of] pure gold.

[37:17] And he made the candlestick [of] pure gold: [of] beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same: [37:18] And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof: [37:19] Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick. [37:20] And in the candlestick [were] four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers: [37:21] And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it. [37:22] Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it [was] one beaten work [of] pure gold. [37:23] And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, [of] pure gold. [37:24] Of a talent of pure gold he made it, and all the vessels thereof.

[37:25] And he made the incense altar [of] shittim wood, the length of it [was] a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it [was] foursquare; and two cubits [was] the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same. [37:26] And he overlaid it with pure gold, [both] the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about. [37:27] And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal. [37:28] And he made the staves [of] shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

[37:29] And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

[38:1] And he made the altar of burnt offering [of] shittim wood: five cubits [was] the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; [it was] foursquare; and three cubits the height thereof. [38:2] And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass. [38:3] And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, [and] the fleshhooks, and the firepans: all the vessels thereof made he [of] brass. [38:4] And he made for the altar a brasen grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it. [38:5] And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, [to be] places for the staves. [38:6] And he made the staves [of] shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass. [38:7] And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

[38:8] And he made the laver [of] brass, and the foot of it [of] brass, of the lookingglasses of [the women] assembling, which assembled [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

[38:9] And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court [were of] fine twined linen, an hundred cubits: [38:10] Their pillars [were] twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets [were of] silver; [38:11] And for the north side [the hangings were] an hundred cubits, their pillars [were] twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets [of] silver. [38:12] And for the west side [were] hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets [of] silver. [38:13] And for the east side eastward fifty cubits. [38:14] The hangings of the one side [of the gate were] fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. [38:15] And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, [were] hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. [38:16] All the hangings of the court round about [were of] fine twined linen. [38:17] And the sockets for the pillars [were of] brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets [of] silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters [of] silver; and all the pillars of the court [were] filleted with silver. [38:18] And the hanging for the gate of the court [was] needlework, [of] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits [was] the length, and the height in the breadth [was] five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court. [38:19] And their pillars [were] four, and their sockets [of] brass four; their hooks [of] silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets [of] silver. [38:20] And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, [were of] brass.

[38:21] This is the sum of the tabernacle, [even] of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, [for] the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. [38:22] And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses. [38:23] And with him [was] Aholib, son of Ahishamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen. [38:24] All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy [place] for even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. [38:25] And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation [was] an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and three-score and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: [38:26] A bekah for every man, [that is] half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty [men]. [38:27] And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the tabernacle, and the sockets of the vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket. [38:28] And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five [shekels] he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them. [38:29] And the brass of the offering [was] seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

[38:30] And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, [38:31] And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

[39:1] And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made cloths of service, to do service in the holy [place], and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses. [39:2] And he made the ephod [of] gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. [39:3] And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut [it into] wires, to work [it] in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, [with] cunning work. [39:4] They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple [it] together: by the two edges was it coupled together. [39:5] And the curious girdle of his ephod, that [was] upon it, [was] of the same, according to the work thereof; [of] gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

[39:6] And they wrought onyx stones inclosed inouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel. [39:7] And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

[39:8] And he made the breastplate [of] cunning work, like the work of the ephod; [of] gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. [39:9] It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span [was] the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, [being] doubled. [39:10] And they set in it four rows of stones: [the first] row [was] a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this [was] the first row. [39:11] And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. [39:12] And the third row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: [they were] inclosed inouches of gold in their inclosings. [39:13] And the stones [were] according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, [like] the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes. [39:14] And they made upon the breastplate chains of gold, to couple the stones, and to cast the stones in them. [39:15] And they made upon the breastplate chains of gold, to couple the stones, and to cast the stones in them.
And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, on the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the congregation, and thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail. And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof. And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle. And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And thou shall set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein. And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate. And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy. And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy. And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it. And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water. And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest’s office. And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats: And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest’s office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

And it came to pass in the second year, on the first [day] of the month, [that] the tabernacle was reared up. And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars. And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark: And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail. And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail. And he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he set up the hanging [at] the door of the tabernacle. And he put the altar of burnt offering [by] the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.
And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal. And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat: When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed: as the LORD commanded Moses. And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys: But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up. For the cloud of the LORD [was] upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel,
{1:1} And the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, {1:2} Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, [even] of the herd, and of the flock. {1:3} If his offering [be] a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. {1:4} And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. {1:5} And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that [is by] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: {1:6} And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces. {1:7} And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire: {1:8} And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that [is] on the fire which [is] upon the altar: {1:9} But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, [to be] a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

{1:10} And if his offering [be] of the flocks, [namely,] of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. {1:11} And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar: {1:12} And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that [is] on the fire which [is] upon the altar: {1:13} But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring [it] all, and burn [it] upon the altar: it [is] a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

{1:14} And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD [be] of fowls, then shall he bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. {1:15} And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn [it] on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar: {1:16} And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes: {1:17} And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, [but] shall not divide [it] asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that [is] upon the fire: it [is] a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

{2:1} And when any will offer a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be [of] fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon: {2:2} And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, [to be] an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: {2:3} And the remnant of the meat offerings [shall be] Aaron's and his sons': [it is] a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

{2:4} And thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, [it shall be] unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. {2:5} And if thy oblation [be] a meat offering [baken] in a pan, it shall be [of] fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil. {2:6} Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it [is] a meat offering.

{2:7} And if thy oblation [be] a meat offering [baken] in the frying pan, it shall be made [of] fine flour with oil. {2:8} And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar: {2:9} And the priest shall take from the meat offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn [it] upon the altar: [it is] an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. {2:10} And that which is left of the meat offering [shall be] Aaron's and his sons': [it is] a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire. {2:11} No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

{2:12} As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour. {2:13} And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt. {2:14} And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, [even] corn beaten out of full ears. {2:15} And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it [is] a meat offering. {2:16} And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, [part] of the beaten corn thereof, and [part] of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: [it is] an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

{3:1} And if his oblation [be] a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer [it] of the herd; whether [it be] a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. {3:2} And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. {3:3} And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that [is] upon the inwards, [3:4] And the two kidneys, and the fat that [is] on them, which [is] by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away. {3:5} And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which [is] upon the wood that [is] on the fire: [it is] an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

{3:6} And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD [be] of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. {3:7} If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD. {3:8} And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar. {3:9} And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, [and] the whole rump, it shall he take off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that [is] upon the inwards, [3:10] And the two kidneys, and the fat that [is] upon them, which [is] by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. [3:11] And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: [it is] the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

[3:12] And if his offering [be] a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD. [3:13] And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about. [3:14] And he shall offer thereof his offering, [even] an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that [is] upon the inwards, [3:15] And the two kidneys, and the fat that [is] upon them, which [is] by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. [3:16] And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: [it is] the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour: all the fat [is] the LORD’S. [3:17] [It shall be] a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

[3:18] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [4:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: [4:3] If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering. [4:4] And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock’s head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. [4:5] And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock’s blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation: [4:6] And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle [it] seven times before the LORD, [even] before the vail.

[4:7] And the priest shall put [some] of the blood upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and sprinkle the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary. [4:8] And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for a sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that [is] upon the inwards, [4:9] And the two kidneys, and the fat that [is] upon them, which [is] by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. [4:10] As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering. [4:11] And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung. [4:12] Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

[4:13] And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done [somewhat] against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and be guilty; [4:14] When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation: [4:15] And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD. [4:16] And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock’s blood to the tabernacle of the congregation: [4:17] And the priest shall dip his finger [in some] of the blood, and sprinkle [it] seven times before the LORD, [even] before the vail. [4:18] And he shall put [some] of the blood upon the horns of the altar which [is] before the LORD, that [is] in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which [is at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [4:19] And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn [it] upon the altar. [4:20] And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. [4:21] And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it [is] a sin offering for the congregation.

[4:22] When a ruler hath sinned, and done [somewhat] through ignorance [against] any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty; [4:23] Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish: [4:24] And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it [is] a sin offering. [4:25] And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. [4:26] And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

[4:27] And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth [somewhat against] any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; [4:28] Or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. [4:29] And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. [4:30] And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar. [4:31] And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn [it] upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him. [4:32] And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish. [4:33] And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. [4:34] And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar: [4:35] And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

[5:1] And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and [is] a witness, whether he hath seen or known [of it;] if he do not utter [it,] then he shall bear his iniquity. [5:2] Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether [it be] a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and [if] it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty. {5:3} Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness [it be] that a man shall defile withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth [of it,] then he shall be guilty. {5:4} Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with [his] lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever [it be] that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth [of it,] then he shall be guilty in one of these. {5:5} And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these [things:] that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that [thing:] {5:6} And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin. {5:7} And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD: one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. {5:8} And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer [that] which [is] for the sin offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide [it] asunder: {5:9} And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it [is] a sin offering. {5:10} And he shall offer the second [for] a burnt offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

{5:11} But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put [any] frankincense thereon: for it [is] a sin offering. {5:12}
Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, [even] a memorial thereof, and burn [it] on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it [is] a sin offering. {5:13} And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and [the remnant] shall be the priest’s, as a meat offering.

{5:14} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {5:15}
If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering: {5:16} And he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

{5:17} And if a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he wist [it] not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. {5:18} And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist [it] not, and it shall be forgiven him. {5:19}
It [is] a trespass offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

{6:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {6:2} If a soul sin, and commit a trespass against the LORD, and lie unto his neighbour in that which was delivered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or hath deceived his neighbour; {6:3} Or have found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and swears false, in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:
{6:4} Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found, {6:5} Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely: he shall ever restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, [and] give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his trespass offering. {6:6} And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: {6:7} And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

{6:8} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {6:9} Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This [is] the law of the burnt offering: It [is] the burnt offering, because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it. {6:10} And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. {6:11} And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place. {6:12} And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings. {6:13} The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

{6:14} And this [is] the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.
{6:15} And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which [is] upon the meat offering, and shall burn [it] upon the altar [for] a sweet savour, [even] the memorial of it, unto the LORD. {6:16} And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. {6:17} It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it [unto them for] their portion of my offerings made by fire; it [is] most holy, as [is] the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.
{6:18} All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. [It shall be] a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them shall be holy.

{6:19} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {6:20}
This [is] the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.
{6:21} In a pan it shall be made with oil; [and when it is] baken, thou shalt bring it in: [and] the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer [for] a sweet savour unto the LORD. {6:22} And the priest of his sons that is anointed in the stead shall offer it: [it is] a statute for ever unto the LORD. {6:23} For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

{6:24} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {6:25}
Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This [is] the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it [is] most holy. {6:26} The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. {6:27} Whatever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place. {6:28} But the earthen vessel wherein it is soddn shall be broken: and if it be soddn in a brassen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water. {6:29} All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it [is] most holy. {6:30} And no sin offering, whereof [any] of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile [withal] in the holy [place,] shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

{7:1} Likewise this [is] the law of the trespass offering: it [is] most holy. {7:2} In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall be sprinkled round about upon the altar. {7:3} And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards. {7:4} And the two kidneys, and the fat that [is] on them, which [is] by the flanks, and the caul [that is] above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away: {7:5} And the priest shall burn them upon the altar [for] an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it [is] a trespass offering. {7:6} Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it [is] most holy.

{7:7} As the sin offering [is,] so [is] the trespass offering: [there is] one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it. [7:8] And the priest that offereth any man’s burnt offering, [even] the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered. {7:9} And all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, and in the pan, shall be the priest’s that offereth it. {7:10} And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one [as much] as another. {7:11} And this [is] the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD. {7:12} If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried. {7:13} Besides the cakes, he shall offer [for] his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. {7:14} And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation [for] an heave offering unto the LORD, [and] it shall be the priest’s that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings. {7:15} And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall not leave any of it until the morning. {7:16} But if the sacrifice of his offering [be] a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten: {7:17} But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire. {7:18} And if [any] of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity. {7:19} And the flesh that toucheth any unclean [thing] shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire; and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof. {7:20} But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. {7:21} Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean [thing, as] the uncleanness of man, or [any] unclean beast, or any abominable unclean [thing,] and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which [pertain] unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

{7:22} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {7:23} Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat. {7:24} And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it. {7:25} For whatsoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth [it] shall be cut off from his people. {7:26} Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, [whether it be] of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings. {7:27} Whatsoever soul [it be] that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

{7:28} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {7:29} Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. {7:30} His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved [for] a wave offering before the LORD. {7:31} And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. {7:32} And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest [for] an heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. {7:33} He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for [his] part. {7:34} For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

{7:35} This [is the portion] of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day [when] he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest’s office: {7:36} Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and to his sons by a statute for ever throughout their generations. {7:37} This [is] the law of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings; {7:38} Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

{8:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {8:2} Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread; {8:3} And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. {8:4} And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. {8:5} And Moses said unto the congregation, This [is] the thing which the LORD commanded to be done. {8:6} And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. {8:7} And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound [it] unto him therewith. {8:8} And he put the breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim. {8:9} And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, [even] upon his forehead, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses. [8:10] And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that [was] therein, and sanctified them. [8:11] And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them. [8:12] And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron’s head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. [8:13] And Moses brought Aaron’s sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses. [8:14] And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering. [8:15] And he slew [it:] and Moses took the blood, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it. [8:16] And he took all the fat that [was] upon the inwards, and caul [above] the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned [it] upon the altar. [8:17] But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

[8:18] And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. [8:19] And he killed [it:] and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. [8:20] And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat. [8:21] And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it [was] a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, [and] an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

[8:22] And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. [8:23] And he slew [it:] and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. [8:24] And he brought Aaron’s sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. [8:25] And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that [was] upon the inwards, and the caul [above] the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder: [8:26] And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that [was] before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put [them] on the fat, and upon the right shoulder: [8:27] And he put all upon Aaron’s hands, and upon his sons’ hands, and waved them [for] a wave offering before the LORD. [8:28] And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt [them] on the altar upon the burnt offering: they [were] consecrations for a sweet savour: it [is] an offering made by fire unto the LORD. [8:29] And Moses took the breast, and waved it [for] a wave offering before the LORD: [for] of the ram of consecration it was Moses’ part; as the LORD commanded Moses. [8:30] And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which [was] upon the altar, and sprinkled [it] upon Aaron, [and] upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons’ garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, [and] his garments, and his sons, and his sons’ garments with him.

[8:31] And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh of the burnt offering upon the altar of the burnt offering: and there eat it with the bread that [is] in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. [8:32] And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire. [8:33] And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you. [8:34] As he hath done this day, [so] the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you. [8:35] Therefore shall ye abide [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded. [8:36] So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

[9:1] And it came to pass on the eighth day, [that] Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel. [9:2] And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer [them] before the LORD. [9:3] And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, [both] of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering: [9:4] Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat offering mingled with oil: for to day the LORD will appear unto you.

[9:5] And they brought [that] which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. [9:6] And Moses said, This [is] the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you. [9:7] And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

[9:8] Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which [was] for himself. [9:9] And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar: [9:10] But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses. [9:11] And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp. [9:12] And he slew the burnt offering: and Aaron’s sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar. [9:13] And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt [them] upon the altar. [9:14] And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt [them] upon the burnt offering on the altar.

[9:15] And he brought the people’s offering, and took the goat, which [was] the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first. [9:16] And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the manner. [9:17] And he brought the meat offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt [it] upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning. [9:18] He slew also the bullock and the ram [for] a sacrifice of peace offerings, which [was] for the people: and Aaron’s sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about. [9:19] And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth [the inwards,] and the kidneys, and the caul [above] the liver: [9:20] And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar: [9:21] And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved
[for] a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded. [9:22] And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings. [9:23] And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people. [9:24] And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and peace offerings. [9:25] Then Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people. And the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

[10:1] And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not. [10:2] And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. [10:3] Then Moses said unto Aaron, This [is it] that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace. [10:4] And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp. [10:5] So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said. [10:6] And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled. [10:7] And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the LORD [is] upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

[10:8] And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying, [10:9] Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation; lest ye die: [it shall be] a statute for ever throughout your generations: [10:10] And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean; [10:11] And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

[10:12] And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it [is] most holy: [10:13] And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it [is] thy due, and thy sons’ due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded. [10:14] And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for [they be] thy due, and thy sons’ due, [which] are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. [10:15] The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave [it for] a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons’ with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

[10:16] And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron [which were] left [alive], saying. [10:17] Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it [is] most holy, and [God] hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? [10:18] Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy [place:] ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy [place:] as I commanded. [10:19] And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and [if] I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? [10:20] And when Moses heard [that,] he was content.

[11:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them, [11:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, These [are] the beasts which ye shall eat among all the beasts that [are] on the earth. [11:3] Whosoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, [and] cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat. [11:4] Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: [as] the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you. [11:5] And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof: he [is] unclean unto you. [11:6] And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he [is] unclean unto you. [11:7] And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he [is] unclean to you. [11:8] Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcasse shall ye not touch; they [are] unclean to you.

[11:9] These shall ye eat of all that [are] in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, they shall ye eat. [11:10] And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which [is] in the waters, they [shall be] an abomination unto you: [11:11] They shall be even an abomination unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination. [11:12] Whosoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that [shall be] an abomination unto you.

[11:13] And these [are they which ye] shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they [are] an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray, [11:14] And the vulture, and the kite after his kind; [11:15] Every raven after his kind; [11:16] And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind, [11:17] And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl, [11:18] And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, [11:19] And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat. [11:20] All fowls that creep, going upon [all] four, [shall be] an abomination unto you. [11:21] Yet these may ye eat of flying creeping thing that goeth upon [all] four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth: [11:22] [Even] these of them ye may eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind. [11:23] But all [other] flying creeping things, which have four feet, [shall be] an abomination unto you. [11:24] And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even. [11:25] And whosoever beareth [ought] of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. [11:26] [The carcasses] of every beast which divideth the hoof, and [is] not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, [are] unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean. [11:27] And whosoever goeth upon the carcase of them, among all manner of beasts that go on [all] four, those [are] unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even. (11:28) And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they [are] unclean unto you.
[Leviticus]

[11:29] These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind. [11:30] And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole. [11:31] These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even. [11:32] And upon whatsoever [any] of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether [it be] any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel [it be,] wherein [any] work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed. [11:33] And every earthen vessel, wherein [any] of them felleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it. [11:34] Of all meat which may be eaten, [that] on which [such] water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every [such] vessel shall be unclean. [11:35] And every [thing] whereunto [any part] of their carcase felleth shall be unclean; [whether it be] oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: [for] they [are] unclean, and shall be unclean unto you. [11:36] Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean. [11:37] And if [any part] of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it [shall be] clean. [11:38] But if [any] water be put upon the seed, and [any part] of their carcase fall thereon, it [shall be] unclean unto you. [11:39] And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even. [11:40] And he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. [11:41] And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth [shall be] an abomination: it shall not be eaten. [11:42] Whosoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon [all] four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat: for they [are] an abomination. [11:43] Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby. [11:44] For I [am] the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy: for I [am] holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. [11:45] For I [am] the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I [am] holy. [11:46] This [is] the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth: [11:47] To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

[12:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [12:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean. [12:3] And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. [12:4] And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled. [12:5] But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days. [12:6] And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest: [12:7] Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This [is] the law for her that hath born a male or a female. [12:8] And if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

[13:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying, [13:2] When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or a bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh [like] the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests: [13:3] And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and [when] the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight [be] deeper than the skin of his flesh, it [is] a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. [13:4] If the bright spot [be] white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight [be] not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up [him that hath] the plague seven days: [13:5] And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, [if] the plague in his sight be at a stay, [and] the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more: [13:6] And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, [if] the plague [be] somewhat dark, [and] the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it [is but] a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. [13:7] But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again: [13:8] And [if] the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it [is] a leprosy.

[13:9] When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest; [13:10] And the priest shall see [him:] and, behold, [if] the rising [be] white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and [there be] quick raw flesh in the rising: [13:11] It [is] an old leprosy in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and [there be] quick raw flesh in the rising; [13:12] And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of [him that hath] the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh: [13:13] Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, [if] the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce [him] clean [that hath] the plague: it is all turned white: he [is] clean. [13:14] But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean. [13:15] And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: [for] the raw flesh [is] unclean: it [is] a leprosy. [13:16] Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest: [13:17] And the priest shall see him: and, behold, [if] the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce [him] clean [that hath] the plague: he [is] clean.

[13:18] The flesh also, in which, [even] in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed, [13:19] And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest; [13:20] And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, [it be] in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it [is] a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil. [13:21] But if the priest look on it, and, behold, [there be] no white hairs

He is a leprous man, he [is] unclean: the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it [is] a plague.

13:23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, [and] spread not, it [is] a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

13:24 Or if there be [any] flesh, in the skin whereof [there is] a hot burning, and the quick [flesh] that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white; 13:25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, [if] the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it [be] in sight deeper than the skin; it [is] a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it [is] the plague of leprosy. 13:26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, [there be] no white hair in the bright spot, and it [be] no lower than the [other] skin, but [be] somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: 13:27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: [and] if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it [is] the plague of leprosy. 13:28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, [and] spread not in the skin, but it [be] somewhat dark; it [is] a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it [is] an inflammation of the burning.

13:29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard; 13:30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it [be] in sight deeper than the skin; [and there be] in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it [is] a dry scall, [even] a leprosy upon the head or beard. 13:31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it [be] not in sight deeper than the skin, and [that there is] no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up [him that hath] the plague of the scall seven days: 13:32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, [if] the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall [be] not in sight deeper than the skin; 13:33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shaven; and the priest shall shut up [him that hath] the scall seven days more: 13:34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, [if] the scall be not spread in the skin, nor [be] in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. 13:35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing; 13:36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he [is] unclean. 13:37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and [that] there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he [is] clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

13:38 If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, [even] white bright spots; 13:39 Then the priest shall look: and, behold, [if] the bright spots in the skin of their flesh [be] darkish white; it [is] a freckled spot [that] growth in the skin; he [is] clean. 13:40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he [is] bald; [yet] is he clean. 13:41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he [is] bald; [yet] is he clean. 13:42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it [is] a leprosy springing up in his bald forehead. 13:43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, [if] the rising of the sore [be] white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh; 13:44 He is a leprous man, he [is] unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague [is] in his head. 13:45 And the leper in whom the plague [is], his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. 13:46 All the days wherein the plague [shall be] in him he shall be defiled; he [is] unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp [shall] his habitation be.

13:47 The garment also that the plague of leprosies is in, [whether it be] a woollen garment, or a linen garment; 13:48 Whether [it be] in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of woollen: whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin; 13:49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it [is] a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest: 13:50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up [it that hath] the plague seven days: 13:51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, [or] in any work that is made of skin; the plague [is] a fretting leprosy: it [is] unclean. 13:52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it [is] a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire. 13:53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; 13:54 Then the priest shall command that they wash [the thing] wherein the plague [is], and he shall shut it up seven days more: 13:55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, [if] the plague have not changed its colour, and the plague be not spread; it [is] unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire: it [is] fret inward, [whether] it [be] bare within or without. 13:56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague [be] somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: 13:57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it [is] a spreading [plague]: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague [is] with fire. 13:58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin [it be,] which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean. 13:59 This [is] the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

14:1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 14:2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought unto the priest: 14:3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, [if] the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper: 14:4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive [and] clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: 14:5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water: 14:6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird [that was] killed over the running water: 14:7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. 14:8 And he shall wash the clothes he put on, and shall shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days. 14:9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off; and he shall wash his clothes, and shall bathe his flesh in water; and he shall be clean. [14:10] And on the eighth day he shall take two lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenths of fine flour [for] a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. [14:11] And the priest that maketh [him] clean shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: [14:12] And the priest shall take one he lamb, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them [for] a wave offering before the LORD: [14:13] And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for as the sin offering [is] the priest’s, [so is] the trespass offering: it [is] most holy: [14:14] And the priest shall take [some] of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put [it] upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: [14:15] And the priest shall take [some] of the log of oil, and pour [it] into the palm of his own left hand: [14:16] And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that [is] in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD: [14:17] And of the rest of the oil that [is] in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering: [14:18] And the remnant of the oil that [is] in the priest’s hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD. [14:19] And the priest shall offer the sin offering and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering: [14:20] And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean. [14:21] And if he [be] poor, and cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb [for] a trespass offering to be cleansed, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering: [14:22] And two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering, [14:23] And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD. [14:24] And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them [for] a wave offering before the LORD: [14:25] And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take [some] of the blood of the trespass offering, and put [it] upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: [14:26] And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand: [14:27] And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger [some] of the oil that [is] in his left hand seven times before the LORD: [14:28] And the priest shall put of the oil that [is] in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering: [14:29] And the rest of the oil that [is] in the priest’s hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD. [14:30] And he shall offer the one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get; [14:31] [Even] such as he is able to get, the one [for] a sin offering, and the other [for] a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD. [14:32] This [is] the law [of him] in whom [is] the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get [that which pertaineth] to his cleansing.

[14:33] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [14:34] When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession; [14:35] And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me [there is] as it were a plague in the house: [14:36] Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go [into it] to see the plague, that all that [is] in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house: [14:37] And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, [if] the plague [be] in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight [are] lower than the wall; [14:38] Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days: [14:39] And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, [if] the plague be spread in the walls of the house: [14:40] Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague [is], and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city: [14:41] And he shall cause the house to be scraped within about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place: [14:42] And they shall take other stones, and put [them] in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house. [14:43] And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered; [14:44] Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, [if] the plague be spread in the house, it [is] a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean. [14:45] And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry [them] forth out of the city into an unclean place. [14:46] Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even. [14:47] And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes. [14:48] And if the priest shall come in, and look [upon it,] and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. [14:49] And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: [14:50] And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water: [14:51] And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times: [14:52] And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet: [14:53] But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean. [14:54] This [is] the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall, [14:55] And for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house, [14:56] And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot: [14:57] To teach when [it is] unclean, and when [it is] clean: this [is] the law of leprosy.

[15:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [15:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, [because of] his issue he [is] unclean. (15:3) And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it [is] his uncleanness. (15:4) Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean. (15:5) And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:6) And he that sitteth on [any] thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:7) And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:8) And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:9) And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean. (15:10) And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth [any] of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:11) And whosoever toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:12) And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water. (15:13) And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. (15:14) And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest. (15:15) And the priest shall take of the issue of the woman, [for] a sin offering, and the other [for] a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue. (15:16) And if any man’s seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:17) And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even. (15:18) The woman also with whom man shall lie [with] seed of copulation, they shall [both] bathe [themselves] in water, and be unclean until the even.

(15:19) And if a woman have an issue, [and] her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even. (15:20) And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean. (15:21) And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:22) And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:23) And if it [be] on [her] bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even. (15:24) And if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth [shall be] unclean. (15:25) And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation: all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean. (15:26) Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation. (15:27) And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even. (15:28) But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. (15:29) And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. (15:30) And the priest shall offer the one [for] a sin offering, and the other [for] a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness. (15:31) Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that [is] among them. (15:32) This [is] the law of him that hath an issue, and [of] him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith: (15:33) And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

(16:1) And the LORD spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died: (16:2) And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy [place] within the vail before the mercy seat, which [is] upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat. (16:3) Thus shall Aaron come into the holy [place:] with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. (16:4) He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these [are] holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and [so] put them on. (16:5) And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. (16:6) And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which [is] for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house. (16:7) And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. (16:8) And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat. (16:9) And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD’S lot fell, and offer him [for] a sin offering. (16:10) But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, [and] to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness. (16:11) And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which [is] for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which [is] for himself: (16:12) And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring [it] within the vail: (16:13) And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that [is] upon the testimony, that he die not: (16:14) And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle [it] with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

(16:15) Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that [is] for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: (16:16) And he shall make an atonement for the holy [place:] because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that...
remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness. [16:17] And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy [place,] until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. [16:18] And he shall go out unto the altar that [is] before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put [it] upon the horns of the altar round about. [16:19] And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel. [16:20] And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy [place,] and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat: [16:21] And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send [him] away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness: [16:22] And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness. [16:23] And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy [place,] and shall leave them there: [16:24] And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people. [16:25] And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar. [16:26] And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp. [16:27] And the bullock [for] the sin offering, and the goat [for] the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy [place,] shall [one] carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. [16:28] And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp. [16:29] And [this] shall be a statute for ever unto you: [that] in the seventh month, on the tenth [day] of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, [whether it be] one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you: [16:30] For on that day shall [the priest] make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, [that] ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. [16:31] It [shall be] a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever. [16:32] And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest’s office in his father’s stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, [even] the holy garments: [16:33] And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation. [16:34] And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses. [17:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [17:2] Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them; This [is] the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying, [17:3] What man soever [there be] of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth [it] out of the camp, [17:4] And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people: [17:5] To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them [for] peace offerings unto the LORD. [17:6] And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD. [17:7] And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations. [17:8] And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man [there be] of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt offering of sacrifice, [17:9] And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people. [17:10] And whatsoever man [there be] of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. [17:11] For the life of the flesh [is] in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it [is] the blood [that] maketh an atonement for the soul. [17:12] Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood. [17:13] And whatsoever man [there be] of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust. [17:14] For [it is] the life of all flesh; the blood of it [is] for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh [is] the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off. [17:15] And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean. [17:16] But if he wash [them] not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity. [18:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [18:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the LORD your God. [18:3] After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances. [18:4] Ye shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I [am] the LORD your God. [18:5] Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I [am] the LORD. [18:6] None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover [their] nakedness: [1am] the LORD. [18:7] The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. [18:8] The nakedness of thy father’s wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father’s nakedness. [18:9] The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, [whether she be]

<td>born at home, or born abroad, [even] their nakedness thou shalt not uncover. [18:10] The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, [even] their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs [is] thine own nakedness. [18:11] The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she [is] thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. (18:12) Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she [is] thy father's near kinswoman. [18:13] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she [is] thy mother's near kinswoman. [18:14] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she [is] thine aunt. [18:15] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she [is] thy son's wife: thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. [18:16] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it [is] thy brother's nakedness. [18:17] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; [for] they [are] her near kinswomen: it [is] wickedness. [18:18] Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex [her,] to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life [time.]] [18:19] Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness. [18:20] Moreover thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her. [18:21] And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through [the fire] to Moloch, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I [am] the LORD. [18:22] Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it [is] abomination. [18:23] Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it [is] confusion. [18:24] Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: [18:25] And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. [18:26] Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit [any] of these abominations; [neither] any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: [18:27] (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which [were] before you, and the land is defiled:) [18:28] That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that [were] before you. [18:29] For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit [them] shall be cut off from among their people. [18:30] Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not [any one] of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I [am] the LORD your God.</td>

| 19:1 | And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [19:2] Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God [am] holy. |
| 19:3 | Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I [am] the LORD your God. |
| 19:4 | Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I [am] the LORD your God. |
| 19:5 | And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will. [19:6] It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire. [19:7] And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it [is] abominable; it shall not be accepted. [19:8] Therefore [every one] that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. |
| 19:9 | And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. [19:10] And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather [every] grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I [am] the LORD your God. |
| 19:11 | Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. |
| 19:12 | And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I [am] the LORD. |
| 19:13 | Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob [him:] the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. |
| 19:14 | Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I [am] the LORD. |
| 19:15 | Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: [but] in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour. |
| 19:16 | Thou shalt not go up and down [as] a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I [am] the LORD. |
| 19:17 | Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. |
| 19:18 | Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I [am] the LORD. |
| 19:19 | Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee. |
| 19:20 | And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, that [is] a bondmaid, betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; she shall be scourged; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free. [19:21] And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, [even] a ram for a trespass offering. [19:22] And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him. |
| 19:23 | And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of. [19:24] But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to praise the LORD [withal. ] [19:25] And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I [am] the LORD your God. |
[19:26] Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood: neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times. [19:27] Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard. [19:28] Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

[19:29] Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

[19:30] Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

[19:31] Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

[19:32] Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD.

[19:33] And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him. [19:34] But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

[19:35] Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure. [19:36] Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt. [19:37] Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

[20:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [20:2] Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever [he be] of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth [any] of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones. [20:3] And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. [20:4] And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not: [20:5] Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

[20:6] And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

[20:7] Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

[20:8] And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the LORD which sanctify you.

[20:9] For every one that curseth his father or his mother; he shall surely be put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

[20:10] And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, [even he] that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. [20:11] And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. [20:12] And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them. [20:13] If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. [20:14] And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you. [20:15] And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. [20:16] And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. [20:17] And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. [20:18] And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people. [20:19] And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity. [20:20] And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless. [20:21] And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

[20:22] Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out. [20:23] And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. [20:24] But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people. [20:25] Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. [20:26] And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

[20:27] A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them.

[21:1] And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people: [21:2] But for his kin, that is near unto him, [that is,] for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother, [21:3] And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled. [21:4] But he shall not defile himself; [being] a chief man among his people, to profane himself. [21:5] They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. [21:6] They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, [and] the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy. (21:7) They shall not take a wife [that is] a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he [is] holy unto his God. (21:8) Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD, which sanctify you, [am] holy.

(21:9) And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire. (21:10) And [he that is] the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes; (21:11) Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother; (21:12) Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God [is] upon him: I [am] the LORD. (21:13) And he shall take a wife in her virginity. (21:14) A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, [or] an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. (21:15) Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him.

(21:16) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (21:17) Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever [he be] of thy seed in their generations that hath [any] blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God. (21:18) For whatsoever man [he be] that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing superfluous, (21:19) Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded, (21:20) Or crooknecked, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken; (21:21) No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God. (21:22) He shall eat the bread of his God, [both] of the most holy, and of the holy. (21:23) Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them. (21:24) And Moses told [it] unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

(22:1) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (22:2) Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever [he be] of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering, (22:3) Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats. (22:4) But whatsoever hath a blemish, [that] shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. (22:5) And whatsoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish [his] vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. (22:6) Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD. (22:7) Neither a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer [for] a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. (22:8) Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make [any offering thereof] in your land. (22:9) Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

(22:10) And the priest's daughter be a widow, or a divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

(22:11) And if a man eat [of] the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth [part] thereof unto it, and shall give [it] unto the priest with the holy thing. (22:12) And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD; (22:13) But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

(22:14) And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth [part] thereof unto it, and shall give [it] unto the priest with the holy thing. (22:15) And the priest shall eat it, that it may atone for his mistake. (22:16) And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth [part] thereof unto it, and shall give [it] unto the priest with the holy thing. (22:17) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (22:18) Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever [he be] of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering; (22:19) Ye shall offer [at your own will] a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats. (22:20) But whatsoever hath a blemish, [that] shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. (22:21) And whatsoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish [his] vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. (22:22) Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD. (22:23) Either a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer [for] a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. (22:24) Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make [any offering thereof] in your land. (22:25) Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption [is] in them, [and] blemishes [be] in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

(22:26) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (22:27) When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD. (22:28) And [whether it be] cow or ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young both in one day. (22:29) And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer [it] at your own will. (22:30) On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I [am] the LORD. (22:31) Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I [am] the LORD. (22:32) Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I [am] the LORD which hallow you. (22:33) That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I [am] the LORD. proclaim [to be] holy convocations, [even] these [are] my feasts. {23:3} Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day [is] the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation: ye shall do no work therein: [it is] the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

{23:4} These [are] the feasts of the LORD, [even] holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons. {23:5} In the fourteenth [day] of the first month at even [is] the LORD’S passover. {23:6} And on the fifteenth day of the same month [is] the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread. {23:7} In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein. {23:8} But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day [is] an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

{23:9} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {23:10} Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest: {23:11} And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. {23:12} And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD. {23:13} And the meat offering thereof [shall be] two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD [for] a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof [shall be] of wine, the fourth [part] of an hin. {23:14} And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: [it shall be] a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

{23:15} And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete: {23:16} Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD. {23:17} Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; [they are] the firstfruits unto the LORD. {23:18} And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be [for] a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, [even] an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD. {23:19} Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings. {23:20} And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits [for] a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. {23:21} And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, [that] it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

{23:22} And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest; thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I [am] the LORD your God.

{23:23} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {23:24} Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first [day] of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation. {23:25} Ye shall do no servile work [therein:] but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

{23:26} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {23:27} Also on the tenth [day] of this seventh month [there shall be] a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD. {23:28} And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it [is] a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God. {23:29} For whatsoever soul [it be] that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people. {23:30} And whatsoever soul [it be] that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people. {23:31} Ye shall do no manner of work: [it shall be] a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. {23:32} It [shall be] unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth [day] of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

{23:33} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {23:34} Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month [shall be] the feast of tabernacles [for] seven days unto the LORD. {23:35} On the first day [shall be] an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work [therein. ]{23:36} Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it [is] a solemn assembly; [and] ye shall do no servile work [therein. ]{23:37} These [are] the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim [to be] holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day: {23:38} Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD. {23:39} Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day [shall be] a sabbath, and on the eighth day [shall be] a sabbath. {23:40} And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. {23:41} And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. [It shall be] a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month. {23:42} Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths: {23:43} That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I [am] the LORD your God. {23:44} And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

{24:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {24:2} Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto the LORD pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually. {24:3} Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: [it shall be] a statute for ever in your generations. {24:4} He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the LORD continually. {24:5} And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake. [24:6] And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD. [24:7] And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon [each] row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial. [even] an offering made by fire unto the LORD. [24:8] Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually. [being] taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant. [24:9] And it shall be Aaron’s and his sons’; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is [is] most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

[24:10] And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father [was] an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish [woman] and a man of Israel strove together in the camp; [24:11] And the Israelitish woman’s son blasphemed the name [of the LORD,] and cursed. And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother’s name [was] Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan;) [24:12] And they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them. [24:13] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [24:14] Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard [him] lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. [24:15] And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin. [24:16] And he that blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, [and] all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name [of the LORD,] shall be put to death.

[24:17] And he that killeth any man shall surely be put to death. [24:18] And he that killeth a beast shall make it good; beast for beast. [24:19] And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him; [24:20] Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him [again. ] [24:21] And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death. [24:22] Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I [am] the LORD your God.

[24:23] And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

[25:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying, [25:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD. [25:3] Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof; [25:4] But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard. [25:5] That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: [for] it is a year of rest unto the land. [25:6] And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee. [25:7] And for thy cattle, and for the beast that [are] in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

[25:8] And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years. [25:9] Then shall thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth [day] of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land. [25:10] And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout [all] the land unto all the habitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. [25:11] A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which growth of itself in it, nor gather [the grapes] in it of thy vine undressed. [25:12] For it [is] the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field. [25:13] In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession. [25:14] And if thou sell [ought] unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour’s hand, ye shall not oppress one another: [25:15] According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, [and] according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee: [25:16] According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for [according] to the number [of the years] of the fruits doth he sell unto thee. [25:17] Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I [am] the LORD your God.

[25:18] Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety. [25:19] And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety. [25:20] And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, ye shall not sow, nor gather in our increase: [25:21] Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. [25:22] And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat [yet] of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat [of] the old [store.]

[25:23] The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land [is] mine; for ye [are] strangers and sojourners with me. [25:24] And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

[25:25] If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away [some] of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold. [25:26] And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it: [25:27] Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession. [25:28] But if he be not willing to redeem that which he hath sold.
[are] my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen. {25:43} Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. {25:44} Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, [shall be] of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids. {25:45} Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that [are] with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession. {25:46} And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit [them for] a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

[25:47] And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother [that dwelleth] by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger [or] sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger’s family: {25:48} After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him: {25:49} Either his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or [any] that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself. {25:50} And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee: and the price of his redemption out shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant shall it be with him. {25:51} If [there be] yet many years [behind,] according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. {25:52} And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, [and] according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption. {25:53} [And] as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: [and the other] shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight. {25:54} And if he be not redeemed in these [years,] then shall he go out in the year of jubilee, [both he,] and his children with him. {25:55} For unto me the children of Israel [are] servants; they [are] my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I [am] the LORD your God.

{26:1} Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up [any] image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I [am] the LORD your God. [26:2] Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I [am] the LORD. {26:3} If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; {26:4} Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. {26:5} And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. {26:6} And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make [you] afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. {26:7} And ye shall not chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. {26:8} And five of you shall chase a hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. {26:9} For I will set peace in the land, and your enemies shall be smitten before you. {26:10} And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new. {26:11} And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you. {26:12} And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. {26:13} I [am] the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

{26:14} But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments; {26:15} And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, [but] that ye break my covenant: {26:16} I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. {26:17} And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: that they hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. {26:18} And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. {26:19} And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass: {26:20} And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

{26:21} And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. {26:22} I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your [high] ways shall be desolate. {26:23} And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me: {26:24} Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. {26:25} And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of [my] covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. {26:26} [And] when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver [you] your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied. {26:27} And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me: {26:28} Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. {26:29} And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. {26:30} And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. {26:31} And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. {26:32} And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it. {26:33} And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. {26:34} Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies’ land; [even] then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths. {26:35} As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. {26:36} And upon them that are left [alive] of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them: and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth. {26:37} And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. {26:38} And ye shall perish among the heathen,
And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD [some part] of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed [shall be valued] at fifty shekels of silver.

27:17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

27:18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

27:19 And if he that sanctified the field in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth [part] of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

27:20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

27:21 But the field, when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest’s.

27:22 And if [a man] sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which [is] not of the fields of his possession;

27:23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, [even] unto the year of the jubilee: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, [as] a holy thing unto the LORD.

27:24 In the year of the jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, [even] to him to whom the possession of the land [did] belong.

27:25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

27:26 Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD’S firstling, no man shall sanctify it: whether [it be] ox, or sheep: it [is] the LORD’S.

And if it [be] of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thy estimation, and shall add a fifth [part] of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

27:28 Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, [both] of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing [is] most holy unto the LORD.

27:29 None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed: [but] shall surely be put to death.

27:30 And all the tithe of the land, [whether] of the seed of the land, [or] of the fruit of the tree, [is] the LORD’S: [it is] holy unto the LORD.

27:31 And if a man will at all redeem [ought] of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth [part] thereof.

27:32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, [even] of whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD.

27:33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it; and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

27:34 These [are] the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the
{1:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first [day] of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, {1:2} Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of [their] names, every male by their polls; {1:3} From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies. {1:4} And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

{1:5} And these [are] the names of the men that shall stand with you: of [the tribe of] Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur. {1:6} Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. {1:7} Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab. {1:8} Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar. {1:9} Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon. {1:10} Of the children of Joseph; of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammiud; of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. {1:11} Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni. {1:12} Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammiud. {1:13} Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocram. {1:14} Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel. {1:15} Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan. {1:16} These [were] the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

{1:17} And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by [their] names: {1:18} And they assembled all the congregation together on the first [day] of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls. {1:19} As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai. {1:20} And the children of Reuben, Israel’s eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:21} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Reuben, [were] forty and six thousand and five hundred.

{1:22} Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:23} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Simeon, [were] fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

{1:24} Of the children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:25} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Gad, [were] forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

{1:26} Of the children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:27} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Judah, [were] threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

{1:28} Of the children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:29} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Issachar, [were] fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

{1:30} Of the children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:31} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Zebulun, [were] fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

{1:32} Of the children of Joseph, [namely,] of the children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:33} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Ephraim, [were] forty thousand and five hundred.

{1:34} Of the children of Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:35} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Manasseh, [were] thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

{1:36} Of the children of Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:37} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Benjamin, [were] thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

{1:38} Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:39} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Dan, [were] threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

{1:40} Of the children of Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:41} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Asher, [were] forty and one thousand and five hundred.

{1:42} Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war; {1:43} Those that were numbered of them, [even] of the tribe of Naphtali, [were] fifty and three thousand and four hundred. {1:44} These [are] those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, [being] twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers. {1:45} So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel; {1:46} Even all they that were numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

{1:47} But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them. {1:48} For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying, {1:49} Only thou shalt not
And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,
2:2 Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation they shall pitch.
2:3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon the son of Amminadab [shall be] captain of the children of Judah.

2:4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.
2:5 And those that did pitch next unto him [shall be] the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar [shall be] captain of the children of Issachar.
2:6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, [were] fifty and four thousand and five hundred.

2:7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon [shall be] captain of the children of Zebulun.
2:8 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, [were] fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.
2:9 All that were numbered in the camp of Judah [were] an hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. These shall first set forth.

2:10 On the south side [shall be] the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben [shall be] Elizur the son of Shedeur.
2:11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, [were] forty and six thousand and five hundred.
2:12 And those which pitch by him [shall be] the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon [shall be] Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
2:13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.
2:14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad [shall be] Eliasaph the son of Reuel.
2:15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.
2:16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben [were] an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall set forth in the second rank.

2:17 Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.
2:18 On the west side [shall be] the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim [shall be] Elishama the son of Ammihud.
2:19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] forty thousand and five hundred.

2:20 And by him [shall be] the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh [shall be] Gadi the son of Pedahzur.
2:21 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] thirty and two thousand and two hundred.
2:22 Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin [shall be] Abidan the son of Gideoni.
2:23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] thirty and five thousand and four hundred.
2:24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim [were] an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the third rank.

2:25 The standard of the camp of Dan [shall be] on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan [shall be] Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
2:26 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.
2:27 And those that encamp by him [shall be] the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher [shall be] Pagiel the son of Ocran.
2:28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] forty and one thousand and five hundred.
2:29 Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali [shall be] Ahirah the son of Enan.
2:30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, [were] fifty and three thousand and four hundred.
2:31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan [were] an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall go hindmost with their standards.

2:32 These [are] those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts [were] six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel: as the LORD commanded Moses.
2:33 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: so did they.

3:1 These also [are] the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day [that] the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai.
3:2 And these [are] the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
3:3 These [are] the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest’s office.
3:4 And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest’s office in the sight of Aaron their father.

3:5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
3:6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.
3:7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle.
3:8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.
3:9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they [are] wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel.
3:10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest’s office: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.
And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them. And Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. And these were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families; Libni, and Shimei. And the sons of Kohath by their families; Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. And the sons of Merari by their families; Mahli, and Mushiri. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers. Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites. Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, [were] seven thousand five hundred. The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward. And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael. And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering of the tabernacle, and the covering of the tent, the cover of the altar, and the cloth of the carrier, and the hanging of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which [is] by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords of it for all the service thereof.

And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, [were] eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary. The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch upon the side of the tabernacle southward. And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto. And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, [even] before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, [were] twenty and two thousand.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel. And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel. And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and three hundred and fifteen.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD. And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and three hundred and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites; thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take [them:] (the shekel [is] twenty gerahs): And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons. And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites: Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers, from thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, [about] the most holy things:

And when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering vail, and cover the ark of testimony with it: And shall put thereon the covering of badgers’ skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the staves thereof. And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon: And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put in the staves thereof. And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it: [4:10] And they shall put it and all the vessels thereof within a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put [it] upon a bar. [4:11] And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put to the staves thereof: [4:12] And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put [them] in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers’ skins, and shall put [it] upon a bar: [4:13] And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon: [4:14] And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, [even] the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers skins, and put to the staves of it. [4:15] And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear [it:] but they shall not touch [any] holy thing, lest they die. These [things are] the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

[4:16] And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest [pertaineth] the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil, [and] the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein [is.] in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

[4:17] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [4:18] Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites: [4:19] But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they come near unto the sanctuary, to minister in the tabernacle of the congregation. [4:20] But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

[4:21] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [4:22] Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families; [4:23] From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt thou number them; all that enter in to perform the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. [4:24] This [is] the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens: [4:25] And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers’ skins that [is] above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [4:26] And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which [is] by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve. [4:27] At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens. [4:28] This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge [shall be] under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

[4:29] As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers; [4:30] From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation. [4:31] And this [is] the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation: the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and sockets thereof. [4:32] And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden. [4:33] This [is] the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

[4:34] And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers, [4:35] From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation: [4:36] And those that were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. [4:37] These [were] they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. [4:38] And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, [4:39] From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, [4:40] Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty. [4:41] These [are] they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD.

[4:42] And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers. [4:43] From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, [4:44] Even those that were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred. [4:45] These [be] those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. [4:46] All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers, [4:47] From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation. [4:48] Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore. [4:49] According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

[5:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [5:2] Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead: [5:3] Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that ye defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell. [5:4] And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty: [5:7] Then they shall confess their sin which they have done; and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth [part] thereof, and give [it] unto [him] against whom he hath trespassed. [5:8] But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, [even] to the priest; beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him. [5:9] And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his. [5:10] And every man’s hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

[5:11] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [5:12] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man’s wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him, [5:13] And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and [there be] no witness against her, neither she be taken [with the manner]; [5:14] And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled: [5:15] Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth [part] of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it [is] an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance. [5:16] And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD: [5:17] And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put [it] into the water: [5:18] And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman’s head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which [is] the jealousy offering:

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man or woman shall go aside, and commit a trespass against his husband: [5:21] Then the priest shall charge the woman by the word of the LORD, and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse: [5:20] But if thou hast gone aside [to another] instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse: [5:22] And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make [thy] belly to swell, and the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make [thy] belly to swell; [5:22] And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make [thy] belly to swell, and [thy] thigh to rot: And the woman shall be a curse among her people. [5:28] And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed. [5:29] This [is] the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside [to another] instead of her husband, and is defiled: [5:30] Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. [5:31] Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

[6:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [6:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate [themselves] to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate [themselves] unto the LORD: [6:3] He shall separate [himself] from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried. [6:4] All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk. [6:5] All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth [himself] unto the LORD, he shall be holy, [and] shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. [6:6] All the days that he separateth [himself] unto the LORD he shall come at no dead body. [6:7] He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God [is] upon his head. [6:8] All the days of his separation he [is] holy unto the LORD. [6:9] And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. [6:10] And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: [6:11] And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day. [6:12] And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

[6:13] And this [is] the law of the Nazarite, to separate [themselves] unto the LORD, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: [6:14] And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings, [6:15] And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings. [6:16] And the priest shall bring [them] before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering: [6:17] And he shall offer the ram [for] a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering, and his drink offering. [6:18] And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put [it] in the fire which [is] under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. [6:19] And the priest shall take [one] of the hidden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put [them] upon the hands of the Nazarite, after [the hair of] his separation is shaven: [6:20] And the priest shall wave them [for] a wave offering before the LORD: this [is] holy... for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine. {6:21} This [is] the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, [and] of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, beside that [that] his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

{6:22} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {6:23} Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, {6:24} The LORD bless thee, and keep thee: {6:25} The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: {6:26} The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. {6:27} And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

{7:1} And it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them; {7:2} That the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who [were] the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered, offered: {7:3} And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle. {7:4} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {7:5} Take [it] of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service. {7:6} And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites. {7:7} Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gershon, according to their service: {7:8} And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Kohath, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. {7:9} But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them [was that] they should bear upon their shoulders.

{7:10} And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar. {7:11} And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

{7:12} And he that offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah: {7:13} And his offering [was] one silver charger, the weight thereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them [were] full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:14} One spoon of ten [shekels] of gold, full of incense: {7:15} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:16} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:17} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

{7:18} On the second day Nethaneel the son of Zuar, prince of Issachar, did offer: {7:19} He offered [for] his offering one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:20} One spoon of gold of ten [shekels], full of incense: {7:21} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:22} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:23} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

{7:24} On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun, [did offer: ][7:25] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:26} One golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense: {7:27} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:28} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:29} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

{7:30} On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, prince of the children of Reuben, [did offer: ][7:31] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight of an hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:32} One golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense: {7:33} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:34} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:35} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

{7:36} On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, prince of the children of Simeon, [did offer: ][7:37] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:38} One golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense: {7:39} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:40} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:41} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

{7:42} On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, prince of the children of Gad, [offered: ][7:43] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels], a silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:44} One golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense: {7:45} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:46} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:47} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

{7:48} On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammiuhud, prince of the children of Ephraim, [offered: ][7:49] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: {7:50} One golden spoon of ten [shekels], full of incense: {7:51} One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: {7:52} One kid of the goats for a sin offering: {7:53} And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Elishama the son of Ammiuhud.

[7:54] On the eighth day [offered] Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of Manasseh: [7:55] His offering [was] one silver charger of the weight of an hundred and thirty [shekels,] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: [7:56] One golden spoon of ten [shekels,] full of incense: [7:57] One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: [7:58] One kid of the goats for a sin offering: [7:59] And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

[7:60] On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, prince of the children of Benjamin, [offered: ] [7:61] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels,] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: [7:62] One golden spoon of ten [shekels,] full of incense: [7:63] One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: [7:64] One kid of the goats for a sin offering: [7:65] And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

[7:66] On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, prince of the children of Dan, [offered: ] [7:67] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels,] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: [7:68] One golden spoon of ten [shekels,] full of incense: [7:69] One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: [7:70] One kid of the goats for a sin offering: [7:71] And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

[7:72] On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher, [offered: ] [7:73] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels,] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: [7:74] One golden spoon of ten [shekels,] full of incense: [7:75] One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: [7:76] One kid of the goats for a sin offering: [7:77] And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

[7:78] On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali, [offered: ] [7:79] His offering [was] one silver charger, the weight whereof [was] an hundred and thirty [shekels,] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering: [7:80] One golden spoon of ten [shekels,] full of incense: [7:81] One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering: [7:82] One kid of the goats for a sin offering: [7:83] And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this [was] the offering of Ahira the son of Enan. [7:84] This [was] the offering of the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel; instead of such as [for] an offering. [7:85] For they [are] wholly given unto the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt lay their hands upon the heads of the rams, and upon the heads of the he goats: and thou shalt offer the one [for] a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one [for] a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites. [8:13] And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them [for] an offering unto the LORD. [8:14] Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine. [8:15] And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them [for] an offering. [8:16] For they [are] wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every womb, [even instead of] the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me. [8:17] For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, [both] man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself. [8:18] And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel. [8:19] And I have given the Levites [as] a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary. [8:20] And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them. [8:21] And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them [as] an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them. [8:22] And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

[8:23] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [8:24] This [is it] that [belongeth] unto the Levites: from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: [8:25] And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service [thereof,] and shall serve no more: [8:26] But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

[9:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, [9:2] Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at its appointed season. [9:3] In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it. [9:4] And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover. [9:5] And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

[9:6] And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day: [9:7] And those men said unto him, We [are] defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel? [9:8] And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

[9:9] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [9:10] Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or [be] in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD. [9:11] The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, [and] eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. [9:12] They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. [9:13] But the man that [is] clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. [9:14] And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD: according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

[9:15] And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, [namely,] the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. [9:16] So it was alway: the cloud covered it [by day,] and the appearance of fire by night. [9:17] And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. [9:18] At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. [9:19] And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not. [9:20] And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. [9:21] And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and [that] the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether [it was] by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. [9:22] Or [whether it were] two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed. [9:23] At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

[10:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [10:2] Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps. [10:3] And when thou shalt blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [10:4] And if they blow [but] with one [trumpet,] then the princes, [which are] heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee. [10:5] When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward. [10:6] When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys. [10:7] But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm. [10:8] And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations. [10:9] And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies. [10:10] Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I [am] the LORD your God. [10:11] And it came to pass on the twentieth [day] of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. [10:12] And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran. [10:13] And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. [10:14] In the first [place] went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host [was] Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
And the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar [was] Nethaneel the son of Zuar. {10:16} And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun [was] Eliab the son of Helon. {10:17} And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle.

{10:18} And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host [was] Elizur the son of Shedeur. {10:19} And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. {10:20} And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasar the son of Deuel. {10:21} And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and [the other] did set up the tabernacle against they came.

{10:22} And the standard of the camp of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host [was] Elishama the son of Ammihud. {10:23} And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh [was] Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. {10:24} And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin [was] Abidan the son of Gideoni.

{10:25} And the standard of the camp of Dan set forward, [which was] the reiver of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host [was] Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. {10:26} And over the host of the tribe of Asher [was] Pagiel the son of Ocran. {10:27} And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali [was] Ahira the son of Enan. {10:28} Thus were [were] the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward.

{10:29} And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses’ father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you; come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel. {10:30} And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. {10:31} And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes. {10:32} And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

{10:33} And they departed from the mount of the LORD three days’ journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days’ journey, to search out a resting place for them. {10:34} And the cloud of the LORD [was] upon them by day, when they went out of the camp. {10:35} And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let thine armies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee. {10:36} And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.

{11:1} And [when] the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard [it:] and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed [them that were] in the uttermost parts of the camp. {11:2} And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched. {11:3} And he called the name of the place Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

{11:4} And the mixt multitude that [was] among them fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? {11:5} We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic: {11:6} But now our soul [is] dried away: [there is] nothing at all, beside this manna, [before] our eyes. {11:7} And the manna [was] as coriander seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of bdellium. {11:8} [And] the people went about, and gathered [it:] and ground [it] in mills, or beat [it] in a mortar, and baked [it] in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil. {11:9} And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

{11:10} Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased. {11:11} And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me? {11:12} Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers? {11:13} Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat. {11:14} I am not able to bear all this people alone, because [it is] too heavy for me. {11:15} And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.

{11:16} And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. {11:17} And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which [is] upon thee, and will put [it] upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. {11:18} And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for [it was] well with us in Egypt; therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat. {11:19} Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days: {11:20} But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be a loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which [is] among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt? {11:21} And Moses said, The people, among whom I [am, are] six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month. {11:22} Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them? {11:23} And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD’S hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

{11:24} And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD; and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle. {11:25} And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that [was] upon him, and gave [it] unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, [that,] when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease. {11:26} But there remained two [of the] men in the camp, the name of the one [was] Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they [were] of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp. [11:27] And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. [11:28] And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, [one] of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them. [11:29] And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD'S people were prophets, [and] that the LORD would put his spirit upon them! [11:30] And Moses got him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

[11:31] And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let [them] fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits [high] upon the face of the earth. [11:32] And the people stood up all that day, and all [that] night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails; he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp. [11:33] And while the flesh [was] yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague. [11:34] And he called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted. [11:35] [And] the people journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and abode at Hazeroth.

[12:1] And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman. [12:2] And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard [it]. [12:3] (Now the man Moses [was] very meek, above all the men which [were] upon the face of the earth.) [12:4] And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out. [12:5] And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth. [12:6] And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, [I the LORD will put my spirit upon him, and he shall prophesy in the name of me.] [12:7] My servant Moses [is] not so, who [is] faithful in all mine house. [12:8] With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches: and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? [12:9] And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed. [12:10] And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle: and, behold, Miriam [became] leprous, [white] as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, [she was] leprous. [12:11] And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. [12:12] Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb. [12:13] And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

[12:14] And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in [again]. [12:15] And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in [again]. [12:16] And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.
children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof: and all the people that we saw in it [are] men of a great stature. [13:33] And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, [which come] of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

[14:1] And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night. [14:2] And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness! [14:3] And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? [14:4] And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt. [14:5] Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

[14:6] And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, [which were] of them that searched the land, rent their clothes: [14:7] And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, [is] an exceeding good land. [14:8] If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. [14:9] Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they [are] bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD [is] with us: fear them not. [14:10] But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

[14:11] And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them? [14:12] I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

[14:13] And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear [it,] (for thou bringest up this people in thy might from among them;) [14:14] And they will tell [it] to the inhabitants of this land: [for] they have heard that thou LORD [art] among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and [that] thy cloud standeth over them, and [that] thou goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

[14:15] Now [if] thou shalt kill [all] this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, [14:16] Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness. [14:17] And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, [14:18] The LORD [is] longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing [the guilt,] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth [generation. ] [14:19] Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now. [14:20] And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word: [14:21] But [as] truly [as] I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD. [14:22] Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; [14:23] Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it: [14:24] But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it. [14:25] (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

[14:26] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [14:27] How long shall [I bear with] this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. [14:28] Say unto them, [As truly as] I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you: [14:29] Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me, [14:30] Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, [concerning] which I sware to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. [14:31] But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised. [14:32] But [as for] you, your carcasses, they shall fall in this wilderness. [14:33] And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years; and ye shall bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise. [14:35] I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. [14:36] And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, [14:37] Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD. [14:38] But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, [which were] of the men that went to search the land, lived [still. ] [14:39] And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly.

[14:40] And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we [be here,] and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned. [14:41] And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper. [14:42] Go not up, for the LORD [is] not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies. [14:43] For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you. [14:44] But they presumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp. [14:45] Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, [even] unto Hormah.

[15:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [15:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you, [15:3] And will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock: (15:4) Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth [part] of an hin of oil. (15:5) And the fourth [part] of an hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb. (15:6) Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare [for] a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third [part] of an hin of oil. (15:7) And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third [part] of an hin of wine, [for] a sweet savour unto the LORD. (15:8) And when thou preparest a bullock [for] a burnt offering, or [for] a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the LORD: (15:9) Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil. (15:10) And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. (15:11) Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. (15:12) According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number. (15:13) All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. (15:14) And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever [be] among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do. (15:15) One ordinance [shall be both] for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth [with you,] an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye [are,] so shall the stranger be before the LORD. (15:16) One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

(15:17) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (15:18) Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you, (15:19) Then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave offering unto the LORD. (15:20) Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough [for] an heave offering: as [ye do] the heave offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it. (15:21) Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave offering in your generations.

(15:22) And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses, (15:23) [Even all] that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded [Moses,] and henceforward among your generations: (15:24) Then it shall be, if [ought] be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. (15:25) And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance: (15:26) And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people [were] in ignorance.

(15:27) And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering, (15:28) And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. (15:29) Ye shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, [both for] him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

(15:30) But the soul that doeth [ought] presumptuously, [whether he be] born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. (15:31) Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity [shall be] upon him.

(15:32) And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. (15:33) And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. (15:34) And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him. (15:35) And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. (15:36) And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses.

(15:37) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (15:38) Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribbon of blue: (15:39) And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a whoring: (15:40) That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God. (15:41) I [am] the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I [am] the LORD your God.

(16:1) Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men:  And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown: (16:3) And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, [Ye take] too much upon you, seeing all the congregation [are] holy, every one of them, and the LORD [is] among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD? (16:4) And when Moses heard [it,] he fell upon his face: (16:5) And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who [are] his, and [who is] holy; and will cause [him] to come near unto him: even [him] whom hath he chosen will he cause to come near unto him. (16:6) This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company; (16:7) And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow: and it shall be [that] the man whom the LORD doth choose, he [shall be] holy: [ye take] too much upon you, seeing all the congregation [are] holy, every one of them, and the LORD [is] among them: wherfore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD? (16:8) And when Moses heard [it,] he fell upon his face: (16:9) And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who [are] his, and [who is] holy; and will cause [him] to come near unto him: even [him] whom hath he chosen will he cause to come near unto him. (16:10) This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company; (16:11) And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow: and it shall be [that] the man whom the LORD doth choose, he [shall be] holy: [ye take] too much upon you, ye sons of Levi. (16:12) And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi: (16:13) [Seemeth it but] a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? (16:14) And he hath brought thee near [to him,] and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? [16:11] For which cause [both] thou and all thy company [are] gathered together against the LORD: and what [is] Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

(16:12) And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up: [16:13] Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us? [16:14] Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. [16:15] And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Not I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. [16:16] And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to morrow: [16:17] And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each [of you] his censer. [16:18] And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron. [16:19] And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation. [16:20] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [16:21] Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. [16:22] And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will thou be wroth with all the congregation?

(16:23) And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [16:24] Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, [16:25] And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him. [16:26] And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins. [16:27] So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children. [16:28] And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for [I have] not [done them] of mine own mind. [16:29] If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; [then] the LORD hath not sent me. [16:30] But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that [appertain] unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

(16:31) And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that [was] under them: [16:32] And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that [appertain] unto Korah, and all [their] goods. [16:33] They, and all that [appertained] to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. [16:34] And all Israel that [were] about them died at the same time: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up [also]. [16:35] And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

[16:36] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [16:37] Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed. [16:38] The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates [for] a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel. [16:39] And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad [plates for] a covering of the altar: [16:40] To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

[16:41] But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD. [16:42] And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. [16:43] And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

[16:44] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [16:45] Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

[16:46] And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put in thereof coals from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun. [16:47] And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people. [16:48] And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. [16:49] Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, beside them that died about the matter of Korah. [16:50] And Aaron returned unto Moses unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

[17:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [17:2] Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of [their] fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod. [17:3] And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod [shall be] for the head of the house of their fathers. [17:4] And thou shalt lay up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you. [17:5] And it shall come to pass, [that] the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to spring upon his rod, and I will multiply my servants. [17:6] And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one; according to their fathers' houses, [even] twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron [was] among their rods. [17:7] And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness. [17:8] And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds. [17:9] And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

[17:10] And the LORD said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not. [17:11] And Moses did [so:] as the LORD commanded him, so did he. [17:12] And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish. [17:13] Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?

[18:1] And the LORD said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. [18:2] And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee [shall minister] before the tabernacle of witness. [18:3] And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die. [18:4] And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you. [18:5] And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel. [18:6] And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you [they are] given [as] a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. [18:7] Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and within the vail: and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office [unto you as] a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

[18:8] And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever. [18:9] This shall be thine of the most holy things, [reserved] from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every meat offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, [shall be] most holy for thee and for thy sons. [18:10] In the most holy [place] shalt thou eat it: every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee. [18:11] And this [is] thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. [18:12] All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, have I given unto you. [18:13] [And] whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it. [18:14] Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine. [18:15] Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, [whether it be] of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of thy herd shalt thou redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem. [18:16] And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which [is] twenty gerahs. [18:17] But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem: they [are] holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat [for] an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD. [18:18] And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine. [18:19] All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

[18:20] And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I [am] thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. [18:21] And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, [even] the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. [18:22] Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die. [18:23] But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: [it shall be] a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. [18:24] But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer [as] an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

[18:25] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [18:26] Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, [even] a tenth [part] of the tithe. [18:27] And [this] your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though [it were] the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress. [18:28] Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof the LORD’S heave offering to Aaron the priest. [18:29] Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best thereof, [even] the hallowed part thereof out of it. [18:30] Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress. [18:31] And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it [is] your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation. [18:32] And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

[19:1] And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, [19:2] This [is] the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein [is] no blemish, [and] upon which never came yoke: {19:3} And ye shall bring her forth without the camp, and [one] shall slay her before the LORD. {19:4} And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times: [19:5] And [one] shall burn the heifer in his sight: her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:
[19:6] And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast [it] into the midst of the burning of the heifer. [19:7] Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even. [19:8] And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even. [19:9] And a man [that] is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay [them] up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it [is] a purification for sin. [19:10] And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

[19:11] He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. [19:12] He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. [19:13] Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness [is] yet upon him. [19:14] This [is] the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that [is] in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. [19:15] And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, [is] unclean. [19:16] And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. [19:17] And for an unclean [person] they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel: [19:18] And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip [it] in the water, and sprinkle [it] upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave: [19:19] And the clean [person] shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even. [19:20] But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he [is] unclean. [19:21] And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinketh the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even. [19:22] And whatsoever the unclean [person] toucheth shall be unclean: and the soul that toucheth [it] shall be unclean until even. [19:23] Then the children of Israel, [even] the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month: and they watered their cattle there, and was buried there. [20:2] And there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. [20:3] And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, 'Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the LORD!' [20:4] And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there? [20:5] And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it [is] no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither [is] there any water to drink. [20:6] And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

[20:7] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [20:8] Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. [20:9] And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. [20:10] And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, 'Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?' [20:11] And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts [also].

[20:12] And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, 'Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. [20:13] This [is] the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

[20:14] And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath befallen us: [20:15] How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers: [20:16] And when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we [are] in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border: [20:17] Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink [of] the water of the wells: we will go by the king’s [high] way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders. [20:18] And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword. [20:19] And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will only, without [doing] any thing [else,] go through on my feet. [20:20] And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand. [20:21] Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

[20:22] And the children of Israel, [even] the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto mount Hor. [20:23] And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, [20:24] Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah. [20:25] Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor: [20:26] And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount. [20:29] And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, [even] all the house of Israel.
[21:1] And [when] king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took [some] of them prisoners. [21:2] And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. [21:3] And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah.

[21:4] And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. [21:5] And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for [there is] no bread, neither [is there any] water; and our soul loatheth this light bread. [21:6] And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

[21:7] Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. [21:8] And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. [21:9] And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

[21:10] And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth. [21:11] And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Le-ha-ba-rim, in the wilderness which [is] before Moab, toward the sunrising.

[21:17] Then Israel sang this song, Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it: [21:18] The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by [the direction of] the lawgiver, with their staves. And from the wilderness [they went] to Mattanah: [21:19] And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth: [21:20] And from Bamoth [in] the valley, that [is] in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jeshimon.

[21:21] And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, [21:22] Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink [of] the waters of the well: [but] we will go along by the king's [high] way, until we be past thy borders. [21:23] And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel. [21:24] And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon [was] strong. [21:25] And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof. [21:26] For Heshbon [was] the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon. [21:27] Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared: [21:28] For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, [and] the lords of the high places of Arnon. [21:29] Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites. [21:30] We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which [reacheth] unto Medeba.

[21:31] Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. [21:32] And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that [were] there.

[21:33] And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. [21:34] And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. [21:35] So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

[22:2] And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. [22:3] And Moab was sore afraid of the children of Israel. [22:4] And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all [that are] round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor [was] king of the Moabites at that time. [22:5] He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which [is] by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt; behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me: [22:6] Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they [are] too mighty for me: peradventure I may smite them, and [that] I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest [is] blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed. [22:7] And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam the son of Beor, who dwelt at Pethor, whom [is] by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt; behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me: [22:8] Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they [are] too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, [that] we may smite them, and [that] I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest [is] blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed. [22:9] And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men [are] these with thee? [22:10] And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, [saying, ] [22:11] Behold, [there is] a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out. [22:12] And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they [are] blessed.
(22:13) And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land; for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you. [22:14] And the princes of Moab rose up, and went unto Balak, and said, Balak refuseth to come to us.

(22:15) And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they. [22:16] And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me: [22:17] For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people. [22:18] And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. [22:19] Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more. [22:20] And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, [and] go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do. [22:21] And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

(22:22) And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the angel of the LORD stood in the way, for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants [were] with him. [22:23] And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way. [22:24] But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall [being] on this side, and a wall on that side. [22:25] And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and he smote her again. [22:26] And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where [was] no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. [22:27] And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff. [22:28] And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times? [22:29] And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee. [22:30] And the ass said unto Balaam, [Am] I not thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since [I was] thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay. [22:31] Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face. [22:32] And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because [thy] way is perverse before me: [22:33] And the ass saw me, and turned her away from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive. [22:34] And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again. [22:35] And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

(22:36) And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which [is] in the border of Arnon, which [is] in the utmost coast. [22:37] And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour? [22:38] And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say anything? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak. [22:39] And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto Kirjath-huzoth. [22:40] And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that [were] with him. [22:41] And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost [part] of the people.

(23:1) And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams. [23:2] And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on [every] altar a bullock and a ram. [23:3] And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder. [23:4] And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus. [23:5] And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus shalt speak. [23:6] And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab. [23:7] And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, [saying,] Come, curse me Jacob, and come, defy Israel. [23:8] How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, [whom] the LORD hath not defied? [23:9] For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations. [23:10] Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth [part] of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! [23:11] And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed [them] altogether. [23:12] And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth? [23:13] And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.

(23:14) And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on [every] altar. [23:15] And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet [the LORD] yonder. [23:16] And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus. [23:17] And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken? [23:18] And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor: [23:19] God [is] not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not make it good? [23:20] Behold, I have received [commandment] to bless: and he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it. [23:21] He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob: neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the LORD his God [is] with him, and the shout of a king [is] among them. [23:22] God brought them out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn. [23:23] Surely [there is] no enchantment against Jacob, neither [is there] any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought! [23:24] Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat [of] the prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

[23:25] And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all. [23:26] But Balaam answered and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do?

[23:27] And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me from thence. [23:28] And Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon. [23:29] And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams. [23:30] And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on [every] altar.

[24:1] And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

[24:2] And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding [in his tents] according to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him. [24:3] And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said: [24:4] He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling [into a trance,] but having his eyes open:

[24:5] How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel! [24:6] As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath planted, [and] as cedar trees beside the waters. [24:7] He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed [shall be] in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

[24:8] God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce [them] through with his arrows. [24:9] He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed [is] he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

[24:10] And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed [them] these three times. [24:11] Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour. [24:12] And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying, [24:13] If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do [either] good or bad of mine own mind; [but] what the LORD saith, that will I speak? [24:14] And now, behold, I go unto my people: come [therefore, and] I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

[24:15] And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said: [24:16] He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the most High, [which] saw the vision of the Almighty, falling [into a trance,] but having his eyes open: [24:17] I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. [24:18] And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies: and Israel shall do valiantly. [24:19] Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

[24:20] And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek [was] the first of the nations; but his latter end [shall be] that he perish for ever. [24:21] And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwellyngplace, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock. [24:22] Nevertheless the Kenite shall be wasted, until Asshur shall carry thee away captive. [24:23] And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this! [24:24] And ships [shall come] from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever. [24:25] And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

[25:1] And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. [25:2] And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. [25:3] And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. [25:4] And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel. [25:5] And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baal-peor.

[25:6] And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who [were] weeping [before] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [25:7] And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw [it,] he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand: [25:8] And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. [25:9] And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

[25:10] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [25:11] Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy. [25:12] Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: [25:13] And he shall have it, and his seed after him, [even] the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. [25:14] Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, [even] that was slain with the Midianitish woman, [was] Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites. [25:15] And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain [was] Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he [was] head over a people, [and] of a chief house in Midian.

[25:16] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [25:17] Vex the Midianites, and smite them: [25:18] For they vex you with their wiles, wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain.
in the day of the plague for Peor’s sake.

[26:1] And it came to pass after the plague, that the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, [26:2] Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, through all their fathers’ house, all that were able to go to war in Israel. [26:3] And Moses and Eleazar the priest spake with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan [near] Jericho, saying, [26:4] [Take the sum of the people,] from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt.

[26:5] Reuben, the eldest son of Israel: the children of Reuben; Hanoch, [of whom cometh] the family of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Pallaites: [26:6] Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. [26:50] These [are] the families of Naphtali according to their families: and they that were numbered of them, were] forty and five thousand and four hundred. [26:51] These [were] the numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred thousand and a thousand.
Then the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Helah, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, one of the sons of Joseph, came unto Moses, saying,

And they said, If a man have no son, then let his name be continued in his father's name, and that his name be not cut off.

And Moses hearkened unto the voice of the daughters of Zelophehad: and the Lord answered Moses,

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, and my oil, and my drink offering, my incense, and my meat offering, my sin offering, and my holocaust offering, is the Lord's.

And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the Lord commanded Moses.

And he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before the congregation: and gave him a charge, saying,

As the Lord commanded Moses, so shall ye do: there shall no stranger take of the offerings of the Lord, which are in the tabernacle of the congregation.

The Lord spake also unto Moses, saying,

Let the Lord, the God of the spirits of all flesh, sanctify Israel; and let them go in thine sight without blemish: and give them a charge before the congregation, that they do not profane my holy name: and I will let them come in their sight: but make thyself pure, O offering, O a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, When any man or any woman shall give any thing to the LORD for an offering, shall be made by fire, shall be burnt upon the altar: neither shall it be turned about in the fire; lest the fire go up suddenly, and consume the burnt offering and the sacrifice; and make an atonement for the offering, and for the sacrifice, and for the whole congregation of Israel.

But divers kinds shall be burnt with fire in the sight of the Lord, but their ashes shall be retained; to sanctify the Lord.

For the burnt offering and the meat offering make an atonement for the holy place: but the sin offering doth make an atonement for sin.

And thou shalt have an holocaust offering daily: of a ram, and of a heave offering of a flour mingled with oil thereof, twice at day.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

And Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel, among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron numbered, because the Lord had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness, and they died in the wilderness.

And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun, who was still alive, who were numbered among the children of Israel, after the commandment of the Lord, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel, in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness.

Seven hundred and thirty persons were numbered of them, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.
[28:11] And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot; [28:12] And three tenth deals of flour [for] a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour [for] a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one ram; [28:13] And a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil [for] a meat offering unto one lamb; [for] a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. [28:14] And their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third [part] of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth [part] of an hin unto a lamb; this [is] the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. [28:15] And one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering. [28:16] And in the fourteenth day of the first month [is] the passover of the LORD. [28:17] And in the fifteenth day of this month [is] the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. [28:18] In the first day [shall be] an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein: [28:19] But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire [for] a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish: [28:20] And their meat offering [shall be of] flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram; [28:21] A several tenth deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs: [28:22] And one goat [for] a sin offering, to make an atonement for you. [28:23] Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which [is] for a continual burnt offering. [28:24] After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering. [28:25] And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work. [28:26] Also in the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the LORD, after your weeks [be out,] ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: [28:27] But ye shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year; [28:28] And their meat offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto one bullock, two tenth deals unto one ram, [28:29] A several tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs; [28:30] [And] one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you. [28:31] Ye shall offer [them] beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, (they shall be unto you without blemish) and their drink offerings. [28:32] And ye shall have on the tenth [day] of this month an holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls: ye shall not do any work [therein: ] [28:33] But ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD [for] a sweet savour; one young bullock, one ram, [and] seven lambs of the first year; they shall be unto you without blemish: [28:34] And their meat offering [shall be of] flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals to a bullock, [and] two tenth deals to one ram, [28:35] A several tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs: [28:36] And one goat [for] a sin offering; beside the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meat offering of it, and their drink offerings. [28:37] And in the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: [28:38] And ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish: [28:39] And their meat offering [shall be of] flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth deals to each ram of the two rams, [28:40] A several tenth deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs: [28:41] And one kid of the goats [for] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering. [28:42] And on the second day [ye shall offer] twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot: [28:43] And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, [shall be] according to their number, after the manner: [28:44] And one goat [for] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and the meat offering thereof, and their drink offerings. [28:45] And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: [28:46] And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, [shall be] according to their number, after the manner: [28:47] And one goat [for] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering. [28:48] And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: [28:49] Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, [shall be] according to their number, after the manner: [28:50] And one kid of the goats [for] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering. [28:51] And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: [28:52] And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, [shall be] according to their number, after the manner: [28:53] And one goat [for] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering. [28:54] And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, [and] fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish: [28:55] And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, [shall be] according to their number, after the manner: [28:56] And one goat [for] a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.
{30:1} And Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded. {30:2} If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth. {30:3} If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind [herself] by a bond, [being] in her father's house in her youth; {30:4} And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul; {30:5} But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth: not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her. {30:6} And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered oath out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul; {30:7} And her husband heard [it,] and held his peace in the day that he heard [it:] then her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand. {30:8} But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard [it:] then shall he make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her. {30:9} But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her. {30:10} But if her husband disallowed her, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard [them;] then shall he bear her iniquity. {30:11} These [are] the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, [being yet] in her youth in her father's house.

{31:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {31:2} Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people. {31:3} And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian. {31:4} Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war. {31:5} So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of [every] tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. {31:6} And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of [every] tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. {31:7} And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. {31:8} And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; [namely,] Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword. {31:9} And the children of Israel took [all] the women of Midian, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. {31:10} And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire. {31:11} And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, [both] of men and of beasts. {31:12} And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which [are] by Jordan [near] Jericho.

{31:13} And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp. {31:14} And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, [with] the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle. {31:15} And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive? {31:16} Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD. {31:17} Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him. {31:18} But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves. {31:19} And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify [both] yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day. {31:20} And purify all [your] raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

{31:21} And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses; {31:22} Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead, {31:23} Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make [it] go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water. {31:24} And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

{31:25} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {31:26} Take the sum of the prey that was taken, [both] of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation: {31:27} And divide the prey and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, [31:29] Take [it] of their half, and give [it] unto Eleazar the priest, [for] an heave offering of the LORD. [31:30] And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD. [31:31] And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses. [31:32] And the booty, [being] the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep, [31:33] And threescore and twelve thousand beves, [31:34] And threescore and one thousand asses, [31:35] And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him. [31:36] And the half, [which was] the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep: [31:37] And the LORD'S tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen. [31:38] And the beves [were] thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD'S tribute [was] threescore and twelve. [31:39] And the asses [were] thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD'S tribute [was] threescore and one. [31:40] And the persons [were] sixteen thousand; of which the LORD'S tribute [was] threescore and six. [31:41] And Moses gave the tribute, [which was] the LORD'S heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses. [31:42] And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred, [31:43] (Now the half [that pertained unto] the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand [and] seven thousand and five hundred sheep, [31:44] And thirty and six thousand beves, [31:45] And thirty thousand asses and five hundred, [31:46] And sixteen thousand persons;) [31:47] Even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, [both] of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

[31:48] And the officers which [were] over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses: [31:49] And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which [are] under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us. [31:50] We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD. [31:51] And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, [even] all wrought jewels. [31:52] And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. [31:53] (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) [31:54] And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, [for] a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

[32:1] Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place [was] a place for cattle; [32:2] The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying, [32:3] Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shobam, and Nebo, and Beon, [32:4] [Even] the country which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, [is] a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle: [32:5] Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, [and] bring us not over Jordan.

[32:6] And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here? [32:7] And wherefore discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them? [32:8] Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. [32:9] For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them. [32:10] And the LORD'S anger was kindled the same time, and he swore, saying, [32:11] Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swor unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me: [32:12] Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD. [32:13] And the LORD'S anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed. [32:14] And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel. [32:15] For if ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

[32:16] And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones: [32:17] But we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land. [32:18] We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. [32:19] For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

[32:20] And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war, [32:21] And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him, [32:22] And the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. [32:23] But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out. [32:24] Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth. [32:25] And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth. [32:26] Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead: [32:27] But thy servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith. [32:28] So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel: [32:29] And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass over Jordan, every man armed to battle before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession: [32:30] But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. [32:31] And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do. [32:32] We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours. [32:33] And Moses gave unto them, even unto the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, [even] the cities of the country round about. [32:34] And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, [32:35] And Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah, [32:36] And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities: and folds for sheep. [32:37] And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, [32:38] And Nebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they built. [32:39] And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which [was] in it. [32:40] And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein. [32:41] And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havoth-jair. [32:42] And Nobah went and took Kedesh, and called them Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

[33:50] And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan [near] Jericho, saying, [33:51] Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan; [33:52] Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places: [33:53] And ye shall dispossess [the inhabitants] of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it. [33:54] And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families: [and] to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man’s [inheritance] shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers shall ye inherit. [33:55] But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them [shall be] pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. [33:56] Moreover it shall come to pass, [that] I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them.

{34:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {34:2} Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan; (this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, [even] the land of Canaan with the coasts thereof:) {34:3} Then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the salt sea eastward: {34:4} And your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass on to Zin: and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon: {34:5} And the border shall fetch a compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea. {34:6} And [as for] the western border, ye shall even have the great sea for a border: this shall be your west border. {34:7} And this shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall point out for you mount Hor: {34:8} From mount Hor ye shall point out [your border] unto the entrance of Hamath; and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zedad:

{34:9} And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your north border. {34:10} And ye shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham: {34:11} And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward; {34:12} And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the salt sea: this shall be your land with the coasts thereof. {34:13} And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This [is] the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe: {34:14} For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received [their inheritance; and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance: {34:15} The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan [near] Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise. {34:16} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {34:17} These [are] the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun. {34:18} And ye shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance. {34:19} And the names of the men [are] these: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. {34:20} And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. {34:21} Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. {34:22} And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli. {34:23} The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod. {34:24} And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan. {34:25} And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zebulun, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. {34:26} And the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Paltiel the son of Azzan. {34:27} And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihuod the son of Shelomi. {34:28} And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedehel the son of Ammihud. {34:29} These [are they] whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

{35:1} And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan [near] Jericho, saying, {35:2} Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in: and ye shall give [also] unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them. {35:3} And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts. {35:4} And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, [shall reach] from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about. {35:5} And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, and the city [shall be] in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. {35:6} And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites [there shall be] six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and to them ye shall add forty and two cities. {35:7} [So] all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites [shall be] forty and eight cities: they [shall ye give] with their suburbs. {35:8} And the cities which ye shall give [shall be] of the possession of the children of Israel: from [them that have] many ye shall give many; but from [them that have] few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.

{35:9} And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, {35:10} Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan; {35:11} Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at unawares. {35:12} And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until the congregation in judgment. {35:13} And of these cities which ye shall give six cities shall ye have for refuge. {35:14} Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, [which] shall be cities of refuge. {35:15} These six cities shall be a refuge, [both] for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither. {35:16} And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he [is] a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. {35:17} And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. {35:18} Or [if] he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he [is] a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. {35:19} The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him. {35:20} But if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die: {35:21} Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote [him] shall surely be put to death; [for] he [is] a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him. {35:22} But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait, {35:23} Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing [him] not, and cast [it] upon him, that he die, and [was] not his enemy, neither sought his harm: {35:24} Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood; and the congregation shall restore unto the revenger of blood according to these judgments: {35:25} And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, where he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil. {35:26} But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; {35:27} And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood. [35:28] Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession. [35:29] So these [things] shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings. [35:30] Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses:
but one witness shall not testify against any person [to cause him] to die. [35:31] Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which [is] guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death. [35:32] And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest. [35:33] So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye [are:] for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. [35:34] Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

[36:1] And the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel: [36:2] And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters. [36:3] And if they be married to any of the sons of the [other] tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance. [36:4] And when the jubile of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers. [36:5] And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well. [36:6] This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry. [36:7] So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.
[36:8] And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.
[36:9] Neither shall the inheritance remove from [one] tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance. [36:10]
Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad: [36:11] For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their father’s brothers’ sons: [36:12] [And] they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. [36:13] These [are] the commandments and the judgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the {1:1} These [be] the words which Moses spake unto all Israel on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red [sea,] between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab. {1:2} ([There are] eleven days’ [journey] from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadesh-barnea.) {1:3} And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first [day] of the month, [that] Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them; {1:4} After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrei: {1:5} On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying, {1:6} The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mountain: {1:7} Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto all [the places] nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates. {1:8} Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

{1:9} And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone: {1:10} The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye [are] this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. {1:11} (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye [are,] and bless you, as he hath promised you!) {1:12} How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? {1:13} Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you. {1:14} And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good [for us] to do. {1:15} So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. {1:16} And I charged you judges at that time, saying, Hear [the causes] between your brethren, and judge righteously between [every] man and his brother, and the stranger [that is] with him. {1:17} Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; [but] ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man: for the judgment [is] God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring [it] unto me, and I will hear it. {1:18} And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

{1:19} And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. {1:20} And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us. {1:21} Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up [and] possess [it,] as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

{1:22} And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. {1:23} and the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe: {1:24} And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eschol, and searched it out. {1:25} And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought [it] down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, [It is] a good land which the LORD our God doth give us. {1:26} Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God: {1:27} And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. {1:28} Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, The people [is] greater and taller than we; the cities [are] great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there. {1:29} Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them. {1:30} The LORD your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes; {1:31} And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place. {1:32} Yet in this thing ye did not believe the LORD your God, {1:33} Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents [in,] in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day. {1:34} And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and swere, saying, {1:35} Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers, {1:36} Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the LORD. {1:37} Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither. {1:38} [But] Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: also shalt not go in thither. {1:39} ... good heed unto yourselves therefore: {2:5} Meddle not with them: for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a footbreadth: because I have given mount Seir unto Esau [for] a possession. {2:6} Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink. {2:7} For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God [hath been] with thee; thou hast lacked nothing. {2:8} And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. {2:9} And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land [for] a possession; because I have given Ar to the children of Lot [for] a possession. {2:10} The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; {2:11} Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims. {2:12} The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime: but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them. {2:13} Now rise up, [said
I,] and get you over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered. {2:14} And the space in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, [was] thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, {2:15} For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

{2:16} So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people. {2:17} That the LORD spake unto me, saying, {2:18} Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day: {2:19} And [when] thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon [any] possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot [for] a possession. {2:20} (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims; {2:21} A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead: {2:22} As he did to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day: {2:23} And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, [even] unto Azzah, the Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

{2:24} Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given unto thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess [it,] and contend with him in battle. {2:25} This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations [that are] under the whole heaven, which shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

{2:26} And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, {2:27} Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left. {2:28} Thu shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet: {2:29} (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me:) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.
{2:30} But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as [appeareth] this day. {2:31} And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee:
to begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land. {2:32}
Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. {2:33} And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people. {2:34} And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain: {2:35} Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took. {2:36} From Arroh, which [is] by the brink of the river of Arnon, and [from] the city that [is] by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us: {2:37} Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any place of the river Jabob, [nor] unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbade us.

{3:1} Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan:
and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. {3:2} And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. {3:3} So the LORD our God delivered unto us the city of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining. {3:4} And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, three score cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. {3:5} All these cities [were] fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a great many.
{3:6} And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city. {3:7} But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves. {3:8} And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that [was] on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon; {3:9} ([Which] Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Sheir;) {3:10} All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. {3:11} For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead [was] a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.
{3:12} And this land, [which] we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which [is] by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites. {3:13} And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, [being] the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribes of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants. {3:14} Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachath, and called them after his own name, Bashan- havoth-jair, unto this day. {3:15} And I gave Gilead unto Machir. {3:16} And unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river
Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river

Jabbok, [which is] the border of the children of Ammon; [3:17] The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast [thereof,] from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, [even] the salt sea, under Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

{3:18} And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all [that are] meet for the war. [3:19] But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you; [3:20] Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and [until] they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and [then] shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

{3:21} And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest. [3:22] Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall fight for you. [3:23] And I besought the LORD at that time, saying, [3:24] O Lord God, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God [is there] in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might? [3:25] I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that [is] beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. [3:26] But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter. [3:27] Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold [it] with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan. [3:28] But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see. [3:29] So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

{4:1} Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do [them,] that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you. [4:2] Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish [ought] from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. [4:3] Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you. [4:4] But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God [are] alive every one of you this day. [4:5] Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it. [4:6] Keep therefore and do [them;] for this [is] your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation [is] a wise and understanding people. [4:7] For what nation [is there so] great, who hath [that] God [so] nigh unto him, as the LORD our God [is] in all [things that] we call upon him [for? ] [4:8] And what nation [is there so] great, that hath statutes and judgments [so] righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? [4:9] Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons; [4:10] [Specially] the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and [that] they may teach their children. [4:11] And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. [4:12] And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only [ye heard] a voice. [4:13] And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, [even] ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

{4:14} And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it. [4:15] Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day [that] the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire: [4:16] Lest ye corrupt [yourselves,] and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female. [4:17] The likeness of any beast that [is] on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air, [4:18] The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that [is] in the waters beneath the earth: [4:19] And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, [even] all the host of heaven, shouldst be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven. [4:20] But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, [even] out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as [ye are] this day. [4:21] Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance: [4:22] But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land, [4:23] Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, [or] the likeness of any [thing,] which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee. [4:24] For the LORD thy God [is] a consuming fire, [even] a jealous God.

{4:25} When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt [yourselves,] and make a graven image, [or] the likeness of any [thing,] and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger: [4:26] I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong [your] days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed. [4:27] And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you. [4:28] And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. [4:29] But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find [him,] if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul. [4:30] When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, [even] in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice: [4:31] (For the LORD thy God [is] a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them. [4:32] For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and
Deuteronomy

[ask] from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been [any such thing] as this great thing [is,] or hath been heard like it? [4:33] Did [ever] people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? [4:34] Or hath God assayed to go [and] take him a nation from the midst of another [nation,] by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? [4:35] Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he [is] God; [there is] none else beside him. [4:36] Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou hearest his words out of the midst of the fire. [4:37] And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt: [4:38] To drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art; to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day. [4:39] Know therefore this day, and consider [it] in thine heart, that the LORD he [is] God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: [there is] none else. [4:40] Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong [thy] days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

[4:41] Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sunrising: [4:42] That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and had him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live: [4:43] [Namely,] Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

[4:44] And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel: [4:45] These [are] the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt. [4:46] On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt: [4:47] And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which [were] on this side Jordan toward the sunrising: [4:48] From Aroer, which [is] by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto Mount Sion, which [is] Hermon, [4:49] And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

[5:1] And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them. [5:2] The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. [5:3] The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, [even] us, who [are] all of us here alive this day. [5:4] The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire, [5:5] (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

[5:6] I [am] the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. [5:7] Thou shalt have none other gods before me. [5:8] Thou shalt not make thee [any] graven image, [or] any likeness [of any thing] that [is] in heaven above, or that [is] in the earth beneath, or that [is] in the waters beneath the earth: [5:9] Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God [am] a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth [generation] of them that hate me, [5:10] And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments. [5:11] Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold [him] guiltless that taketh his name in vain. [5:12] Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee. [5:13] Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work: [5:14] But the seventh day [is] the sabbath of the LORD thy God: [in it] thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that [is] within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou. [5:15] And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and [that] the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

[5:16] Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. [5:17] Thou shalt not kill. [5:18] Neither shalt thou commit adultery. [5:19] Neither shalt thou steal. [5:20] Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour. [5:21] Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour’s wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour’s house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any [thing] that [is] thy neighbour’s.

[5:22] These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. [5:23] And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, [even] all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; [5:24] And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. [5:25] Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die. [5:26] For who [is there of] all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we [have,] and lived? [5:27] Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear [it,] and do [it. ] [5:28] And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee; they have well said all that they have spoken. [5:29] O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! [5:30] Go say to them, Get you into your tents again. [5:31] But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do [them] in the land which I give them to possess it. [5:32] Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. [5:33] Ye shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and [that it may be] well with you, and [that] ye may prolong [your] days in the land which ye shall possess.

{6:1} Now these [are] the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do [them] in the land whither ye go to possess it: [6:2] That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son’s son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

{6:3} Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do [it;] that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey. [6:4] Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God [is] one LORD: [6:5] And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. [6:6] And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: [6:7] And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. [6:8] And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. [6:9] And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates. [6:10] And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not, [6:11] And houses full of all good [things,] which thou fildtest not, and wells digged, which thou diggest not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full: [6:12] Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. [6:13] Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. [6:14] Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which [are] round about you; [6:15] (For the LORD thy God [is] a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

{6:16} Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted [him] in Massah. [6:17] Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee. [6:18] And thou shalt do [that which is] right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers.

[7:1] When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou; [7:2] And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, [and] utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them: [7:3] Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

[7:4] For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy you suddenly. [7:5] But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. [7:6] For thou [art] an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that [are] upon the face of the earth. [7:7] The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye [were] the fewest of all people: [7:8] But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. [7:9] Know therefore that the LORD thy God is one LORD: [7:10] And the LORD shall deliver your enemies before you; and ye shall destroy them, and shall divide their land among you, as the LORD thy God promised thee.

[7:11] When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, all of it, as the LORD sware to thy fathers, [7:12] (Save only the land which thou swarest not unto their fathers; from the river of the brook of Jordan on the east even to Badiathelamon; [7:13] As the two kings of the Amorites that dwelt at Ashtaroth and Hebron are gone up to fight against the LORD, [7:14] He shall not trouble thee any more; for I the LORD thy God go before thee. [7:15] So shall ye keep the commandment of the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him, [7:16] And to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, because the LORD your God is a merciful God; the LORD will not forsake his people, for he is mindful of his covenant for ever.)

[7:17] Therefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to his voice, and do keep all his commandments which I command you this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth. [7:18] And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread and thy water; so that thou shalt be blessed above all nations of the earth. [7:19] And there shall not any thing accursed be of thee, and the LORD will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, upon thee; for the LORD thy God is among thee, he is thy God. [7:20] Moreover ye shall take heed to thyself, lest thou forget the covenant of the LORD thy God, which he made with thee: and thou dost make for thee a graven image, or mould like it, in the form of any figure, and shalt set it up for thyself. [7:21] [And] thou shalt not set up for thee a grove, lest thou provoke the LORD thy God to be angry; and the LORD will turn aside from thee the good of the land which he swarest unto thy fathers; [7:22] For ye have taken away from thy midst the abominations of the peoples whom the LORD thy God hath cast out before thee, and have not set yourselves to the covenant of the LORD thy God, to keep it and to do it; [7:23] But have done according to all the words which the LORD thy God spake unto thee; because the LORD thy God testifieth against thee, that, if thou dost transgress against him, to go after other gods, which thou knowest not; [7:24] Then the LORD will bring upon thee the plagues of Egypt, which thou hast known, thou, and thy fathers, even to this day: [7:25] Also the plagues which I shall bring upon thee; [7:26] [And] thou shalt know that as a man dieth, so shall the sin of him die; for he will bear the iniquity of his own sin. [7:27] Only the iniquity of the fathers shall fall upon the children, unto the third and to the fourth generation, [7:28] Of them that hate him to his face, to destroy them: [7:29] He will not spare the congregation, as he justified thee to his face, to keep the covenant and the mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments; [7:30] And will not requite that man according to his wickedness: for the LORD is quick to punish, and slow to turn aside.

[7:31] Therefore it shall be, if thou hearken to these judgments, and shalt keep and do them; that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swarest unto thy fathers, and shall magnify thee above all nations of the earth. [7:32] And ye shall be great, and the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which thy fathers went in to possess, and thou shalt possess it. [7:33] And the LORD thy God shall bestow upon thee of the good of all thy fruit, and of all the good of thy lands; and thou shalt no more be left behind. [7:34] And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail, and thou shalt be above all nations that thou goest among. [7:35] And the LORD shall keep thee from evil, and from thee deliver thee out of the hand of the Egyptian king that sware to thee, [7:36] For he will not have mercy upon thee, until he have destroyed thee; [7:37] But he will greatly have mercy upon thee, to do thee good, and to multiply thee; for the LORD thy God is a mercy, and will not leave thee nor forget thee. [7:38] So shall the LORD your God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid. [7:39] For thou [art] an holy people unto the LORD thy God; the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that [are] upon the earth. [7:40] Therefore thou shalt keep all the commandments which I command thee today, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest increase mightily, as the LORD promised thee.
8:1 All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers. 8:2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end; 8:3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD thy God. 8:4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years. 8:5 Consider it in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

8:6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. 8:7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that the LORD doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

8:8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. 8:9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, [even] the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water: 8:10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee. 8:11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day: 8:12 Lest [when] thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein; 8:13 And [when] thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied; 8:14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage; 8:15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where [there was] no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint; 8:16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end; 8:17 And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of [mine] hand hath gotten me this wealth; 8:18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for [it is] he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as [it is] this day. 8:19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve themselves from thee, be destroyed. 7:21 Thou shalt not be afflicted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible. 7:22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee. 7:23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed. 7:24 And he shall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them. 7:25 The graven images of their gods ye shall burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold [that is] on them, nor take [it] unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is [an] abomination to the LORD thy God. 7:26 Neither shall thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: [but] thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is [a] cursed thing.

9:1 Hear, O Israel: Thou [art] to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven, 9:2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and [of whom] thou hast heard [say,] Who can stand before the children of Anak! 9:3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God [is] he which goeth over before thee; [as] a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee. 9:4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee. 9:5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 9:6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou [art] a stiffnecked people.

9:7 Remember, [and] forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD. 9:8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. 9:9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, [even] the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water: 9:10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them [was written] according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. 9:11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, [that] the LORD gave me the tables of stone, [even] the tables of the covenant. 9:12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence: for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted [themselves:] they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. 9:13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it [is] a stiffnecked people: 9:14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. 9:15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant [were] in my two hands. 9:16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, [and] had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. 9:17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes. 9:18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. 9:19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot and not hearkened to his voice. {9:24} Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. {9:25} Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down [at the first:] because the LORD had said he would destroy you. {9:26} I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. {9:27} Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. {9:28} Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. {9:29} Yet they [are] thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

{10:1} At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood. {10:2} And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark. {10:3} And I made an ark [of] shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand. {10:4} And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me. {10:5} And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

{10:6} And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there was he buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest’s office in his stead. {10:7} From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

{10:8} At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day. {10:9} Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD [is] his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him. {10:10} And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, [and] the LORD would not destroy thee. {10:11} And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take [thy] journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.
th thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full. {11:16} Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; {11:17} And [then] the LORD’S wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and [lest] ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

{11:18} Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. {11:19} And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. {11:20} And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: {11:21} That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

{11:22} For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him; {11:23} Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves. {11:24} Every place whereof the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be. {11:25} There shall be no man able to stand before you: [for] the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

{11:26} Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; {11:27} A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day: {11:28} And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known. {11:29} And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal. {11:30} [Are] they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh? {11:31} For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein. {11:32} And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

{12:1} These [are] the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth. {12:2} Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree: {12:3} And ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place. {12:4} Ye shall not do unto the LORD your God, [12:5] But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, [even] unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come: {12:6} And thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks: {12:7} And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee. {12:8} Ye shall not do after all [the things] that we do here this day, every man whatsoever [is] right in his own eyes. {12:9} For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you. {12:10} But [when] ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inhabit, and [when] he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety; {12:11} Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD: {12:12} And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your manservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that [is] within your gates: forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you. {12:13} Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest: {12:14} But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee. {12:15} Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart. {12:16} Only ye shall not eat the blood: ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

{12:17} Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thine hand: {12:18} But thou must eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that [is] within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto. {12:19} Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

{12:20} When the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh; thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after. {12:21} If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after. {12:22} Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike. {12:23} Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood [is] the life; and thou mayest not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

{12:24} Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water. {12:25} Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do [that which is] right in the sight of the LORD. {12:26} Only thy holy things wherewith thou hast made to pass over Jordan, and thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose: {12:27} And thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: [14:26] And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household. [15:1] At the end of [every] seven years thou shalt make a release. [15:2] And this [is] the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth [ought] unto his neighbour shall release [it:] he shall not exact [it] of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD’S release. [15:3] Of a foreigner thou mayest exact [it again:] but [that] which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release; [15:4] Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance to possess it: [15:5] Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day. [15:6] For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee; and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee. [15:7] If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother: [15:8] But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, [in that] which he wanteth. [15:9] Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou shalt not give unto him of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay [it] up unto the year of release. [15:10] Thou shalt surely give unto him of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay [it] up unto the seventh year, which is the year of release; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou dost. [15:11] For the poor shall never cease out of thy gates: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land. [15:12] [And] if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. [15:13] And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty: [15:14] Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: [of that] wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him. [15:15] And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise. [15:18] It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant [to thee,] in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest. [15:19] All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep. [15:20] Thou shalt eat [it] before the LORD thy God year by year in the place where the LORD shall choose, thou and thy thou household. [15:21] And if there be [any] blemish therein, [as if it be] lame, or blind, [or have] any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God. [16:3] Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, [even] the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life. [16:4] And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days: neither shall there [any thing] of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning. [16:5] Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee: [16:6] But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt. [16:7] And thou shalt roast and eat [it] in the place where the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents. [16:8] Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day [shall be] a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work [therein]. [16:9] Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from [such time as] thou beginnest [to put] the sickle to the corn. [16:10] And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give [unto the LORD thy God,] according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee: [16:11] And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that [is] within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that [are] among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there. 16:16 Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty: 16:17 Every man [shall give] as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

16:18 Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout all thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. 16:19 Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. 16:20 That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

16:21 Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee. 16:22 Neither shalt thou set thee up [any] image; which the LORD thy God hateth.

17:1 Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God [any] bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, [or] any evilfavouredness: for that [is] an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

17:2 If there be found among you, within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, in transgressing his covenant, 17:3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded; 17:4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard [of it], and enquired diligently, and, behold, [it be] true, [and] the thing certain, [that] such abomination is wrought in Israel: 17:5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, [even] that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die. 17:6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death: [but] at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. 17:7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

17:8 If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, [being] matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose; 17:9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire: and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment: 17:10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee: and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee: 17:11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, [to] the right hand, nor [to] the left. 17:12 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. 17:13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

17:14 When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that [are] about me; 17:15 Thou shalt in any wise set [him] king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall choose: [one] from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which [is] not thy brother. 17:16 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way. 17:17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold. 17:18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of [that which is] before the priests the Levites: 17:19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them: 17:20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, [to] the right hand, or [to] the left: to the end that he may prolong [his] days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

18:1 The priests the Levites, [and] all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

18:2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD [is] their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

18:3 And this shall be the priest’s due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether [it be] ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two wings, and the skin of the hide. 18:4 They shall not put unto the priest the head, nor the feet, nor any maw. 18:5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD his God, to stand before the priests the Levites, and all the congregation of the people of Israel, and to cause all the people of Israel to obey the law of the LORD. 18:6 And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose; 18:7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites [do,] which stand there before the LORD. 18:8 They shall have like portions to all his brethren the Levites, who stand before the LORD to minister, and to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

18:9 When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. 18:10 There shall not be found among you [any one] that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchantor, a witch, 18:11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 18:12 For all that do these things [are] an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. [18:13] Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God. [18:14] For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so [to do].

18:15] The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken; [18:16] According to all that thou desirdest of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not. [18:17] And the LORD said unto me, They have well [spoken that] which they have spoken. [18:18] I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth; and he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him. [18:19] And it shall come to pass, [that] whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require [it] of him. [18:20] But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. [18:21] And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? [18:22] When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that [is] the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, [but] the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

19:1] When the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses; [19:2] Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it. [19:3] Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

19:4] And this [is] the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: Whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past; [19:5] As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live: [19:6] Lest the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he [was] not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past. [19:7] Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee. [19:8] And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers; [19:9] If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three: [19:10] That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance, and [so] blood be upon thee.

19:11] But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities: [19:12] Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. [19:13] Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away [the guilt of] innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

[19:14] Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour’s landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

19:15] One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

19:16] If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him [that which is] wrong; [19:17] Then both the men, between whom the controversy [is], shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days; [19:18] And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, [if] the witness [be] a false witness, [and] hath testified falsely against his brother; [19:19] Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. [19:20] And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. [19:21] And thine eye shall not pity; [but] life [shall go] for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20:1] When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, [and] a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. [20:2] And it shall be, when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people, [20:3] And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, both the men, between whom the controversy [is,] shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people, [20:4] For the LORD your God [is] he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

20:5] And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man [is there] that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. [20:6] And what man [is he] that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. [20:7] And what man [is there] that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. [20:8] And what man [is there] that hath betrothed a wife, and a false witness, [and] hath testified falsely against his brother; [20:9] Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. [20:10] And if it be true, and the thing be so; [20:11] In such a case the blood which is shed shall be requited: blood for blood.

20:12] And if it will go no more with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it: [20:13] And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword: [20:14] But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, [even] all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. [20:15] Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities [which are] very far off from thee, which [are] not of the cities of these nations. [20:16] But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee [for] an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth: [20:17] But thou shalt utterly destroy them; [namely,] the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee: [20:18] That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

[20:19] When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field [is] man’s [life]) to employ [them] in the siege: [20:20] Only the trees which thou knowest that they [be] not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

[21:1] If [one] be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, [and] it be not known who hath slain him: [21:2] Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which [are] round about him that is slain: [21:3] And it shall be, [that] the city [which is] next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, [and] which hath not drawn in the yoke: [21:4] And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer’s neck there in the valley: [21:5] And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be [tried: ] [21:6] And all the elders of that city, [that are] next unto the slain man [man] shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley: [21:7] And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen [it. ] [21:8] Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel’s charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them. [21:9] So shalt thou put away the [guilt of] innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do [that which is] right in the sight of the LORD.

[21:10] When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive, [21:11] And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife; [21:12] Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house; and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails; [21:13] And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife. [21:14] And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

[21:15] If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have born him children, [both] the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated: [21:16] Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit [that] which he hath, [that] he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, [which is indeed] the firstborn: [21:17] But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated [for] the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he [is] the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn [is] his.

[21:18] If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and [that,] when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them: [21:19] Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place; [21:20] And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son [is] stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; [he is] a glutton, and a drunkard. [21:21] And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

[21:22] And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree: [21:23] His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance.

[22:1] Thou shalt not see the brother’s ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother. [22:2] And if thy brother [be] not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring them again unto thy brother. [22:3] In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until the dead. [22:4] Thou shalt not see the brother’s ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift [them] up again.

[22:5] The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman’s garment: for all that do so [are] abomination unto the LORD thy God.

[22:6] If a bird’s nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, [whether they be] young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young; [22:7] But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and [that] thou mayest prolong [thy] days.

[22:8] When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence.

[22:9] Thou shalt sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled.

| (24:1) When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give [it] in her hand, and send her out of his house. (24:2) And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.  And [if] the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth [it] in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to [be] his wife: (24:4) Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that [is] abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance. | | |

| (24:5) When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: [but] he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken. | | |

| (24:6) No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh [a man's] life to pledge. | | |

| (24:7) If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you. | | |

| (24:8) Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. (24:9) Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt. | | |

| (24:10) When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge. (24:11) Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee. (24:12) And if the man [be] poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge: (24:13) In any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God. | | |

| (24:14) Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant [that is] poor and needy, [whether he be] of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that [are] in thy land within thy gates: (24:15) At his day thou shalt give [him] his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for [he is] poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee. (24:16) The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. | | |

| (24:17) Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, [nor] of the fatherless, nor take a widow's raiment to pledge: (24:18) But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing. | | |

| (24:19) When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands. (24:20) When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. (24:21) When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean [it] afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. (24:22) And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing. | | |

| (25:1) If there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that [the judges] may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked. (25:2) And it shall be, if the wicked man [be] worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number. (25:3) Forty stripes he may give him, [and] not exceed: lest, [if] he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee. | | |

| (25:4) Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. | | |

| (25:5) If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her. (25:6) And it shall be, [that] the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother [which is] dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. (25:7) And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. (25:8) Then shall the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and [if] he stand [to it.] and say, I like not to take her; (25:9) Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house. (25:10) And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed. | | |

| (25:11) When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets: (25:12) Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity [her. | | |

| (25:13) Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. (25:14) Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small. (25:15) [But] thou shalt have a perfect and just measure, and a perfect and just weight, thine eye shall be for the LORD thy God: and thou shalt do justly, and shalt fear the LORD thy God: (25:16) For all that do such things, [and] all that do unrighteously, [are] an abomination unto the LORD thy God. | | |

| (25:17) Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt; (25:18) How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, [even] all [that were] feeble behind thee, when thou [wast] faint and weary; and he feared not God. (25:19) Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance to possess it, | | |

[26:1] And it shall be, when thou [art] come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee [for] an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein: {26:2} That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put [it] in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there. {26:3} And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us. {26:4} And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God. {26:5} And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish [was] my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous: {26:6} And the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage: {26:7} And when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression: {26:8} And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders: {26:9} And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, [even] a land that floweth with milk and honey. {26:10} And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God: {26:11} And thou shalt rejoice in every good [thing] which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that [is] among you.

[26:12] When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase the third year, [which is] the year of tithing, and hast given [it] unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled; {26:13} Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of [mine] house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which I hath commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten [them]: {26:14} I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away [ought] thereof for [any] unclean [use,] nor given [ought] thereof for the dead: [but] I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, [and] have done according to all that thou hast commanded me. {26:15} Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

[26:16] This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul. {26:17} Thou hast avouched the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice: {26:18} And the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that [thou] shouldest keep all his commandments; {26:19} And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

[26:17] And Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day. {26:2} And it shall be on the day when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister: {26:3} And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee. {26:4} Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, [that] ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister. {26:5} And there shal build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up [any] iron [tool] upon them. {26:6} Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God: {26:7} And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God. {26:8} And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

[26:9] And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God. {26:10} Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

[26:11] And Moses charged the people the same day, saying, {26:12} These shall stand upon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin: {26:13} And these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

[26:14] And the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I have commanded you this day.

[26:15] cursed [be] the man that maketh [any] graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and puttest [it] in [a] secret [place.] And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. {26:16} Cursed [be] he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:17} Cursed [be] he that removeth his neighbour’s landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:18} Cursed [be] he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:19} Cursed [be] he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:20} Cursed [be] he that lieth with his father’s wife; because he uncovereth his father’s skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:21} Cursed [be] he that lieth with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:22} Cursed [be] he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:23} Cursed [be] he that taketh reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:24} Cursed [be] he that lieth with his mother in law. And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:25} Cursed [be] he that putteth [it] in [a] secret [place.] And all the people shall say, Amen. {26:26} Cursed [be] he that confirmeth not [all] the words of this law to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen.
[28:1] And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe [and] to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: [28:2] And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God. [28:3] Blessed [shalt] thou [be] in the city, and blessed [shalt] thou [be] in the field. [28:4] Blessed [shall be] the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. [28:5] Blessed [shall be] thy basket and thy store. [28:6] Blessed [shalt] thou [be] when thou comest in, and blessed [shalt] thou [be] when thou goest out. [28:7] The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways. [28:8] The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. [28:9] The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he sware unto the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee. [28:10] And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee. [28:11] And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee. [28:12] The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow. [28:13] And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; that if thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do [them]; [28:14] And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or [to] the left, to go after other gods to serve them. [28:15] But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: [28:16] Cursed [shalt] thou [be] in the city, and cursed [shalt] thou [be] in the field. [28:17] Cursed [shall be] thy basket and thy store. [28:18] Cursed [shall be] the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. [28:19] Cursed [shalt] thou [be] when thou comest in, and cursed [shalt] thou [be] when thou goest out. [28:20] The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou setteth thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me. [28:21] The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it. [28:22] The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. [28:23] And thy heaven that [is] over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron. [28:24] The LORD shall bring thee into the land of thy enemies, and in the land of the heathen, which he sware to give unto thy fathers, and to their fathers; [28:25] The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. [28:26] And thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray [them] away. [28:27] The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed. [28:28] The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart: [28:29] And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save [thee. ] [28:30] Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof. [28:31] Thine ox [shall be] slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass [shall be] violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep [shall be] given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue [them. ] [28:32] Thy sons and thy daughters [shall be] given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail [with longing] for them all the day long: and [there shall be] no might in thine hand. [28:33] The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway: [28:34] So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. [28:35] The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head. [28:36] The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. [28:37] And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee. [28:38] Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather [but] little in; for the locust shall consume it. [28:39] Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress [them,] but shalt neither drink [of] the wine, nor gather [the grapes;] for the worms shall eat them. [28:40] Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint [thyself] with the oil; for thine olive shall cast [his fruit. ] [28:41] Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall come down very low. [28:42] All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume. [28:43] The stranger that [is] among thee shall not go out of thy land; neither shall thy hand be lifted to help the stranger. [28:44] He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail. [28:45] Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee: [28:46] And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever. [28:47] Because thou servest not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all [things]; [28:48] Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and thou shall serve thine enemies, and no man shall save [thee. ] [28:49] He shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, [as swift] as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand: [28:50] A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young: [28:51] And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which [also] shall not leave thee [either] corn, wine, or oil, [or] the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee. [28:52] And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. [28:53] And thou shalt eat the fruit of thy own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee: [28:54] So that the man [that is] tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave: [28:55] So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates. [28:56] The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, [28:57] And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all [things] secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates. [28:58] If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD; [28:59] Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, [even] great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance. [28:60] Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee. [28:61] Also every sickness, and every plague, which [is] not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed. [28:62] And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God. [28:63] And it shall come to pass, [that] as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it. [28:64] And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, [even] wood and stone. [28:65] And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot rest; but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind: [28:66] And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life: [28:67] In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. [28:68] And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you. [28:69] These [are] the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

[29:1] And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land; [29:2] The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles: [29:3] Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day. [29:4] And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot. [29:5] Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I [am] the LORD your God. [29:6] And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them: [29:7] And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. [29:8] Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

[29:10] Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, [with] all the men of Israel, [29:11] Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that [is] in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water: [29:12] That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day: [29:13] That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and [that] he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. [29:14] Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath; [29:15] But with [him] that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with [him] that [is] not here with us this day: [29:16] Also with every one that is here with us this day before the LORD our God; [29:17] Ye have seen the abominations which they did in Egypt, and how we came through the nations which ye passed by; [29:18] And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which [were] among them: Lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood; [29:19] And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst: [29:20] The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven. [29:21] And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law: [29:22] So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it; [29:23] And that the whole land thereof [is] brimstone, and salt, [and] burning, [that] it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass growth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: [29:24] Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what [meanteth] the heat of this great anger? [29:25] Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: [29:26] For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and [whom] he had not given unto them: [29:27]
And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book: {29:28} And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as [it is] this day. {29:29} The secret [things belong] unto the LORD our God: but [those things which] are revealed [belong] unto us and to our children for ever, that [we] may do all the words of this law.

{30:1} And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call [them] to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,
{30:2} And shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul; {30:3} That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee. {30:4} If [any] of thine be driven out unto the outmost [parts] of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee: {30:5} And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.
{30:6} And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. {30:7} And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee. {30:8} And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day. {30:9} And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers:
{30:10} If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, [and] if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

{30:11} For this commandment which I command thee this day, it [is] not hidden from thee, neither [is] it far off. {30:12} It [is] not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? {30:13} Neither [is] it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? {30:14} But the word [is] very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

{30:15} See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; {30:16} In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. {30:17} But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; {30:18} I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, [and that] ye shall not prolong [your] days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it. {30:19} I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: {30:20} That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, [and] that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he [is] thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

{31:1} And Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel. {31:2} And he said unto them, I am an hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: also the LORD hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan. {31:3} The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, [and] he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: [and] Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said. {31:4} And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he destroyed. {31:5} And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.
{31:6} Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he [it is] that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

{31:7} And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. {31:8} And the LORD, he [it is] that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

{31:9} And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel. {31:10} And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, {31:11} When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing. {31:12} Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that [is] within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law: {31:13} And [that] their children, which have not known [any thing,] may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

{31:14} And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation. {31:15} And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

{31:16} And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go [to be] among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. {31:17} Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Because these evils come upon us because our God [is] not among us? {31:18} And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods. {31:19} Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel:
Deuteronomy

[32:1] Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. [32:2] My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass: [32:3] Because I will publish the name of the LORD; ascribe ye greatness unto our God. [32:4] He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God just and Righteous is he. [32:5] They have corrupted themselves, their spot is not in the son of Jacob: they are a perverse and crooked generation. [32:6] Do ye thus? Do ye thus? saith the LORD, Do not my words do good unto thee? hath he not spoken unto thee in truth? [32:7] Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee. [32:8] When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. [32:9] For the LORD’S portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. [32:10] He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. [32:11] As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings: [32:12] So the LORD alone did lead him, and [there was] no strange god with him. [32:13] He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock; [32:14] Butter of kes, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape. [32:15] But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered [with fatness]; then he forsook God [which] made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. [32:16] They provoked him to jealousy with strange [gods,] with abominations provoked they him to anger: [32:17] They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new [gods that] came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. [32:18] Of the Rock [that] begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee. [32:19] And when the LORD saw [it,] he abhorred [them,] because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters. [32:20] And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end [shall be:] for they [are] a very froward generation, children in whom [is] no faith. [32:21] They have moved me to jealousy with [that which is] not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to jealousy with [those which are] not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. [32:22] For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains. [32:23] I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows upon them. [32:24] They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust. [32:25] The sword without, and the terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling [also] with the man of gray hairs. [32:26] I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men: [32:27] Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, [and] lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this. [32:28] For they [are] a nation void of counsel, neither [is there any] understanding in them. [32:29] O that they were wise, that they understood this, [that] they would consider their latter end! [32:30] How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up? [32:31] For their rock [is] not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves [being] judges. [32:32] For their vine [is] of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes [are] grapes of gall, their clusters [are] bitter: [32:33] Their wine [is] the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps. [32:34] [Is] not this laid up in store with me, [and] sealed up among my treasures? [32:35] To me [belongeth] vengeance, and recompence; their foot shall slide in [due] time: for the day of their calamity [is] at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste. [32:36] For the LORD shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that [their] power is gone, and [there is] none shut up, or left. [32:37] And he shall say, Where [are] their gods, [their] rock in whom they trusted, [32:38] Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, [and] drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up, and help you, [and] be your protection. [32:39] For behold, I, [even] I, [am] he, and [there is] no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither [is there any] that can deliver out of my hand. [32:40] For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever. [32:41] If I whet my glittering sword, and
And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea the son of Nun. And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel: And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. For it [is] not a vain thing for you; because it [is] your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong [your] days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it. And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying, Get thee up into this mountain Abiram, [unto] mount Nebo, which [is] in the land of Moab, that [is] over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession: And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people: {32:51} Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel. Yet thou shalt see the land before thee; but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

And this [is] the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. And he said, The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount Paran, and his glory covered the heavens, and his cloud covered the earth, and his bones had overshadowed the waters. And his brightness was as the light; his horns shone white and his tail burned. And the destroying angel died not; but he covered his eyes with a veil. {32:17} That [was] Moses, to whom the LORD spoke face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned and went down from off the mount, and stood upon a mountain; and the two tables of the testimony were in his hands. And it came to pass when he came down from off the mount, even Moses had not finished speaking with them, that the glory of the LORD shone upon Moses; and his face shone so much, that the children of Israel could not look upon Moses, lest their eyes should be burned. And Moses went down from off the mount, and talked with the children of Israel all the words of the LORD. And they saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone; and they不敢 speak. {32:23} And of Gad he said, Blessed [be] he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head. {32:24} And he provided the first part for himself, because there, [in] a portion of the lawgiver, [was he] seated; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Israel.

And of Dan he said, Dan [is] a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan. And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD: possess thou the west and the south.

And of Asher he said, [Let] Asher [be] blessed with children: let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil. {32:25} Thy shoes [shall be] iron and brass; and as thy days, [so shall] thy strength [be].

And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and, Issachar, in thy tents. They shall call the people unto the mountain; there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck [of] the abundance of the seas, and [of] treasures hid in the sand.

And of Joseph he said, Blessed [be] his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath. {32:14} And for the precious fruits [brought forth] by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, [32:15] And for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills, [32:16] And for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof, and [for] the good will of him that dwelt in the bush: let [the blessing] come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him [that was] separated from his brethren. {32:17} His glory [is like] the firstling of his bullock, and his horns [are like] the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they [are] the thousands of Manasseh. And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him; [and the LORD] shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between his shoulders.

And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD [be] his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath. [32:14] And for the precious fruits [brought forth] by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, [32:15] And for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills, [32:16] And for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof, and [for] the good will of him that dwelt in the bush: let [the blessing] come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him [that was] separated from his brethren. {32:17} His glory [is like] the firstling of his bullock, and his horns [are like] the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they [are] the thousands of Manasseh.

And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and, Issachar, in thy tents. They shall call the people unto the mountain; there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck [of] the abundance of the seas, and [of] treasures hid in the sand.

34:5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
34:6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

34:7 And Moses [was] an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

34:8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping [and] mourning for Moses were ended.

34:9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

34:10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, 34:11 In all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, 34:12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in
The Book of Joshua

{1:1} Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ minister, saying, {1:2} Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, [even] to the children of Israel. {1:3} Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses. {1:4} From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. {1:5} There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, [so] I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. {1:6} Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give them. {1:7} Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it [to] the right hand or [to] the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest. {1:8} This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then shalt have good success. {1:9} Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

{1:10} Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, {1:11} Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

{1:12} And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, {1:13} Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land. {1:14} Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them; {1:15} Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD’S servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising.

{1:16} And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go. {1:17} According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. {1:18} Whosoever [he be] that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

{2:1} And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot’s house, named Rahab, and lodged there. {2:2} And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country. {2:3} And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house; for they be come to search out all the country. {2:4} And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they [were: 1:25] And it came to pass [about the time] of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them. {2:6} But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof. {2:7} And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

{2:8} And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof; {2:9} And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. {2:10} For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that [were] on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. {2:11} And as soon as we had heard [these things,] our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he [is] God in heaven above, and in earth beneath. {2:12} Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father’s house, and give me a true token: {2:13} And [that] ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death. {2:14} And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee. {2:15} Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her house [was] upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall. {2:16} And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way. {2:17} And the men said unto her, We [will be] blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear. {2:18} Behold, [when] we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father’s household, home unto thee. {2:19} And it shall be, [that] whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood [shall be] upon his head, and we [will be] guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood [shall be] on our head, if [any] hand be upon him. {2:20} And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear. {2:21} And she said, According unto your words, so [be] it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window. {2:22} And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought [them] throughout all the way, but found [them] not.
Joshua 3:1 And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

3:2 And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the host; 3:3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. 3:4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore. 3:5 Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you. 3:6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

3:7 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee. 3:8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye see the brink of the water of Jordan, ye shall stand still in Jordan.

3:9 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God. 3:10 And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God [is] among you, and [that] he will without fail drive out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Ivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites. 3:11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you Jordan. 3:12 Now therefore take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man. 3:13 And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, [that] the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from [them] the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon an heap.

3:14 And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people; 3:15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,) 3:16 That the waters which came down from above stood [and] rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that [is] beside Zarethan: and those that came down toward the sea of the plain, [even] the salt sea, failed, [and] were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho. 3:17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

4:1 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying, 4:2 Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, 4:3 And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night. 4:4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man: 4:5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: 4:6 That this may be a sign among you, [that] when your children ask [their fathers] in time to come, saying, What [mean] ye by these stones? 4:7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever. 4:8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. 4:9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

4:10 For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over. 4:11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people. 4:12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spoke unto them: 4:13 About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

4:14 On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life. 4:15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying, 4:16 Command the priests that bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan. 4:17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan. 4:18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, [and] the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all his banks, as [they did] before.

4:19 And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth [day] of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. 4:20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal. 4:21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What [mean] these stones? 4:22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. 4:23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: 4:24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it [is] mighty: that ye might fear the LORD your God for ever.

5:1 And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which [were] on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which [were] by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

[5:5] Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people [that were] born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, [them] they had not circumcised. [5:6] For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people [that were] men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD spake that he would not shew them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey. [5:7] And their children, [whom] he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. [5:8] And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole. | [6:17] | And the city shall be accursed, [even] it, and all that [are] therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that [are] with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. [6:18] And ye, in any wise keep [yourselves] from the accursed thing, lest ye make [yourselves] accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. [6:19] But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, [are] consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD. [6:20] So the people shouted when [the priests] blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpets, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. [6:21] And they utterly destroyed all that [was] in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword. [6:22] But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye swear unto her. [6:23] And the young men that were spies went in, and brought Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel. [6:24] And they burnt the city with fire, and all that [was] therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. [6:25] And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel [even] unto this day: because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
[6:26] And Joshua adjured [them] at that time, saying, Cursed [be] the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest [son] shall he set up the gates of it. [6:27] So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was [noised] throughout all the country.

[7:1] But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel. [7:2] And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which [is] beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai. [7:3] And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; [and] make not all the people to labour thither; for they [are but] few. [7:4] So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai. [7:5] And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them [from] before the gate [even] unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

[7:6] And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the even tide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. [7:7] And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord GOD, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had contented, and dwelt on the other side Jordan! [7:8] O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turneth back before their enemies! [7:9] For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear [of it], and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name? [7:10] And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? [7:11] Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put [it] even among their own stuff. [7:12] Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, [but] turned [their] backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you. [7:13] Up, sanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [There is] an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you. [7:14] In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, [that] the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families [thereof]; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man. [7:15] And it shall be, [that] he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

[7:16] So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: [7:17] And he brought the family of Judah: and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken: [7:18] And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. [7:19] And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give I now thy soul; for the LORD God of Israel; and make confusion unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide [it] not from me. [7:20] And Achan answered Joshua, and said. Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: [7:21] When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they [are] hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

[7:22] So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, [it was] hid in his tent, and the silver under it. [7:23] And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD. [7:24] And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor. [7:25] And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. [7:26] And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor, unto this day.

[8:1] And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: [8:2] And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

[8:3] So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. [8:4] And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, [even] behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready: [8:5] And I, and all the people that [are] with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them, [8:6] (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city: for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them. [8:7] Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. [8:8] And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, [that] ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you. [8:9] Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people. [8:10] And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, and he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. [8:11] And all the people, [even the people] of war that [were] with him, were up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now [there was] a valley between them and Ai. [8:12] And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. [8:13] And when they had set the people, [even] all the host that
And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw [it], that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he wist not that [there were] liers in ambush against him behind the city. {8:14} And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. {8:15} And all that were in Ai were called together, and pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. {8:17} And there was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel. {8:18} And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that [is] in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that [he had] in his hand toward the city. {8:19} And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire. {8:20} And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers. {8:21} And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai. {8:22} And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. {8:23} And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua. {8:24} And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword. {8:25} And [so] it was, [that] all that fell that day, both of men and women, [were] twelve thousand, [even] all the men of Ai. {8:26} For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. {8:27} Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua. {8:28} And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, [even] a desolation unto this day. {8:29} And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, [that remaineth] unto this day. {8:30} Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal, {8:31} As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up [any] iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. {8:33} And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel. {8:34} And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law. {8:35} There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that were conversant among them.

And it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard [thereof]; [9:2] That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai, {9:4} They did work willily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up; [9:5] And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry [and] mouldy. {9:6} And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ye a league with us. {9:7} And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with you? {9:8} And they said unto Joshua, We [are] thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who [are] ye? and from whence come ye? [9:9] And they said unto him, From a place far distant, and very far off, from where ye are not known. {9:10} And Joshua said unto them, Who [are] ye? and from whence come ye? [9:14] And the men took of their victuals, and their journeys. {9:15} And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them.

And it came to pass, when the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they [were] their neighbours, and [that] they dwelt among them. {9:17} And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities [were] Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroheth, and Kirjath-jearim. {9:18} And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes. {9:19} But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them. {9:20} This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware

And they sware unto them. {9:21} And they sware unto them by the LORD God of Israel, and said unto them, We will not smite thee, neither will we forsake thee. [9:22] So they sware unto them by the LORD. {9:23} And the princes commanded the men of Gibeon, saying, Say ye [not] that ye are of the Congregation of Israel; for ye shall eat with us, and your daughters shall eat at our tables; and ye shall be our gods, and ye shall rule over us. {9:24} And they said unto them, We will not be thy gods, neither will ye be our rulers: why then say ye, We will be your gods? {9:25} And they said unto them, The former part shall be your wages, and we will not take it at all. [9:26] So they gave them sheep, and she asses, and oxen, and milk, and cheese, of all that they had. {9:27} And the men of Gibeon departed, and returned, and dwelt in the cities of these cities. {9:28} And the LORD was with Joshua; and his glory was seen in Israel.
unto them. [9:21] And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised them.

[9:22] And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We [are] very far from you; when ye dwell among us? [9:23] Now therefore ye [are] cursed, and shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God. [9:24] And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing. [9:25] And now, behold, we [are] in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do. [9:26] And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not. [9:27] And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose.

[10:1] Now it came to pass, when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them; [10:2] That they feared greatly, because Gibeon [was] a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it [was] greater than Ai, and all the men thereof [were] mighty. [10:3] Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Ahijah king of Hebron, unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying, [10:4] Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Israel, and were among them. [10:5] Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

[10:6] And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us. [10:7] So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

[10:8] And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee. [10:9] Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, [and] went up from Gilgal all night. [10:10] And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah. [10:11] And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, [and] were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died; [they were] more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

[10:12] Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. [10:13] And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. [Is this not written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. [10:14] And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel.

[10:15] And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal. [10:16] But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah. [10:17] And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah. [10:18] And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them. [10:19] And stay ye not, [but] pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand. [10:20] And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest [which] remained of them entered into fenced cities. [10:21] And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. [10:22] Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave. [10:23] And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [and] the king of Eglon. [10:24] And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. [10:25] And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. [10:26] And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. [10:27] And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, [that] Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave’s mouth, [which remain] until this very day.

[10:28] And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls [that were] therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Jericho. [10:29] Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah: [10:30] And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls [that were] therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

[10:31] And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it: [10:32] And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that [were] therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

[10:33] Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.
And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. {11:12} And they smote all the souls that [were] therein: he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that [were] therein.

And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought against it: {10:39} And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that [were] therein; he left none remaining: as he had done also to Libanah, and to her king.

Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. {10:41} And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon. {10:42} And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. {10:43} And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard [those things:] that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, {11:2} And to the kings that [were] on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, {11:3} And to] the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and [to] the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and [to] the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. {11:4} And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that [is] upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many. {11:5} And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire. {11:7} So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. {11:8} And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining. {11:9} And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms. {11:11} And they smote all the souls that [were] therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying [them:] there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. {11:12} And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, [and] he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. {11:13} But [as for] the cities that stood still in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; [that] did Joshua burn. {11:14} And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses. {11:16} So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same; {11:17} [Even] from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. {11:18} Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. {11:19} There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all [other] they took in battle. {11:20} For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, [and] that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities. {11:22} There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, there remained. {11:23} So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

Now these [are] the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east: {12:2} Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, [and] ruled from Aroer, which [is] upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabok, [which is] the border of the children of Ammon; {12:3} And from the plain to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and unto the sea of the plain, [even] the salt sea on the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from the south, under Ashdoth-pisgah:

And the coast of Og king of Bashan, [which was] of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, {12:5} And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, unto the border of the Geshurites and the Maachatites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. {12:6} Them did Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel smite: and Moses the servant of the LORD gave it [for] a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

And these [are] the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir; which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel [for] a possession according to [John 10:34] And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it: {10:35} And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that [were] therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish. {10:36} And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it: {10:37} And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

And they smote all the souls that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Lachish. {10:41} And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon. {10:42} And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. {10:43} And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.
by lot [was] the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families. [13:25] And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that [is] before Rabba; [13:26] And from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debr; [13:27] And in the valley, Beth-aram, and Beth-nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and [his] border, [even] unto the edge of the sea of Chinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward. [13:28] This [is] the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

[13:29] And Moses gave [inheritance] unto the half tribe of Manasseh; and [this] was [the possession] of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families. [13:30] And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, three score cities: [13:31] And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, [were pertaining] unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families. [13:32] These [are the countries] which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward. [13:33] But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not [any] inheritance: the LORD God of Israel [was] their inheritance, as he said unto them.

[14:1] And these [are the countries] which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. [14:2] By lot [was] their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and [for] the half tribe. [14:3] For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them. [14:4] For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, [with] their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance. [14:5] As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

[14:6] Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea. [14:7] Forty years old [was] I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as [it was] in mine heart. 14:8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God. 14:9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children’s for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God. 14:10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while [the children of] Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I [am] this day fourscore and five years old. 14:11 As yet I [am as] strong this day as [I was] in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength [was] then, even so [is] my strength now, for war, both to go out, and to come in. 14:12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake that day; for thou hast heard in that day how the Anakims [were] there, and [that] the cities [were] great [and] fenced: if so be the LORD [will be] with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. 14:13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. 14:14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel. 14:15 And the name of Hebron before [was] Kirjath-arba; [which Arba was] a great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war.

15:1 [This] then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; [even] to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward [was] the uttermost part of the south coast. 15:2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from south toward Rekem, 15:3 And it went out to the south side to Maalah-acrabrim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kades-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa: 15:4 [From thence] it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast. 15:5 And the east border [was] the salt sea, [even] unto the end of Jordan. And [their] border in the north quarter [was] from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan: 15:6 And the border went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben: 15:7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, [that is] before the going up to Adummim, which [is] on the south side of the river; and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at En-rogel: 15:8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same [is] Jerusalem: and the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the top of the mountain that [lieth] before the valley of Hinnom westward, which [is] at the end of the valley of the giants northward: 15:9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which [is] Kirjath-jearim: 15:10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which [is] Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Beth- shemesh, and passed on to Timnah: 15:11 And the border went out on the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea. 15:12 And the west border [was] to the great sea, and the coast [thereof],

This [is] the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

15:13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, [even] the city of Arba the father of Anak, which [city is] Hebron. 15:14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak. 15:15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before [was] Kirjath- sepher.

15:16 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife. 15:17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. 15:18 And it came to pass, as she came [unto him,] that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off [her] ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou? 15:19 Who answered, Give me a blessing; for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs. 15:20 This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families. 15:21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the coast of Edom southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, 15:22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah, 15:23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan, 15:24 And Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, 15:25 And Hazor, and Hadattah, and Kerioth, [and] Hezron, which [is] Hazor, 15:26 And Amam, and Shema, and Moladah, 15:27 And Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-phalet, 15:28 And Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Brit, 15:29 And Beth-lehem, and Ahjalon, and Elar, and Azem, 15:30 And El'tolad, and Eshtemoa, and Cheresh, and Chamchim, 15:31 And Ziklag, and Middannath, and Zaanannim, 15:32 And Lebo'ath, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities [are] twenty and nine, with their villages: 15:33 And in the valley, Eshtoial, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, 15:34 And Zanoah, and En-ginnim, Tappuah, and Enam, 15:35 And Jarmuth, and Adullam, and Socoh, and Azekah, 15:36 And Sharmaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages: 15:37 And Zenan, and Hadesharon, and Migdal-gad, 15:38 And Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel, 15:39 And Lachish, and Bozkath, and Eglon, 15:40 And Cabbon, and Lahman, and Kithlish, 15:41 And Gederoth, and Beth-dagon, and Naaham, and Mechebe, sixteen cities with their villages: 15:42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan, 15:43 And Japhir, and Ashnah, and Nezib, 15:44 And Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages: 15:45 Ekron, with her towns and her villages: 15:46 From Ekron even unto the sea, all that [lay] near Ashdod, with their villages: 15:47 Ashdod with her towns and her villages, Gaza with her towns and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, and the great sea, and the border [thereof]:

15:48 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Jattir, and Sochoth, 15:49 And Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah, which [is] Debir, 15:50 And Anab, and Eshtemoah, and Ain, 15:51 And Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages: 15:52 Arab, and Dumah, and Eshean, 15:53 And Janum, and Beth-tappuah, and Aphekah, 15:54 And Hummim, and Kirjath-arba, which [is] Hebron, and Zior; nine cities with their villages: 15:55 Maon, and Carmel, and Ziph, and Juttah, 15:56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, 15:57 Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages: 15:58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor, 15:59 And Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltolde; six cities with their villages: 15:60 Kirjath-baal, which which [were] on the other side Jordan; {17:6} Because the among the brethren of their father. {17:5} And there fell ten commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, {17:4} And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and to the inheritance of them; and they shall come [again] to me. {17:3} But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these [are] the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah. {17:4} And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. {17:5} And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which [were] on the other side Jordan: {17:6} Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, that [lieth] before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah. {17:8} [Now] Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh [belonged] to the children of Ephraim; {17:9} And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim [are] among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also [was] on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea: {17:10} Southward [it was] Ephraim's, and northward [it was] Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east. {17:11} And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth-shean and her towns, and Ibileam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, [even] three countries. {17:12} Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out [the inhabitants] of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. {17:13} Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. {17:14} And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me [but] one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I [am] a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto? {17:15} And Joshua answered them, If thou [be] a great people, [then] get thee up to the wood [country,] and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee. {17:16} And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, [both they] who [are] of Beth-shean and her towns, and [they] who [are] of the valley of Jezreel. {17:17} And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, [even] to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou [art] a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot [only: ] {17:18} But the mountain shall be thine; for it [is] a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, [and] though they [be] strong.

And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them. {18:2} And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance. {18:3} And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long [are] ye slack to go and possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you? {18:4} Give out from among you three men for [each] tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come [again] to me. {18:5} And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north. {18:6} Ye shall therefore describe the land [into] seven parts, and bring [the description] hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. {18:7} But the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them. {18:8} And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh. {18:9} And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came [again] to Joshua to the host at Shiloh. {18:10} And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before {18:11} And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. {18:12} And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven. {18:13} And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Bethel, southward; and the border descended to Ataroth-adar, near the hill that [lieth] on the south side of the nether Beth- horon. {18:14} And the border was drawn [thence,] and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that [lieth] before Beth- horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjath-baal, which [is] Kirjath- jearim, a city of the children of Judah: this [was] the west quarter. {18:15} And the south quarter [was] from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah: {18:16} And the border came down to the end of the mountain that [lieth] before the valley of the son of Hinnom, [and] which [is] in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to En-rogel. {18:17} And was drawn from the north, and went forth to En-shemes, and went forth toward Gilead, which [is] over against the going up of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. {18:18} And passed along toward the side over against Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah: {18:19} And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward: and the goings out of the border were at the north bay of the salt sea at the south end of Jordan: this [was] the south coast. {18:20} And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This [was] the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families. {18:21} Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, {18:22} And Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel, {18:23} And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah, {18:24} And Chepharhaamonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages: {18:25} Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, {18:26} And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah, {18:27} And Rekem, and Ieroel, and Taralah, {18:28} And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which [is] Jerusalem, Gibaeth, [and] Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This [is] the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

{19:1} And the second lot came forth to Simeon, [even] for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah. {19:2} And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, or Sheba, and Moladah, {19:3} And Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azem, {19:4} And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah, {19:5} And Ziklag, and Beth- marcaboth, and Hazar-susah, {19:6} And Beth-leboath, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities and their villages: {19:7} Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages: {19:8} And all the villages that [were] round about these cities to Baalah-beer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families, {19:9} Out of the portion of the children of Judah [was] the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

{19:10} And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid: {19:11} And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasbeth, and reached to the river that [is] before Jokneam; {19:12} And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising unto the border of Chisloth-tabor, and then goeth out to Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia, {19:13} And from thence passeth on along on the east to Gittah-hepher, to Itah-kazin, and goeth out to Remmon-mothoar to Neah: {19:14} And the border compasseth it on the north side to Hanannah: and the goings out thereof are in the valley of Jiphthah-el: {19:15} And Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages. {19:16} This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

{19:17} [And] the fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families. {19:18} And their border was toward Jezreel, and Cesalloth, and Shunem, {19:19} And Haphraim, and Shihon, and Anaharath, {19:20} And Rabbib, and Kishion, and Abez, {19:21} And Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddad, and Beth-pazzez; {19:22} And the coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-shemeshe; and the goings out of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages. {19:23} This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.

{19:24} And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families. {19:25} And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, {19:26} And Alummel, and Amen, and Mishal; and reacheth to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnah; {19:27} And turneth toward the sunrising to Beth- dagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand, {19:28} And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, [even] unto great Sidon; {19:29} And [then] the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah; and the goings out thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib: {19:30} Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages. {19:31} This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

{19:32} The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, [even] for the children of Naphtali according to their families. {19:33} And their coast was from Heleph, and from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Laku; and the goings out thereof were at Jordan: {19:34} And [then] the coast turneth westward to Aznoth- tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising. {19:35} And the fenced cities [are] Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chimneheth, {19:36} And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, {19:37} And Kadesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, {19:38} And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemeshe; nineteen cities with their villages. {19:39} This [is] the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

{19:40} [And] the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. {19:41} And the coast of their inheritance was Zarah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-
Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel; [21:2] And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, the man of God, that ye should give us cities to dwell in, and suburbs for our cattle. [21:3] And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs. [21:4] And the lot came out for the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the congregation, according to the lot which was appointed for their fathers. [21:5] And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephram, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities. [21:6] And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issacah, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. [21:7] The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. [21:8] And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name, [21:10] Which the children of Aaron, [being] of the families of the Kohathites, [who were] of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. [21:11] And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which [city is] Hebron, in the hill [country] of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it. [21:12] But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephram. [21:21] For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephram, [to be] a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs, [21:22] And Kibzaim with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs; four cities. [21:23] And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with her suburbs, Gibbethon with her suburbs, [21:24] Aijalon with her suburbs, Gath- rimmon with her suburbs; four cities. [21:25] And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; two cities. [21:26] All the cities [were] ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. and went unto the land of Canaan, to go unto the coast of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, Joshua called the Reubenites, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and said unto them,

What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel? {22:25} For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you.

Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar on Jordan, a great altar to see to.

And when the children of Israel heard [of it,] the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them. {22:13} And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest. {22:14} And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one [was] an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. {21:44} And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he spake unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. {21:45} There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass. {22:1} Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, {22:2} And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you: {22:3} Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, [and] unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan. {22:5} But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. {22:6} So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

Now to the [one] half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given [possession] in Bashan: but unto the [other] half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them, {22:8} And he spoke unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which [is] in the land of Canaan, to go unto the coast of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that we may say [again.] Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it [is] a witness between us and you. {22:29} God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that [is] before his tabernacle.

{22:30} And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which [were] with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, it pleased them. {22:31} And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD [is] among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

{22:32} And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. {22:33} And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt. {22:34} And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar [Ed.] for it [shall be] a witness between us that the LORD [is] God.

{23:1} And it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old [and] stricken in age. {23:2} And Joshua called for all Israel, [and] for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old [and] stricken in age: {23:3} And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God [is] he that hath fought for you. {23:4} Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward. {23:5} And the LORD your God, he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you. {23:6} Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom [to] the right hand or [to] the left: {23:7} That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the names of their gods, nor cause to swear [by them,] neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them: {23:8} But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day. {23:9} For the LORD hath driven out before you great nations and strong: but [as for] you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day. {23:10} One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he [it is] that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. {23:11} Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God. {23:12} Else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, [even] these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: {23:13} Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out [any of] these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. {23:14} And, behold, this day I [am] going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, [and] not one thing hath failed thereof. {23:15} Therefore it shall come to pass, [that] as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. {23:16} When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

{24:1} And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and they presented themselves before God. {24:2} And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, [even] Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods. {24:3} And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. {24:4} And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. {24:5} I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out. {24:6} And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea. {24:7} And when they cried unto the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season. {24:8} And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. {24:9} Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: {24:10} But I would not hearken unto Balaam: therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand. {24:11} And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. {24:12} And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, [even] the two kings of the Amorites; [but] not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. {24:13} And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

{24:14} Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD. {24:15} And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that [were] on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. [24:16] And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; [24:17] For the LORD our God, he [it is] that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed: [24:18] And the LORD drive out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: [therefore] will we also serve the LORD; for he [is] our God. [24:19] And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he [is] an holy God; he [is] a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. [24:20] If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good. [24:21] And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD. [24:22] And Joshua said unto the people, Ye [are] witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, [We are] witnesses. [24:23] Now therefore put away, [said he,] the strange gods which [are] among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel. [24:24] And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey. [24:25] So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

[24:26] And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that [was] by the sanctuary of the LORD. [24:27] And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God. [24:28] So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

[24:29] And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, [being] an hundred and ten years old. [24:30] And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which [is] in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash. [24:31] And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that overlived Joshua, and which had known all the works of the LORD, that he had done for Israel.

[24:32] And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. [24:33] And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in a hill [that pertained to] Phinehas his son, which was given him
Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them? {1:2} And the LORD said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. {1:3} And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him. {1:4} And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men. {1:5} And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites. {1:6} But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes. {1:7} And Adoni-bezek said, Three score and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered [their meat] under my table: as I have done, so God hath required me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died. {1:8} Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley. {1:10} And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before [was] Kirjath-arba:) and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai. {1:11} And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before [was] Kirjath-sepher: {1:12} And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife. {1:13} And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. {1:14} And it came to pass, when she came [to him,] that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off [her] ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou? {1:15} And she said unto him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

And the children of the Kenite, Moses’ father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which [lieth] in the south of Arad: and they went and dwelt among the people. {1:17} And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah. {1:18} Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Ashkelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof. {1:19} And the LORD was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out [the inhabitants of] the valley, because they had chariots of iron. {1:20} And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak. {1:21} And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Bethel: and the LORD [was] with them. {1:23} And the house of Joseph sent to descry Bethel. (Now the name of the city before [was] Luz.) {1:24} And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city; and we will shew thee mercy. {1:25} And when he showed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family. {1:26} And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which [is] the name thereof unto this day.

Neither did Manasseh drive out [the inhabitants of] Beth-shan and her towns, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. {1:28} And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob: But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them. {1:34} And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley: {1:35} But the Amorites would dwell in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shalibim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries. {1:36} And the coast of the Amorites [was] from the going up to Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

And an angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you. {2:2} And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this? {2:3} Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be [as thorns] in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you. {2:4} And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. {2:5} And they called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

And when Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land. {2:7} And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel. {2:8} And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, [being] an hundred and ten years old. {2:9} And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north...
And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. (3:13) And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the city of palm trees. (3:14) So the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. (3:15) But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man lefthanded: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab. (3:16) But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment. (3:17) And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon [was] a very fat man. (3:18) And Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment. (3:19) And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present. (3:20) And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him. (3:21) And Ehud put forth his left hand, and said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose himself turned again from the quarries that [were] by Gilgal, he sent away the people that bare the present. (3:22) That through them I may prove Israel, by them, whom I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice; (2:21) I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died: (2:22) That through them I may prove Israel, whether they will walk in the way of the LORD to keep it, as their fathers did keep [it] or not. (2:23) Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.
{4:1} And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead. {4:2} And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host [was] Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. {4:3} And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

{4:4} And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. {4:5} And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. {4:6} And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, [saying,] Go and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? {4:7} And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon, the captain of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand. {4:8} And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, [then] I will not go. {4:9} And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

{4:10} And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him. {4:11} Now Heber the Kenite, [which was] of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which [is] by Kedesh. {4:12} And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor. {4:13} And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, [even] nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that [were] with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river of Kishon. {4:14} And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this [is] the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. {4:15} And the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all [his] chariots, and all [his] host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off [his] chariot, and fled away on his feet. {4:16} But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; [and] there was not a man left. {4:17} Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for [there was] peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

{4:18} And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle. {4:19} And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink: for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. {4:20} Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No. {4:21} Then Jael Heber’s wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. {4:22} And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her [tent,] behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail [was] in his temples. {4:23} So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. {4:24} And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.
And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: [and] because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the dens which [are] in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

And it came to pass, when the children of Israel were come up out of Egypt, that they entered into the land to destroy it. And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD.

And there came an angel of the LORD unto him, and said unto him, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee? And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I [am] the least in my father's house. And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man. And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me. Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set [it] before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again. And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought [it] out unto him under the oak, and presented [it. ] And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay [them] upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites. And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal, and cut down the grove that [is] by it: And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down. Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and [so] it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do [it] by day, that he did [it] by night. And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that [was] by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar [that was] built. And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing. Then the men of the city said unto Joash. Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that [was] by it. And Joash said unto all that stood against him. Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst [it is yet] morning: if he [be] a god, let him plead for himself, because [one] hath cast down his altar. Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abi-ezer was gathered after him. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphthali; and they came up to meet them.
[6:36] And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said. [6:37] Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and [if] if the dew be on the fleece only, and [it be] dry upon all the earth [beside,] then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said. [6:38] And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. [6:39] And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. [6:40] And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

[7:1] Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. [7:2] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me. [7:3] Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever [is] fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand. [7:4] And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people [are] yet [too] many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them. [7:5] And Gideon said unto his servant Phurah, Go down with me unto the host: [7:6] and the LORD said unto Gideon, The host [are] yet many; bring them down further unto the water, and I will try them yet again. [7:7] And he said unto his servant, I will certainly show thee what the LORD will do. [7:8] And Gideon went down with Phurah his servant unto the host: [7:9] and the LORD said unto Gideon, [The sword] of the LORD, and of Gideon. [7:10] And the LORD said unto Gideon, Whosoever [is] afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there remained of the people ten thousand. [7:11] And Gideon said unto the people, Every one that is afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there remained of the people five thousand men. [7:12] And the LORD said, Five thousand men are too many for me to give the host of Midian into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me. [7:13] And the LORD said unto Gideon, With a thousand men I will [try] the Midianites. [7:14] And Gideon said unto the LORD, O Lord, how dost thou know that thou hast saved Israel? for beheld, my family is in Gilead, and my father's house is the weakest in man, and I am the youngest in my father’s house. [7:15] And it was so: when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian. [7:16] And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man’s hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. [7:17] And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be [that,] as I do, so shall ye do. [7:18] When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that [are] with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, [The sword] of the LORD, and of Gideon.

[7:19] So Gideon, and the hundred men that [were] with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that [were] in their hands. [7:20] And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow [withal:] and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. [7:21] And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled. [7:22] And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man’s sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zererath, [and] to the border of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath. [7:23] And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphthali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

[7:24] And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-bareth and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-bareth and Jordan. [7:25] And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

[8:1] And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply. [8:2] And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? [Is] not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer? [8:3] God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

[8:4] And Gideon came to Jordan, [and] passed over, he, and the three hundred men that [were] with him, faint, yet pursuing [them]. [8:5] And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me; for they [be] faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

[8:6] And the princes of Succoth said, [Are] the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army? [8:7] And Gideon said, I have not yet this day answered [thee]: how then may I give of thy dead bodies? But when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, then will I tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

[8:8] And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered [him. |[8:9] And he spake also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

[8:10] Now Zebah and Zalmunna [were] in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand [men.] all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there tell an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

[8:11] And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jorgobah, and smote the host: for the host was secure. [8:12] And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.

[8:13] And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun [was up, ][8:14] And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, [even] thrësæco and seventeen men. [8:15] And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, [Are] the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men [that are] weary? [8:16]
And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. [8:17] And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

[8:18] Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men [were they] whom ye slew at Tabor? And they answered, As thou [art, so] we [were]; and each one resembled the children of a king. [8:19] And he said, They [were] my brethren, [even] the sons of my mother: [as] the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay
you. [8:20] And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, [and] slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he [was] yet a youth. [8:21] Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man [is, so is] his strength. And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that [were] on their camels' necks.

[8:22] Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also;
for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian. [8:23]
And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.

[8:24] And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they [were] Ishmaelites.) [8:25] And they answered, We will willingly give [them.] And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earnings of his prey. [8:26]
And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred [shekels] of gold; beside ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that [was] on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that [were] about their camels' necks. [8:27] And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, [even] in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it: which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

[8:28] Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

[8:29] And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house. [8:30] And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body that were born unto him by a wife of whom he had many wives. [8:31] And his concubine that [was] in Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he called Abimelech.

[8:32] And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites. [8:33] And it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baalberith their god. [8:34] And the children of Israel remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:
[8:35] Neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, [namely,] Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.

[9:1] And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, [9:2] Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, [which are] threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you?
remember also that I [am] your bone and your flesh. [9:3]
And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech: for they said, He [is] our brother. [9:4]
And they gave him threescore and ten [pieces] of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him. [9:5] And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, [being] threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself. [9:6] And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that [was] in Shechem.

[9:7] And when they told [it] to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you. [9:8] The trees went forth [on a time] to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us. [9:9] But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? [9:10] And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, [and] reign over us. [9:11] But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? [9:12]
Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, [and] reign over us. [9:13] And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? [9:14] Then said all the trees unto them, Come thou, [and] reign over us. [9:15] And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, [then] come [and] put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon. [9:16] Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands; [9:17] (For my father fought for you, and adventurous his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian: [9:18]
And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his Judges 9:22 When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel, [9:23] Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech: [9:24] That the cruelty [done] to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren. [9:25] And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech. [9:26] And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. [9:27] And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode [the grapes,] and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech. [9:28] And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who [is] Abimelech, and who [is] Shechem, that we should serve him? [is] not [he] the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him? [9:29] And would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

[9:30] And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled. [9:31] And he sent messengers unto Abimelech privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee. [9:32] Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that [is] with thee, and in wait in the field: [9:33] And it shall be, [that] in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, [when] he and the people that [is] with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion.

[9:34] And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that [were] with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies. [9:35] And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that [were] with him, from lying in wait. [9:36] And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as [if they were] men. [9:37] And Gaal spake again and said, See there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Meonenim. [9:38] Then said Zebul unto him, Where [is] now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who [is] Abimelech, that we should serve him? [is] not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray thee, and fight with them. [9:39] And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech. [9:40] And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown [and] wounded, [even] unto the entering of the gate. [9:41] And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem. [9:42] And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. [9:43] And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people [were] come forth out of the city: and he rose up against them, and smote them. [9:44] And Abimelech, and the company that [was] with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two [other] companies ran upon all [the people] that [were] in the fields, and slew them. [9:45] And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that [was] therein, and beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

[9:46] And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard [that,] they entered into an hold of the house of the god Berith. [9:47] And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. [9:48] And Abimelech gat him up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that [were] with him: and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid [it] on his shoulder, and said unto the people that [were] with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, [and] do as I [have done. ][9:49] And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put [them] to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

[9:50] Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it. [9:51] But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut [it] to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower. [9:52] And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire. [9:53] And a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech’s head, and all to brake his skull. [9:54] Then he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died. [9:55] And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

[9:56] Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren: [9:57] And all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

[10:1] And after Abimelech there arose to defend Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar: and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim. [10:2] And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

[10:3] And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years. [10:4] And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havoth-jair unto this day, which [are] in the land of Gilead. [10:5] And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

[10:6] And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him. [10:7] And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon. {10:8} And that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel: eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which [is] in Gilead. {10:9} Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.

{10:10} And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim. {10:11} And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, [Did] not [I deliver you] from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? {10:12} The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Moabites, did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand. {10:13} Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more. {10:14} Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

{10:15} And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; deliver us only, we pray thee, this day. {10:16} And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel. {10:17} Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh. {10:18} And the people [and] princes of Gilead said one to another, What man [is he] that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

{11:1} Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he [was] the son of an harlot: and Gilead begat Jephthah. {11:2} And Gilead’s wife bare him sons; and his wife’s sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father’s house; for thou [art] the son of a strange woman. {11:3} Then the elders of Gilead said one to another, What man [is he] that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

{11:4} And it came to pass in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel. {11:5} And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob: {11:6} And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon. {11:7} And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father’s house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress? {11:8} And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead. {11:9} And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head? {11:10} And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The LORD be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words. {11:11} Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh.

[11:34] And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she [was] only child: beside her he had neither son nor daughter. [11:35] And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back. [11:36] And she said unto him, My father, [if] thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, [even] of the children of Ammon. [11:37] And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows. [11:38] And he said, Go. And he sent her away [for] two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. [11:39] And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her [according] to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel. [11:40] [That] the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

[12:1] And the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passest thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire. [12:2] And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called ye, ye delivered me not out of their hands. [12:3] And when I saw that ye delivered [me] not, I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me? [12:4] Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites [are] fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, [and] among the Manassites. [12:5] And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was [so:] that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, [Art] thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay; [12:6] Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce [it] right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand. [12:7] And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in [one of] the cities of Gilead.

[12:8] And after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. [12:9] And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters, [whom] he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. [12:10] Then died Ibzan, and was buried at Bethelhem.

[12:11] And after him Elon, a Zebulonite, judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. [12:12] And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the country of Zebulun.

[12:13] And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel. [12:14] And he had forty sons and thirty nephews, that rode on threescore and ten ass colts: and he judged Israel eight years. [12:15] And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

[13:1] And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

[13:2] And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name [was] Manoah; and his wife [was] barren, and bare not. [13:3] And the angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou [art] barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. [13:4] Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean [thing:] for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

[13:6] Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance [was] like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he [was,] neither told he me his name: [13:7] But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean [thing:] for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb to the day of his death.

[13:8] Then Manoah intreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. [13:9] And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband [was] not with her. [13:10] And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man that appeared unto me, that came unto me the [other] day. [13:11] And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said, Art thou the man that came unto me the [other] day? [13:12] And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and [how] shall we do unto him? [13:13] And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware. [13:14] She may not eat of any [thing] that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean [thing:] all that I commanded her let her observe.

[13:15] And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. [13:16] And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he [was] like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he [was,] neither told he me his name: [13:7] But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean [thing:] for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb to the day of his death.

[13:16] And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. [13:16] And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he [was] an angel of the LORD. [13:17] And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What [is] thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour? [13:18] And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? [13:19] So Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered [it] upon a rock unto the LORD: and [the angel] did wondereously; and Manoah and his wife looked on [it] and fell on their faces to the ground. [13:21] But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he [was] an angel of the LORD. [13:22] And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God. [13:23] But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these [things] nor would as at this time have told us [such things] as these.

[14:1] And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: [14:2] And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me to wife. [14:3] Then his father and his mother said unto him, [Is there] never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well. [14:4] But his father and his mother knew not that it [was] of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

[14:5] Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared against him. [14:6] And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and [he had] nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done. [14:7] And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

[14:8] And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and, behold, [there was] a swarm of bees and honey in the carcasse of the lion. [14:9] And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcasse of the lion.

[14:10] So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do. [14:11] And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

[14:12] And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find [it] out, then will I give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments: [14:13] But if ye cannot declare [it] me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it. [14:14] And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle. [14:15] And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? [is it] not [so]? [14:16] And Samson's wife spake unto him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told [it] me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told [it] my father nor my mother, and shall I tell [it] thee? [14:17] And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her; because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people. [14:18] And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What [is] sweeter than honey? and what [is] stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

[14:19] And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. [14:20] But Samson's wife was [given] to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

[15:1] But it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid: and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in. [15:2] And her father said, Verily thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: [is] not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her.

[15:3] And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure. [15:4] And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails. [15:5] And when he had set the brands on fire, he [let] them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards [and] olives.

[15:6] Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire. [15:7] And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease. [15:8] And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam. [15:9] Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. [15:10] And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us. [15:11] Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines [are] rulers over us? what [is] this [that] thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. [15:12] And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves. [15:13] And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

[15:14] [And] when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that [were] upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands. {15:15} And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith. {15:16} And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men. {15:17} And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramath-lehi.

{15:18} And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? {15:19} But God clave an hollow place that [was] in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof En-hakkore, which [is] in Lehi unto this day. {15:20} And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

{16:1} Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her. {16:2} [And it was told] the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed [him] in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him. {16:3} And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put [them] upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebron.

{16:4} And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name [was] Delilah. {16:5} And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength [lieth:], and by what [means] we may prevail against him, and bind him to afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred [pieces] of silver.

{16:6} And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength [lieth,] and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee. {16:7} And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withes that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. {16:8} Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withes which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. {16:9} Now [there were] men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines [be] upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withes, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known. {16:10} And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. {16:11} And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. {16:12} Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And [there were] liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread. {16:13} And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou wovest the seven locks of my head with the web. {16:14} And she fastened [it] with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines [be] upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

{16:15} And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart [is] not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength [lieth. ] {16:16} And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; {16:17} That he told her all his heart, and said unto her. There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I [have been] a Nazarite unto God from my mother’s womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any [other] man. {16:18} And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand. {16:19} And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. {16:20} And she said, The Philistines [be] upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the LORD was departed from him.

{16:21} But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house. {16:22} Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven. {16:23} Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our God hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. {16:24} And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our God hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us. {16:25} And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars. {16:26} And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars wherein the house standeth, that I may lean upon them. {16:27} Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines [were] there; and [there were] upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport. {16:28} And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. {16:29} And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. {16:30} And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with [all his] might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that [were] therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than [they] which he slew in his life. {16:31} Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought [him] up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

{17:1} And there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name [was] Micah. {17:2} And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred [shekels] of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed [be thou] of the LORD, my son. {17:3} And when he had restored the eleven hundred [shekels] of silver
{17:7} And there was a young man out of Bethlehemjudah of the family of Judah, who [was] a Levite, and he sojourned there.
{17:8} And the man departed out of the city from Bethlehemjudah to sojourn where he could find [a place:] and he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.
{17:9} And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I [am] a Levite of Bethlehemjudah, and I go to sojourn where I may find [a place].
{17:10} And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten [shekels] of silver by year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals.
{17:11} And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.
{17:12} And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.
{17:13} Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to [my] priest.
{17:14} Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do.
{17:15} And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, [even] unto the house of Micah, and saluted him.
{17:16} And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which [were] of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.
{17:17} And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, [and] came in thither, [and] took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men [that were] appointed with weapons of war.
{17:18} And these went into Micah’s house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?
{17:19} And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: [is it] better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?
{17:20} And the priest’s heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.
{17:21} So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.
{17:22} And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that [were] in the houses near to Micah’s house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.
{17:23} And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?
{17:24} And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what [is] this [that] ye say unto me, What aileth thee?
{17:25} And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.
{17:26} And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they [were] too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.
{17:27} And they took [the things] which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people [that were] at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.
{17:28} And [there was] no deliverer, because it [was] far from Zidon, and they had no business with [any] man; and it was in the valley that [lieth] by Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.
{17:29} And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city [was] Laish at the first.
{18:1} In those days [there was] no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day [all their] inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.
{18:2} And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to Mount Ephraim to the house of Micah, they lodged there.
{18:3} When they [were] by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in the way: and when Micah saw that they [were] too strong for them, he turned and went back unto his house.
{18:4} And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah, and hath hired me, and I am his priest.
{18:5} And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.
{18:6} And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the LORD is thy way wherein ye go.
{18:7} Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that [were] therein, how they dwelt in an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day [all their] inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.
{18:8} And they came unto Zorah and Eshtaol; and their brethren said unto them, What [say] ye?
{18:9} And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it [is] very good: and [are] ye still? be not slothful to go, [and] to enter to possess the land.
{18:10} When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where [there is] no want of any thing that [is] in the earth.
{18:11} And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.
{18:12} And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, [it is] behind Kirjath-jearim.
{18:13} And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.
{18:14} Then they took [the things] which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people [that were] at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.
{18:15} And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, [it is] behind Kirjath-jearim.
{18:16} And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.
{18:17} And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which [were] of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.
{18:18} And these went into Micah’s house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?
{18:19} And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: [is it] better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?
{18:20} And the priest’s heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.
{18:21} So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.
{18:22} And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that [were] in the houses near to Micah’s house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.
{18:23} And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?
{18:24} And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what [is] this [that] ye say unto me, What aileth thee?
{18:25} And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.
{18:26} And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they [were] too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.
{18:27} And they took [the things] which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people [that were] at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.
{18:28} And [there was] no deliverer, because it [was] far from Zidon, and they had no business with [any] man; and it was in the valley that [lieth] by Beth-rehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.
{18:29} And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city [was] Laish at the first.
{18:30} And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan unto the day of the captivity of the land.
{18:31} And they set them up in the house of God which was in Shiloh.
{19:1} And it came to pass in those days, when [there was] no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Bethlehemjudah. [19:2] And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father’s house to Bethlehemjudah, and was there four whole months. [19:3] And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, [and] to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father’s house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. [19:4] And his father in law, the damsel’s father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

[19:5] And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel’s father said unto his son in law, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way. [19:6] And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel’s father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry. [19:7] And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again. [19:8] And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel’s father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them. [19:9] And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel’s father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home. [19:10] But the man would not tarry there; but he rose up, and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and [there were] with him two asses saddled, his concubine also [was] with him. [19:11] And when they [were] by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it. [19:12] And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that [is] not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah. [19:13] And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah. [19:14] And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them [when they were] by Gibeah, which [belongeth] to Benjamin. [19:15] And they turned aside thither, to go in [and] to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for [there was] no man that took them into his house to lodging.

[19:16] And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which [was] also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place [were] Benjamites. [19:17] And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou? [19:18] And he said unto him, We [are] passing from Bethlehemjudah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence [am] I: and I went to Bethlehemjudah, but I [am now] going to the house of the LORD; and there [is] no man that receiveth me to house. [19:19] Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man [which is] with thy servants: [there is] no want of any thing. [19:20] And the old man said, Peace [be] with thee; howsoever [let] all thy wants [lie] upon me; only lodge not in the street. [19:21] So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink. [19:22] [Now] as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, [and] beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him. [19:23] And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, [nay,] I pray you, do not [so] wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly. [19:24] Behold, [here is] my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing. [19:25] But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning; and when the day began to spring, they let her go. [19:26] Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her lord [was,] till it was light. [19:27] And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down [at] the door of the house, and her hands [were] upon the threshold. [19:28] And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her [up] upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

[19:29] And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, [together] with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of Israel. [19:30] And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak [your minds].
have wrought in Israel. [20:11] So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

[20:12] And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness [is] this that is done among you? [20:13] Now therefore deliver [us] the men, the children of Belial, which [are] in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel: [20:14] But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. [20:15] And the children of Benjamin were numberd at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

[20:16] Among all this people [there were] seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair [breadth,] and not miss. [20:17] And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numberd four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these [were] men of war.

[20:18] And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah [shall go up] first. [20:19] And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah. [20:20] And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah. [20:21] And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

[20:22] And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day. [20:23] (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.) [20:24] And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day. [20:25] And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

[20:26] Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. [20:27] And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God [was] there in those days, [20:28] And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow will I deliver them into thine hand. [20:29] And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah. [20:30] And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times. [20:31] And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, [and] were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, [and] they cried unto Benjamin all that day, and all the night, and said, Be not afraid to go out of the city; forasmuch as the children of Israel are forsaking their brethren, and smiting them.

[20:32] And the children of Benjamin said, They [are] smitten down before us, as [in] the first battle. [20:33] But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways. [20:34] And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, [even] out of the meadows of Gibeah. [20:35] And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil [was] near them. [20:36] And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword. [20:37] So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah. And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew [themselves] along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. [20:38] Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city. [20:39] And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite [and] kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as [in] the first battle. [20:40] But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven. [20:41] And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them. [20:42] Therefore they turned [their backs] before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which [came] out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. [20:43] Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, [and] chased them, [and] rode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising. [20:44] And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these [were] men of valour.

[20:45] And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them. [20:46] So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these [were] men of valour. [20:47] But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months. [20:48] And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of [every] city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

[21:1] Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife. [21:2] And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore: [21:3] And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to day one tribe lacking in Israel? [21:4] And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. [21:5] And the children of Israel said, Who [is there] among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up with Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. [21:7] How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?
(21:8) And they said, What one [is there] of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly. (21:9) For the people were numbered, and, behold, [there were] none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there. (21:10) And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children. (21:11) And this [is] the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man. (21:12) And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. (21:13) And the whole congregation sent [some] to speak to the children of Benjamin that [were] in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably unto them. (21:14) And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not. (21:15) And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

(21:16) Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? (21:17) And they said, [There must be] an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. (21:18) Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed [be] he that giveth a wife to Benjamin. (21:19) Then they said, Behold, [there is] a feast of the LORD in Shiloh yearly [in a place] which [is] on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. (21:20) Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards; (21:21) And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. (21:22) And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, [that] ye should be guilty. (21:23) And the children of Benjamin did so, and took [them] wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them. (21:24) And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance. (21:25) In those days [there was] no king in Israel: every man did
{1:1} Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehemjudah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. {1:2} And the name of the man [was] Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehemjudah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there. {1:3} And Elimelech Naomi’s husband died; and she was left, and her two sons. {1:4} And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one [was] Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years. {1:5} And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.

{1:6} Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread. {1:7} Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah. {1:8} And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother’s house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me. {1:9} The LORD grant you that ye may find rest, each [of you] in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept. {1:10} And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people. {1:11} And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters, go [your way;] for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, [if] I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons; {1:13} Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me. {1:14} And they lifted up their voice, and wept. {1:15} And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister in law. {1:16} And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, [or] to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people [shall be] my people, and thy God my God: {1:17} Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and to thy people. {1:18} When she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.

{1:19} So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, [Is] this Naomi? {1:20} And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath afflicted me. {1:21} And I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why [then] call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me? {1:22} So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her; which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

{2:1} And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband’s, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name [was] Boaz. {2:2} And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and gather ears of corn after [him] in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter. {2:3} And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field [belonging] unto Boaz, who [was] of the kindred of Elimelech.

{2:4} And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD [be] with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee. {2:5} Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel [is] this? {2:6} And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It [is] the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab: {2:7} And she said, I pray you, let me glean even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house. {2:8} Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearst thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens: {2:9} [Let] thine eyes [be] on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of [that] which the young men have drawn. {2:10} Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I [am] a stranger? {2:11} And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and [how] thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and [how] thou hast been ready under the circuit of thy people, and art come unto me, albeit thou knewest not [that] I was he. {2:12} And Boaz recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust. {2:13} Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaids. {2:14} And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched [corn], and she did eat, and was sufficed. {2:15} And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not: {2:16} And let fall also [some] of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave [them,] that she may glean [them,] and rebuke her not. {2:17} So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

{2:18} And she took [it] up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed. {2:19} And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wouldest thou be buried? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man’s name with whom I wrought to day [is] Boaz. {2:20} And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed [be] he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man [is] near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen. {2:21} And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest. {2:22} And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, [It is] good, my daughter, that...
Then Naomi her mother in law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee? {3:2} And now [is] not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threshingfloor. {3:3} Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: [but] make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking. {3:4} And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do. {3:5} And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her. {3:7} And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down. {3:8} And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. {3:9} And he said, Who [art] thou? And she answered, I [am] Ruth thine handmaid: spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou [art] a near kinsman. {3:10} And he said, Blessed [be] thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning. {3:11} And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou [art] a virtuous woman.

And when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed: he [is] the father of Jesse, the father of David.

[4:1] Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down. {4:2} And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down. {4:3} And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which [was] our brother Elimelech’s: {4:4} And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy [it] before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem [it,] redeem [it:] but if thou wilt not redeem [it, then] tell me, that I may know: for [there is] none to redeem [it] beside thee; and I [am] after thee. And he said, I will redeem [it. ]{4:5} Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy [it] also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

[4:6] And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem [it] for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it. {4:7} Now this [was the manner] in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave [it] to his neighbour: and this [was] a testimony in Israel. {4:8} Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy [it] for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

And Boaz said unto the elders, and [unto] all the people, Ye [are] witnesses this day, that I have bought all that [was] Elimelech’s, and all that [was] Chilion’s and Mahlon’s, of the hand of Naomi. {4:10} Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye [are] witnesses this day. {4:11} And all the people that [were] in the gate, and the elders, said, [We are] witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthy in Ephratah, and be famous in Bethlehem: {4:12} And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son. {4:14} And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed [be] the LORD, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel. {4:15} And he shall be unto thee a restorer of [thy] life, and a nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath born him. {4:16} And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it. {4:17} And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Oved: he [is] the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Now these [are] the generations of Pharez: Pharez begat Hezron, {4:19} And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat Amminadab, {4:20} And Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon, {4:21} And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed, {4:22} And Obed begat Jesse,
{1:1} Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite: {1:2} And he had two wives; the name of the one [was] Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. {1:3} And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, [were] there.

{1:4} And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: {1:5} But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb. {1:6} And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. {1:7} And [as] he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. {1:8} Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why wittest thou? and why eateth thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? [am] I not better to thee than ten sons?

{1:9} So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD. {1:10} And she [was] in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore. {1:11} And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head. {1:12} And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth. {1:13} Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. {1:14} And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. {1:15} And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I [am] a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunken neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. {1:16} Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto. {1:17} Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant [thee] thy petition that thou hast asked of him. {1:18} And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more [sad].

{1:19} And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her. {1:20} Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, [saying,] Because I have asked him of the LORD. {1:21} And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. {1:22} But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, [I will not go up] until the child be weaned, and [then] I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever. {1:23} And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

{1:24} And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child [was] young. {1:25} And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli. {1:26} And she said, Oh my lord, [as] thy soul livest, my lord, I [am] the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD. {1:27} For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him: {1:28} Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

{2:1} And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the LORD, mine horn is exalted in the LORD: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation. {2:2} [There is] none holy as the LORD: for [there is] none beside thee: neither [is there] any rock like our God. {2:3} Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let [not] arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. {2:4} The bows of the mighty men [are] broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength. {2:5} [They that were] full have hired out themselves for bread; and [they that were] hungry ceased: so that the barren hath born seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble. {2:6} The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up. {2:7} The LORD maketh poor, and maketh rich; he bringeth low, and lifteth up. {2:8} He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, [and] lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set [them] among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth [are] the LORD’S, and he hath set the world upon them. {2:9} He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail. {2:10} The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed. {2:11} And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

{2:12} Now the sons of Eli [were] sons of Belial; they knew not the LORD. {2:13} And the priest’s custom with the people [was, that,] when any man offered sacrifice, the priest’s servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand; {2:14} And he struck [it] into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. {2:15} Also before they burnt the fat, the priest’s servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. {2:16} And [it] any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and [then] take [as much] as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay: but thou shalt give [it me] now: and if not, I will take [it] by force. {2:17} Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the offering of the LORD.

{2:18} But Samuel ministered before the LORD, [being] a child, girded with a linen ephod. {2:19} Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought [it] to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

[2:20] And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home. [2:21] And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

[2:22] Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that assembled [at] the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [2:23] And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people. [2:24] Nay, my sons; for [it is] no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD’S people to transgress. [2:25] If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they heartened not unto the voice of their father, because the LORD would slay them. [2:26] And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men.

[2:27] And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh’s house? [2:28] And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel [to be] my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel? [2:29] Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded [in my] habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make thyself fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people? [2:30] Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I said indeed [that] thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me: for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed.

[2:31] Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father’s house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house. [2:32] And thou shalt see an enemy [in my] habitation, in all [the wealth] which [God] shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever. [2:33] And the man of thine, [whom] I shall not cut off from mine altar, [shall be] to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart; and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age. [2:34] And this [shall be] a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall die both of them. [2:35] And I will raise me up a faithful priest, [that] shall do according to [that] which [is] in mine heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever. [2:36] And it shall come to pass, [that] every one that is left in thine house shall come [and] crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests’ offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

[3:1] And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days; [there was] no open vision. [3:2] And it came to pass at that time, when Eli [was] laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, [that] he could not see; [3:3] And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God [was,] and Samuel was laid down [to sleep;] [3:4] That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here [am] I. [3:5] And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here [am] I; for thou diddest call me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down. [3:6] And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here [am] I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son: lie down again. [3:7] Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him. [3:8] And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here [am] I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child. [3:9] Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. [3:10] And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

[3:11] And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. [3:12] In that day I will perform against Eli all [things] which I have spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an end. [3:13] For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not. [3:14] And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

[3:15] And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision. [3:16] Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here [am] I. [3:17] And he said, What [is] the thing that [the LORD] hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide [it] not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide [any] thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee. [3:18] And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It [is] the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

[3:19] And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground. [3:20] And all Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was [established] [to be] a prophet of the LORD. [3:21] And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

[4:1] And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek. [4:2] And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

[4:3] And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. [4:4] So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth [between] the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, [were] there with the ark of the covenant of God. [4:5] And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.
And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said,
"What [meaneth] the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp." And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore. Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these [are] the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head. And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told [it,] all the city cried out. And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What [meaneth] the noise of this tumult? And the man came into the city, and told [it,] all the city cried out. Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see. And the man said unto Eli, I [am] he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son? And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and they have taken the ark of God, and they have carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines seven months. And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place. And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty: but in any wise return him a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place. And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty: but in any wise return him a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

And the ark of the LORD was brought into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon [was] fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon [was] fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands [were] cut off upon the threshold; only [the stump of] Dagon was left to him. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day. But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, [even] Ashdod and the coasts thereof. And when the men of Ashdod saw that [it was] so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about [thither. ] And it was [so,] that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place. And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty: but in any wise return him a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

Then said they, What [shall be] the trespass offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, [according to] the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. Wherefore ye shall make images of your gods, and from off your land. Wherefore then do ye abide with us, and upon Dagon our god. The Philistines saw that [it was] so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god. They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about [thither. ] And it was [so,] that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

And the ark of the LORD was brought into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon [was] fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon [was] fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands [were] cut off upon the threshold; only [the stump of] Dagon was left to him. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon,
And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD heard him. For a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines. And the children of Israel said to it, We will go up with thee, and will be thy hirelings. And the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD; and the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day. And these [are] the golden emerods which the Philistines returned [for] a trespass offering unto the LORD; for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; [6:18] And the golden mice, [according to] the number of all the cities of the Philistines [belonging] to the five lords, [both] of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great [stone] of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: [which stone remaineth] unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth-shemite.

And he smote the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten [many] of the people with a great slaughter. [6:20] And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, [and] fetch it up to you.

And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and brought up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD; come ye down, [and] fetch it up to you.

And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, [then] put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashhtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD. And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured [it] out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh. And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard [it] they were afraid of the Philistines. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered [it for] a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD heard him.

And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel. And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came beneath Beth-car. Then Samuel took a stone, and set [it] between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. And he went from year to year in circuit to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

And his return [was] to Ramah; for there [was] his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar unto the LORD.

But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD. And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them. Accordingly to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee. Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king. And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint [them] to himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and [some] shall run before his chariots. And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and [will set them] to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots. And he will take your daughters [to be] confectionaries, and [to be] cooks, and [to be] bakers. And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, [even] the best [of them], and give [them] to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants. And he will take your most valiant young men, and your ass and your asses, and put [them] to his work. He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the
Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. {9:2} And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and [there was] not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he; from his shoulders and upward [he was] higher than any of the people. {9:3} And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants and arise, go seek the asses. {9:4} And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found [them] not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and [there they were] not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found [them] not: then they passed through the land of Shalam, and [there they were] not: and he passed through the land of the south. {9:5} [And] when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that [was] with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave [caring] for the asses, and sorroweth for you, the asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, the father of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. {9:6} And he said unto him, Behold now, [there is] in this city a man of God, and [he is] an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go. {9:7} Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, [if] we go, what shall we bring to the man of God? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and [there is] not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? {9:8} And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: [that] will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way. {9:9} (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for [he that is] now [called] a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.) {9:10} Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, [if] we go on our way, shall we find bread? {9:11} [And] as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? [9:12] And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, [he is] before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city: for [there is] a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place: {9:13} As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; [and] afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him. {9:14} And they went up into the city: [and] when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying, {9:15} To morrow about this time I will let thee know what I will do to Benjamin. {9:16} To morrow about this time I will let thee know what I will do to Benjamin. {9:17} And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall reign over my people. {9:18} Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house [is]. {9:19} And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place: for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that [is] in thine heart. {9:20} And as for thine ass that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom [is] all the desire of Israel? [Is it] not on thee, and on all thy father's house? {9:21} And Saul answered and said, [Am] not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me? {9:22} And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which [were] about thirty persons. {9:23} And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee. {9:24} And the cook took up the shoulder, and [that] which [was] upon it, and set [it] before Saul. And [Samuel] said, Behold that which is left! set [it] before thee, [and] eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

And when they were come down from the high place into the city, [Samuel] communed with Saul upon the top of the house. {9:26} And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. {9:27} [And] as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God. {10:1} Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured [it] upon his head, and kissed him, and said, [Is it] not because the LORD hath anointed thee [to be] captain over his inheritance? {10:2} When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wastent to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? {10:3} Then shall thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine: {10:4} And they will salute thee, and give thee two [loaves] of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands. {10:5} After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where [is] the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy: {10:6} And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man. {10:7} And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, [that] thou do as occasion serve thee; for God [is] with thee. {10:8} And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, [and] to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do. {10:9} And it was [so:] that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day. {10:10} And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. [10:11] And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What [is] this [that is] come unto the son of Kish?
[Is] Saul also among the prophets? [10:12] And one of the same place answered and said, But who [is] their father?
Therefore it became a proverb, [Is] Saul also among the prophets? [10:13] And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

[10:14] And Saul’s uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses:
and when we saw that [they were] no where, we came to Samuel. [10:15] And Saul’s uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you. [10:16] And Saul said unto unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found.
But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

[10:17] And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh; [10:18] And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, [and] of them that oppressed you: [10:19] And ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him, [Nay,] set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands. [10:20] And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. [10:21] When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found. [10:22] Therefore they enquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff. [10:23] And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. [10:24] And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that [there is] none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king. [10:25] Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote [it] in a book, and laid [it] up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

[10:26] And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched. [10:27] But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his peace. [11:1] Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee. [11:2] And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this [condition] will I make [a covenant] with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it [for] a reproach upon all Israel.
[11:3] And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if [there be] no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

[11:4] Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept. [11:5] And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What [ailleth] these people that they weep? And they told him the came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly. [11:7] And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent [them] throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.
[11:8] And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. [11:9] And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To morrow, by [that time] the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and shewed [it] to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. [11:10] Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you. [11:11]
And it was [so] on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

[11:12] And the people said unto Samuel, Who [is] he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death. [11:13] And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel. [11:14] Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. [11:15] And all the people went to Gilgal:
and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

[12:1] And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you. [12:2] And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and grayheaded; and, behold, my sons [are] with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. [12:3] Behold, here I [am:] witness against me before the LORD, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whom have I oppressed?
or of whose hand have I received [any] bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. [12:4] And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man’s hand. [12:5] And he said unto them, The LORD [is] witness against you, and his anointed [is] witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, [He is] witness.
And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay: but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God [was] your king. {12:13} Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, [and] whom ye have desired! and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you. {12:14} If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God: {12:15} But if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as [it was] against your fathers.

{13:1} Saul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, {13:2} Saul chose him three thousand [men] of Israel; [whereof] two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Saul in Michmash; {13:12} Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering. {13:13} And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. {13:14} But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him [to be] captain over his people, because thou hast not kept [that] which the LORD commanded thee. {13:15} And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people [that were] present with him, about six hundred men. {13:16} And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people [that were] present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

{13:17} And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual: {13:18} And another company turned the way to Bethhoron: and another company turned [to] the way of the border that looketh to the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

{13:19} Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make [them] swords or spears: {13:20} But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock. {13:21} Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads. {13:22} So it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.
And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines’ garrison, [there was] a sharp rock on the one side and a sharp rock on the other side; and the name of the one [was] Bozez, and the name of the other Senach. 14:5 The forefront of the one [was] situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah. 14:6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for [there is] no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few. 14:7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that [is] in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I [am] with thee according to thy heart. 14:8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto [these] men, and we will discover ourselves unto them. 14:9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. 14:10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this [shall be] a sign unto us. 14:11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves. 14:12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. 14:13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him. 14:14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, [which] a yoke [of oxen might plow. ]14:15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling. 14:16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked: and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down [one another. ]14:17 Then said Saul unto the people that [were] with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer [were] not [there. ]14:18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that [was] in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand. 14:20 And Saul and all the people that [were] with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man’s sword was against his fellow, [and there was] a very great discomfiture. 14:21 Moreover the Hebrews [that] were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp [from the country] round about, even they also [turned to be with the Israelites that [were] with Saul and Jonathan. 14:22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, [when] they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. 14:23 So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto Beth-aoven.

And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed [be] the man that eateth [any] food: 14:25 And all [they of] the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground. 14:26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath. 14:27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that [was] in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. 14:28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed [be] the man that eateth [any] food this day. And the people were faint. 14:29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. 14:30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there been not now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines? 14:31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint. 14:32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew [them] on the ground: and the people did eat [them] with the blood.

Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day. 14:34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay [them] here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew [them] there. 14:35 And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God. 14:37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day. 14:38 And Saul said, Draw ye near hither, all the chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day. 14:39 For, [as] the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But [there was] not a man among all the people [that] answered him. 14:40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee. 14:41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect [lot.] And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped. 14:42 And Saul said, Cast [lots] between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken. 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that [was] in mine hand, [and,] lo, I must die. 14:44 And Saul answered, God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan. 14:45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: [as] the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not. 14:46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed [them]. [14:48] And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them. [14:49] Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-shua: and the names of his two daughters [were these:] the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal: [14:50] And the name of Saul's wife [was] Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host [was] Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. [14:51] And Kish [was] the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner [was] the son of Abiel. [14:52] And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

[15:1] Samuel also said unto Saul. The LORD sent me to anoint thee [to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD. [15:2] Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember [that] which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid [wait] for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. [15:3] Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. [15:4] And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah. [15:5] And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.

[15:6] And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get ye down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. [15:7] And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt. [15:8] And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. [15:9] But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all [that was] good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing [that was] vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

[15:10] Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying, [15:11] It repenteth me that I have set up Saul [to be] king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night. [15:12] And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal. [15:13] And Samuel said to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed [be] thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD. [15:14] And Samuel said, What [meaneth] then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? [15:15] And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed. [15:16] Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on. [15:17] And Samuel said, When thou [ wast] little in thine own sight, [ wast] thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel? [15:18] And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed. [15:19] Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD? [15:20] And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. [15:21] But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal. [15:22] And Samuel said, Hath the LORD [as great] delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey [is] better than sacrifice, [and] to hearken than the fat of rams. [15:23] For rebellion [is as] the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness [is as] iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from [being] king.

[15:24] And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. [15:25] Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD. [15:26] And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel. [15:27] And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent. [15:28] And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, [that is] better than thou. [15:29] And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he [is] not a man, that he should repent. [15:30] Then he said, I have sinned: [yet] honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before the LORD: and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God. [15:31] So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

[15:32] Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. [15:33] And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

[15:34] Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. [15:35] And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

[16:1] And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, and I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons. [16:2] And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear [it], he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. [16:3] And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me [him] whom I name unto thee. [16:4] And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably? [16:5] And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his uncle. [16:6] And it came to pass, when they were come, that he
And [he had] greaves of brass upon his mail; and the weight of the coat [was] five thousand shekels of brass upon his head, and he [was] armed with a coat of six cubits and a span.

And he had an helmet of side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and

Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold, now, an evil spirit from God troubled him.

And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring [him] to me.

And all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with Israel.

And the three eldest sons of Jesse went [and] followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle [were] Eliab the first born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shamshah.

And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

And Saul said, Arise, anoint him: for this [is] he.

And the LORD said unto Samuel, Look upon Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD'S anointed [is] before him.

But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; for I have refused him: for [the LORD seeth not] as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

And [he had] a spear's head [weighed] six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set [your] battle in array? [am] not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day: give me a man, that we may fight together.

When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

Now David [was] the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehemjudah, whose name [was] Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men [for] an old man in the days of Saul.

And the three eldest sons of Jesse went [and] followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle [were] Eliab the first born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shamshah.

And David [was] the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

And Jesse said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring [him] to me.

Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, [that is] cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the LORD [is] with him.

Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which [is] with the sheep.

And Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all [th]y children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.

And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God is upon thee, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

And David heard [them. ]

And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and came and saluted his brethren.

And he stood forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

And they called the name of the man that came up.

And the three eldest sons of Jesse went [and] followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle [were] Eliab the first born, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shamshah.

And David [was] the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched [corn.] and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren; and carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of [their] thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, [were] in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words; and David heard [them. ]

And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, [that] the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

And David spake to the man that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who [is] this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.
And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail. {17:39} And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. {17:40} And he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a scrip, and his sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine. {17:41} And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him. {17:42} And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. {17:43} And the Philistine said unto David, Thou art but a youth, and of a fair countenance. {17:44} And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. {17:45} Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. {17:46} This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand: and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. {17:47} And all this assembly shall know that there is a God in Israel. And the men of Israel saw their champion was dead, they fled. {17:52} And the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him. {17:30} And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner. {17:31} And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. {17:52} And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou [art but] a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. {17:34} And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: {17:35} And I took my staff in my hand, and smote the lion in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. {17:46} And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. {17:47} This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand: and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. {17:47} And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle [is] the LORD’S, and he will give you into our hands. {17:48} And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. {17:49} And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. {17:50} So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. {17:51} Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.
1 Samuel

Who [am] I? and what [is] my life, [or] my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king? [18:19]

But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul’s daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel the Meholathite to wife. [18:20]

And Michal Saul’s daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. [18:21]

And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son in law in [the one of] the twain.

[18:22] And Saul commanded his servants, [saying,] Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee; now therefore be the king’s son in law. [18:23]

And Saul’s servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you [a] light [thing] to be a king’s son in law, seeing that I [am] a poor man, and lightly esteemed? [18:24]

And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David. [18:25]

And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king’s enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. [18:26]

And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king’s son in law: and the days were not expired. [18:27]

Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king’s son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

[18:28] And Saul saw and knew that the LORD [was] with David, and [that] Michal Saul’s daughter loved him. [18:29]

And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David’s enemy continually. [18:30]

Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, [that] David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much set by.

[19:1] And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. [19:2]

But Jonathan Saul’s son delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret [place,] and hide thyself: [19:3]

And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou [art,] and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

[19:4] And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works [have been] to thee-ward very good: [19:5]

For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest [it,] and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause? [19:6]

And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul swore, [As] the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain. [19:7]

And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past.

[19:8] And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him. [19:9]

And the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with [his] hand. [19:10]

And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul’s presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. [19:11]

And Saul also sent messengers unto David’s house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David’s wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow shalt thou be slain.

[19:12] So Michal let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped. [19:13]

And Michal took an image, and laid [it] in the bed, and put a pillow of goats [hair] for his bolster, and covered [it] with a cloth. [19:14]

And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He [is] sick. [19:15]

And Saul sent the messengers [again] to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him. [19:16]

And when the messengers were come in, behold, [there was] an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats’ [hair] for his bolster. [19:17]

And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

[19:18] So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Nainoth. [19:19]

And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David [is] at Nainoth in Ramah. [19:20]

And Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing [as] appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. [19:21]

And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. [19:22]

Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that [is] in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where [are] Samuel and David? And [one] said, Behold, [they be] at Nainoth in Ramah. [19:23]

And he went thither to Nainoth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Nainoth in Ramah. [19:24]

And he stript off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, [Is] Saul also among the prophets?

And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it [is] not [so. [20:3]

And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly [as] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, [there is] but a step between me and death. [20:4]

Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it [for] thee. [20:5]

And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow [is] the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the third [day] at even. [20:6]

If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked [leave] of me that [I should] come; for I feared the king’s presence, and mine eyes were afraid of all the company of men. [20:7]

If he say thus, [It is] well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, [then] be sure that evil is determined by him. {20:8} Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father? {20:9} And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? {20:10} Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what [if] thy father answer thee roughly?

{20:11} And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field. {20:12} And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, [or] the third [day] and, behold, [if there be] good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee; {20:13} The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan; but if it please my father [to do] thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father. {20:14} And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not: {20:15} But [also] thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth. {20:16} So Jonathan made [a covenant] with the house of David, [saying,] Let the LORD even require [it] at the hand of David’s enemies. {20:17} And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul. {20:18} Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow [is] the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty. {20:19} And [when] thou hast stayed three days, [then] thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was [in hand.] and shalt remain by the stone Ezel. {20:20} And I will shoot three arrows on the side [thereof,] as though I shot at a mark. {20:21} And, behold, I will send a lad, [saying,] Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for [there is] peace to thee, and no hurt: [as] the LORD liveth. {20:22} But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows [are] beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away. {20:23} And [as touching] the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD [be] between thee and me for ever.

{20:24} So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat. {20:25} And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, [even] upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul’s side, and David’s place was empty. {20:26} Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he [is] not clean. {20:27} And it came to pass on the morrow, [which was] the second [day] of the month, that David’s place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day? {20:28} And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked [leave] of me [to go] to Bethlehem: {20:29} And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me [to be there:] and now, if I have found favour in the eyes of the LORD, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king’s table. {20:30} Then Saul’s anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious [woman,] do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother’s nakedness? {20:31} For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die. {20:32} And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done? {20:33} And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David. {20:34} So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

{20:35} And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him. {20:36} And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. [And] as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. {20:37} And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, [Is] not the arrow beyond thee? {20:38} And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan’s lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. {20:39} But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter. {20:40} And Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry [them] to the city. {20:41} [And] as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of [a place] toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded. {20:42} And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

{21:1} Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why [art] thou alone, and no man with thee? {21:2} And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabouts I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed [my] servants to such and such a place. {21:3} Now therefore what is under thine hand? give [me] five [loaves of] bread in mine hand, or what there is present. {21:4} And the priest answered David, and said, [There is] no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. {21:5} And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women [have been] kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and [the bread is] in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel. {21:6} So the priest gave him hallowed [bread:] for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. {21:7} Now a certain man of the servants of Saul [was] there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name [was] Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that [belonged] to Saul.

{21:8} And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste. {21:9} And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it [is here] wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take [it:] for [there is] no other save that there. And David said, [There is] none like that; give it me.

(21:10) And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. (21:11) And the servants of Achish said unto him, [Is] not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? (21:12) And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath. (21:13) And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scratching on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. (21:14) Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore [then] have ye brought him to me? (21:15) Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this [fellow] to play the mad man in my presence? shall this [fellow] come into my house?

(22:1) David therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father’s house heard it, they went down thither to him. (22:2) And every one [that was] in distress, and every one that [was] in debt, and every one [that was] discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

(22:3) And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, [and be] with you, till I know what God will do for me. (22:4) And he brought his mother, and his brethren, and all his father’s house.

(22:5) And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

(22:6) When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that [were] with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants [were] standing about him;) (22:7) Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, [and] make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds; (22:8) That all of you have conspired against me, and [there is] none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and [there is] none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

(22:9) Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. (22:10) And he enquired of the LORD for him, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine. (22:11) Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father’s house, the priests that [were] in Nob: and they came all of them to the king. (22:12) And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here [am] my lord. (22:13) And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? (22:14) Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who [is so] faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king’s son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house? (22:15) Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute [any] thing unto his servant, [nor] to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more. (22:16) And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father’s house.

(22:17) And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also [is] with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD. (22:18) And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod. (22:19) And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

(22:20) And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. (22:21) And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD’S priests. (22:22) And David said unto Abiathar, I knew [it] that day, when Doeg the Edomite [was] there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned [the death] of all the persons of thy father’s house. (22:23) Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou [shalt be] in safeguard.

(23:1) Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshingfloors. (23:2) Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah. (23:3) And David’s men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines? (23:4) Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand. (23:5) So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. (23:6) And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, [that] he came down [with] an ephod in his hand.

(23:7) And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars. (23:8) And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

(23:9) And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod. (23:10) Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. (23:11) Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, let me know; and show thy servant: and be merciful unto thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. (23:12) Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver [thee] up.

| 23:14 | And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.
23:15 | And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David [was] in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood. |
| 23:16 | And Jonathan Saul’s son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.
23:17 | And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.
23:18 | And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house. |
| 23:19 | Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which [is] on the south of Jeshimon?
23:20 | Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part [shall be] to deliver him into the king’s hand.
23:21 | And Saul said, Blessed [be] ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me.
23:22 | Go, I pray you, prepare and see, and know and see his place where his haunt is, [and] who hath seen him there: for it is told me [that] he dealeth very subtilly.
23:23 | See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.
23:24 | And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men [were] in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.
23:25 | Saul also and his men went to seek [him.] And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon.
23:26 | And when Saul heard [that.] he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.
23:27 | And David went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them. |
| 23:28 | But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land.
23:29 | Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela- hammahlekoth. |
| 23:30 | And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at En-gedi. |
| 24:1 | And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.
24:2 | Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went against the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.
24:3 | So David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did mischief in Carmel. |
| 25:1 | And Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.
25:2 | And [there was] a man in Maon, whose possessions [were] in Carmel; and the man [was] very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats; and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
25:3 | Now the name of the man [was] Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and [she was] a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man [was] churlish and evil in his doings; and he [was] of the house of Caleb. |
| 25:4 | And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep.
25:5 | And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name: [25:6] And thus shall ye say to him that liveth [in prosperity,] Peace [be] both to thee, and peace [be] to thine house, and peace [be] unto all that thou hast. [25:7] And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. [25:8] Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David. [25:9] And when David’s young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

[25:10] And Nabal answered David’s servants, and said, Who [is] David? and who [is] the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master. [25:11] Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give [it] unto men, whom I know not whence they [be?] [25:12] So David’s young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. [25:13] And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword, and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

[25:14] But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them. [25:15] But the men [were] very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: [25:16] They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. [25:17] Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do: for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he [is such] a son of Belial, that [a man] cannot speak to him.

[25:18] Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn[,] and an household: for he [is such] a son of Belial, that [a man] cannot speak to him.

[25:19] And she said unto her servants, Go on before me: behold, I come after thee. But she told not her husband Nabal. [25:20] And it was [so, as] she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. [25:21] Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this [fellow] hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that [pertained] unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good.

[25:22] So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that [pertain] to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. [25:23] And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and came and greeted David, if I leave of all that [pertain] to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. [25:24] And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, [upon] me [let this] iniquity [be:] and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid. [25:25] Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial: [even] Nabal: for as his name [is,] so [is] he: Nabal [is] his name, and folly [is] with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. [25:26] Now therefore, my lord, [as] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withheld thee from coming to [shed] blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. [25:27] And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord. [25:28] I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house: because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee [all] thy days. [25:29] Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he slay out, [as out] of the middle of a sling. [25:30] And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel: [25:31] That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

[25:32] And David said to Abigail, Blessed [be] the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me: [25:33] And blessed [be] thy advice, and blessed [be] thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to [shed] blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand. [25:34] For in very deed, [as] the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hast hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. [25:35] So David received of her hand [that] which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

[25:36] And Abigail came to Nabal: and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal’s heart [was] merry within him, for he [was] very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. [25:37] But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became [as] a stone. [25:38] And it came to pass about ten days [after,] that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

[25:39] And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed [be] the LORD, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. [25:40] And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee to take thee to him to wife. [25:41] And she arose, and bowed herself on [her] face to the earth, and said, Behold, [let] thine handmaid [be] a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. [25:42] And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. [25:43] David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

[25:44] But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which [was] of Gallim.

[26:1] And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, [which is] before Jeshimon? [26:2] Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. [26:3] And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which [is] before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. [26:4] David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

[26:5] And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him. [26:6] Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. [26:7] So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster; but Abner and the people lay round about him. [26:8] Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the heart, and I will not [smite] him the second time. [26:9] And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD’S anointed, and be guiltless? [26:10] David said furthermore, [As] the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into the grave, and no man can rise again. [26:11] The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD’S anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that [is] at his bolster, and the cruse of water from Saul’s bolster; and pray thee, take thou now the spear that [is] at his bolster, and the cruse of water from Saul’s bolster; and let us go. [26:12] So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul’s bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw [it], nor knew [it], neither awaked: for they [were] all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

[26:13] Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off: a great space [being] between them: [26:14] And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Anserest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who [art] thou [that] criest to the king? [26:15] And David said to Abner, [Art] not thou a [valiant] man? and who [is] like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. [26:16] This thing [is] not good that thou hast done. [As] the LORD liveth, ye [are] worthy to die, because ye have not kept thy master, the LORD’S anointed. And now see where the king’s spear is, and the cruse of water that [was] at his bolster. [26:17] And Saul knew David’s voice, and said, [Is] this thy voice, my son David? And David said, [It is] my voice, my lord, O king. [26:18] And he said, Wherefore doeth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil [is] in mine hand? [26:19] Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering: but if [they] be the children of men, cursed [be] they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. [26:20] Now therefore, let not my blood fail to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a fleas, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

[26:21] Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. [26:22] And David answered and said, Behold the king’s spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. [26:23] The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into [my] hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD’S anointed. [26:24] And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. [26:25] Then Saul said to David, Blessed [be] thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

[27:1] And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: [there is] nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand. [27:2] And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that [were] with him unto Achish, the son of Maach, king of Gath. [27:3] And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, [even] David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelites, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal’s wife. [27:4] And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

[27:5] And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee? [27:6] Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day. [27:7] And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

[27:8] And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites: for those [nations were] of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, even unto the land of Egypt. [27:9] And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish. [27:10] And Achish said, Whither have ye made a road to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south of the Kenites. [27:11] And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring [tidings] to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so [will be] his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines. [27:12] And Achish believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

[27:13] And it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men. [27:14] And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

[27:15] Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. [27:16] And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa. [27:17] And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. [28:6] And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

(28:7) Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, [there is] a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor. [28:8] And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me [him] up, whom I shall name unto thee. [28:9] And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? [28:10] And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, [As] the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing. [28:11] Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. [28:12] And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou [art] Saul. [28:13] And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth. [28:14] And he said unto her, What form [is] he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he [is] covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it [was] Samuel, and he stooped with [his] face to the ground, and bowed himself.

[28:15] And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed: for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. [28:16] Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? [28:17] And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thee, and given it to thy neighbour, [even] to David: [28:18] Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day. [28:19] Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow [shalt] thou and thy sons be brought down alive to the ground. [28:20] Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

[28:21] And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thin handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me. [28:22] Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thin handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way. [28:23] But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. [28:24] And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded [it,] and did bake unleavened bread thereof: [28:25] And she brought [it] before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

[29:1] Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which [is] in Jezreel. [29:2] And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward with Achish. [29:3] Then said the princes of the Philistines, What [do] these Hebrews [here]? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, [Is] not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell [unto me] unto this day? [29:4] And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? [should it] not [be] with the heads of these men? [29:5] [Is] not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

[29:6] Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, [as] the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host [is] good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not. [29:7] Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines.

[29:8] And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant, that thou hast prescribed me to-day, as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? [29:9] And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou [art] good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. [29:10] Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master’s servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart. [29:11] So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

[30:1] And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire; [30:2] And had taken the women captives, that [were] therein; they slew not any, either great or small, but carried [them] away, and went on their way.

[30:3] So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives. [30:4] Then David and the people that [were] with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. [30:5] And David’s two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. [30:6] And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the LORD his God. [30:7] And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech’s son, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. [30:8] And David enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake [them,] and
And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, [even] to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; {30:27} To [them] which [were] in Bethel, and to [them] which [were] in Ramoth, and to [them] which [were] in Jattir, {30:28} And to [them] which [were] in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

{31:1} Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. {31:2} And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchi-shua, Saul’s sons. {31:3} And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers. {31:4} Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. {31:5} And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him. {31:6} So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

{31:7} And when the men of Israel that [were] on the other side of the valley, and [they] that [were] on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. {31:8} And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa. {31:9} And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish [it in] the house of their idols, and among the people. {31:10} And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

{31:11} And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul; {31:12} All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there. {31:13} And they took their bones, and buried [them] under a tree at Shalman, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there. {31:14} And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard this, they rose up and came to the body of Saul, and fetched it; {31:15} And took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his three sons, and brought them to Jeshimon, and buried them. And they went away, and went into the land of the Philistines. And they made Saul and his sons to be burnt. {31:16} And when the Philistines saw that they had made Saul their king, they went up in numbers to destroy them. In those days there was no king in Israel: wherefore every one did that which was right in his own eyes.
{1:1} Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag; {1:2} It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and [so] it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance. {1:3} And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped. {1:4} And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also. {1:5} And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead? {1:6} And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. {1:7} And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here [am] I. {1:8} And he said unto me, Who [art] thou? And I answered him, I [am] an Amalekite. {1:9} And he said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life [is] yet whole in me. {1:10} So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that [was] upon his head, and the bracelet that [was] on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord. {1:11} Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that [were] with him: {1:12} And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

{1:13} And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence [art] thou? And he answered, I [am] the son of a stranger, an Amalekite. {1:14} And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the LORD’S anointed? {1:15} And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, [and] fall upon him. But Abner would not turn aside from following Abner. {1:16} And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play together before me. {1:17} And Joab said, Behold, I will go after thee. And Joab said unto Abner, Turn thou aside from following me: wherefore turned thou aside from following of him. {1:18} And Abner said again to Joab, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore turned thou aside from following of him. {1:19} And Abner looked behind him, and said, [Art] thou Asahel? And he answered, I [am.}
And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose [is] the land? saying [also,] Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand [shall be] with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul’s daughter, when thou comest to see my face. {3:14} And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul’s son, saying, Deliver [me] my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines. {3:15} And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from [her] husband, [even] from Phaltiel the son of Laish. {3:16} And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past [to be] king over you: [3:18] Now then do [it:] for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. [3:19] And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. [3:20] So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that [were] with him a feast. [3:21] And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

And, Behold, the servants of David and Joab came from [pursuing] a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner [was] not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. [3:23] When Joab was come out from following Abner, and was come to Hebron, and had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David’s servants nineteen men and Asahel. [3:24] But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner’s men, [so that] three hundred and threescore men died.

And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which [was in] Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; [3:3] And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; [3:4] And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; [3:5] And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah David’s wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul. [3:7] And Saul had a concubine, whose name [was] Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and [Ish-bosheth] said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father’s concubine? [3:8] Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, [Am] I a dog’s head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault concerning this woman? [3:9] So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him; [3:10] To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba. [3:11] And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we [are] thy bone and thy flesh, [5:2] Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel. [5:3] So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

[5:4] David [was] thirty years old when he began to reign; and [at] he reigned forty years. [5:5] In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

[5:6] And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither. [5:7] Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same [is] the city of David. [5:8] And David spake on that day, Whosoever gathereth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, [that are] hated of David’s soul, [he shall be chief and captain.] Wherefore said they, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house. [5:9] So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo inward. [5:10] And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts [was] with him.

[5:11] And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house. [5:12] And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel’s sake.

[5:13] And Hiram made two great shields of brass: each shield was an cubit and a cubit strong, and was of brass. [5:14] And the weight of the one shield was a talent and an hundred shekels of brass. [5:15] And he made a throne of ivory: and there was aoverlay of pure gold upon it. [5:16] And for the throne’s stead was a base of gold, and a pavement of gold overlaid. [5:17] And the king made a great house to himself, and rich enough for his women. [5:18] And the king loved Abigail the daughter of Talmai the son of Nahash, which dwelt in Caeraun. [5:19] And her father was a very rich man: and she was the most beautiful woman in Israel: and her father had done good, and was great; and the LORD gave him husbandry and wealth in abundance. [5:20] And he had thirty sons, and threescore sons, and daughters: and he ruled them with wisdom: and therewith came out none that could make a song against the king: for he was accepted of God. [5:21] And Solomon reigned over all Israel thirty and three years. [5:22] And Solomon made a league with Hiram king of Tyre, and sent to Hiram: [5:23] And when Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, [5:24] And Judah: and he reigned over all Israel. [5:25] And all Israel bode in Jerusalem thirty and three years. [5:26] And it was so, when the king had made an end of speaking unto the whole congregation of Israel, that the king gave the words of this song to the singers. [5:27] And all Israel dwelt in their cities. And the fat of the land was brought in unto Solomon, and the provision forwar of the sea, according to the word of Hiram. [5:28] And Solomon reigned over all Israel. [5:29] And the king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plums in the vale. [5:30] And he built his own house, and the house of the forest of Lebanon: and there were [plains] of Lebanon.] [5:31] And if one bear a yoke of wood to the sea, the sea will cast it return. [5:32] The king made silver and brass very plenty. [5:33] And the king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plums in the vale. [5:34] And he adjured the king’s servants, saying, “Whoever shall fall within the yoke of wood to the sea, he shall die; he shall not go down into the sea.” [5:35] And he provided stables for his chariots, and mangers for his horses, and officers for his chariots.

And he provided stables for his chariots, and mangers for his horses, and officers for his chariots.

And he provided stables for his chariots, and mangers for his horses, and officers for his chariots.

And he provided stables for his chariots, and mangers for his horses, and officers for his chariots.

And he provided stables for his chariots, and mangers for his horses, and officers for his chariots.

And he provided stables for his chariots, and mangers for his horses, and officers for his chariots.
The word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, {7:5} Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee.

{7:6} And it was told king David, saying, The LORD said, I have taken thee from the sheepcote, to lead my people Israel, and to be their shepherd. {7:7} Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

{7:8} And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the ark of God dwelleth within curtains. {7:9} And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee.

{7:10} Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime. {7:11} And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee an house.

{7:12} And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. {7:13} He shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever. {7:14} He shall be my son, and I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men: {7:15} But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee. {7:16} And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever. {7:17} According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

{7:18} Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and said, Who [am] I, O Lord GOD? and what [is] my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? {7:19} And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord GOD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant’s house for a great while to come. And [is] this the manner of man, O Lord GOD? {7:20} And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord GOD, knowest thy servant. {7:21} For thy word’s sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know [them]. {7:22} Wherefore thou art great, O Lord GOD: for [there is] none like thee, neither [is there any] God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. {7:23} And what one nation in the earth [is] like thy people, [even] like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, [from] the nations and their gods? [7:24] For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people, Israel, to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God. [7:25] And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish [it] for ever, and do as thou hast said. [7:26] And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts [is] the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee. [7:27] For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed thyself to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee. [7:28] And now, O Lord GOD, thou [art] that God, and thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant: [7:29] Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken [it:] and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

[8:1] And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines. [8:2] And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, [and] brought gifts.

[8:3] David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. [8:4] And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand men. [8:5] Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, [and] brought gifts. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. [8:7] And David took the shields of brass that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. [8:8] And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

[8:9] When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer, [8:10] Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And [Joram] brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass: [8:11] Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued: [8:12] Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. [8:13] And David gat [him] a name when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, [being] eighteen thousand [men].

[8:14] And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. [8:15] And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people. [8:16] And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud [was] recorder; [8:17] And Zadok the son of Ahiut, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, [were] the priests; and Seraiah [was] the scribe; [8:18] And Benaijah the son of Jehoiada [was over] both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers.

[9:1] And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake? [9:2] And [there was] of the house of Saul a servant whose name [was] Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, [Art] thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant [is he. ] [9:3] And the king said, [Is] there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, [which is] lame on [his] feet. [9:4] And the king said unto him, Where [is] he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he [is] in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

[9:5] Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. [9:6] Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

[9:7] And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually. [9:8] And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I [am]?

[9:9] Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house. [9:10] Thou therefore [Art] thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in [the fruits,] that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. [9:11] Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, [said the king,] he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons. [9:12] And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name [was] Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba [were] servants unto Mephibosheth. [9:13] So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

[10:1] And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. [10:2] Then said David, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, [even] to their buttocks, and sent them away. [10:3] When they told [it] unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and [then] return.

[10:6] And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the king. [11:9] But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house. [11:10] And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from [thy] journey? why [then] didst thou not go down unto thine house? [11:11] And Uriah said unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? [as] thou livest, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing. [11:12] And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow. [11:13] And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk; and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

[11:14] And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent [it] by the hand of Uriah. [11:15] And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die. [11:16] And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto the place where he knew that valiant men [were. ] [11:17] And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell [some] of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

[11:18] Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; [11:19] And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king, [11:20] And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall? [11:21] Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

[11:22] So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for. [11:23] And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate. [11:24] And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and [some] of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. [11:25] Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thee, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthorov it: and encourage thou him.

[11:26] And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. [11:27] And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

[12:1] And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. [12:2] The rich [man] had exceeding many flocks and herds: [12:3] But the poor [man] had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. (12:4) And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man’s lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. (12:5) And David’s anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan. As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this [thing] shall surely die: (12:6) And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

(12:7) And Nathan said to David, Thou [art] the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; (12:8) And I gave thee thy master’s house, and thy master’s wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if [that had been] too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things. (12:9) Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife [to be] thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. (12:10) Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

(12:11) Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give [them] unto thy burning desire, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. (12:12) For thou didst [it] secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. (12:13) And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD hath taken away the sin from off thy son. (12:14) But the LORD said unto Nathan, Go, tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, thine house shall depart from thee, and thy kingdom shall not continue: (12:15) But the woman that beloveth thee, and the spirit of mine hand, shall add to thee an honor in Israel. (12:16) And the LORD commanded concerning the matter of Uriah. (12:17) And David sent, and took Uriah out of the house of his wife, and smote him with the sword both of the city of Rabbah, and of the camp of the king. (12:18) Then said Nathan unto David, Thou art the man. (12:19) Doth the life of this son of Zimri matter more in thine eyes than the life of Absalom? (12:20) For Absalom was thy son. (12:21) And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. (12:22) And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; for the LORD knew how to deal with thee, to turn away thine iniqutues from thee. (12:23) Therefore the child shall surely die.

(12:24) And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him. (12:25) And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

(12:26) And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. (12:27) And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. (12:28) Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name. (12:29) And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. (12:30) And he took their king’s crown from off his head, the weight whereof [was] a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was [set] on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

(13:1) And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name [was] Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. (13:2) And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she [was] a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her. (13:3) But Amnon had a friend, whose name [was] Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab [was] a very subtil man. (13:4) And he said unto him, Why [art] thou, [being] the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. (13:5) And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a cup of cakes in my sight, that I may see [it], and eat [it] at her hand.

(13:6) So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand. (13:7) Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat. (13:8) So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded [it], and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. (13:9) And she took a pan, and poured [them] out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him. (13:10) And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought [them] into the chamber to Amnon her brother. (13:11) And when she had brought [them] unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister. (13:12) And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly. (13:13) And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. (13:14) Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

(13:15) Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her [was] greater than the love
2 Samuel

13:19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours [that was] on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying. 13:20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister; he [is] thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom’s house.

13:21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth. 13:22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

13:23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-azor, which [is] beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king’s sons.

13:24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with him. 13:25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. 13:26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee? 13:27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

13:28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him. 13:29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon, as he had commanded them, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him.

13:30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king’s sons, and there is not one of them left. 13:31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

13:32 And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David’s brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose [that] they have slain all the young men the king’s sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

13:33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king’s sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead. 13:34 But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him. 13:35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king’s sons come: as thy servant said, so it is. 13:36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king’s sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.
these words in the mouth of thine handmaid: (14:20) To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

(14:21) And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again. (14:22) And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, Today thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant. (14:23) So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. (14:24) And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king’s face.

(14:25) But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. (14:26) And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year’s end that he polled it:) because [the hair] was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king’s weight. (14:27) And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name [was] Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

(14:28) So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king’s face. (14:29) Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come. (14:30) Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab’s field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom’s servants set the field on fire. (14:31) Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto [his] house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire? (14:32) And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come. (14:33) Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab’s field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom’s servants set the field on fire. (14:34) Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto [his] house, and said unto him, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? [it had been] good for me [to have been] there still: now therefore let me see the king’s face; and if there be [any] iniquity in me, let him kill me. (14:35) So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

(15:1) And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him. (15:2) And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city [art] thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. (15:3) And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters [are] good and right: but [there is] no man [deputed] of the king to hear thee. (15:4) Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! (15:5) And it was so, that when any man came nigh [to him] to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him. (15:6) And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

(15:7) And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron. (15:8) For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD. (15:9) And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

(15:10) But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron. (15:11) And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, [that were] called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing. (15:12) And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counsellor, from his city, [even] from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

(15:13) And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom. (15:14) And David said unto all his servants that [were] with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not [else] escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword. (15:15) And the king’s servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants [are ready to do] whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint. (15:16) And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, [which were] concubines, to keep the house. (15:17) And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off. (15:18) And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

(15:19) Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou [art] a stranger, and also an exile. (15:20) Whereas thou camest [but] yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth [be] with thee. (15:21) And Ittai answered the king, and said, [As] the LORD liveth, and [as] my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be. (15:22) And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that [were] with him. (15:23) And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

(15:24) And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites [were] with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city. (15:25) And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and shew me [both] it, and his habitation: (15:26) But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, [here am] I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him. (15:27) The king said also unto Zadok the priest, [Art not] thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. (15:28) See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me. (15:29) Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.
[16:1] And when David was a little past the top [of the hill], behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of assed saddled, and upon them two hundred [loaves] of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine. [16:2] And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses [be] for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink. [16:3] And the king said, And where [is] thy master's son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, Today shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father. [16:4] Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine [are] all that [pertained] unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee [that] I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

[16:5] And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name [was] Shimei, the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed still as he came. [16:6] And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men [were] on his right hand and on his left. [16:7] And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou man of Belial: [16:8] The LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou [art taken] in thy mischief, because thou [art] a bloody man.

[16:9] Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. [16:10] And the king said, Have what I have to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? [16:11] And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now [may this] Benjamite [do it?] let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath hid him. [16:12] It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day. [16:13] And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. [16:14] And the king, and all the people that [were] with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

[16:15] And Absalom, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. [16:16] And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, God save the king. [16:17] And Absalom said to Hushai, [Is] this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend? [16:18] And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. [16:19] And again, whom should I serve? [should I] not [serve] in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

[16:20] Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do. [16:21] And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that [are] with thee be strong. [16:22] So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. [16:23] And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in to thy father's concubines, that it may seem to all that follow thee, that thou art resolved after thy father's death: so shalt thou be in the stead of thine father in Israel. [16:24] And Absalom and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. [16:25] Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night: [16:26] And I will come upon him while he [is] weary and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that [are] with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only: [16:27] And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest [is] as if all returned: [so] all the people shall be in peace. [16:28] And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. [16:29] Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith. [16:30] And when Absalom had caused Hushai to come unto him, Absalom said, Hushai, now choose out for me fifteen hundred men of the people of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the most discreet, and whom thou seest to be able to go forth and come in with me. [16:31] And Hushai said unto Absalom, I will most certainly speak in thine stead to such counsel as shall be best for thee.

[16:32] Then said Absalom, Go in unto the city, and consult with Ahitophel; for he is as wise as I: and bring thence counsel, that we may after his saying do according to it. And Absalom said unto Ahitophel, Declare to me now what shall be best for me. [16:33] And Hushai answered Absalom and said, Let not my lord suppose that the counsel of Ahithophel be to send thee thence to fight against Israel: for he is an old man, and is foolsided.

[16:34] And, behold, thou hast conseverted the counsel of Ahithophel, which was so good and so wise, into foolishness. [16:35] For otherwise if Ahithophel had counselled, thou hadst not now been a prince by this time. [16:36] But now also the LORD hath given an occasion against Absalom in the sight of all Israel.

[16:37] Then said Ahithophel unto Absalom, Behold, the LORD hath given thee David. And I counsel that all Israel be gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and that thou go to battle in thine own person. [16:38] So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground; and of him and of all the men that [are] with him there shall not be left so much as one. [17:13] Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. [17:14] And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite [is] better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

[17:15] Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. [17:16] Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that [are] with him. [17:17] Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David. [17:18] Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man’s house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down. [17:19] And the woman took and spread a covering over the well’s mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. [17:20] And when Absalom’s servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find [them], they returned to Jerusalem. [17:21] And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David. [17:22] Then David arose, and all the people that [were] with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

[17:23] And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled [his] ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father. [17:24] Then David came to Mahanaim, and Absalom passed over Jordan, and he and all the men of Israel with him. [17:25] And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man’s son, whose name [was] Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab’s mother. [17:26] So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

[17:27] And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, [17:28] Brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched [corn,] and beans, and lentiles, and parched [pulse,] [17:29] And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that [were] with him, to eat: for they said, Thes. people [is] hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

[18:1] And David numbered the people that [were] with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. [18:2] And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab’s brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. [18:3] But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now [thou art] worth ten thousand of us: therefore now [it is] better that thou succour us out of the city. [18:4] And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands. [18:5] And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, [Deal] gently for my sake with the young man, [even] with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

[18:6] So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim: [18:7] Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand [men. ] [18:8] For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

[18:9] And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth: and the mule that [was] under him went away. [18:10] And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. [18:11] And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest [him,] and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten [shekels] of silver, and a girdle. [18:12] And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand [shekels] of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king’s son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none [touch] the young man Absalom. [18:13] Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me. [18:14] Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he [was] yet alive in the midst of the oak. [18:15] And ten young men that bare Joab’s armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him. [18:16] And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people. [18:17] And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

[18:18] Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which [is] in the king’s dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom’s place.

[18:19] Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies. [18:20] And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king’s son is dead. [18:21] Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran. [18:22] Then said
Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready? {18:23} But howsoever, [said he,] let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cushi. {18:24} And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and beheld a man running alone. {18:25} And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he [be] alone, [there is] tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. {18:26} And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold [another] man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings. {18:27} And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He [is] a good man, and cometh with good tidings. {18:28} And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, Go in peace. And the king said, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

{18:29} And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and [me] thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what [it was.] {18:30} And the king said [unto him,] Turn aside, [and] stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still. {18:31} And, behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. {18:32} And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do [thee] hurt, be as [that] young man [is.

][18:33] And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

{19:1} And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom. {19:2} And the victory that day was [turned] into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son. {19:3} And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. {19:4} But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son! {19:5} And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of my son, my son! {19:6} In that thou regardest neither princes nor wives, and the lives of thy concubines; {19:7} For thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. {19:8} And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready? {18:23} But howsoever, [said he,] let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cushi. ][18:33] And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son! 2 Samuel 18:29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? [19:31] And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. [19:32] Now Barzillai was very old, and full of days, [even] fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he [was] a very great man. [19:33] And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem. [19:34] And Barzillai said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? [19:35] I [am] this day fourscore years old: [and] can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king? [19:36] Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward? [19:37] Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, [and be buried] by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Ch Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king: and do to him that which shall seem good unto thee. [19:38] And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, [that] will I do for thee. [19:39] And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place. [19:40] Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel. [19:41] And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David’s men with him, over Jordan? [19:42] And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king [is] near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king’s [cost?] or hath he given us any gift? [19:43] And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more [right] in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our lord, and his household, and all David’s men with him, over Jordan? [19:44] And the king answered, and said unto the men of Judah, Fear not to be the first, for the king is as well pleased with you as with all the men of Israel. [19:45] And the king said unto Barzillai, Take unto thee thou and thy house, and dwell in the city, which is the king’s. [19:46] Behold, David your lord went over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it thee with great prices? [19:47] Let him go over with my lord the king; and I will provide for him, and for all that be with him. [20:1] And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name [was] Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David; neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel. [20:2] So every man of Israel went up after David, [and] followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem. [20:3] And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women [his] concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood. [20:4] Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present. [20:5] So Amasa went to assemble [the men of] Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. [20:6] And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than [did] Absalom: take thou thy lord’s servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us. [20:7] And there went out after him Joab’s men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. [20:8] When they [were] at the great stone which [is] in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab’s garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle [with] a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out. [20:9] And Joab said to Amasa, [Art] thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him. [20:10] But Amasa took no heed to the sword that [was] in Joab’s hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth [rib,] and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. [20:11] And one of Joab’s men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that [is] for David, [let him go] after Joab. [20:12] And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. [20:13] When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. [20:14] And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. [20:15] And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that [were] with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. [20:16] Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear, say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee. [20:17] And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, [Art] thou Joab? And he answered, I [am he.] Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear. [20:18] Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask [counsel] at Abel: and so they ended [the matter. ] [20:19] I [am one of them that are] peaceable [and] faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel; why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD? [20:20] And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. [20:21] The matter [is] not so: but a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, [even] against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall. [20:22] Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast [it] out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king. [20:23] Now Joab [was] over all the host of Israel: and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada [was] over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites: [20:24] And Adoram [was] over the tribute: and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud [was] recorder: [20:25] And Sheva [was] scribe: and Zadok and Abiathar [were] the priests: [20:26] And Ira also the Jairite was a chief ruler about David. [21:1] Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, [It is] for Saul, and for [his] bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites. [21:2] And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites [were] not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them; and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.) (21:3) Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewithal shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD? (21:4) And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, [that] will I do for you. (21:5) And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us [that] we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel, (21:6) Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeon of Saul, [whom] the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give [them. ]][21:7] But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD’S oath that [was] between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. (21:8) But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth: and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite: (21:9) And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell [all] seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first [days,] in the beginning of barley harvest.

[21:10] And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. (21:11) And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

[21:12] And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa: (21:13) And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged. (21:14) And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was intreated for the land.

[21:15] Moreover the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. (21:16) And Ishbi-benob, which [was] of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear [weighed] three hundred [shelkels] of brass in weight, he being girded with a new [sword,] thought to have slain David. (21:17) But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel. (21:18) And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which [was] of the sons of the giant. (21:19) And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jachin, a Bethlehemite, slew [the] brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear [was] like a weaver’s beam. (21:20) And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of [great] stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. (21:21) And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimone the brother of David slew him. (21:22) These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

[22:1] And David spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day [that] the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: (22:2) And he said, The LORD [is] my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; (22:3) The God of my rock; in him will I trust: [he is] my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence. (22:4) I will call on the LORD, [who is] worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. (22:5) When the waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid; (22:6) The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me; (22:7) In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry [did enter] into his ears. (22:8) Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth. (22:9) There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoureth: coals were kindled by it. (22:10) He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness [was] under his feet. (22:11) And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; and he was seen upon the wings of the wind. (22:12) And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, [and] thick clouds of the skies. (22:13) Through the brightness before him were coals of fire kindled. (22:14) The LORD thundered from heaven, and the most High uttered his voice. (22:15) And he sent out arrows into the earth; lightning went out of his presence. (22:16) And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. (22:17) He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of many waters; (22:18) He delivered me from my strong enemy, [and] from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. (22:19) They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay. (22:20) He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me. (22:21) The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. (22:22) For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. (22:23) For all his judgments [were] before me: and [as for] his statutes, I did not depart from them. (22:24) I was also upright before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity. (22:25) Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness: according to my cleanness in his eye sight. (22:26) With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, [and] with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright. (22:27) With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself unsavoury. (22:28) And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes [are] upon the haughty, [that] thou mayest bring [them] down. (22:29) For thou [art] my lamp, O LORD: and the LORD will lighten my darkness. (22:30) For by thee I have run through a trooph: by my God have I leaped over a wall. (22:31) [As for] God, his way [is] perfect: the word of the LORD [is] tried: he [is] a buckler to all them that trust in him. (22:32) For the LORD [is] a rock, save our God? (22:33) God [is] my strength [and] power: and he maketh my way perfect. (22:34) He maketh my feet like hinds’ feet: and setteth me upon my high places. (22:35) He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. (22:36) Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy gentleness hath made me great. (22:37) Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; so that my feet did not slip. (22:38) I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not again until I had consumed them. (22:39) And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under my feet. (22:40) For thou hast girded me with strength to battle: them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me. (22:41) Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me. (22:42) They looked, but [there was] none to save; [even] unto the LORD, but he answered them not. (22:43) Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street, [and] did spread them abroad. (22:44) Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, thou hast kept me [to be] head of the heathen: a people [which] I knew not shall serve me. (22:45) Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their close places. (22:47) The LORD liveth; and blessed [be] my rock; and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation. (22:48) It [is] God that avengeth me, and that bringeth down the people under me. (22:49) And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. (22:50) Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name. (22:51) [He is] the tower of salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to his anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

23:1] Now these [be] the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man [who was] raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said, (23:2) The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word [was] in my tongue. (23:3) The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men [must be] just, ruling in the fear of God. (23:4) And [he shall be] as the light of the morning, [when] the sun riseth, [even] a morning without clouds; [as] the tender grass [springing] out of the earth by clear shining after rain. (23:5) Although my house [be] not so with God; yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all [things,] and sure: for [this is] all my salvation, and all [my] desire, although he make [it] not to grow.

23:6] But the sons of Belial [shall be] all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands: (23:7) But the man [that] shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the [same] place.

23:8] These [be] the names of the mighty men whom David had: The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same [was] Adino the Ezinite: [he lift up his spear] against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time. (23:9) And after him [was] Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, [one] of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines [that] were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away: (23:10) He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day, and the people returned after him only to spoil. (23:11) And after him [was] Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines. (23:12) But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew of the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory. (23:13) And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim. (23:14) And David [was] then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines [was] then [in] Bethlehem. (23:15) And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which [is] by the gate! (23:16) And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that [was] by the gate, and took [it,] and brought [it] to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD. (23:17) And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: [is not this] the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men. (23:18) And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, [and] slew them[,] and had the name among three. (23:19) Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the [first] three. (23:20) And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lionlike men of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow: (23:21) And he slew an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and slew him with his own spear. (23:22) These [things] did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men. (23:23) He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the [first] three. And David set him over his guard. (23:24) Asahel the brother of Joab [was] one of the thirty: Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, (23:25) Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, (23:26) Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, (23:27) Abiezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, (23:28) Zalmon the Ahibite, Maharai the Netophathite, (23:29) Heleb the son of Baanah, a Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai out of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, (23:30) Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash, (23:31) Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, (23:32) Eliahuha the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, (23:33) Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite, (23:34) Eliphelet the son of Ahahsiab, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, (23:35) Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, (23:36) Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, (23:37) Zelek the Ammonite, Nahari the Beerothite, armourbearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah, (23:38) Ira an Itirite, Gareb an Itirite, (23:39) Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all.

24:1] And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah. (24:2) For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which [was] with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people. (24:3) And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see [it]; but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? (24:4) Notwithstanding the king’s word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.
And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward Jazer: Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan, and about to Zidon. Then came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba. So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

And David’s heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying, Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days’ pestilence in thy land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me. And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man.

And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded. And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground. And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people. And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, [here be] oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood. All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee. And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy [it] of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.
The First Book of the Kings Commonly Called the Third Book of the Kings

1 Kings

1:1 Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat. 1:2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat. 1:3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 1:4 And the damsel [was] very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

1:5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. 1:6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also [was a] very goodly [man;] and [his mother] bare him after Absalom. 1:7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped [him. ]1:8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which [belonged] to David, were not with Adonijah. 1:9 And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which [is] by En-rogel, and called all the brethren the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah the king’s servants: 1:10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

1:11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth [it] not? 1:12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. 1:13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? 1:14 Behold, thou yet talkest with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

1:15 And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king. 1:16 And Bathsheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou? 1:17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. 1:18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest [it] not: 1:19 And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called. 1:20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel [are] upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 1:21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

1:22 And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. 1:23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. 1:24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? 1:25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king’s sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Adonijah. 1:26 But me, [even] me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. 1:27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed [it] unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

1:28 Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king’s presence, and stood before the king. 1:29 And the king sware, and said, [As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress,] 1:30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day. 1:31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with [her] face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

1:32 And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king. 1:33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: 1:34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel; and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. 1:35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. 1:36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so [too. ]1:37 As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. 1:38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon. 1:39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon. 1:40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, that the earth rent with the sound of them.

1:41 And Adonijah and all the guests that [were] with him heard [it] as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore [is this] noise of the city being in an uproar? 1:42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for thou [art] a valiant man, and bringest good tidings. 1:43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king. 1:44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king’s mule: 1:45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang Say on. [2:15] And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and [that] all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD. [2:16] And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on. [2:17] And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. [2:18] And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king. [2:19] Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. [2:20] Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; [I pray thee.] say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay. [2:21] And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. [2:22] And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he [is] mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. [2:23] Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. [2:24] Now therefore, [as] the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. [2:25] And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died. [2:26] And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou [art] worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. [2:27] So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

[2:28] Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. [2:29] And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, [he is] by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. [2:30] And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thas king Joab; and he fell upon him that he died. [2:31] And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take his blood upon thy own head, which he spake concerning me, saying, I will not put thee to death; but I will put thee to death, because thou knowest not the ark of the Lord, nor the altar, neither where the be presence of the Lord. [2:32] Then said king Solomon: Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. [2:33] Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

[2:34] So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

{2:35} And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

{2:36} And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. {2:37} For it shall be, [that] on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head. {2:38} And Shimei said unto the king, The saying [is] good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. {2:39} And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants [be] in Gath. {2:40} And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. {2:41} And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. {2:42} And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear to be bound by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word [that] I have heard [is] good. {2:43} Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? {2:44} The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head: {2:45} And king Solomon [shall be] blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever. {2:46} So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

{3:1} And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh’s daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem round about. {3:2} Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days. {3:3} And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places. {3:4} And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that [was] the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

{3:5} In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee. {3:6} And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as [it is] this day. {3:7} And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I [am but] a little child: I know not [how] to go out and come in. {3:8} And now, O LORD my God, I beseech thee, let thy word be true, and come to thee. {3:9} Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people? {3:10} And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. {3:11} And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment; {3:12} Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. {3:13} And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days. {3:14} And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days. {3:15} And Solomon awoke: and, behold, [it was] a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

{3:16} Then came there two women, [that were] harlots, unto the king, and stood before him. {3:17} And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. {3:18} And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that the woman’s child died. {3:19} And the king said, This [is] my son that liveth, and thy son [is] the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son [is] the dead, and my son [is] the living. {3:20} Then said the king, The one saith, This [is] my son that liveth, and thy son [is] the dead; and the other saith, Nay; but thy son [is] the dead, and my son [is] the living. {3:21} And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. {3:22} And the other woman said, Nay; but the living [is] my son, and the dead [is] thy son. And this said, No; but the dead [is] thy son, and the living [is] my son. Thus they spake before the king. {3:23} Then said the king, The one saith, This [is] my son that liveth, and thy son [is] the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son [is] the dead, and my son [is] the living. {3:24} And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. {3:25} And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. {3:26} Then spake the woman whose the living child [was] unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, [but] divide it. {3:27} Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she [is] the mother thereof. {3:28} And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged: and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God [was] in him, to do judgment.

{4:1} So king Solomon was king over all Israel. {4:2} And these [were] the princes which he had: Azariah the son of Zadok the priest, {4:3} Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder. {4:4} And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada [was] over the host: and Zadok and Abiathar [were] the priests: {4:5} And Shimei the son of Gera was over the men of war: and Zabud the son of Nathan [was] over the king’s household: and Adoniram the son of Abda [was] over the tribute. {4:6} And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision. {4:8} And these [are] their names: The son of Hur, in mount Ephraim: {4:9} The
And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon: and they went to him, [and] brought wood of Lebanon unto Solomon forty cubic cubits, and six thousand cubits. And he built a palace for himself in the forest of Lebanon: threescore measures of fine fir tree, threescore measures of algum tree; twenty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand chariots for his horsemen. And he built Ophir in the land of the Sidonians, and brought great tribute out of it. And all the king's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of his lord, and of his servants, and of his mighty men, and of all the house of Judah and Israel, were fine gold, and so was all the royal house of king Solomon. All these qin the kingdom of Solomon. And the king made silver in Jerusalem like stones; and silver was in abundance among them. So king Solomon gave to Hiram twenty thousand measures of fine wheat, and thirty measures of fine flour. And thus did Hiram supply Solomon with provisions. As his men did eat at king Solomon's table, so did Hiram's men: and he supplied him with salt. And this is the account of the work which they did; the workmen wrought fifty thousand cutting-men in the mountains, and on the seas, so as far as Dan: they provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that were in his kingdom, from the sea even unto Baalath, which is by Zephaim. And twenty thousand花开油 of oil oil, and sixty thousand measures of fine flour a year. So Hiram supplied Solomon with all the provisions of oil and wine. And there was that had charge of workmen, to distribute provision for all that did the work, from the fifty thousand men that were in the work of the house of the LORD, who wrought with hammers, and with axes, and with chisels, on the work of wood and iron. And it was so, when Hiram's men had cut the wood, that they brought it to such a place as Solomon the king had commanded: and his servants did make it. And the king made ...twenty thousand hewers in the mountains; and an hundred fifty levy-men were over them, to sustain the hewers. And the king gave to Hiram a hundred and twenty thousand measures of crushed stone, and twenty thousand measures of beaten out earth. Howbeit Hiram gave unto king Solomon a hundred and twenty thousand pounds of gold, and an hundred talents of silver. Of purple he gave him five hundred tunics, and six hundred tunics of fine linen, and six hundred tunics of fine twilled stuff. And what he thought to bring to Solomon, as counsel came to him, even that did Hiram give unto king Solomon. Howbeit the king gave to Hiram a thousand measures of gold, to bear to the king of Tyrus, to work for him with the ironmen, for the sea. And the sea was made of forty cubits from brim to brim, and was twenty cubits high, and an hundred cubits round about. And there were rams' skins dyed purple, and sea-drams, to cover the face of it. And he made for it ropes of mastiff goats' hair, upon which it was overlaid. And he overlaid it with gold, and provided for it a masthead of line. And he made a3 golden sea to receive the water, and the sea was round, twelve cubits the diameter of it: and the height thereof was a cubit: and a line of ten cubits did compass it about. And under the one brim of it there were pebbles of thirty cubits round about the sea; and the brim thereof was a work of Hew familiar things: the handiwork of the sea was like a workman wrought with a quiver. And Hiram sent messengers to Solomon, saying, I have heard that thou hast performed great works, and hast built a house for thee, and hast gatheredstateProviderments. But who is able to build him a house, seeing this great is as the sand which is on the sea shore? And now therefore send me a man wise and understanding, that may go out with me to Israel, and build me a house unto the name of the LORD my God: and to build an house for thee to dwell therein. For I have seen that thou art a man of understanding, and that God hath endued thee with knowledge and wisdom. And now, behold, I have given thee what thou hast asked, in that thou earnest not my nativity with the kings of the east, and with the kings of Egypt. Now then, see with thine own eyes: and I will show thee how much goodly wood is in Lebanon: there is a fair place and spacious: there get thee in, thou and the kings of Hiram thy friend, and I will shew thee. And, behold, the sea is with thee, which thou wast not able to go over at the first time, when the children of Israel went to possess it: and the LORD thy God was with thee; and he hath given thee rest from all thine enemies. Likewise the LORD shall be with thee, both in going out, and in coming in, in all the work wherein thou shalt set thine hand; and he shall prosper thee in the thing wherein thou shalt consent. And the LORD shall guide thee in the way which thou shalt go, and the LORD shall be with thee, and have thee in good advantage.
And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, [against] the walls of the house round about, [both] of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about: {6:6} The nethermost chamber [was] five cubits broad, and the middle [was] six cubits broad, and the third [was] seven cubits broad: for without [in the wall] of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that [the beams] should not be fastened in the walls of the house. {6:7} And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. {6:8} The door for the middle chamber [was] in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle [chamber.] and out of the middle into the third. {6:9} So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar. {6:10} And [then] he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house [with] timber of cedar.

And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, {6:12} [Concerning] this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father: {6:13} And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. {6:14} So Solomon built the house, and finished it. {6:15} And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: [and] he covered [them] on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir. {6:16} And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor of the house and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built [them] for it within, [even] for the oracle, [even] for the most holy [place. {6:17} And the house, that [is,] the temple before it, was forty cubits [long. ]{6:18} And the cedar of the house within [was] carved with knops and open flowers: and covered [them] with gold.

And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. {6:20} And the oracle in the forepart [was] twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which [was of] cedar. {6:21} So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle: and he overlaid it with gold. {6:22} And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that [was] by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. {6:28} The height of the one cherub [was] ten cubits, and so [was it] of the other cherub. {6:27} And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the [one] wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. {6:28} And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. {6:29} And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without. {6:30} And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without. {6:30} And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold. {6:29} And he made the two doors also [were of] olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid [them] with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees. {6:33} So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part [of the wall. ]{6:34} And the two doors also [were of] fir tree: the two leaves of the one door [were] folding, and the two leaves of the other door [were] folding. {6:35} And he carved [thereon] cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered [them] with gold fitted upon the carved work.

And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams. {6:36} And in the fourteenth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif: {6:38} And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which [is] the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. {7:1} But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon: the length thereof [was] an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. {7:3} And [it was] covered with cedar above upon the beams, that [lay] on forty five pillars, fifteen [in] a row. {7:4} And [there were] windows [in] three rows, and light [was] against light [in] three ranks. {7:5} And all the doors and posts [were] square, with the windows: and light [was] against light [in] three ranks.

And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof [was] fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the [other] pillars and the thick beam [were] before them.

Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, [even] the porch of judgment: and [it was] covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

And his house where he dwelt [had] another court within the porch, [which] was of the like work, Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken [to wife,] like unto this porch. {7:9} All these [were of] costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court. {7:10} And the foundation [was of] costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. {7:11} And above [were] costly stones, after hewed stones, sawed with saws. {7:12} And the great court round about [was] with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. {7:14} He [was] a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father [was] a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work. {7:15} For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about. {7:16} And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one pillar was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits: {7:17} And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter. {7:18} And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter. {7:19} And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits. {7:20} And the chapiters upon the two pillars [had pomegranates] also above, over against the belly which [was] by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapter. {7:21} And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and he called the name thereof Boaz. {7:22} And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

{7:23} And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: [it was] round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. {7:24} And under the brim of it round about [there were] knobs compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knobs [were] cast in two rows, when it was cast. {7:25} It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea [was set] above upon them, and all their hinder parts [were] inward. {7:26} And it [was] an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

{7:27} And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits [was] the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it. {7:28} And the work of the bases [was] on this [manner:] they had borders, and the borders [were] between the ledges: {7:29} And on the borders that [were] between the ledges [were] lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges [there was] a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen [were] certain additions made of thin work. {7:30} And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof were made of thin work. {7:30} And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof were made of thin work. {7:31} And the mouth thereof [was] round [after] the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it [were] gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round. {7:32} And under the borders [were] four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels [were joined] to the base: and the height of a wheel [was] a cubit and a half a cubit. {7:33} And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naves, and their falloes, and their spokes, [were] all molten. {7:34} And [there were] four undersetters to the four corners of one base: [and] the undersetters [were] of the very base itself. {7:35} And in the top of the base [was there] a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof [were] of the same. {7:36} For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about. {7:37} After this [manner] he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, [and] one size.

{7:38} Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: [and] every laver was four cubits: {7:39} and upon every one of the ten bases one laver. {7:39} And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

{7:40} And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD: {7:41} The two pillars, and the [two] bowls of the chapiters that [were] on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which [were] upon the top of the pillars; {7:42} And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, [even] two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that [were] upon the pillars; {7:43} And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases: {7:44} And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea; {7:45} And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, [were] of bright brass. {7:46} In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan.

{7:47} And Solomon left all the vessels [unweighed,] because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out. {7:48} And Solomon made all the vessels that [pertained] unto the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread [was,] {7:49} And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right [side,] and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs [of] gold. {7:50} And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers [of] pure gold; and the hinges [of] gold, [both] for the doors of the inner house, the most holy [place, and] for the doors of the house, [to wit,] of the temple. {7:51} So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated: [even] the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

{8:1} Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which [is] Zion. {8:2} And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which [is] the seventh month. {8:3} And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. {8:4} And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that [were] in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up. {8:5} And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that [were] assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude. {8:6} And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy [place, even] under the wings of the cherubims. {8:7} For the cherubims spread forth [their] two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above. {8:8} And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy [place] before the oracle, and the staves were not seen without thine eyes unto this day. {8:9} [There was] nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made [a covenant] with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. {8:10} And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy [place,] that the cloud filled the house of the LORD. {8:11} So that the priests could not stand to minister of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

{8:12} Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in thick darkness. {8:13} I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever. {8:14} And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood:) {8:15} And he said, Blessed [be] the LORD God of Israel, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, {8:16} Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel. {8:17} And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. {8:18} And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart. {8:19} Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name. {8:20} And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. {8:21} And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein [is] the covenant of the LORD, which I made with our fathers, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt.

{8:22} And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven: {8:23} And he said, LORD God of Israel, [there is] no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart: {8:24} Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled [it] with thine hand, as [it is] this day. {8:25} Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me with all their heart: {8:26} And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified unto thy servant David my father. {8:27} But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? {8:28} Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication. O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day: {8:29} That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, [even] toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place. {8:30} And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

{8:31} If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house: {8:32} Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

{8:33} When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house: {8:34} Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

{8:35} When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them: {8:36} Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

{8:37} If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar: if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness [there be;] {8:38} What prayer and supplication soever be [made] by any man, [or] by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: {8:39} Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, [even] thou only, knowest the hearts of the all the children of men;) {8:40} That they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers. {8:41} Moreover concerning a stranger, that [is] not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name’s sake: {8:42} (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house: {8:43} Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as [do] thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.

{8:44} If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and [toward] the house that I have built for thy name: {8:45} Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. {8:46} If they sin against thee, (for [there is] no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near; {8:47} [Yet] if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness; {8:48} And [so] return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name: {8:49} Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause, {8:50} And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them: {8:51} For they [be] thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron: {8:52} That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearenth you in all that they call for unto thee. [8:53] For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, [to be] thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God. [8:54] And it was [so:] that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. [8:55] And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, [8:56] Blessed be the Lord, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant. [8:57] The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us: [8:58] That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. [8:59] And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require: [8:60] That all the people of the earth may know that the Lord is God, [and that there is] none else. [8:61] Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

[8:62] And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the Lord. [8:63] And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the Lord, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord. [8:64] The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the basen altar that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the Lord was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings. [8:65] And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days and seven days, [even] fourteen days. [8:66] On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the Lord had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

[9:1] And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, [9:2] That the Lord appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon. [9:3] And the Lord said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and my heart shall be there for ever; and there hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

[9:10] And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the king's house, [9:11] (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. [9:12] And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not. [9:13] And he said, What cities [are] these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day. [9:14] And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

[9:15] And this [is] the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. [9:16] [For] Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and gave it [for] a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife. [9:17] And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether, [9:18] and Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, [9:19] And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. [9:20] [And] all the people [that were] left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which [were] not of the children of Israel, [9:21] Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day. [9:22] But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they [were] men of war, and his servants, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. [9:23] These [were] the chief of the officers that [were] over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

[9:24] But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which [Solomon] had built for her: then did he build Millo.

[9:25] And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the Lord, and he burnt incense upon the altar that [was] before the Lord. So he finished the house.

[9:26] And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Elath, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom. [9:27] And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shippers that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. [9:28] And they came to Ophir, and fetched thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought [it] to king Solomon.
[10:1] And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. [10:2] And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. [10:3] And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not [any] thing hid from the king, which he told her not. [10:4] And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon’s wisdom, and the house that he had built, [10:5] And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. [10:6] And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom. [10:7] Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen [it:] and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard. [10:8] Happy [are] thy men, happy [are] these thy servants, which stand continuance before thee, [and] that hear thy wisdom. [10:9] Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice. [10:10] And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. [10:11] And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees, and precious stones. [10:12] And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king’s house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day. [10:13] And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside [that] which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

[10:14] Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold. [10:15] Beside [that he had] of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

[10:18] Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold. [10:19] The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne [was] round behind: and [there were] stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays. [10:20] And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

[10:21] And all king Solomon’s drinking vessels [were] of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon [were] of pure gold: none [were] of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

[10:22] For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

[10:23] So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

[10:24] And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. [10:25] And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

[10:26] And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem. [10:27] And the king made silver [to be] in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he [to be] as the sycomore trees that [are] in the vale, for abundance.

[10:28] And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king’s merchants received the linen yarn at a price. [10:29] And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring [them] out by their means.

[11:1] But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, [and] Hittites; [11:2] Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto Israel, [that] I will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant’s sake, and for Jerusalem’s sake which I have chosen.

[11:14] And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he [was] of the king’s seed in Edom. [11:15] For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom; [11:16] (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:) That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father’s servants with him, to go into Egypt: Hadad [being] yet a little child.

[11:18] And they were out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt; unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

[11:19] And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. [11:20] And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh’s house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh’s household among the sons of Pharaoh. [11:21] And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country. [11:22] Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

[11:23] And God stirred him up [another] adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah: [11:24] And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them [of Zobah:] and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus. [11:25] And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad [did:] and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

[11:26] And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon’s servant, whose mother’s name [was] Zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up [his] hand against the king. [11:27] And this [was] the cause that he lifted up [his] hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, [and] repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.
And the man Jeroboam [was] a mighty man of valor; and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph. [11:29] And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two [were] alone in the field: [11:30] And Ahijah caught the new garment that [was] on him, and rent it [in] twelve pieces: [11:31] And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee: [11:32] (But he shall have one tribe for my servant David’s sake, and for Jerusalem’s sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:) [11:33] Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do [that which is] right in mine eyes, and [to keep] my statutes and my judgments, as [did] David his father. [11:34] Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant’s sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes: [11:35] But I will take the kingdom out of his son’s hand, and will give it unto thee, [even] ten tribes. [11:36] And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. [11:37] And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel. [11:38] And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do [that which is] right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and will build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee. [11:39] And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever. [11:40] Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, [are] they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? [11:42] And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel [was] forty years. [11:43] And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel came to Shechem to make him king. [12:2] And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard [of it,] (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;) [12:3] That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying, [12:4] Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee. [12:5] And he said unto them, Depart yet [for] three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people? [12:7] And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. [12:8] But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, [and] which stood before him: [12:9] And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter? [12:10] And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou [it] lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little [finger] shall be thicker than my father’s loins. [12:11] And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. [12:13] And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men’s counsel that they gave him: [12:14] And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father [also] chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. [12:15] Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither [have we] inheritance in the son of Jesse: to thy tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. [12:16] So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day. [12:20] And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying, [12:22] Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, [12:24] Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against the house of Israel, lest I consume the house of Judah.

Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who [was] over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. [12:19] So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day. [12:20] And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Peniel. [12:26] And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David. [12:27] If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, [even] unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

[12:28] Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves [of] gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, [O] Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. [12:29] And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. [12:30] And this thing became a sin: for the people went [to worship] before the one, [even] unto Dan. [12:31] And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. [12:32] And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that [is] in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. [12:33] So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, [even] in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

[13:1] And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. [13:2] And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men’s bones shall be burnt upon thee. [13:3] And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This [is] the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes poured out upon thee, and men’s bones shall be burnt upon thee. [13:4] And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. [13:5] The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. [13:6] And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God said unto him, I [am] a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. [But] he lied unto him. [13:9] So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

[13:10] And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back: [13:11] And he cried unto the man of God which he had brought back. [13:12] And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase. [13:13] And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. [13:14] And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It [is] the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him. [13:15] And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled [him.] [13:16] And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass. [13:17] And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. [13:18] And he cried unto the man of God that brought him back. [13:19] And he said unto him, [Art] thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I [am] a prophet also as thou [art;] and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. [But] he lied unto him. [13:20] So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

[13:21] And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, [to wit,] for the prophet whom he had brought back. [13:22] And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase. [13:23] And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt. [13:24] And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It [is] the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him. [13:25] And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled [him.] [13:26] And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass. [13:27] And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him. [13:28] And he lay his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, [saying,] Alas, my brother! [13:29] And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God [is] buried; lay my bones beside his bones: [13:30] For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which [are] in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass. [13:31] After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would he, consecrate him, and he became [one] of the priests of the high places. [13:32] And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut [it] off, and to destroy [it] from off the face of the earth.

[13:33] After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would he, consecrate him, and he became [one] of the priests of the high places. [13:34] And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut [it] off, and to destroy [it] from off the face of the earth.

[14:1] At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. [14:2] And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam: and get thee to Shiloh: behold, there [is] Abijah the prophet, which told me that [I should] be king over this people. [14:3] And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child. [14:4] And Jeroboam’s wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and
And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah; and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died. 14:18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet. 14:19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 14:20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned were twenty and twenty: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Jerusalem. Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem: 14:26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. 14:27 And king Rehoboam made in their stead brasen shields, and put them in the hands of the chief of the guard, which kept the door of the king's house. 14:28 And it was so when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.

Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, and all that he said, are not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 14:30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigned Abijam over Judah. 15:2 And Abijam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And his mother's name was Maachah.

And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah. 15:10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. 15:11 And Asa, that is, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.
the treasures of the king’s house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Taubman, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying, 15:19 [There is] a league between me and thee, [and] between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; and come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. 15:20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. 15:21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard [thereof,] that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. 15:22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none [was] exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. 15:23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. 15:24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

15:25] And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years. 15:26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

15:27] And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which [belonged] to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. 15:28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. 15:29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, [that] he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite: 15:30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

15:31] Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 15:32] And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 15:33] In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years. 15:34] And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

16:1] Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, 16:2] Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; [16:3] Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make the house of Jeroboam like the house of Nebat. 16:4] Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat. 16:5] Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 16:6] So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead. 16:7] And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

16:8] In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. 16:9] And his servant Zimri, captain of half [his] chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of [his] house in Tirzah. 16:10] And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

16:11] And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, [that] he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. 16:12] Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, 16:13] For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. 16:14] Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16:15] In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people [were] encamped against Gibbethon, which [belonged] to the Philistines. 16:16] And the people [that were] encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king; wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. 16:17] And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. 16:18] And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king’s house, and burnt the king’s house after him with fire, and died. 16:19] For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. 16:20] Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16:21] Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. 16:22] But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

16:23] In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah. 16:24] And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria.

16:25] But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that [were] before him. 16:26] For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. 16:27] Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? [16:28] So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

[16:29] And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. [16:30] And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that [were] before him. [16:31] And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. [16:32] And he heared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. [16:33] And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

[16:34] In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest [son] Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

[17:1] And Elijah the Tishbite, [who was] of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, [As] the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word. [17:2] And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, [17:3] Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that [is] before Jordan. [17:4] And it shall be, [that] thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there. [17:5] So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that [is] before Jordan. [17:6] And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. [17:7] And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

[17:8] And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, [17:9] Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which [belongeth] to Sidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustaine thee. [17:10] So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman [was] there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. [17:11] And as she was going to fetch [it] he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread. And she said, As [the] LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. [17:13] And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go [and] do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring [it] unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son. [17:14] For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that [the] LORD sendeth rain upon the earth. [17:15] And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat [many] days. [17:16] [And] the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

[17:17] And it came to pass after these things, [that] the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him. [17:18] And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son? [17:19] And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed. [17:20] And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son? [17:21] And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child’s soul come into him again. [17:22] And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. [17:23] And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

[17:24] And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou [art] a man of God, [and] that the word of the LORD in thy mouth [is] truth.

[18:1] And it came to pass [after] many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth. [18:2] And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria. [18:3] And Ahab called Obadiah, which [was] the governor of [his] house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly: [18:4] For it was [so], when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifties in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) [18:5] And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts. [18:6] So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

[18:7] And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, [Art] thou that my lord Elijah? [18:8] And he answered him, I [am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah [is here.]] [18:9] And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? [18:10] [As] the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, [He is not [there;] he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not. [18:11] And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah [is here.]] [18:12] And it shall come to pass, [as soon as] I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth. [18:13] Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD’S prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? [18:14] And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah [is here.]] [18:15] And Elijah said, [As] the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day. [18:16] So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

[18:17] And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, [Art] thou he that troubleth Israel?
And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father’s house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim. {18:19} Now therefore send, [and] gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel’s table. {18:20} So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. {18:21} And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. {18:22} Then said Elijah unto the people, I, [even] I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal’s prophets [are] four hundred and fifty men. {18:23} Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay [it] on wood, and put no fire [under:] and I will dress the other bullock, and lay [it] on wood, and put no fire [under:]

[18:24] And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, him let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken. {18:25} And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress [it] first; for ye [are] many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire [under:]

[18:26] And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed [it,] and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But [there was] no voice, nor any answer. They leaped upon the altar which was made. {18:27} And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he [is] a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, [or] peradventure he sleepeth, or he is heavy awaked. {18:28} And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them. {18:29} And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the [time] of the offering of the [evening] sacrifice, that [there was] neither voice, nor any answer, nor any that regarded. {18:30} And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD [that was] broken down. {18:31} And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name: {18:32} And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

[18:33] And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid [him] on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour [it] on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. {18:34} And he said, Do [it] the second time. And they did [it] the second time. And he said, Do [it] the third time. And they did [it] the third time. {18:35} And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water. {18:36} And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the [evening] sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and [that] I [am] thy servant, and [that] I have done all these things at thy word. {18:37} Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou [art] the LORD God, and [that] thou hast turned their heart back again. {18:38} Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stone, and dust, and licked up the water that [was] in the trench. {18:39} And when all the people saw [it] they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he [is] the God; the LORD, he [is] the God. {18:40} And Elijah said unto them, Take the thy prophets with the sword; and I, [even] I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. {19:15} And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazael [to be] king over Syria; {19:16} And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint [to be] king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint [to be] prophet in thy room. {19:17} And it shall come to pass, [that] him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. {19:18} Yet I have left [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

{19:19} So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who [was] plowing [with] twelve yoke [of oxen] before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him. {19:20} And he lef the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. {19:21} And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

{20:1} And Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and [there were] thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it. {20:2} And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad, {20:3} Thy silver and thy gold [is] mine; thy wives also and thy children, [even] the goodliest, [are] mine. {20:4} And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I [am] thine, and all that I have. {20:5} And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children; {20:6} Yet I will send my servants unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children: {20:7} Then the king of Israel called all the elders and the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this [man] seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not. {20:8} And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not [unto him], nor consent. {20:9} Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again. {20:10} And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me. {20:11} And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell [him], Let not him that girdeth on [his harness] boast himself as he that putteth it off. {20:12} And it came to pass, when [Ben-hadad] heard this message, as he [was] drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions,that he said unto his servants, Set [yourselves in array.] And they set [themselves in array] against the city.

{20:13} And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I [am] the LORD.
the chariot. [20:34] And [Ben-hadad] said unto him, The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then [said Ahab,] I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

[20:35] And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. [20:36] Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him. [20:37] Then he found another man, and said, Smite me. I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that as smiting he wounded him. [20:38] So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face. [20:39] And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king; and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver. [20:40] And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So [shall] thy judgment [be;] thyself hast decided it. [(20:41)] And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he [was] of the prophets. [20:42] And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of [thy] hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. [20:43] And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

[21:1] And it came to pass after these things, [that] Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which [was] in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. [21:2] And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it [is] near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it [is] near unto my house: and I will give thee the inheritance of my fathers. [21:3] And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee. [21:4] And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

[21:5] But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread? [21:6] And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee [another] vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard. [21:7] And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, [and] eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. [21:8] So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name, and sealed them [with] his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that [were] in his city, dwelling with Naboth. [21:9] And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people: [21:10] And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And [then] carry him out, and stone him, that he may die. [21:11] And the men of his city, [even] the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, [and] as it [was] written in the letters which she had sent unto them. [21:12] They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. [21:13] And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, [even] against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died. [21:14] Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

[21:15] And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead. [21:16] And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

[21:17] And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, [21:18] Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which [is] in Samaria: behold, he [is] in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it. [21:19] And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. [21:20] And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found [thee;] because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. [21:21] Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel, [21:22] And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked [me] to anger, and made Israel to sin. [21:23] And of Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel. [21:24] Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

[21:25] But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. [21:26] And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all [things] as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. [21:27] And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. [21:28] And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, [21:29] Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: [but] in his son’s days will I bring the evil upon his house.

[22:1] And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. [22:2] And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. [22:3] And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead [is] ours, and we [be] still, [and] take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria? [22:4] And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth- gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I [am] as thou [art,] my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses. [22:5] And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day. [22:6] Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the LORD shall deliver [it] into the hand of the king. [22:7] And Jehoshaphat said, [Is there] not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him? [22:8] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, [There is] yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him: for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. [22:9] Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten [hither] Micaiah the son of Imlah. [22:10] And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. [22:11] And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Thus saith the king, Put this [fellow] in the prison, governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; [22:12] and to the king he said, What have ye to do here? and what hast thou to do in the king's gate? [22:13] And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets [declare] good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak [that which is] good. [22:14] And Micaiah said, [As] the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.

[22:15] So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and forbear: for the LORD shall deliver [it] into the hand of the king. [22:16] And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but [that which is] true in the name of the LORD? [22:17] And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace. [22:18] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? [22:19] And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. [22:20] And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. [22:21] And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him. [22:22] And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade [him,] and prevail also: go forth, and do so. [22:23] Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee. [22:24] But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? [22:25] And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself, [22:26] and the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son: [22:27] And say, Thus saith the king, Put this [fellow] in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. [22:28] And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you. [22:29] So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. [22:30] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. [22:31] But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel. [22:32] And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it [is] the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out. [22:33] And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it [was] not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. [22:34] And a [certain] man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot. Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded. [22:35] And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. [22:36] And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

[22:37] So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. [22:38] And [one] washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the word of the LORD which he spake. [22:39] Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? [22:40] So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

[22:41] And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. [22:42] Jehoshaphat [was] thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. [22:43] And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing [that which was] right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; [for] the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places. [22:44] And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. [22:45] Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [22:46] And the remnant of the sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land. [22:47] [There was] then no king in Edom: a deputy [was] king. [22:48] Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber. [22:49] Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.

[22:50] And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

[22:51] Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel. [22:52] And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin: {22:53}
For he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.
1:1 Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. 1:2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that [was] in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease. 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, [Is it] not because [there is] not a God in Israel, [that] ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? 1:4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed. 1:5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back? 1:6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [Is it] not because [there is] not a God in Israel, [that] ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. 1:7 And he said unto them, What manner of man [was he] which came up to meet you, and told you these words? 1:8 And they answered him, [He was] an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. 1:9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And the captain answered the king, saying, 1:10 [A]nd the king said unto him, What sawst thou? And he answered, [A]nd I saw, and, lo, the burning of the young men was burning in the cave, but there was no one tostäke it. 1:11 Then said he unto him, What then seest thou? 1:12 And he answered, [A]nd I saw, and, lo, a whistle was being blown by two of the king's messengers, and one of them was standing at the mouth of the cave, and the other stood at the mouth of the cave. 1:13 Then said he unto him, What then seest thou? 1:14 And he answered, [A]nd I saw, and, lo, a wheel was rolling in the middle of the rock, and it was filling up all the holes of the rock. 1:15 And when the king heard the words of the prophet, he sent a captain of the guard and his fifty with his fifty. And he said unto him, Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease. 1:16 And he said, [A]nd if I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there was no fire come down. 1:17 And he said unto the man of God, Why cometh there no fire? 1:18 And the man of God answered, [A]nd I prayed for thee, and the LORD hath heard my prayer. 1:19 And Elijah said unto him, Art thou here? 1:20 And he said, I am an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about my loins. 1:21 And he said, Art thou here? 1:22 And he answered, I am an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about my loins. 1:23 And the spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went out, and rent his clothes, and took his flesh, and he girded himself with a girdle of leather about his loins. 1:24 And he went out, and stood in an侵蚀於利沙，and said, [A]nd I beseech thee, O Lord, open his eyes, that he may see. 1:25 And the LORD opened the eyes of the captain of the guard, and he saw Eli`jah. 1:26 And the captain of the guard answered and said, What have I sinned against the LORD, that the LORD hath so dealt with me? 1:27 And he fell on his face to the earth, and said, [A]nd Lord, was it not according to my word? 1:28 [A]nd the Lord repented him of the evil, which he said. 1:29 And the angel of the LORD came upon Eli`jah, and said unto him, Arise, go up to ananad he said, [A]nd I beseech thee, let the LORD show me his servant, that I may know the commandment which the LORD hath commanded him. 1:30 And God said unto him, Go, ascend unto Bethel, and there I will meet thee, and I will give thee two bureaus, and thy servant shall also meet thee. 1:31 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of eating, that he rose, and went to Bethel. And the man of God went after him, and stood in the top of the hill. 1:32 And he said unto his servant, Haste thee, and go on before me; but I will come after thee. And he said unto him, I pray thee, let me, [A]nd I beseech thee, tarry here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. 1:33 And he said, [As] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. 1:34 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan. 1:35 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it [in] together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground. 1:36 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. 1:37 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: [nevertheless,] if thou see me [when I am] taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. 1:38 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, [there appeared] a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 1:39 And Elisha saw [it], and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with a whirlwind from Gilgal. 2:2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said [unto him, As] the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Bethel. 2:3 And the sons of the prophets that [were] at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know [it]; hold ye your peace. 2:4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, [As] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho. 2:5 And the sons of the prophets that [were] at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know [it]; hold ye your peace. 2:6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, [As] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on. 2:7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan. 2:8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it [in] together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground. 2:9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. 2:10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: [nevertheless,] if thou see me [when I am] taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. 2:11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, [there appeared] a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 2:12 And Elisha saw [it], and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces. 2:13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan; 2:14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where [is] the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over. 2:15 And when the sons of the prophets which [were] to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. 2:16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send. 2:17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not. 2:18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not? 2:19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city [is] pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water [is] naught, and the ground barren. 2:20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they bring [it] to him. 2:21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.} [2:22] So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

(2:23) And he went up from thence unto Bethel: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head. [2:24] And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them. [2:25] And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

[3:1] Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. [3:2] And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD: but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the image of Baal that his father had made. [3:3] Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

[3:4] And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool. [3:5] But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

[3:6] And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel. [3:7] And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I [am] as thou [art,] my people as thy people, [and] my horses as thy horses. [3:8] And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. [3:9] So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them. [3:10] And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hands of Moab! [3:11] But Jehoshaphat said, [Is there] not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here [is] Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah. [3:12] And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him. [3:13] And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, NAY: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hands of Moab. [3:14] And Elisha said, [As] the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, before whom I would not come down. [3:15] But now bring me a minstrel: And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him. [3:16] And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches. [3:17] For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye and your cattle, and your beasts. [3:18] And this is [but] a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. [3:19] And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. [3:20] And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

[3:21] And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border. [3:22] And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side [as] red as blood: [3:23] And they said, This [is] blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. [3:24] And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israellites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in [their] country. [3:25] And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about [it,] and smote it.

[3:26] And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through [even] unto the king of Edom: but they could not. [3:27] Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him [for] a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to [their own] land.

[4:1] Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen. [4:2] And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil. [4:3] Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, [even] empty vessels; borrow not a few. [4:4] And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. [4:5] So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought [the vessels] to her; and she poured out. [4:6] And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, [There is] not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. [4:7] Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

[4:8] And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where [was] a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, [that] as oft as he passed by, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head. [4:9] And Elisha said unto her, What hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a little oil. [4:10] Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, [even] empty vessels; borrow not a few. [4:11] And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full. [4:12] So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought [the vessels] to her; and she poured out. [4:13] And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, [There is] not a vessel more. And the oil stayed. [4:14] Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.
And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and [then] died.

And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] upon him, and went out.

And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? [it is] neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, [It shall be] well.

Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not [thy] riding for me, except I bid thee.

So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, [yonder is] that Shunammite: Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, [Is it] well with thee?

And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and said, O [thou] man of God, [there is] death in the land. And they could not eat [thereof].

But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast [it] into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat.

And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof.

And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

And his servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave [thereof].

So he set [it] before them, and they did eat, and left [thereof,] according to the word of the LORD.

Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, [but he was] a leper.

And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

And she went in, and fell at his feet, and said, My father, [is it] well with thy husband?

And Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul [is] vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid [it] from me, and hath not told me.

Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

And the mother of the child said, [As] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but [there was] neither voice, nor hearing.

Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.

And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, [and] laid upon his bed.

He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD.

And he went up, and laid upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her.

And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and [there was] a death in the land; and the sons of the prophets [were] sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe the pottage for the sons of the prophets.

And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred [them] into the pot of pottage: for they knew [them] not.

So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O [thou] man of God, [there is] death in the pot. And they could not eat [thereof].

But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast [it] into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat.

And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof.

And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

And his servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave [thereof].

So he set [it] before them, and they did eat, and left [thereof,] according to the word of the LORD.
saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

5:15 And he returned to the man of God, and he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that [there is] no God in all earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant. 5:16 But he said, [As] the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take [it]; but he refused. 5:17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. 5:18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, [that] when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing. 5:19 And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

5:20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, [as] the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. 5:21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw [him] running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, [Is] all well? 5:22 And he said, All [is] well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. 5:23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid [them] upon two of his servants; and they bare [them] before him. 5:24 And when he came to the tower, he took [them] from their hand, and bestowed [them] in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed. 5:25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence [comest thou,] Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither. 5:26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart [with thee,] when the man turned again from his charioteer to meet thee? [Is it] a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants? 5:27 The leprosy thereof of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper [as white] as snow.

5:19 And Elisha said unto them, This [is] not the way, neither [is] this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria. 5:20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these [men,] that they may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain [was] full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. 5:18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

6:1 And the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us. 6:2 Let us now, go we, pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye. 6:3 And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go. 6:4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood. 6:5 But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed. 6:6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast [it] in thither; and the iron did swim. 6:7 Therefore said he, Take [it] up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

6:8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place [shall be] my camp. 6:9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down. 6:10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice. 6:11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing: and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us [is] for the king of Israel? 6:12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that [is] in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber.

6:13 And he said, Go and spy where he [is,] that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, [he is] in Dothan. 6:14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about. 6:15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? 6:16 And he answered, Fear not: for they that [be] with us [are] more than they that [be] with them. 6:17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain [was] full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. 6:18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

6:19 And Elisha said unto them, This [is] not the way, neither [is] this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria. 6:20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these [men,] that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw: and, behold, [they were] in the midst of Samaria. 6:21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite [them?] shall I smite [them?] 6:22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite [them:] wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. 6:23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

6:24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria. 6:25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was [sold] for fourscore [pieces] of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five [pieces] of silver. 6:26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king. 6:27 And he said, If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress? 6:28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow. 6:29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said, Let us eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow. 6:30 And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, [he
7:1 Then Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To morrow about this time [shall] a measure of fine flour [be sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. 7:2 Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, [if] the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see [it] with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

7:3 And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die? 7:4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine [is] in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die. 7:5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, [there was] no man there. 7:6 For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, [even] the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Syria hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. 7:7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it [was], and fled for their life. 7:8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid [it]; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence [also,] and went and hid [it. ]

7:9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day [is] a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household. 7:10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, [there was] no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they [were. ] 7:11 And he called the porters; and they told [it] to the king's house within. 7:12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we [be] hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, We have come upon them, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die. 7:13 Now therefore come, and let us send and see. {7:14} They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. 7:15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way [was] full of garlands and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

7:16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was [sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

7:17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him. 7:18 And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria: 7:19 And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, [if] the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof. 7:20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

8:1 Then spake Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven years. 8:2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. 8:3 And it came to pass after seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land. 8:4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done. 8:5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. 8:6 And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this [is] the woman, and this [is] her son, whom Elisha restored to life. 8:7 And the king said, Restore all that [was] hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

8:8 Then spake Elisha unto Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick: and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither. 8:9 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? 8:10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die. 8:11 And he settled his countenance stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. 8:12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds thou wilt set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and their women with child. 8:13 And Hazael said, But what, [is] thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me that thou [shalt be] king over Syria. 8:14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me [that] thou shouldst surely recover. [8:15] And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped [it] in water, and spread [it] on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

[8:16] And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat [being] then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. [8:17] Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. [8:18] And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. [8:19] Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, because he kept the commandments of the LORD, to seek him with all his heart. [8:20] In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. [8:21] So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents. [8:22] Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. [8:23] And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the kings of Judah? [8:24] And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

[8:25] In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign. [8:26] Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name [was] Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel. [8:27] And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as [did] the house of Ahab: for he [was] the son in law of the house of Ahab.

[8:28] And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. [8:29] And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. [8:30] And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

[9:1] And Elisha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead: [9:2] And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber; [9:3] Then take the box of oil, and pour [it] on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

[9:4] So the young man, [even] the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. [9:5] And when he came, behold, the captains of the host [were] sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain. [9:6] And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, [even] over Israel. [9:7] And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood which of my servants the prophets, and all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. [9:8] For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel: [9:9] And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah: [9:10] And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and [there shall be] none to bury her.] And he opened the door, and fled.

[9:11] Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and [one] said unto him, [Is] all well? wherefore came this mad [fellow] to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication. [9:12] And they said, [It is] false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. [9:13] Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put [it] under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king. [9:14] So Joram the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. [9:15] But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be so, let him escape. [9:16] Then said the young man the prophet, which was gone to Ramoth-gilead, to Jehu, [Is it] peace? [9:17] So the watchman told, saying, He came to meet him. And Joram said, Is it peace? turn thee to the right hand, or to the left, and I will give thee an horseman to ride with thee. [9:18] And the watchman answered, [Is it] peace? turn thee to the right hand, or to the left, and I will give thee an horseman to ride with thee. [9:19] And he said, No; but I will turn back to my lord, against whom I am come: and I will speak word to him. And he said, Turn thee again, and [one] said unto him, [Is it] peace? and he said, No. [9:20] Then said the young man, I pray thee, let this cup of oil be given me, and let me go. And he said, Go. And he went out to the horsemen, and stood by the chariot. [9:21] And he said unto him, Turn thee again, and take the pale cup that I drank, and view the conditions of the people. [9:22] And they came and made ready, and stripped Joram, who lay in his chariot, and poured out the blood of Joram into the plain of Jezreel, and [there shall be] none to bury him. And they took Joram, and put him in the chariot of Joram his father, and they went to Jezreel. [9:23] And Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, and said, Alas, this is evil! for the kingdom shall be moved to Judah.

[9:24] And Jehu came to Jezreel. And Jehoshaphat the son of Jehoram king of Judah came out to meet him; and said to him, Is thy heart true to my heart, to walk after me according to all that I have done to thee? And Jehu answered, My heart is like thy heart, and my eyes like thy eyes. And he said, Let there be given unto me thine horse, and thine host, and thine chariots, and thine horsemen, to go against Joram. [9:25] And he said, Is it peace?回答: [Is it] peace? and they said, [Is it] peace. [9:26] And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his shoulders, and said, [There is] treachery, O Ahaziah. [9:27] Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, [and] cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him; [9:28] Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, when I clave the mouth of Naboth in his mouth, when I clave it in his mouth. Now therefore take [and] cast him into the plait [of ground,] according to the word of the LORD.

[9:29] But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw [this,] he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed 9:30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard [of it]; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. 9:31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, [Had] Zimri peace, who slew my master? 9:32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who [is] on my side? who? And there looked out to him two [or] three eunuchs. 9:33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and [some] of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot. 9:34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed [woman], and bury her: for she [is] a king's daughter. 9:35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of [her] hands. 9:36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This [is] the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel: 9:37 And the carcasse of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; [so] that they shall not say, This [is] Jezebel.

10:1 And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's [children,] saying, 10:2 Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, that [are] with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour; 10:3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set [him] on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. 10:4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? 10:5 And he that [was] over the house, and he that [was] over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up [of the children], sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou [that which is] good in thine eyes. 10:6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye [be] mine, and [if] ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, [being] seventy persons, [were] with the great men of the city, which brought them up. 10:7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him [them] to Jezreel.

10:8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. 10:9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye [be] righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? 10:10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done [that which] he spake by his servant Elijah. 10:11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

10:12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. [And] as he [was] at the shearing house in the way, 10:13 Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who [are] ye? And they answered, We [are] the brethren of Ahaziah: and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen. 10:14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, [even] two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

10:15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab [coming] to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart [is] with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give [me] thine hand. And he gave [him] his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. 10:16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot. 10:17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.

10:18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; [but] Jehu shall serve him much. 10:19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice [to do] to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did [it] in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. 10:20 And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed [it.]. 10:21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another. 10:22 And he said unto him that [was] over the guard, Have the guards set their posts, [both] before the house, and behind the house. 10:23 And they brought the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them. 10:24 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake the images out of the house of Baal. 10:25 And they brought the guard and the captains cast [them] out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. 10:26 And they brought forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. 10:27 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only. 10:28 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, [If] any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, [he that letteth him go,] his life [shall be] for the life of him. 10:29 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, [and] slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast [them] out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. 10:30 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them. 10:31 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day. 10:32 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

10:33 Howbeit [from] the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, [to wit,] the golden calves that [were] in Bethel, and that [were] in Dan. 10:34 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing [that which is] right in mine eyes, [and] hast hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that [was] in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. 10:35 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.
[10:32] In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel; [10:33] From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. [10:34] Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? [10:35] And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead. [10:36] And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel was twenty and eight years.

[11:1] And Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal. [11:2] But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons [which were] slain; and they hid him, [even] him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. [11:3] And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

[11:4] And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son. [11:5] And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house; [11:6] And a third part [shall be] at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down. [11:7] And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king. [11:8] And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in. [11:9] And the captains over the hundreds did according to all [things] that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. [11:10] And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD. [11:11] And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, [along] by the altar and the temple. [11:12] And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and [gave him] the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.

[11:13] And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard [and] of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD. [11:14] And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner [was], and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason. [11:15] But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. [11:16] And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

[11:17] And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people that should be the LORD's people; between the king also and the people. [11:18] And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. [11:19] And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the city in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword [beside] the king's house. [11:20] Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

[12:1] In the seventh year of Jehu Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Zibiah of Beer-sheba. [12:2] And Jehoash did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him. [12:3] But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

[12:4] And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, [even] the money of every one that passeth [the account,] the money that every man is set at, [and] all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD. [12:5] Let the priests take [it] to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found. [12:6] But it was [so,] that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. [12:7] Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the [other] priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no [more] money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house. [12:8] And the priests consented to receive no [more] money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house. [12:9] But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money [that was] brought into the house of the LORD. [12:10] And it was [so,] when they saw that [there was] much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD. [12:11] And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD. [12:12] And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair [it.] [12:13] Howbeit there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money [that was] brought into the house of the LORD: [12:14] But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD. [12:15] Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully. [12:16] The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.

| [14:8] Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoshaphat, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. [14:9] And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that [was] in Lebanon sent to the cedar that [was] in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and that [was] in Lebanon sent to the thistle that [was] in Syria, and said, Give me part of thy son to wife. [14:10] Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory [of this,] and tarry at home: for why shouldest thou meddle to [thy] hurt, that thou shouldest fall, [even] thou, and Judah with thee? [14:11] But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which [belonged] to Judah. {14:12} And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents. {14:13} And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits. {14:14} And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king’s house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

{14:15} Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? {14:16} And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

{14:17} And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. {14:18} And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? {14:19} Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: but they sent after him to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there. {14:20} And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

{14:21} And all the people of Judah took Azariah, which [was] sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. {14:22} He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

{14:23} In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, [and reigned] forty and one years. {14:24} And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. {14:25} He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which [was] of Gath-hepher. {14:26} For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, [that it was] very bitter: for [there was] not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel. {14:27} And the LORD said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

{14:28} Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, [which belonged] to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? {14:29} And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, [even] with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his stead.

{15:1} In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. {15:2} Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name [was] Jeholiah of Jerusalem. {15:3} And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done; {15:4} Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

{15:5} And the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house. And Jotham the king’s son [was] over the house, judging the people of the land. {15:6} And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? {15:7} So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

{15:8} In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah did Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months. {15:9} And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. {15:10} And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. {15:11} And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they [are] written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. {15:12} This [was] the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth [generation.] And so it came to pass.

{15:13} Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtyth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria. {15:14} For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead. {15:15} And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they [are] written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

{15:16} Then Menahem smote Tiphsah, and all that [were] therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not [to him;] therefore he smote [it; and] all the women therein that were with child he ripped up. {15:17} In the nine and thirtyth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, [and reigned] ten years in Samaria. {15:18} And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. {15:19} [And] Pul the king of Assyria came against the land: and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. {15:20} And Menahem exacted the money of Israel, [even] of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

{15:21} And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? {15:22} And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

{15:23} In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] two years. {15:24} And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. {15:25} But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in the palace of the king’s house, with Argob and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites; and he killed him, and reigned in his room. {15:26} And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they [are] written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
[15:27] In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel, in Samaria, [and reigned] twenty years. [15:28] And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. [15:29] In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria. [15:30] And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. [15:31] And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they [are] written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

[15:32] In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. [15:33] Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name [was] Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. [15:34] And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

[15:35] Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

[15:36] Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [15:37] In those days the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. [15:38] And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

[16:1] In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. [16:2] Twenty years old [was] Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name [was] Adal the daughter of Tabeel. [16:3] But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. [16:4] And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

[16:5] Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up against Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome [him]. [16:6] At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath and Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day. [16:7] So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I [am] thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me. [16:8] And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king’s house, and sent [it for] a present to the king of Assyria. [16:9] And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried [the people of] it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

[16:10] And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that [was] at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. [16:11] And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made [it] against king Ahaz came from Damascus. [16:12] And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon. [16:13] And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar. [16:14] And he brought also the brasen altar, which [was] before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar. [16:15] And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king’s burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me to enquire [by]. [16:16] Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

[16:17] And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brasen oxen that [were] under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones. [16:18] And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king’s entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

[16:19] Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [16:20] And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

[17:1] In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years. [17:2] And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

[17:3] Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents. [17:4] And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as [he had done] year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

[17:5] Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

[17:6] In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor [by] the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. [17:7] For [so] it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, [17:8] And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made. [17:9] And the children of Israel did secretly [those] things that [were] not right against the LORD their God, and they...
And they made their cities wherein they dwelt. {17:30} And the men of every nation made gods of their own, and put [them] in the houses of the high places, which were in every high hill, and under every green tree: {17:31} And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as [did] the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger: {17:12} For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing. {17:13} Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, [and] by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments [and] my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets. {17:14} Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God. {17:15} And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, [concerning] whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them. {17:16} And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, [even] two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. {17:17} And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. {17:18} Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. {17:19} Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. {17:20} And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. {17:21} For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. {17:22} For he rent Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

And the king of Assyria brought [men] from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed [them] in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof. {17:25} And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, [that] they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent them captivity out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, saying, Fear not other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: {17:26} But the LORD shall be feared, and shall be worshipped, and shall be dowered in the name of his holy name. {17:27} And the heaven above thee, and the earth beneath thee, shall not leave thee. {17:28} And he brought them out of the land of Egypt, and led them by a way wherethrough they had not come; and gave them possessions that were not theirs. {17:29} And he did to them as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

[18:1] Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, [that] Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. [18:2] Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign: and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also [was] Abi, the daughter of Zachariah. [18:3] And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

[18:4] He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. [18:5] He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [any] that were before him. [18:6] For he clave to the LORD, [and] departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, and the commandment which the LORD commanded Moses. [18:7] And the king of Assyria was with him; [and] he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not. [18:8] He smote the Philistines, [even] unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

[18:9] And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which [was] the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, [that] Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. [18:10] And at the end of three years they took it: [even] in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that [is] the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. [18:11] And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes: [18:12] Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, [and] all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear [them,] nor do [them.] [18:13] Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. (18:14) And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended: return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appoined unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. (18:15) And Hezekiah gave [him] all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king of Judah: (18:16) At that time did Hezekiah cut off [the gold from] the doors of the temple of the LORD, and [from] the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

(18:17) And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. (18:18) And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which [was] over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. (18:19) And Rab- shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? (18:20) Thou sayest, (but [they are but] vain words,) [I have] counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? (18:21) Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, [even] upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. (18:22) But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God; [is] not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? (18:23) Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. (18:24) How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? (18:25) Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. (18:26) Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand [it:] and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that [are] on the wall. (18:27) But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? [hath he] not [sent me] to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? (18:28) Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that [are] on the wall. (18:29) Thus saith the king, the king of Assyria: (18:29) Thus saith the king, the king of Assyria: (18:30) Neither let Hezekiah make thee trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. (18:31) Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make [an agreement] with me by a present, and come out to me, and [then] eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern; (18:32) Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. (18:33) Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? (18:34) Where [are] the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where [are] the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand? (18:35) Who [are] they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand? (18:36) But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. (18:37) Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which [was] over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with [their] clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

(19:1) And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard [it,] that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. (19:2) And he sent Eliakim, which [was] over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. (19:3) And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day [is] a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blaspemhy: for the children are come to the birth, and [there is] not strength to bring forth. (19:4) It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words which Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up [thy] prayer for the remnant that are left. (19:5) So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

(19:6) And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. (19:7) Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land: and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

(19:8) So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. (19:9) And when he heard of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee; he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying, (19:10) Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. (19:11) Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered? (19:12) Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; [as] Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which [were] in Thelasar? (19:13) Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

(19:14) And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. (19:15) And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest [between] the cherubims, thou art the God, [even] thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. (19:16) LORD, bow down thine ear, and hear: open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God. (19:17) Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands. [19:18] And have cast their gods into the fire: for they [were] no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. [19:19] Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou [art] the LORD God, [even] thou only.

[19:20] Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [That] which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard. [19:21] This [is] the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, [and] laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. [19:22] Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted [thy] voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? [even] against the Holy [One] of Israel. [19:23] By the messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar trees thereof, [and] the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, [and into] the forest of his Carmel. [19:24] I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places. [19:25] Hast thou not heard long ago [how] I have done it, [and] of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste fenced cities [into] ruinous heaps. [19:26] Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were [as] the grass of the field, and [as] the green herb, [as] the grass on the house tops, and [as] corn [that is] put to Grow before it be grown up. [19:27] But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. [19:28] Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn back the way by which thou camest. [19:29] And this [shall be] a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof. [19:30] And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. [19:31] For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD [of hosts] shall do this. [19:32] Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it. [19:33] By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD. [19:34] For I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.

[19:35] And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they [were] all dead corpses. [19:36] So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. [19:37] And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia. And Esar- haddon his son reigned in his stead.

[20:1] In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live. [20:2] Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying, [20:3] I beseech thee, O LORD, remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done [that which is] good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. [20:4] And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, [20:5] Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD. [20:6] And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. [20:7] And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid [it] on the boil, and he recovered.

[20:8] And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What [shall be] the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? [20:9] And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? [20:10] And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees. [20:11] And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz.

[20:12] At that time Berodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. [20:13] And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and [all] the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

[20:14] Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, [even] from Babylon. [20:15] And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All [the things] that [are] in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. [20:16] And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD. [20:17] Behold, the days come, that all that [is] in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. [20:18] And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. [20:19] Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not [good]? if peace and truth be in my days?

[20:20] And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the city, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [20:21] And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

[21:1] Manasseh [was] twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem.
his mother's name [was] Hephzi-bah. (21:2) And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. (21:3) For he built up again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. (21:4) And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem will I put my name. (21:5) And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. (21:6) And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke [him] to anger. (21:7) And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: (21:8) Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. (21:9) But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

(21:10) And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying, (21:11) Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, [and] hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which [were] before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols: (21:12) Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I [am] bringing [such] evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle. (21:13) And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as [a man] wipeth a dish, wiping [it,] and turning [it] upside down. (21:14) And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; (21:15) Because they have done [that which was] evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day. (21:16) Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD.

(21:17) Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, [are] not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? (21:18) And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

(21:19) Amon [was] twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. (21:20) And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh did. (21:21) And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them: (21:22) And he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

(21:23) And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house. (21:24) And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead. (21:25) Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, [are] not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? (21:26) And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

(22:1) Josiah [was] eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath. (22:2) And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

(22:3) And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, [that] the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, (22:4) Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people: (22:5) And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which [is] in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house, (22:6) Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house. (22:7) Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

(22:8) And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. (22:9) And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD. (22:10) And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. (22:11) And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes. (22:12) And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, (22:13) Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us. (22:14) So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college,) and they communed with her.

(22:15) And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, (22:16) Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, [even] all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read: (22:17) Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore shall I be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

(22:18) But to the king of Judah which sent you to enquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [As touching] the words which thou hast heard; [22:19] Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou hearest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me: I also have heard [thee,] saith the LORD. [22:20] Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

(23:1) And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. [23:2] And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

(23:3) And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all [their] heart and all [their] soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant. [23:4] And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Bethel. [23:5] And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the place round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, and the high places that [were] in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke [the LORD] to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. [23:20] And he slew all the priests of the high places that [were] there upon the altars, and burned men’s bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

(23:6) And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped [it] small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people. [23:7] And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that [were] by the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove. [23:8] And he brought out all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that [were] in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which [were] on a man’s left hand at the gate of the city. [23:9] Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren. [23:10] And he defiled Topheth, which [is] in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. [23:11] And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan- melech the chamberlain, which [was] in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire. [23:12] And the altars that [were] on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and brake [them] down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron. [23:13] And the high places that [were] before Jerusalem, which [were] on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile. [23:14] And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

(23:15) Moreover the altar that [was] at Bethel, [and] the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, [and] stamped [it] small to powder, and burned the grove. [23:16] And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that [were] there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned [them] upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. [23:17] Then he said, What title [is] that that I see? And the men of the city told him, [It is] the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Bethel. [23:18] And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria. [23:19] And all the houses also of the high places that [were] in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke [the LORD] to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. [23:20] And he slew all the priests of the high places that [were] there upon the altars, and burned men’s bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

(23:21) And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as [it is] written in the book of this covenant. [23:22] Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; [23:23] But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, [wherein] this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

(23:24) Moreover the [workers with] familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD. [23:25] And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there [any] like him.

(23:26) Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal. [23:27] And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there. [23:28] Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

(23:29) In his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo, when he had seen him. [23:30] And his servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father’s stead.
And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. (24:1) And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets. (24:2) Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did: (24:3) And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.

And Jehoiachin was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. (23:37) And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

And Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. (24:1) In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. (24:2) And the king of Babylon sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets. (24:3) Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did: (24:4) And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.

Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? (24:6) So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. (24:7) And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. (24:18) Jehoiachin was twenty and one year old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. (24:19) And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. (24:20) For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth [day] of the month, [that] Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about. (25:2) And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. (25:3) And on the ninth [day] of the [fourth] month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

And the city was broken up, and all the men of war [fled] by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which [is] by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees [were] against the city round about:) and [the king] went the way toward the plain. (25:5) And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him. (25:6) So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him. (25:7) And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

And in the fifth month, on the seventh [day] of the month, which [is] the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem: (25:9) And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great [man's] house burnt he with fire. (25:10) And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about. (25:11) Now the rest of the people [that were] left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away. (25:12) But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land [to be] vine dressers and husbandmen. (25:13) And the pillars of brass that [were] in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that [was] in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. (25:14) And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherein they ministered, in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees take. (25:15) And the firepans, and the bowls, [and] such things as [were] of gold, [in] gold, and of silver, [in] silver, the captain of the guard took away. (25:16) The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD:
the brass of all these vessels was without weight. {25:17} The height of the one pillar [was] eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it [was] brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathe work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathe work.

{25:18} And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door: {25:19} And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the king’s presence, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land [that were] found in the city: {25:20} And Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah: {25:21} And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

{25:22} And [as for] the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler. {25:23} And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. {25:24} And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you. {25:25} But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah. {25:26} And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

{25:27} And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth [day] of the month, [that] Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; {25:28} And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that [were] with him in Babylon; {25:29} And changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the days of his life. {25:30} And his allowance [was] a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily

The First Book of the Chronicles

{1:1} Adam, Sheth, Enosh, {1:2} Kenan, Mahalaleel, Jered, {1:3} Henoch, Methuselah, Lamech, {1:4} Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

{1:5} The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. {1:6} And the sons of Gomer; Ashchenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah. {1:7} And the sons of Javan; Elisshah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

{1:8} The sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. {1:9} And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan. {1:10} And Cush begat Nimrod; he began to be mighty upon the earth. {1:11} And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim. {1:12} And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (of whom came the Philistines,) and Caphtorim. {1:13} And Canaan begat Zidon his firstborn, and Heth. {1:14} The Jebusite also, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite, {1:15} And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, {1:16} And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite.

{1:17} The sons of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Meshech. {1:18} And Arphaxad begat Shelah, and Shelah begat Eber. {1:19} And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one [was] Peleg; because in his days the earth was divided: and his brother's name [was] Joktan.

{1:20} And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, {1:21} Hadoram also, and Uzal, and Diklah, {1:22} And Ebal, and Abimael, and Sheba, {1:23} And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All these [were] the sons of Joktan.

{1:24} Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah, {1:25} Eber, Peleg, Reu, {1:26} Serug, Nahor, Terah, {1:27} Abram; the same [is] Abraham. {1:28} The sons of Abraham; Isaac, and Ishmael.

{1:29} These [are] their generations: The firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, {1:30} Mishma and Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Tema, {1:31} Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.

{1:32} Now the sons of Keturah, Abraham’s concubine; she bare Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan; Sheba, and Dedan. {1:33} And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Henoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these [are] the sons of Keturah. {1:34} And Abraham begat Isaac. The sons of Isaac; Esau and Israel.

{1:35} The sons of Esau; Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jalam, and Korah. {1:36} The sons of Eliphaz; Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. {1:37} The sons of Reuel; Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. {1:38} And the sons of Seir; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezar, and Dishan. {1:39} And the sons of Lotan; Hori, and Homam; and Timna [was] Lotan’s sister. {1:40} The sons of Shobal; Alian, and Manahath, and Ethal, and Shpeli, and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon; Aiah, and Anah. {1:41} The sons of Anah; Dishon. And the sons of Dishon; Amram, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. {1:42} The sons of Ezer; Bilhan, and Zavan, [and] Jakan. The sons of Dishan; Uz, and Aran.

{1:43} Now these [are] the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before [any] king reigned over the children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city [was] Dinhabah. {1:44} And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead. {1:45} And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. {1:46} And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, which smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city [was] Avith. {1:47} And when Hadad was dead, Salmah of Masrekah reigned in his stead. {1:48} And when Salmah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead. {1:49} And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead. {1:50} And when Baal-hanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city [was] Pae; and his wife’s name [was] Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

{1:51} Hadad died also. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke Aliah, duke Jetheth, {1:52} Duke Aholibamah, duke Elishah, duke Pinon, {1:53} Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzabar, {1:54} Duke Magdiel, duke Iram. These [are] the dukes of Edom.

{2:1} These [are] the sons of Israel; Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun, {2:2} Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

{2:3} The sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah; [which] three were born unto him of the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD; and he slew him. {2:4} And Tamar his daughter in law bare him Pharez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah [were] five. {2:5} The sons of Pharez; Hezron, and Hamul. {2:6} And the sons of Zerah; Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara: five of them in all. {2:7} And the sons of Carmi; Achar, the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the thing accursed. {2:8} And the sons of Ethan; Azariah. {2:9} The sons also of Hezron, that were born unto him; Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai. {2:10} And Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Naasahn, prince of the children of Judah; {2:11} And Naasahn begot Salma, and Salma begot Boaz, {2:12} And Boaz begat Obed, and Obed begat Jesse, {2:13} And Jesse begat his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimma the third, {2:14} Nethaneel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, {2:15} Ozar the sixth, David the seventh: {2:16} Whose sisters [were] Zeruiah, and Abigail. And the sons of Zeruiah; Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three. {2:17} And Abigail bare Amasa; and the father of Amasa [was] Jether the Ishmeelite.

{2:18} And Caleb the son of Hezron begat [children] of Azubah [his] wife, and of Jerioth: her sons [are] these; Jesher, and Shobab, and Ardon. {2:19} And when Azubah was dead, Caleb took unto him Ephrath, which bare him Hur. {2:20} And Hur begat Uri, and Uri begat Bezaleel.

{2:21} And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he [was] threescore years old; and she bare him Segub. {2:22} And Segub begat Jair, who had three and twenty cities in the land of Gilead. {2:23} And he took Geshur, and Aram, with the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath, and the towns thereof, [seven] threescore cities. All these [belonged to] the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. {2:24} And after that Hezron was dead in Caleb-ephrahitah, then Abiah Hezron's wife bare him Ashur the father of Tekoa.

(2:25) And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were, Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, [and] Ahijah. (2:26) Jerahmeel had also another wife, whose name [was] Atarah; she [was] the mother of Onam. (2:27) And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were, Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. (2:28) And the sons of Onam were, Shammai, and Jada. And the sons of Shammai; Nadab, and Abishur. (2:29) And the name of the wife of Abishur [was] Abihail, and she bare him Ahban, and Molid. (2:30) And the sons of Nadab; Seled, and Appaim: but Seled died without children. (2:31) And the sons of Appaim; Ishi. And the sons of Ishi; Sheshan. And the children of Sheshan; Ahlai. (2:32) And the sons of Jada the brother of Shammai; Jether and Jonathan: and Jether died without children. (2:33) And the sons of Jonathan; Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

(2:34) Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. And Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name [was] Jarha. (2:35) And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant to wife; and she bare him Attai. (2:36) And Attai begat Nathan, and Nathan begat Zabad, (2:37) And Zabad begat Ephlal, and Ephlal begat Obed. (2:38) And Obed begat Jehu, and Jehu begat Azariah. (2:39) And Azariah begat Helez, and Helez begat Eleasah. (2:40) And Eleasah begat Sisamai, and Sisamai begat Shallum, (2:41) And Shallum begat Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begat Eliphas.

(2:42) Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were, Iru, and Elah, and Naamah. (2:43) And the sons of Hebron; Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema. And Shemah [was] a daughter of Shemah begat Raham, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema. (2:44) And Shemah begat Raham, the father of Jorkeam: and Rekem begat Shammai. (2:45) And the sons of Shammai [was] Maon: and Maon [was] the father of Beth-zur. (2:46) And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bare Haran, and Moza, and Gazez: and Haran begat Gazez. (2:47) And the sons of Jahdai; Regem, and Jotham, and Geshem, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph. (2:48) Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bare sheber, and Tirhanah. (2:49) She bare also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah, and the father of Gibea: and the daughter of Caleb [was] Achara.

(2:50) These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hezron, the firstborn of Ephrahitah; Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim: (2:51) Salma the father of Bethlehem, Hareph the father of Beth-gader. (2:52) And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons; Haroeh, [and] half of the Manahathites. (2:53) And the families of Kirjath-jearim; the Ithrites, and the Puhites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the Zareathites, and the Ezrathites. (2:54) The sons of Salma; Bethlehem, and the Netophathites, Ataroth, the house of Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites. (2:55) And the families of the scribes which dwelt at Jabez; the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, [and] Suchathites. These [are] the Kenites that came of Hemath, the father of the house of Rechab.

(3:1) Now these were the sons of David, which were born unto him in Hebron; the firstborn Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess; (3:2) The third, Absalom the son of Maachah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur: the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith: (3:3) The fifth, Shephatiah of Abital: the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife. (3:4) These six were born unto him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years. (3:5) And these were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel: (3:6) Ibar also, and Elisaham, and Eliphelet, (3:7) And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, (3:8) And Elisamah, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. (3:9) These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

(3:10) And Solomon's son [was] Rehoboam, Abia his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, (3:11) Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, (3:12) Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, (3:13) Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, (3:14) Amon his son, Josiah his son. (3:15) And the sons of Josiahi were, the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum. (3:16) And the sons of Jehoiakim; Jecoiach his son, Zedekiah his son.

(3:17) And the sons of Jecoiach; Assir, Salathieli his son, (3:18) Malchiram also, and Pedaiah, and Shenazar, Jecamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. (3:19) And the sons of Pedaiah were, Zerubbabel, and Shimei: and the sons of Zerubbabel; Meshullam, and Hananiah, and Shelomith their sister; (3:20) And Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushab-hesed, five. (3:21) And the sons of Hananiah; Pelatiah, and Jesahiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah. (3:22) And the sons of Shecaniah; Shemaiah; and the sons of Shemaiah; Hattush, and Igeal, and Baria, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six. (3:23) And the sons of Neariah; Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three. (3:24) And the sons of Elioenai were, Hodiai, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Dalkihi, and Anani, seven.

(4:1) The sons of Judah; Pharez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. (4:2) And Reiah the son of Shobal begat Jahath; and Jahath begat Ahumai and Lahad. These [are] the families of the Zorathites. (4:3) And these were [of] the father of Etam; Jezerel, and Ishma, and Idibash: and the name of their sister [was] Hazzeleponi. (4:4) And Penuel the father of Gedor and Ezer the father of Hushah. These [are] the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem.

(4:5) And Ashur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. (4:6) And Naarah bare him Ahuzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These [were] the sons of Naarah. (4:7) And the sons of Helah were, Zereth, and Jezoor, and Ethnan. (4:8) And Coz begat Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

(4:9) And Jabez was more honourable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow. (4:10) And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep [me] from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested.

(4:11) And Chelub the brother of Shuah begat Mehir, which [was] the father of Eshton. (4:12) And Eshton begat Beth-rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash. These [are] the men of Rechab. (4:13) And the sons of Kenaz; Othniel, and Seriah: and the sons of Othniel; Hathath. (4:14) And Meonothai begat Ophrah; and Seriah begat Joab, the father of the valley of Charashim; for they were craftsmen. (4:15) And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh; Iru, Elah, and Naam: and the sons of Elah, even Kenaz. (4:16) And the sons of Jehalleleel; Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asareel. (4:17) And the sons of Ezra [were,] Jether, and Mered, and Ephah, and Jalon: and she bare Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishhah the father of Eshtemoa. (4:18) And his wife Jehudijah bare Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these [are] the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, which Mered took. (4:19) And the sons of [his] wife Hodiah the sister of Naham, the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maachathite. (4:20) And the sons of Shemiramoth [were,] Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi [were,] Zoheth, and Ben-zoheth.

(4:21) The sons of Shelah the son of Judah [were,] Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Maresah, and the families of the house of them that were brought fine linen, of the house of Asheva, (4:22) And Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had the dominion in Moab, and Jeshub-lehem. And [these are] ancient things. (4:23) These [were] the potters, and those that dwelt among plants and hedges: there they dwelt with the king for his work.

(4:24) The sons of Simeon [were,] Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, [and] Shaul: (4:25) Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. (4:26) And the sons of Mishma; Hamuel his son, Zachur his son, Shimei his son. (4:27) And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brethren had not many children, neither did all their family multiply, like to the children of Judah. (4:28) And they dwelt at Beer-sheba, and Moladah, and Hazar-shual, (4:29) And at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, (4:30) And at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag, (4:31) And at Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susim, and at Beth-birei, and at Shaaraim. These [were] their cities unto the reign of David. (4:32) And their villages [were,] Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities: (4:33) And all their villages that [were] round about the same cities, unto Baal. These [were] their habitations, and their genealogy. (4:34) And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, (4:35) And Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, (4:36) And Elloeai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaijah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, (4:37) And Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jediah, the son of Shimi, the son of Shemaiah; (4:38) These mentioned by [their] names [were] princes in their families: and the house of their fathers increased greatly.

(4:39) And they went to the entrance of Gedor, [even] unto the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. (4:40) And they found fat pasture and good, and the land [was] wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for [they] of Ham had dwelt there of old. (4:41) And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and [these are] ancient things. (4:42) And one of them, [even] of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uziel, the sons of Ishi. (4:43) And they smote the rest of the Amalekites that were escaped, and dwelt there unto this day.

(5:1) Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel, (for he [was] the firstborn; but, forasmuch as he defiled his father’s bed, his birthright was given unto the sons of Joseph the son of Israel: and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. (5:2) For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him [came] the chief ruler; but the birthright [was] Joseph’s: (5:3) The sons, [I say,] of Reuben the firstborn of Israel [were,] Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. (5:4) The sons of Joel; Shemahia his son, Gog his son, Shimehi his son, (5:5) Micah his son, Reaia his son, Baal his son, (5:6) Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he [was] prince of the Reubenites. (5:7) And his brethren by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned, [were] the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, (5:8) And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even unto Nebo and Baal-meon: (5:9) And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. (5:10) And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand: and they dwelt in their tents throughout all the east land of Gilead.

(5:11) And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of Bashan unto Salchah: (5:12) Joel the chief, and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan. (5:13) And their brethren of the house of their fathers [were,] Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jachan, and Zia, and Heber, seven. (5:14) These [are] the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jarrah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz: (5:15) Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Gunni, chief of the house of their fathers. (5:16) And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders. (5:17) All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotam king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

(5:18) The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, [were] four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, that went out to the war. (5:19) And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and Nephish, and Nodab. (5:20) And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that [were] with them: for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they put their trust in him. (5:21) And they took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand. (5:22) For there fell down many slain, because the war [was] of God. And they dwelt in their steeds until the captivity.

(5:23) And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and Senir, and unto mount Hermon. (5:24) And these [were] the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephr, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremia, and Hodaviah, and Jahziel, mighty men of valour, famous men, [and] heads of the house of their fathers.

(5:25) And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. (5:26) And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them unto Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan, unto this day.
The sons of Levi; Gershom, Kohath, and Merari. (6:1) And these [are] the names of the sons of Gershom; Libni, and Shimei. (6:18) And the sons of Kohath were, Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. (6:19) The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. And these [are] the families of the Levites according to their fathers. (6:20) Of Gershon; Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, Joel his son, Shimei his son, Shaphat his son, and Haldai his son. (6:22) The sons of Kohath; Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Asir his son, Uzziel his son. (6:23) Elkanah his son, and Abiasaph his son, and Asir his son. (6:24) Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzzia his son, and Shaul his son. (6:25) And the sons of Elkanah; Amasai, and Ahimoth. (6:26) [As for] Elkanah: the sons of Elkanah; Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Jeshaiah his son, and Amiasai his son, and Zechariah his son. (6:27) And these [are] they that waited with their children. Of the sons of Kohath; Heman a singer, the son of Joel, the son of Zerahiah, the son of Shimei, the son of Mushi, the son of Shamer, the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer. (6:47) The son of Mahli, the son of Musli, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. (6:48) Their brethren also the Levites [were] appointed unto all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of God. (6:49) But Aaron and his sons offered upon the altar of the burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, [and were appointed] for all the work of the [place] most holy, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. (6:50) And these [are] the sons of Aaron; Eliel his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, Zerahiah his son, and Zadok his son. (6:51) And these [are] the sons of Zadok; Ethan his son, and Hasabiah his son, and Phinnues his son. (6:52) And the sons of Merari; Meraioth his son, and Amariah his son, and Sheraias his son, and Jahath his son. (6:53) And these [are] the sons of Gershom; Libni his son, Zimri his son, Haldai his son, Shimei his son, Libni his son, and Shaphat his son, and Haldai his son. (6:54) Now these [are] their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites for: theirs was the lot. (6:55) And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and the suburbs thereof round about it, (6:56) But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. (6:57) And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, [namely,] Hebron, [the city of] refuge, and Libnah with her suburbs, and Jattir and Eshtemoa, with their suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs. All their cities throughout their families [were] thirteen cities. (6:58) And unto the sons of Kohath, [which were] left of the family of that tribe, [were cities given] out of the half tribe, [namely, out of] the half [tribe] of Manasseh, by lot, ten cities. (6:59) And to the sons of Gershom throughout their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. (6:60) Unto the sons of Merari [were given] by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. (6:61) And the children of Israel gave to the Levites [these] cities with their suburbs. (6:62) And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities, which are called by [their] names. (6:66) And [the residue] of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their coasts out of the tribe of Ephraim. (6:67) And they gave unto them, [of] the cities of refuge, Shechem in mount Ephraim with her suburbs; [they gave] also Gezer with her suburbs, and Jokmeam with her suburbs, and Bethhoron with her suburbs. (6:68) And Aijalon with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs. (6:70) And out of the half tribe of Manasseh; Aner with her suburbs, and Bileam with her suburbs, for the family of the remnant of the sons of Kohath. (6:71) Unto the sons of Gershom [were given] out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, and Ashtaroth with her suburbs. (6:72) And out of the tribe of Issachar; Kedesh with her suburbs, Daberath with her suburbs, (6:73) And Ramoth with her suburbs, and Ander with her suburbs, (6:74) And out of the tribe of Asher; Mashal with her suburbs, and Abdon with her suburbs, (6:75) And Huok with her suburbs, and Rehib with her suburbs. (6:76) And out of the tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammon with her suburbs, and Kirjathaim with her suburbs. (6:77) Unto the children of Merari [were given] out of the tribe of Zebulon. Rimmon with her suburbs, Tabor with her suburbs: (6:78) And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of Jordan, [were given them] out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderess with her suburbs, and Jahzah with her suburbs, [6:79] Kidemoth also with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs; [6:80] And out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Mahanaim with her suburbs, [6:81] And Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs.

[7:1] Now the sons of Issachar [were,] Tola, and Puah, Jashub, and Shimron, four. [7:2] And the sons of Tola; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmi, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father’s house, [to wit,] of Tola:
[they were] valiant men of might in their generations;
whose number [was] in the days of David two and twenty and six hundred. [7:3] And the sons of Uzzit; Izraiah: and the sons of Izraiah; Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah, five; all of them chief men. [7:4] And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, [were] bands of soldiers for war, six and thirty thousand [men:] for they had many wives and sons. [7:5] And their brethren among all the families of Issachar [were] valiant men of might, reckoned in all by their genealogies fourscore and seven thousand.

[7:6] [The sons] of Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three. [7:7] And the sons of Bela; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri; five; heads of the house of [their] fathers, mighty men of valour; and were reckoned by their genealogies twenty and two thousand and thirty and four. [7:8] And the sons of Becher: Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elothai, and Omri, and Jeremoth, and Abiaah, and Anathoth, and Almeh. All these [are] the sons of Becher.
[7:9] And the number of them, after their genealogy by their generations, heads of the house of the fathers, mighty men of valour: [were] twenty thousand and two hundred. [7:10] The sons also of Jediael; Bilhan: and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharshish, and Abihshahar. [7:11] All these the sons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, [were] seventeen thousand and two hundred [soldiers,] fit to go out for war [and] battle. [7:12] Shuppim also, and Huppim, the children of Ir, [and] Hushim, the sons of Aher.

[7:13] The sons of Naphtali; Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

[7:14] The sons of Manasseh; Ashriel, whom she bare: [buth] his concubine the Aramites bare Machir the father of Gilead: [7:15] And Machir took to wife [the sister] of Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister’s name [was] Maachah;) and the name of the second [was] Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had daughters. [7:16] And Maachah the wife of Machir bare a son, and she called his name Persesh; and the name of his brother [was] Sheresh; and his sons [were] Ulam and Rakem. [7:17] And the sons of Ulam; Bedan. These [were] the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. [7:18] And his sister Hammoleketh bare Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah. [7:19] And the sons of Shemidah were, Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.

[7:20] And the sons of Ephraim; Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eladah his son, and Tahath his son,

[7:21] And Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Eldad, whom the men of Gath [that were] born in [that] land slew, because they came down to take away their cattle. [7:22] And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.

[7:23] And when he went in to his wife, she conceived, and bare a son, and he called his name Beriah, because it went evil with his house. [7:24] (And his daughter [was] Sherah, who built Beth-horon the nether, and the upper, and Uzen-sherah.) [7:25] And Rephah [was] his son, also Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, [7:26] Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, [7:27] Non his son, Jehoshua his son.

[7:28] And their possessions and habitations [were,] Bethel and the towns thereof, and eastward Gezer, with the towns thereof; Shechem also and the towns thereof, unto Gaza and the towns thereof: [7:29] And by the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth-shan and her towns, Taanach and her towns, Megiddo and her towns, Dor and her towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

[7:30] The sons of Asher; Imnah, and Isuah, and Ishuai, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. [7:31] And the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malchiel, who [is] the father of Birzavith. [7:32] And Heber begat Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister. [7:33] And the sons of Japhlet; Pasach, and Bimnah, and Ashvath. These [are] the children of Japhlet. [7:34] And the sons of Shemer; Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. [7:35] And the sons of his brother Helem; Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal. [7:36] The sons of Zophah; Suah, and Harneph, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, [7:37] Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma and Shilshah, and hithran, and Beera. [7:38] And the sons of Jether; Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara. [7:39] And the sons of Ulla; Arab, and Haman, and Rezia. [7:40] All these [were] the children of Asher, heads [of] their father’s house, choice [and] mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the genealogy of them that were apt to the war [and] to battle [was] twenty and six thousand men.

[8:1] Now Benjamin begat Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third, [8:2] Nobah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. [8:3] And the sons of Bela were, Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, [8:4] And Abishua, and Naaman, [8:6] And these [are] the sons of Ehud: these are the heads of of the fathers of the inhabitants of Geba, and they removed them to Manahath: [8:7] And Naaman, and Ahiah, and Gera, he removed them, and begat Uzza, and Ahihud. [8:8] And Shaharah begat [children] in the country of Moab, after he had sent them away; Hushim and Baara [were] his wives. [8:9] And he begat of Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcham, [8:10] And Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirra. These [were] his sons, heads of the [8:12] The sons of Elpaal; Eber, and Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono, and Lod, with the towns thereof: [8:13] Beriah also, and Shema, who [were] heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove away the inhabitants Zebadiah, and Arad, and Ader. [8:16] And Michael, and Ispah, and Joah, the sons of Beriah; [8:17] And Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hezeki, and Heber, [8:18] Ishmerai also, and Jezliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal; Eliena, and Zilthai, and Eliel, [8:21] And Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the sons of Shimhi; [8:22] And Ishpan, and Heber, and Eliel, [8:23] And Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, [8:24] And Hananiah, and Elam, and Antothijah, {8:25} And Iphedeiah, and Penuel, the sons of Shashak; {8:26} And Shamsheriah, and Sheariah, and Athaliah, {8:27} And Jaresiah, and Eliah, and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham. {8:28} These [were] heads of the fathers, by their generations, chief [men.] These dwelt in Jerusalem. {8:29} And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon; whose wife's name [was] Maachah: {8:30} And his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, {8:31} And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zacher. {8:32} And Mikloth begat Shimeah. And these also dwelt with their brethren in Jerusalem, over against them.

{8:33} And Ner begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal. {8:34} And the son of Jonathan [was] Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begat Micah. {8:35} And the sons of Micah [were,] Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. {8:36} And Ahaz begat Jehoadah; and Jehoadah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza, {8:37} And Moza begat Binea: Rapha [was] his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son: {8:38} And Azel had six sons, whose names [are] these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these [were] the sons of Azel. {8:39} And the sons of Eshek his brother were, Ulam his firstborn, Jehush the second, and Eliphelet the third. {8:40} And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, an hundred and fifty. All these [are] of the sons of Benjamin.

{9:1} So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they [were] written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, [who] were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

{9:2} Now the first inhabitants that [dwelt] in their possessions in their cities [were,] the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nethinims. {9:3} And in Jerusalem dwelt the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh; {9:4} Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah. {9:5} And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons. {9:6} And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety. {9:7} And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah, {9:8} And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephattiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; {9:9} And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these [were] chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

{9:10} And of the priests; Jediah, and Jehoiarib, and Jacin, {9:11} And Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God; {9:12} And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasiai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; {9:13} And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God. {9:14} And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merar; {9:15} And Bakbakkar, Hresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; {9:16} And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites. {9:17} And the porters [were,] Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum [was] the chief; {9:18} Who hitherto [waited] in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi. {9:19} And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, [were] over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers, [being] over the host of the LORD, [were] keepers of the entry. {9:20} And Phinehas has the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, [and] the Lord [was] with him. {9:21} [And] Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah [was] porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. {9:22} All these [which were] chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their set office. {9:23} So they and their children [had] the oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, [namely.] the house of the tabernacle, by wards. {9:24} In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. {9:25} And their brethren, [which were] in their villages, [were] to come after seven days from time to time with them. {9:26} For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in [their] set office, and were over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

{9:27} And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge [was] upon them, and the opening thereof every morning [pertained] to them. {9:28} And [certain] of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale. {9:29} [Some] of them also [were] appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. {9:30} And [some] of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices. {9:31} And Mattithiah, [one] of the Levites, who [was] the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the set office over the things that were made in the pans. {9:32} And [other] of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, [were] over the shewbread, to prepare [it] every sabbath. {9:33} And these [are] the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, [who remaining] in the chambers [were] free: for they were employed in that work day and night. {9:34} These chief fathers of the Levites [were] chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

{9:35} And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name [was] Maachah: {9:36} And his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, {9:37} And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. {9:38} And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren. {9:39} And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abinadab, and Esh-baal. {9:40} And the son of Jonathan [was] Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begat Micah. {9:41} And the sons of Micah [were,] Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz. {9:42} And Ahaz begat Jehovah; and Jehovah begat Ammoch, and Ammoch begat Eliphelet, and Eliphelet begat Asaph. {9:43} And Moza begat Binea: and Raphah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. {9:44} And Azel had six sons, whose names [are] these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these [were] the sons of Azel.

{10:1} Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. {10:2} And the Philistines followed after Saul; and as they followed after Saul, they followed after Jonathan, and all the mighty men of valour were gone before the Philistines. {10:3} And there was no armour to be had in all the land of Israel; for the Philistines did cast a great stone into the city, saying,uther.} hard after Saul, and after his sons: and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

{10:3} And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers. {10:4} Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith: lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not: for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it. {10:5} And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died. {10:6} So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together. {10:7} And when all the men of Israel that [were] in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

{10:8} And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa. {10:9} And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people. {10:10} And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

{10:11} And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, {10:12} They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

{10:13} So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, [even] against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking [counsel] of [one that had] a familiar spirit, to enquire of it: {10:14} And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

{11:1} Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we [are] thy bone and thy flesh. {11:2} And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou [wast] he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel. {11:3} Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to David unto Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

{11:4} And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which [is] Jebus; where the Jebusites [were,] the inhabitants of the land. {11:5} And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which [is] the city of David. {11:6} And David said, Whosoever smite the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah was the first: and he was chief. {11:7} And David dwelt in the castle; and he called it the city of David: for the LORD had chosen it to set forth his habitation there. {11:8} And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and therefore they called it the city of David. {11:9} And he built cities round about, and planted there vineyards; and he ordained there officers over all the stores thereof.

{11:10} These also [are] the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, [and] with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. {11:11} And this [is] the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, and Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain [by him] at one time. {11:12} And after him [was] Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who [was] one of the three mighty. {11:13} He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley: and the people fled from before the Philistines. {11:14} And they set themselves in the midst of [that] parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved [them] by a great deliverance.

{11:15} Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim. {11:16} And David [was] then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison [was] then at Bethlehem. {11:17} And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, that [is] at the gate! {11:18} And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that [was] by the gate, and took [it] and brought [it] to David: but David would not drink [of it], but poured it out to the LORD. {11:19} And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with [the jeopardy of] their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

{11:20} And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew [them,] and had a name among the three. {11:21} Of the three, he was more honourable than the two: for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the [first] three. {11:22} Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts: he slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day. {11:23} And he slew an Egyptian, a man of [great] stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian’s hand [was] a spear like a weaver’s beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and slew him with his own spear. {11:24} These [things] did Benaiah the son of Jehoiahd, and had the name among the three mighty. {11:25} Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the [first] three: and David set him over his guard.

{11:26} Also the valiant men of the armies were[,] Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, {11:27} Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, {11:28} Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tephonite, Abi-ezer the Antothite, {11:29} Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, {11:30} Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, {11:31} Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeon, [that pertained] to the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, {11:32} Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, {11:33} Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliabha the Shaalbonite, {11:34} The sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shage the Hararite, {11:35} Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur, {11:36} Hepher the Merarite, Ahiyah the Pelonite, {11:37} Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ebzei, {11:38} Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Haggeri, {11:39} Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Barothite, the armourbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah, {11:40} Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, {11:41} Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai, {11:42} Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, {11:43} Hanan the son of Maachah, and Josaphat the Mithnathite, {11:44} Uzzia the Asherathite, 1 Chronicles 12:1 Now these [are] they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they [were] among the mighty men, helpers of the war. 12:2 [They were] armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in [hurling] stones and [shooting] arrows out of a bow, [even] of Saul’s brethren of Benjamin. 12:3 The chief [was] Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite. 12:4 And Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabah the Gederathite, 12:5 Eluzzai, and Jeremoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, 12:6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites, 12:7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. 12:8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of might, [and] men of war [fit] for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces [were like] the faces of lions, and [were] as swift as the roes upon the mountains; 12:9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbani the eleventh. 12:14 These [were] of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least [was] over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. 12:15 These [are] they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflown all his banks; and they put to flight all [them] of the valleys, [both] toward the east, and toward the west. 12:16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David. 12:17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if [ye be come] to betray me to mine enemies, seeing [there is] no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look [thereon,] and rebuke [it. ] 12:18 Then the spirit came upon Amasa, [who was] chief of the captains, [and he said,] Thine [are] [we,] David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace [be] unto thee, and peace [be] to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. 12:19 And there fell [some] of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the spirit of the LORD was upon David, and upon his sword. 12:20 Then the LORD said unto David, Wherefore didst thou smite Uriah the Hittite, and kill him with the sword? 12:21 And David spake to Uriah the Hittite, saying, Go, number the substance of the children of Israel, and of Judah also: and take thee thither to David, and tell him all that is in thine heart. 12:22 And... 12:23 And these [are] the numbers of the bands [that were] ready armed to the war, [and] came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD. 12:24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear [were] six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war. 12:25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. 12:26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred. 12:27 And Jehoiada [was] the leader of the Aaronites, and with him [were] three thousand and seven hundred; 12:28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father’s house twenty and two captains. 12:29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. 12:30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers. 12:31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king. 12:32 And of the children of Issachar, [which were men] that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them [were] two hundred; and all their brethren [were] at their commandment. 12:33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank; [they were] not of double heart. 12:34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand. 12:35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred. 12:36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand. 12:37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand. 12:38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel [were] of one heart to make David king. 12:39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. 12:40 Moreover they that were nigh them, [even] unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, [and] meat, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for [there was] joy in Israel. 13:1 And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, [and] with every leader. 13:2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If [it seem] good unto you, and [that it be] of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren everywhere, [that are] left in all the land of Israel, and with them [also] to the priests and Levites [which are] in their cities [and] suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us: 13:3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul. 13:4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. 13:5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim. 13:6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, [that is,] to Kirjath-jearim, which [belonged] to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called [on it. ] 13:7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahiio drave the cart. 13:8 And David and all Israel played before God with all [their] music: and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. 13:9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. 13:10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God. {13:11} And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day. {13:12} And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God [home] to me? {13:13} So David brought not the ark [home] to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. {13:14} And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

{14:1} Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house. {14:2} And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

{14:3} And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters. {14:4} Now these [are] the names of [his] children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon. {14:5} And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet. {14:6} And Negheb, and Japhia, and Jemima, and Zaniab, and Shimei, and Shuah, and Ezer, and Yashua, and Eliphelet. {14:7} And Elishama, and Beeliah, and Eliphelet.

{14:8} And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard [of it,] and went out against them. {14:9} And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. {14:10} And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? and the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand. {14:11} So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken thine hand. {14:12} So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more before David; and David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire. {14:13} And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley. {14:14} Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. {14:15} And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, [that] then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines. {14:16} David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer. {14:17} The fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

{15:1} And [David] made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. {15:2} Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD for it a tent. {15:3} Then David gathered all Israel together to the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD for it a tent. {15:4} And David assembled the chief of the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto [the place that] I have chosen me a habitation for it. {15:5} And the children of the sons of Kohath; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty: {15:6} Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty: {15:7} Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty: {15:8} Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemariah the chief, and his brethren two hundred: {15:9} Of the sons of Hebron; Eliezer the chief, and his brethren fourscore; {15:10} Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve. {15:11} And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemariah and Eliel, and Amminadab, {15:12} And said unto them, Ye [are] the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, [both] ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto [the place that] I have prepared for it. {15:13} For because ye [did it] not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order. {15:14} So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. {15:15} And the ark of God remained over against the faces of the priests that ministered thereunto, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. {15:16} And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren [to be] the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy. {15:17} So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah: {15:18} And with them their brethren of the second [degree,] Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters. {15:19} So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, [were appointed] to sound with cymbals of brass; {15:20} And Zechariah, and Azriel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Almonoth. {15:21} And Mattithiah, and Elipheleth, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the shemiramoth. {15:22} And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, [was] for song; he instructed about the song, because he [was] skilful. {15:23} And Berechiah and Elkanah [were] doorkeepers for the ark. {15:24} And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah [were] doorkeepers for the ark.

{15:25} So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. {15:26} And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams. {15:27} And David [was] clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark: and there he died before God. {15:28} Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

{15:29} And it came to pass, [as] the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

{16:1} So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God. {16:2} And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. {16:3} And He dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon [of
Then on that day David delivered first [this psalm] to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren. [16:8] Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people. [16:9] Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works. [16:10] Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. [16:11] Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually, [16:12] Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth: [16:13] O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones. [16:14] He [is] the LORD our God; his judgments [are] in all the earth. [16:15] Be ye mindful always of his covenant; the word [which] he commanded to a thousand generations; [16:16] [Even] of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac; [16:17] And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, [and] to Israel [for] an everlasting covenant, [16:18] Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance; [16:19] When ye were but few, even a few, and strangers in it. [16:20] And [when] they went from nation to nation, and from [one] kingdom to another people; [16:21] He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes, [16:22] [Saying,] Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. [16:23] Sing unto the LORD, all the earth: shew forth from day to day his salvation. [16:24] Declare his glory among the heathen: his marvellous works among all nations. [16:25] For great [is] the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also [is] to be feared above all gods. [16:26] For all the gods of the people [are] idols: but the LORD made the heavens. [16:27] Glory and honour [are] in his presence; strength and gladness [are] in his place. [16:28] Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength. [16:29] Give unto the LORD the glory [due] unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. [16:30] Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved. [16:31] Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let [men] say among the nations, The LORD reigneth. [16:32] Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that [is] therein. [16:33] Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth. [16:34] O give thanks unto the LORD; for [he is] good; for his mercy [endureth] for ever. [16:35] And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, [and] glory in thy praise. [16:36] Blessed [be] the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day’s work required: [16:38] And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah [to be] porters: [16:39] And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that [was] at Gibeon, [16:40] To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually morning and evening, and [to do] according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel: [16:41] And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy [endureth] for ever; [16:42] And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun [were] porters, [16:43] And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.
servant’s sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. {17:20} O LORD, [there is] none like thee, neither [is there any] God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. {17:21} And what one nation in the earth [is] like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem [to be] his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terrableness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt? {17:22} For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God. {17:23} Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said. {17:24} Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts [is] the God of Israel, [even] a God to Israel: and [let] the house of David thy servant [be] established before thee. {17:25} For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found [in his heart] to pray before thee. {17:26} And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant: {17:27} Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and [it shall be] blessed for ever.

{18:1} Now after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines. {18:2} And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David’s servants, [and] brought gifts.

{18:3} And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates. {18:4} And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots. {18:5} And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men. {18:6} Then David put [garrisons] in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David’s servants, [and] brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went. {18:7} And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. {18:8} Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, whereby Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

{18:9} Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah; {18:10} He sent Hadoram his son to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had war with Tou;) and [with him] all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

{18:11} Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all [these] nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. {18:12} Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.

{18:13} And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David’s servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

{18:14} So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people. {18:15} And Joab the son Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahitub, recorder. {18:16} And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, [were] the priests; and Shavsha was scribe; {18:17} And Beniah the son of Jehoiada [was] over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David [were] chief about the king.

{19:1} Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead. {19:2} And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. {19:3} But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? {19:4} Wherefore Hanun took David’s servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away. {19:5} Then there went [certain,] and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and [then] return.

{19:6} And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah. {19:7} So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people: who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. {19:8} And when David heard [of it,] he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men. {19:9} And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come [were] by themselves in the field. {19:10} Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put [them] in array against the Syrians. {19:11} And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set [themselves] in array against the children of Ammon. {19:12} And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee. {19:13} Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do [that which is] good in his sight. {19:14} So Joab and the people that [were] with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him. {19:15} And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

{19:16} And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that [were] beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer [went] before them. {19:17} And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set [the battle] in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. {19:18} But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand [men which fought in] chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host. (19:19) And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

(20:1) And it came to pass, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out [to battle,] Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it. (20:2) And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and [there were] precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city. (20:3) And he brought out the people that [were] in it, and cut [them] with swords, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

(20:4) And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, [that was] of the children of the giant: and they were subdued. (20:5) And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff [was] like a weaver's beam. (20:6) And yet again there was war at Gath, where a man of [great] stature, whose fingers and toes [were] four and twenty, six [on each hand,] and six [on each foot:] and he also was the son of the giant. (20:7) But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him. (20:8) These were born of the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

(21:1) And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. (21:2) And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know [it. ] (21:3) And Joab answered, The king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

(21:5) And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all [they of] Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah [was] four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. (21:6) But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab. (21:7) And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. (21:8) And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; therefore he smote Israel. {21:8} And David said to Joab and unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

(21:9) And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying, (21:10) Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three [things:] choose thee one of them, that I may do [it] unto thee. (21:11) So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee (21:12) Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh [thee;] or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me. (21:13) And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great [are] his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

(21:14) So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. (21:15) And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. (21:16) And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders [of Israel, who were] clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. (21:17) And David said unto God, [Is it] not I [that] commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but [as for] these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

(21:18) Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. (21:19) And David went up to the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD. (21:20) And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. (21:21) And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with [his] face to the ground. (21:22) Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of [this] threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. (21:23) And Ornan said unto David, Take [it] to thee, and let my lord the king do [that which is] good in his eyes: lo, I give [thee] the oxen [also] for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all. (21:24) And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take [that] which [is] thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. (21:25) So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. (21:26) And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. (21:27) And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

(21:28) At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. (21:29) For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, [were] at that season in the high place at Gibeon. (21:30) But David could not go before it to anoint it; for the LORD had offered it, saying, There shall it be, and the tabernacle of the LORD shall be there evermore; for he knoweth how many together the stranglers that [were] in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God. (22:3)
And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight; (22:4) Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David. (22:5) And David said, Solomon my son [is] young and tender, and the house [that is] to be built for the LORD [must be] exceeding magnificil, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will [therefore] now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

(22:6) Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel. (22:7) And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God: (22:8) But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight. (22:9) Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. (22:10) He shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I [will be] his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever. (22:11) Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee. (22:12) Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God. (22:13) Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD thy God shall set forth before thee.

(22:14) Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD God of Israel. (22:15) Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD the hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and the fine flour for meat offering, and for the shewbread, and for [that which is baked in] the fire, and for all manner of holy drink offering, and for all manner of burnt offering unto the LORD. (22:16) Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, [there is] no number. Arise [therefore,] and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.

(22:17) David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, [saying,] (22:18) [Is] not the LORD your God with you? and hath he [not] given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people. (22:19) Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built unto the name of the LORD.

(23:1) So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

(23:2) And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. (23:3) Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand. (23:4) Of which, twenty and four thousand [were] to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand [were] officers and judges: (23:5) Moreover four thousand [were] porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, [said David,] to praise [therewith. (23:6) And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, [namely,] Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

(23:7) Of the Gershonites [were,] Laadan, and Shimei. (23:8) The sons of Laadan: the chief [was] Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three. (23:9) The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziel, and Hanan, three. These [were] the chief of the fathers of Laadan. (23:10) And the sons of Shimei [were,] Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four [were] the sons of Shimei. (23:11) And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to [their] father’s house.

(23:12) The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. (23:13) The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever. (23:14) Now [concerning] Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. (23:15) The sons of Moses [were,] Gershom, and Elizer. (23:16) Of the sons of Gershom, Shebuel [was] the chief. (23:17) And the sons of Elizer [were,] Rehabiah the chief. And Eliel had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. (23:18) Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith the chief. (23:19) Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. (23:20) Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

(23:21) The sons of Merari; Mahli, and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish. (23:22) And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their brethren the sons of Kish took them. (23:23) The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

(23:24) These [were] the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; [even] the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward. (23:25) For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever: (23:26) And also unto the Levites; they shall no [more] carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof. (23:27) For by the last words of David the Levites [were] numbered from twenty years old and above: (23:28) Because their office [was] to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God; (23:29) Both for the shewbread, and for the fine flour for meat offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for [that which is baked in] the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size; (23:30) And to stand every morning to bless in the name of the LORD. (23:31) And to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD in the morning and in the evening; (23:32) And to offer the shewbread on the Sabbath; (23:33) And to set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand [were] officers and judges: (23:34) Moreover four thousand [were] porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, [said David,] to praise [therewith. (23:35) And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, [namely,] Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. (24:2) But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. (24:3) And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service. (24:4) And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and [thus] were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar [there were] sixteen chief men of the house of [their] fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers. (24:5) Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors [of the house] of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. (24:6) And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, [one] of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and [before] the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and [one] taken for Ithamar. (24:7) Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jededia, (24:8) The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, (24:9) The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, (24:10) The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, (24:11) The ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, (24:12) The eleventh to Elissaph, the twelfth to Jakim, (24:13) The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, (24:14) The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, (24:15) The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses, (24:16) The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel, (24:17) The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, (24:18) The three and twentieth to Deliaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah. (24:19) These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

(24:20) And the rest of the sons of Levi [were these:] Of the sons of Amram; Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah. (24:21) Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Reuben, Jeduthun. (24:22) And the sons of Ezrokiah; Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath. (24:23) And the sons of Amariah; Zethan: of the sons of Amariah; Joel. (24:24) Of the sons of Izhar; Shelomith: of the sons of Shelomith; Reuben. (24:25) Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah: of the sons of Hebron; Uziel. (24:26) Of the sons of Gad; Simei: of the sons of Gad; Millo. (24:27) Of the sons of Judah: Shallum: of the sons of Judah; Amos. (24:28) Of the sons of Issachar: Shemuel: of the sons of Issachar; Jabez. (24:29) Of the sons of Benjamin: Joel: of the sons of Benjamin; Sibbecai. (24:30) Of the sons of Naphtali: Hoshea: of the sons of Naphtali; Job. (24:31) And the sons of the Levites were Nethaneel, and Zaccur, and Shimei. (24:32) And the sons of Ithamar; Johanan, and Shammua, and IshVI, and Habli, and Shammua, and Jedaiah, and Jambri. (24:33) Of the sons of Hananiah; Adeli, and Zedek, and Hezro, and Jadduea, and Jeremoth, and Shelemiah, and Shaphten. (24:34) Of the sons of Shaphan; Zedekiah, and Hananiah, and Karesh, and Hilkiah, and Helem, and Shelemiah, and Hilen, and Bebai. (24:35) Of the sons of Arah; Adaiah, and Zaccur, and Jashub, and Shalma, and Ahitub, and Zabad, and Maleath. (24:36) Of the sons of Hezro; Azarel, and Jerahmeel, and Shimei, and Obadiah, and Hanan, and Adaiah, and Jeshurul, and Zadok. (24:37) Of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, and Michael, and Jaeel, and Malchith, and Beribah, and Zabad, and Jeiel, and Jezeniah. (24:38) Of the sons of Bebai; Shillem, and Jaakim, and Malchiah, and Hattush, and Sheizen, and Jeremoth, and Meriah, and Shimei. (24:39) Of the sons of Harim; Selemiah, and Bela, and Zaccur, and Hattush, and Mijal, and Benaiah, and Zadok, and Hanan. (24:40) Of the sons of Gershon; Lael, and Zachariah, and Zaccur, and Shiphthai, and Reuel, and Abijah. (24:41) Of the sons of Shephatiah; Zedok, and Hattush. (24:42) Of the sons of Childiel; Shemuel, and Shishai. (24:43) Of the sons of Aminadab; Sushai, and Ahiman, and Seila, and0, and Jarebi, and Shelemiah, and Hushai, and Hanan. (24:44) Of the sons of Zaccur; Shashai, and Ahimoth, and Jehiel, and Meera, and Bilgah, and Seraiah, and Obed, and Helchiah. (24:45) Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Adelai, and Hellem, and Zabad, and Zaccur, and Shebaniah, and Ilki, and Hazbani, and Pahath-moab. (24:46) Of the sons of Hashum; Mattathai, and Mattenai, and Jeffrey, and Benaiah, and Bedeiah, and Zaccur, and Jereth. (24:47) Of the sons of Zabdi; Eliathaim, and Zaccur, and Shebiel, and Jashub, and Melat, and Joel, and Jeshua. (24:48) Of the sons of Becher; Shallum, and Uri, and Shallum, and描绘, and Zaccur, and Shembari, and心国, and Jotham. (24:49) Of the sons of Jediael; Zadok, and Sh何必, and Jozabad, and Jonathan, and Sareel, and Eleaser, and Jashur, and Imla, and Shemer, and Zadok, and Jonathan, and Shomer, and Vilai.
and Semachiah. {26:8} All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, [were] threescore and two of Obed-edom.

{26:9} And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen. {26:10} Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Simri the chief, (for [though] he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;) {26:11} Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah [were] thirteen. {26:12} Among these [were] the divisions of the porters, [even] among the chief men, [having] wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

{26:13} And they cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate. {26:14} And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. {26:15} To Obed- edom southward; and to his sons the house of Asuppim. {26:16} To Shuppim and Hosah [the lot came forth] westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward. {26:17} Eastward [were] six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Asuppim two [and] two. {26:18} At Parbar westward, four at the causeway, [and] two at Parbar. {26:19} These [are] the divisions of the porters among the sons of Kore, and among the sons of Merari.

{26:20} And of the Levites, Ahijah [was] over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things. {26:21} [As concerning] the sons of Laadan: the sons of the Gershonite Laadan, chief fathers, [even] of Laadan the Gershonite, [were] Jehiel. {26:22} The sons of Jehiel; Zetham, and Joel his brother, [which] were over the treasures of the house of the LORD. {26:23} Of the Amramites, [and] the Izharites, the Hebronites, [and] the Uzzielites: {26:24} And Shebuel the son of Gershon, the son of Moses, [was] ruler of the treasures. {26:25} And his brethren by Eliezer; Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaijah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son. {26:26} Which Shelomith and his brethren [were] over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated. {26:27} Out of the spoils won in battles did they dedicate to maintain the house of the LORD. {26:28} And all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated; [and] whosoever had dedicated [any thing, it was] under the hand of Shelomith, and of his brethren.

{26:29} Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons [were] for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. {26:30} [And] of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, [were] officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. {26:31} Among the Hebronites [was] Jerijah the chief, [even] among the Hebronites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of Gilead. {26:32} And his brethren, men of valour, [were] two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

{27:1} Now the children of Israel after their number, [to wit,] the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers that served the king in any matter of the courses, which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, of every course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:2} Over the first course for the first month [was] Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:3} Of the children of Perez [was] the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. {27:4} And over the course of the second month [was] Dodai an Ahohite, and of his course [was] Mikloth also the ruler: in his course likewise [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:5} The third captain of the host for the third month [was] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a chief priest: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:6} This [is that] Benaiah, [who was] mighty [among] the thirty, and above the thirty: and in his course [was] Ammizabad his son. {27:7} The fourth [captain] for the fourth month [was] Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:8} The fifth captain for the fifth month [was] Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:9} The sixth [captain] for the sixth month [was] Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:10} The seventh [captain] for the seventh month [was] Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:11} The eighth [captain] for the eighth month [was] Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:12} The ninth [captain] for the ninth month [was] Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:13} The tenth [captain] for the tenth month [was] Maharai the Netophathite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:14} The eleventh [captain] for the eleventh month [was] Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand. {27:15} The twelfth [captain] for the twelfth month [was] Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his course [were] twenty and four thousand.

{27:16} Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites [was] Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah: {27:17} Of the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: of the Aaronites, Zadok: {27:18} Of Judah, Elihu, [one] of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael: {27:19} Of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel: {27:20} Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedahiel: {27:21} Of the half [tribe] of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner: {27:22} Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These [were] the princes of the tribes of Israel.

{27:23} But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens. {27:24} Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath for it against Israel; neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

{27:25} And over the king's treasures [was] Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, [was] Jehonathan the son of Uzziah: {27:26} And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground [was] Ezri
the son of Chelub: {27:27} And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars [was] Zabdi the Shiphmite. {27:28} And over the olives trees and the sycomore trees that were in the low plains [was] Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil [was] Joash: {27:29} And over the herds that fed in Sharon [was] Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds [that were] in the valleys [was] Shaphat the son of Adlai: {27:30} Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses [was] Jehediah the Meronothite: {27:31} And over the flocks [was] Jaziz the Hagerite. All these [were] the rulers of the substance which [was] king David's. {27:32} Also Jonathan David's uncle was a counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni [was] with the king's sons: {27:33} And Ahithophel [was] the king's counsellor: and Hushai the Archite [was] the king's companion: {27:34} And after Ahithophel [was] Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the general of the king's army [was] Joab.

{28:1} And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem. {28:2} Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: [As for me,] I [had] in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building: {28:3} But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou [hast been] a man of war, and hast shed blood. {28:4} Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah [to be] the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make [me] king over all Israel: {28:5} And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. {28:6} And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him [to be] my son, and I will be his father. {28:7} Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day. {28:8} Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave [it] for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

{28:9} And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. {28:10} Take heed now: for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do [it].

{28:11} Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat, {28:12} And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things: {28:13} Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD. {28:14} He gave [of] gold by weight for [things] of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; [silver also] for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service: {28:15} Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, [both] for the candlestick, and [also] for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick. {28:16} And by weight [he gave] gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and [likewise] silver for the tables of silver: {28:17} Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basons [he gave gold] by weight for every basin; and [likewise] silver by weight for every basin of silver: {28:18} And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out [their wings,] and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. {28:19} All [this, said David,] the LORD made me understand in writing by [his] hand upon me, [even] all the works of this pattern. {28:20} And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do [it:] fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, [even] my God, [will be] with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. {28:21} And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, [even they shall be with thee] for all the service of the house of God: and [there shall be] with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people [will be] wholly at thy commandment.

{29:1} Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, [is yet] young and tender, and the work [is] great: for the palace [is] not for man, but for the LORD God. {29:2} Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for [things to be made] of gold, and the silver for [things] of silver, and the brass for [things] of brass, the iron for [things] of iron, and wood for [things] of wood; onyx stones, and [stones] to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. {29:3} Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, {29:4} [Even] three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses [withal]: {29:5} The gold for [things] of gold, and the silver for [things] of silver, and for all manner of work [to be made] by the hands of artificers. And who [then] is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

{29:6} Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly, {29:7} And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. {29:8} And they with whom [were] a trace of consecration, even they found [them] to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershomite. {29:9} Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David
Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed [be] thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. {29:11} Thine, O LORD, [is] the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all [that is] in the heaven and in the earth [is thine:] thine [is] the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. {29:12} Both riches and honour [come] of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand [is] power and might; and in thine hand [it is] to make great, and to give strength unto all. {29:13} Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. {29:14} But who [am] I, and what [is] my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things [come] of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. {29:15} For we [are] strangers before thee, and sojourners, as [were] all our fathers: our days on the earth [are] as a shadow, and [there is] none abiding. {29:16} O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name [cometh] of thine hand, and [is] all thine own. {29:17} I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee. {29:18} O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee: {29:19} And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all [these things,] and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision.

And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king. {29:21} And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, [even] a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, [and] a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel: {29:22} And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed [him] unto the LORD [to be] the chief governor, and Zadok [to be] priest. {29:23} Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. {29:24} And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king. {29:25} And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him [such] royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. {29:26} Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. {29:27} And the time that he reigned over Israel [was] forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three [years] reigned he in Jerusalem. {29:28} And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead. {29:29} Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they [are] written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer. {29:30} With all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the
And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God [was] with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

So Solomon, and all the congregation of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to [the place which] David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

And Solomon went up thither to the tabernacle altar before the LORD, which [was] at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, [that is so] great?

And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, neither yet hast asked abundant riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

Wisdom and knowledge [is] granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that [have been] before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

Then Solomon came [from his journey] to the high place that [was] at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem [as plenteous] as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that [are] in the vale for abundance.

And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants procured it at a price. And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out [horses] for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their means.

And Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, [even so do] with me.

Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate [it] to him, [and] to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This [is an ordinance] for ever to Israel.

And the house which I build [is] great: for great [is] our God above all gods.

But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who [am] I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to graven with the cunning men that [are] with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants [shall be] with thy servants,

Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build [shall be] wonderful great.

And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

Hiram said moreover, Blessed [be] the LORD God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David my father a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's.

The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father [was] a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, and the oil, and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in flets by sea to Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

And Solomon numbered all the strangers that [were] in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

And he set threescore and ten thousand of them [to be] bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand [to be] hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people a work.

Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, where [the LORD] appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

And he began to build in the second [day] of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

Now these [are the things wherein] Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure [was] threescore cubits, the breadth twenty cubits. (3:4) And the porch that [was] in the front [of the house,] the length [of it was] according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height [was] an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold. (3:5) And the greater house he cieled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains. (3:6) And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold [was] gold of Parvaim. (3:7) He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls. (3:8) And he made the most holy house, the length whereof [was] according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, [amounting] to six hundred talents. (3:9) And the weight of the nails [was] fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. (3:10) And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

(3:11) And the wings of the cherubims [were] twenty cubits long: one wing [of the one cherub was] five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing [was likewise] five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. (3:12) And [one] wing of the other cherub [was] five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing [was] five cubits [also,] joining to the wing of the other cherub. (3:13) The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces [were] inward.

(3:14) And he made the vail [of] blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon. (3:15) Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that [was] on the top of each of them [was] five cubits. (3:16) And he made chains, [as] in the oracle, and put [them] on the heads of the pillars: and made an hundred pomegranates, and put [them] on the chains. (3:17) And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

(4:1) Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

(4:2) Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. (4:3) And under it [was] the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen [were] cast, when it was cast. (4:4) It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea [was set] above upon them, and all their hinder parts [were] inward. (4:5) And the thickness of it [was] an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; [and] it received and held three thousand baths.

(4:6) He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea [was] for the priests to wash in. (4:7) And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set [them] in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. (4:8) He made also ten tables, and placed [them] in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred basons of gold.

(4:9) Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass. (4:10) And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south. (4:11) And Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basons. And Huram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God; (4:12) [To wit,] the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapiters [which were] on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which [were] on the top of the pillars; (4:13) And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapiters which [were] upon the pillars. (4:14) He made also bases, and lavers made he upon the bases; (4:15) One sea, and twelve oxen under it. (4:16) The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of bright brass. (4:17) In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah. (4:18) Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

(4:19) And Solomon made all the vessels that [were for] the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread [was set;] (4:20) Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold; (4:21) And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, [made he of] gold, [and] that perfect gold; (4:22) And the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers, [of fine pure gold: and the] vessels of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy [place,] and the doors of the house of the temple, [were] of gold.

(5:1) Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in [all] the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

(5:2) Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which [is] Zion. (5:3) Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which [was] in the seventh month. (5:4) And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark. (5:5) And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that [were] in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up. (5:6) Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude. (5:7) And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy [place, even] under the wings of the cherubims: (5:8) For the cherubims spread forth [their] wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above. (5:9) And they drew out the staves [of the ark,] that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle: but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day. (5:10) [There was] nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put [therein] at Horeb, when the LORD made [a covenant] with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.
[5:11] And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy [place:] (for all the priests [that were] present were sanctified, [and] did not [then] wait by course: [5:12] Also the Levites [which were] the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, [being] arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psaltery and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:) [5:13] It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers [were] as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up [their] voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, [saying,] For [he is] good; for his mercy [endureth] for ever: that [then] the house was filled with a cloud, [even] the house of the LORD; [5:14] So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

[6:1] Then said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. [6:2] But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever. [6:3] And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood. [6:4] And he said, Blessed [be] the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled [that] which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying, [6:5] Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel: [6:6] But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David my father to be over my people Israel. [6:7] Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. [6:8] But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. [6:9] Nevertheless the word of the LORD came to me, saying, [6:10] The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. [6:11] And in it have I put the ark, wherein [is] the covenant of the LORD, and all the spoils of the Amorites gathered together of the countries: [6:12] And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands: [6:13] For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven. [6:14] And said, O LORD God of Israel, [there is] no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and [shewest] mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts: [6:15] Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled [it] with thine hand, as [it is] this day. [6:16] Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying. There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. [6:17] Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

[6:18] But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built! [6:19] Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee: [6:20] That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place. [6:21] Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, [even] from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

[6:22] If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house: [6:23] Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

[6:24] And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house: [6:25] Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

[6:26] When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; [yet] if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them; [6:27] Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

[6:28] If there be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillers; if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness [there be]: [6:29] [Then] what prayer [or] what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house: [6:30] Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men:) [6:31] That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

[6:32] Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name’s sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house; [6:33] Then hear thou from the heavens, [even] from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as [doth] thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name. [6:34] If thy people go out to war against their enemies, and in whatsoever way they shall go out, and whatsoever way they shall come, and in whatsoever way thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name; [6:35] Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house. And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshiped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt. And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly; for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice. If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people: If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer [that is made] in this place. For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments; Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man [to be] ruler in Israel. But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them: Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it [to be] a proverb and a byword among all nations. And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house? And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it. And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath. Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars; And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon made in Judah and in Israel, Solomon dedicated to the LORD, and he hallowed the house of the LORD, that it was holy; and Solomon cause the song men, and the singing men, that were in the service of the LORD, to teach, and sing praises unto the LORD. And all the work of Solomon was prepared in great abundance: for the wisdom of God was in him. And solomon made all the stores of his house, the great storehouse, and the small storehouse, and the houses of the engines, and of the horseflesh, and of the of the dromedaries, and the storehouses for all manner of food and drink, and the olive oil, and the wine, and the oil in abundance. And he provided provision for all the host for thirty days, and for the storehouses, and for the store-houses, and for all manner of provision for all the house of Israel; For the LORD had given Israel abundant victual at that time. And he also made a very great fleet of ships of Tarshish; the enterprisers thereof saw no limit. And they came to Ophir, and brought gold from thence, and brought balm and spikenard. And the gold of Ophir was more in quantity than any that was brought in all the kingdom of Solomon. By ships they brought gold from Ophir, and brought in abundance balm and spikenard, and myrrh, and spices, and precious wood, and frankincense, and rubber, and horses, and mules. These were the ships that Solomon sent to Hiram out of the city of Ophir; for he sent every year six hundred talents of gold to Hiram. And Hiram sent in answer to Solomon, by the hand of his servants, ships, and masons, and carpenters. And they came and brought gold in abundance, and brought balm and spikenard, and spice, and frankincense, and rubber, and horses, and mules, and Solomon gave Hiram of all the oil that he had. For the king's vessels provided oil for light in the king's house for five Hundred measures of oil. And king Solomon increased exceedingly the host of servants for war, and for the work of the house of God, and for all that he purposed to do in the house of the LORD; as for all his works that he purposed to do, they were in all sorts fulfilled. Then Solomon likened unto the sea the great storehouse, and the house of the engines, and of the horseflesh, and of the of the dromedaries, and the storehouses for all manner of provision for all the house of Israel; And in the days of king Solomon, all the land of the kingdom of king David was quiet, because the LORD had given it peace. All king Solomon's work was exceeding abundant; for the king had more surpassing storehouse, and storehouses for the host, and storehouses for the horse, and storehouses for the dromedaries, and for store of victual, and store of oil, and store of wine, and store of honey, and for all manner of provision for all the host of king Solomon, and for all the hosts of all Israel, and for all manner provision for the house of the LORD.

For king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold, three hundred basins of beaten gold, which he put among the inner house of the temple; and the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. And the throne had six steps, and the seat of the kingdom, that was holy: and the sides thereof were filled with carvings of ivory, and coverings of fine gold. And the London brought no book of the prophet Samuel, nor of the prophet Isaiah, nor of any of the rest of the prophets. But the king commanded all the wise men of Judah and of Israel, and the scribes, and the ancients, and the captains of the army, and the captains of the LORD, and said unto them, To build an house for the name of the LORD, which is in Jerusalem. But the prophets, who were of the house of Samuel, said, What cannot Solomon do more than I? yet he hath not builded an house for the name of the LORD. Do not they charge a sum of five hundred shekels of silver for every man, when they offer incense on the altar, and they offer sweet incense? Yet the temple of God was not built in their days. And now therefore command that there be workmen with you, carvers of olive wood, and dwellers in the land of Naphtali, and the city of Zebulun, and the land of Isachar; And David thy servant. O LORD, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and thine ears attent unto the prayer [that is made] in this place. Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and thine ears attent unto the prayer [that is made] in this place. For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. And if they sin against thee, (for [there is] no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before [their] enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near; Yet [if] they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly: If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name: Then hear thou from the heavens, [even] from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.
offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, [even] in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

[8:14] And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the porters also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. [8:15] And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasuries. [8:16] Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the laying of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

[8:17] Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, at the sea side in the land of Edom. [8:18] And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and thirty talents of gold, and brought [them] to king Solomon.

[9:1] And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. [9:2] And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon him of all that was in her heart. [9:3] And when the queen of Sheba heard the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, [9:4] And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel; his cupbearers also, and their apparel; and his asent by which he went up into the house of the LORD: there was no more spirit in her. [9:5] And she said to the king, [It was] a true report which I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom: [9:6] Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen [it]: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: [for] thou exceedest the fame that I heard. [9:7] Happy [are] thy men, and happy [are] these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom. [9:8] Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, [to be] king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice. [9:9] And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon. [9:10] And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum trees and precious stones. [9:11] And the king made [of] the algum trees terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah. [9:12] And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside [that] which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

[9:13] Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold; [9:14] Beside [that which] chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

[9:15] And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred [shekels] of beaten gold went to one target. [9:16] And three hundred shields [made he of] beaten gold: three hundred [shekels] of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. [9:17] Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. [9:18] And [there were] six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, [which were] fastened to the throne, and stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays: [9:19] And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

[9:20] And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon [were of] gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon [were of] pure gold: none [were of] silver; it was [not] any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon. [9:21] For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. [9:22] And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

[9:23] And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. [9:24] And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

[9:25] And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen: whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

[9:26] And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. [9:27] And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the low plains in abundance. [9:28] And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

[9:29] Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, [are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat? [9:30] And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. [9:31] And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

[10:1] And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. [10:2] And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who [was] in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard [it] that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. [10:3] And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying, [10:4] Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee. [10:5] And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

[10:6] And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye [me] to return answer to this people? [10:7] And they spake unto him, saying, If thou show kindness to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever. [10:8] But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him. [10:9] And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us? [10:10] And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy; but make thou [it] somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little [finger] shall be thicker than my father’s loins. [10:11] For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I [will chastise you] with scorpions. [10:12] So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day. [10:13] And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, [10:14] And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I [will chastise you] with scorpions. [10:15] So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

[10:16] And when all Israel [saw] that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and [we have] none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: [and] now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents. [10:17] But [as for] the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. [10:18] Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that [was] over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to [his] chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. [10:19] And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

[11:1] And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen [men,] which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. [11:2] But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, [11:3] Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, [11:4] Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

[11:13] And the priests and the Levites that [were] in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts. [11:14] For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest’s office unto the LORD: [11:15] And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made. [11:16] And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers. [11:17] So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

[12:1] And it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him. [12:2] And it came to pass, [that] in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD. [12:3] With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people [were] without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubim, the Sukkiims, and the Ethiopians. [12:4] And he took the fenced cities which [pertained] to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

[12:5] Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and [to] the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak. [12:6] Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD [is] righteous. [12:7] And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; [therefore] I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. [12:8] Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries. [12:9] So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king’s house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made. [12:10] Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed [them] to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the charge of the king’s house. [12:11] And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber. [12:12] And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him. that he would not destroy [him] altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

{12:13} So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam [was] one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother’s name [was] Naamah an Ammonitess. {12:14} And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD. {12:15} Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, [are] not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And [there were] wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. {12:16} And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

{13:1} Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah. {13:2} He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name also [was] Michahiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. {13:3} And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, [even] four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, [being] mighty men of valour.

{13:4} And Abijah stood upon mount Zemaraim, which [is] in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel; {13:5} Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, [even] to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? {13:6} Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord. {13:7} And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them. {13:8} And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye [be] a great multitude, and [there are] with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods. {13:9} Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made ye priests after the manner of the nations of [other] lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, [the same] may be a priest of [them that are] no gods. {13:10} But as for us, the LORD [is] our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, [are] the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made ye priests after the manner of the nations: [are] the priests thou [art] our God; let not man prevail against thee. {13:11} And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the shewbread also [set they in order] upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him. {13:12} And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

{13:13} But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them; so they were before Judah, and the ambushment [was] behind them. {13:14} And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle [was] before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. {13:15} Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. {13:16} And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand. {13:17} And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. {13:18} Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers. {13:19} And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof. {13:20} Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.

{13:21} But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters. {13:22} And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, [are] written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

{14:1} So Abijah waxed mighty, and buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years. {14:2} And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: {14:3} For he took away the altars of the strange [gods,] and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves: {14:4} And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. {14:5} Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

{14:6} And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest. {14:7} Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make [them] walls, and towers, gates, and bars, [while] the land [is] yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, and have sought [him,] and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered. {14:8} And Asa had an army [of men] that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these [were] mighty men of valour.

{14:9} And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah. {14:10} Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. {14:11} And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, thou [art] our God; let not man prevail against thee. {14:12} So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. {14:13} And Asa and the people that [were] with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil. {14:14} And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them. {14:15} They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

{15:1} And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded: 15:2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. 15:3 Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. 15:4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them. 15:5 And in those times [there was] no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations [were] upon all the inhabitants of the countries. 15:6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity. 15:7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded. 15:8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that [was] before the porch of the LORD. 15:9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God [was] with him. 15:10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. 15:11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time, of the spoil [which] they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. 15:12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul: 15:13 That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. 15:14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. 15:15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

15:16 And also [concerning] Maachah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from [being] queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped [it] and burnt [it] at the brook Kidron. 15:17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

15:18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. 15:19 And there was no [more] war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

16:1 In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 16:2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and in to Asa king of Judah. 16:4 And Ben- hadad hearkened unto the counsel of Hadad, which was come up out of Syria, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali. 16:5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard [it], that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease. 16:6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

16:7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand. 16:8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a horrid host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand. 16:9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart [is] perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars. 16:10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for [he was] in a rage with him because of this [thing]. And Asa oppressed [some] of the people the same time.

16:11 And, behold, the acts of Asa, and first and last, lo, they [are] written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 16:12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease [was] exceeding [great]: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

16:13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. 16:14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds [of spices] prepared by the apothecaries’ art: and they made a very great burning for him.

17:1 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel. 17:2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. 17:3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim; 17:4 But sought to the [LORD] God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. 17:5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand: and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance. 17:6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

17:7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, [even] to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. 17:8 And with them [he sent] Levites, [even] Shemuaiah, and Nethaneiah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests. 17:9 And they taught in Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the LORD, but to the physicians.

17:10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that [were] round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. 17:11 Also [some] of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.
[18:4] And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day. [18:5] Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go up to Ramoth-gilead, or shall we forbear? [18:6] And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king’s hand. [18:7] But Jehoshaphat said, [Is there] not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him? [18:8] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, [There is] yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. [18:9] And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so. [18:10] And the king of Israel called for one of his officers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. [18:11] And the king of Israel gathered together of the prophets four hundred men, and said, Prophesy to me, O prophets, the battle that I go into with the king of Syria: shall I go, or shall I forbear? [18:12] And they said, Go up, and do so: for the LORD will deliver thee into the hand of the king of Syria. [18:13] And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil? [18:14] Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. [18:15] And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. [18:16] Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? [18:17] And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And [the LORD] said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do [even] so. [18:18] Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee. [18:19] Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? [18:20] And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself. [18:21] Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son; [18:22] And say, Thus saith the king, Put this [fellow] in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace. [18:23] And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, [then] hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people. [18:24] So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. [18:25] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go in to battle: but thou shalt stand at my side, and shalt say, [I pray thee] hear the words of the king. [18:26] And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, [Is there] not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him? [18:27] And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, [There is] yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. [18:28] And the king of Israel called for one of his drivers, and said, Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla. [18:29] And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil? [18:30] Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that [were] with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel. [18:31] And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It [is] the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them [to depart] from him. [18:32] And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, but evil? [18:33] And a [certain] man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariots man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded. [18:34] And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot, and said, Why have my people shewed me false report, that prophets have prophesied unto me good? [18:35] And the king of Israel said to his officers, Have ye not perceived how these people seek to entice me to go on the way of Ramah to battle? [18:36] And they took their king prisoner, and brought him forth, and bound him in chains, and brought him to the king of Syrie.
2 Chronicles

for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. (19:7) Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do [it:] for [there is] no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

(19:8) Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and [of] the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. (19:9) And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. (19:10) And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass. (19:11) And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebediah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king’s matters: also the Levites [shall be] officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good.

(20:1) It came to pass after this also, [that] the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them [other] beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. (20:2) Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they [be] Hazazon-tamar, which [is] En-gedi. (20:3) And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. (20:4) And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask [help] of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

(20:5) And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court. (20:6) And said, O LORD God of our fathers, [art] not thou God in heaven? and rulest [not] thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand [is there] not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee? (20:7) [Art] not thou our God, [who] didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever? (20:8) And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying, (20:9) If, [when] evil cometh upon us, [as] the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name [is] in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help. (20:10) And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not: (20:11) Behold, [I say, how] they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit. (20:12) O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes [are] upon thee. (20:13) And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

(20:14) Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Beniaiah, the son of Jehiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation; (20:15) And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat. Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle [is] not yours, but God’s. (20:16) To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel. (20:17) Ye shall not [need] to fight in this [battle:] set yourselves, stand ye [still,] and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: for the LORD [will be] with you. (20:18) And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with [his] face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. (20:19) And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

(20:20) And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah and, ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established: believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper. (20:21) And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy [endureth] for ever.

(20:22) And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten. (20:23) For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy [them:] and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another. (20:24) And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they [were] dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped. (20:25) And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

(20:26) And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called The valley of Berachah, unto this day. (20:27) Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies. (20:28) And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD. (20:29) And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of [those] countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. (20:30) So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.

(20:31) And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: [he was] thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name [was] Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. (20:32) And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD. (20:33) Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers. (20:34) Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they [are] written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zecariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these [were] the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram: because he [was] the firstborn.

Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and [divers] also of the princes of Israel.

Jehoram [was] thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought [that which was] evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Howbeit the LORD would not destroy Judah to his brother, because he had walked in the ways of the house of David, which were better than the ways of his father.

In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time [also] did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah [thereto].

And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father’s house, [which were] better than thyself:

Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that [were] near the Ethiopians:

And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king’s house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehohaz, the youngest of his sons.

And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

Moreover the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest.

So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

Forty and two years old [was] Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother’s name also [was] Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahab, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he [is] the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

But Jehosheba, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king’s sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehosheba, the daughter of the king, hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adnah, and Elieishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king’s son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David. (23:4) This [is] the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, [shall be] porters of the doors: (23:5) And a third part [shall be] at the king’s house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people [shall be] in the courts of the house of the LORD. (23:6) But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they [are] holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. (23:7) And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever [else] cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out. (23:8) So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go [out] on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses. (23:9) Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that [had been] king David’s, which [were] in the house of God. (23:10) And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about. (23:11) Then they brought out the king’s son, and put upon him the crown, and [gave him] the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.

(23:12) Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: (23:13) And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, Treason. (23:14) Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD. (23:15) So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the horse gate by the king’s house, they slew her there.

(23:16) And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD’S people. (23:17) Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. (23:18) Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as [it is] written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, [as it was ordained] by David. (23:19) And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none [which was] unclean in any thing should enter in. (23:20) And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king’s house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. (23:21) And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

(24:1) Joash [was] seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name also [was] Zibiah of Beer-sheba. (24:2) And Joash did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. (24:3) And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

(24:4) And it came to pass after this, [that] Joash was minded to repair the house of the LORD. (24:5) And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not. (24:6) And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, [according to the commandment] of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness? (24:7) For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim. (24:8) And at the king’s commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD. (24:9) And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection [that] Moses the servant of God [laid] upon Israel in the wilderness. (24:10) And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. (24:11) Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king’s office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that [there was] much money, the king’s scribe and the high priest’s officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. (24:12) And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD. (24:13) So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it. (24:14) And when they had finished [it,] they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, [even] vessels to minister, and to offer [withal,] and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

(24:15) But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died: an hundred and thirty years old [was he] when he died. (24:16) And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house. (24:17) Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance unto the king. Then the king hearkened unto them. (24:18) And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Israel in the wilderness. (24:19) And they sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. (24:20) And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you. (24:21) And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. (24:22) Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon [it.] and require [it.

][24:23] And it came to pass at the end of the year, [that] the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. (24:24) For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash. (24:25) And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

{24:26} And these are they that conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimmath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

{25:1} Amaziah [was] twenty and five years old [when] he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. (25:2) And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.

{25:3} Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. (25:4) But he slew not their children, but [did] as [it is] written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

{25:5} Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of [their] fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice [men, able] to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. (25:6) He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver. (25:7) But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD [is] not with Israel, [to wit, with] all the children of Ephraim. (25:8) But if thou wilt go, do [it,] be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down. (25:9) And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this. (25:10) Then Amaziah separated them, [to wit,] the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

{25:11} And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. (25:12) And [other] ten thousand [left] alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

{25:13} But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

{25:14} Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up [to be] his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. (25:15) Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? (25:16) And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that [the king] said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbade, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

{25:17} Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face. (25:18) And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that [was] in Lebanon sent to the cedar that [was] in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that [was] in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. (25:19) Thou saidst of Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thou hast lifted thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to [thine] hurt, that thou shouldst fall, [even] thou, and Judah with thee? (25:20) But Amaziah would not hear; for it [came] of God, that he might deliver them into the hand [of their enemies,] because they sought after the gods of Edom. (25:21) So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, [both] he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which [belongeth] to Judah. (25:22) And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. (25:24) And [he took] all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

{25:25} And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. (25:26) Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, [are] they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

{25:27} Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. (25:28) And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

{26:1} Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who [was] sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. (26:2) He built Eloth, and restored it to Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. (27:2) And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did. (27:3) He built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. (27:4) Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen [also,] and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry. (27:5) Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. (27:6) He made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong. (27:7) And the children of Ammon gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly. (27:8) And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which [belonged] to the fathers of the mighty men of valour. (27:9) And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.
against the LORD your God? [28:11] Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have made captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD [is] upon you. [28:12] Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, [28:13] And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD [already,] ye intend to add [more] to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and [there is] fierce wrath against Israel. [28:14] So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. [28:15] And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

[28:22] And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this [is that] king Ahaz. [28:23] For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, [therefore] will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. [28:24] And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. [28:25] And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

[28:26] Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they [are] written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. [28:27] And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, [even] in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

[29:1] Hezekiah began to reign [when he was] five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name [was] Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. [29:2] And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

[29:3] He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. [29:4] And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street, [29:5] And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy [place]. [29:6] For our fathers have trespassed, and done [that which was] evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned [their] backs. [29:7] Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy [place] unto the God of Israel. [29:8] Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes. [29:9] For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. [29:10] Now [it is] in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. [29:11] My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and burn incense.

[29:12] Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehaleel; and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah: [29:13] And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: [29:14] And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzzie. [29:15] And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came up with the instruments of burnt offering made of gold and silver, to offer burnt offerings in the holy [place] unto the God of Israel. [29:16] And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse [it,] and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took [it,] to carry [it] out abroad into the brook Kidron. [29:17] Now they began on the first [day] of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. [29:18] Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof. [29:19] Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they [are] before the altar of the LORD.

[29:20] Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. [29:21] And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer [them] on the altar of the LORD. [29:22] So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled [it] on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. [29:23] And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them: [29:24] And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded [that] the burnt offering and the sin offering [should be made] for all Israel. (29:25) And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king’s seer, and Nathan the prophet: for [so was] the commandment of the LORD by his prophets. (29:26) And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. (29:27) And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began [also] with the trumpets, and with the instruments [ordained] by David king of Israel. (29:28) And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: [and] all [this continued] until the burnt offering was finished. (29:29) And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. (29:30) Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. (29:31) Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings. (29:32) And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, [and] two hundred lambs: all these [were] for a burnt offering to the LORD. (29:33) And the consecrated things [were] six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. (29:34) But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren exhorted them, till the work was ended, and until the [other] priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. (29:35) And also the burnt offerings [were] in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for [every] burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. (29:36) And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was [done] suddenly.

(30:1) And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel. (30:2) For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month. (30:3) For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. (30:4) And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation. (30:5) So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done [it] of a long time [in such sort] as it was written. (30:6) So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. (30:7) And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, [who] therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see. (30:8) Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers [were, but] yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever, and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. (30:9) For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children [shall find] compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God [is] gracious and merciful, and will not turn away [his] face from you, if ye return unto him. (30:10) So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. (30:11) Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. (30:12) Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

(30:13) And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. (30:14) And they arose and took away the altars that [were] in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast [them] into the brook Kidron. (30:15) Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth [day] of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. (30:16) And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, [which they received] of the hand of the Levites. (30:17) For [there were] many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one [that was] not clean, to sanctify [them] unto the LORD. (30:18) For a multitude of the people, [even] many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one [30:19] [That] prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though [he be] not [cleansed] according to the purification of the sanctuary. (30:20) And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. (30:21) And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day. [singing] with loud instruments unto the LORD. (30:22) And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers. (30:23) And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept [other] seven days with gladness. (30:24) For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. (30:25) And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. (30:26) So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel [there was] not the like in Jerusalem.

(30:27) Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came [up] to his holy dwelling place, [even] unto heaven.
[31:1] Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

[31:2] And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. [31:3] He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, [to wit,] for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as [it is] written in the law of the LORD. [31:4] Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.

[31:5] And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all [things] brought they in abundantly. [31:6] And [concerning] the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid [them] by heaps. [31:7] In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished [them] in the seventh month. [31:8] And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel. [31:9] Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. [31:10] And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said. Since [the people] began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left [is] this great store.

[31:11] Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared [them,] [31:12] And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the law of the LORD. [31:13] And the sons of Aaron the priests, [which were] in the charge of the house of the LORD, did bring in the things of the Levites, every man according to his service, the priests and the Levites. [31:14] And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, [was] over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things. [31:15] And next him [were] Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, and Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in [their] set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small: [31:16] Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, [even] unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses: [31:17] Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and to the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses; [31:18] And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

[31:19] Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, [which were] in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, whose names were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

[31:20] And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought [that which was] good and right and truth before the LORD his God. [31:21] And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did [it] with all his heart, and prospered.

[31:22] After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself. [31:23] And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem, [31:24] He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which [were] without the city: and they did help him. [31:25] So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? [31:26] Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised [it] up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo [in] the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance. [31:27] And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, [31:28] Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for [there be] more with us than with him: [31:29] With him [is] an arm of flesh; but with us [is] the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

[31:30] After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he [himself laid siege] against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that [were] at Jerusalem, saying, [31:31] Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem? [31:32] Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? [31:33] Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it? [31:34] Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of [other] lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand? [31:35] Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? [31:36] Who [was there] among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand? [31:37] Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand? [31:38] And his servants spake yet [more] against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. [31:39] He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of [other] lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people. out of mine hand. {32:18} Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that [were] on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. {32:19} And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, [which were] the work of the hands of man. {32:20} And for this [cause] Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

{32:21} And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword. {32:22} Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all [other,] and guided them on every side. {32:23} And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

{32:24} In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign. {32:25} But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit [done] unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. {32:26} Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, [both] he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

{32:27} And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour; and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; {32:28} Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. {32:29} Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much. {32:30} This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

{32:31} Howbeit in [the business of] the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was [done] in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all [that was] in his heart.

{32:32} Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they [are] written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, [and] in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. {32:33} And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

{33:1} Manasseh [was] twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem: {33:2} But did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. {33:3} For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. {33:4} Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever. {33:5} And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. {33:6} And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. {33:7} And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: {33:8} Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. {33:9} So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, [and] to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel. {33:10} And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

{33:11} Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with feters, and carried him to Babylon. {33:12} And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, {33:13} And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he [was] God. {33:14} Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. {33:15} And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast [them] out of the city. {33:16} And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. {33:17} Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

{33:18} Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, [they are] written in the book of the kings of Israel. {33:19} His prayer also, and [how God] was intreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they [are] written among the sayings of the seers.

{33:20} So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

{33:21} Amon [was] two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem. {33:22} But he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD, as had Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them; {33:23} And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more. {33:24} And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

[33:25] But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

[34:1] Josiah [was] eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. [34:2] And he did [that which was] right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined [neither] to the right hand, nor to the left.

[34:3] For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. [34:4] And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that [were] on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust [of them,] and strewed [it] upon the graves of them that had sacrificed upon them. [34:5] And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. [34:6] And [so did he] in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about. [34:7] And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

[34:8] Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Johaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. [34:9] And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all that were gathered out of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem. [34:10] And they put [it] in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house: [34:11] Even to the artificers and builders gave they [it,] to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. [34:12] And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them [were] Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set [it] forward; and [other of] the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick. [34:13] Also [they were] over the bearers of burdens, and [were] overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites [there were] scribes, and officers, and porters.

[34:14] And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD [given] by Moses. [34:15] And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. [34:16] And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do [it.] [34:17] And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. [34:18] Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. [34:19] And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. [34:20] And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahia a servant of the king’s, saying, [34:21] Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great [is] the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book. [34:22] And Hilkiah, and [they] that the king [had appointed,] went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that [effect.

[34:23] And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me, [34:24] Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, [even] all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah: [34:25] Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. [34:26] And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel [concerning] the words which thou hast heard; [34:27] Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou hearest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard [thee] also, saith the LORD. [34:28] Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

[34:29] Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. [34:30] And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. [34:31] And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. [34:32] And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand [to it.] And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. [34:33] And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that [pertained] to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, [even] to serve the LORD their God. [And] all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

[35:1] Moreover Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem; and they killed the passover on the fourteenth [day] of the first month. [35:2] And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD. [35:3] And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; [it shall] not [be] a burden upon [your] shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel. [35:4] And prepare [yourselves] by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. [35:5] And stand in the holy [place] according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and [after] the division of the families of the Levites. [35:6] So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that [they] may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. [35:7] And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these [were] of the king’s substance. [35:8] And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred [small cattle,] and three hundred oxen. [35:9] Conaniah also, and Shemariah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand [small cattle,] and five hundred oxen. [35:10] So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king’s commandment. [35:11] And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled [the blood] from their hands, and the Levites flayed [them.] [35:12] And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as [it is] written in the book of Moses. And so [did they] with the oxen. [35:13] And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the [other] holy [offerings] sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided [them] speedily among all the people. [35:14] And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron [were busied] in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. [35:15] And the singers the sons of Asaph [were] in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king’s seer; and the porters [waited] at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. [35:16] So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. [35:17] And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. [35:18] And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [35:19] In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

[35:20] After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. [35:21] But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I done thee, thou king of Judah? [I come] not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from [meddling with] God, who [is] with me, that he destroy thee not. [35:22] Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. [35:23] And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. [35:24] His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in [one of] the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

[35:25] And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they [are] written in the lamentations. [35:26] Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to [that which was] written in the law of the LORD, [35:27] And his deeds, first and last, behold, they [are] written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

[36:1] Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father’s stead in Jerusalem. [36:2] Jehoahaz [was] twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. [36:3] And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

[36:4] And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt. [36:5] Jehoiakim [was] twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD his God. [36:6] Against him came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. [36:7] Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. [36:8] Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they [are] written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. [36:9] Jehoiachin [was] eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD. [36:10] And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

[36:11] Zedekiah [was] one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. [36:12] And he did [that which was] evil in the sight of the LORD his God, [and] humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet [speaking] from the mouth of the LORD. [36:13] And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

[36:14] Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. [36:15] And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: [36:16] But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till [there was] no remedy. {36:17} Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave [them] all into his hand. {36:18} And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all [these] he brought to Babylon. {36:19} And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. {36:20} And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: {36:21} To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: [for] as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

{36:22} Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD [spoken] by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and [put it] also in writing, saying, {36:23} Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which [is] in Judah. Who [is there] among you of all his people? The LORD his God [be] with him, and let

Ezra

[1:1] Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and [put it] also in writing, saying, [1:2] Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which [is] in Judah. [1:3] Who [is there] among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he [is the God,) which [is] in Jerusalem. [1:4] And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that [is] in Jerusalem.

[1:5] Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all [them] whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which [is] in Jerusalem. [1:6] And all they that [were] about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all [that] was willingly offered.

[1:7] Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods: [1:8] Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. [1:9] And this [is] the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives, [1:10] Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, [and] other vessels a thousand. [1:11] All the vessels of gold and of silver [were] five thousand and four hundred. All [these] did Sheshbazzar bring up with [them of] the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

[2:61] And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name: [2:62] These sought their register [among] those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. [2:63] And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.

[2:64] The whole congregation together [was] forty and two thousand three hundred [and] threescore. [2:65] Beside their servants and their maids, of whom [there were] seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and [there were] among them two hundred singing men and singing women. [2:66] Their horses [were] seven thousand thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; [2:67] Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; [their] asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

[2:68] And [some] of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which [is] at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in his place: [2:69] They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests garments. [2:70] So the priests, and the Levites, and [some] of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

[3:1] And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel [were] in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. [3:2] Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as [it is] written in the law of Moses the man of God. [3:3] And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear [was] upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, [even] burnt offerings morning and evening. [3:4] They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as [it is] written, and [offered] the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required; [3:5] And afterward [offered] the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. [3:6] From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not [yet] laid. [3:7] They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

[3:8] Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. [3:9] Then stood Jeshua [with] his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, [with] their sons and their brethren the Levites. [3:10] And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel. [3:11] And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because [he is] good, for his mercy [endureth] for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. [3:12] But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, [who were] ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: [3:13] So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

[4:1] Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel: [4:2] Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye [do]; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, which brought us up hither. [4:3] But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. [4:4] Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, [4:5] And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the day long: thus the God of heaven helped the people of Israel; and the fear of their adversaries did they deride. [4:6] And the people that dwelt in the cities of Samaria did also build, and held the high places in the land, and builtunto the LORD, the God of their fathers. [4:7] And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter [was] written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue. [4:8] Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort: [4:9] Then [wrote] Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, [and] the Elamites, [4:10] And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest [that are] on this side the river, and at such a time.

[4:11] This [is] the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, [even] unto Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time. [4:12] Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls [thereof,] and joined the foundations. [4:13] Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up [again, then] will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and [so] thou shalt endanger the revenue of the kings. [4:14] Now because we have maintenance from the king’s palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king’s dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king; [4:15] That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city [is] a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed. (4:16) We certify the king that, if this city be builded [again,] and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

(4:17) [Then] sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and [to] Shimshai the scribe, and [to] the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and [unto] the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time. (4:18) The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me. (4:19) And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and [that] rebellion and sedition have been made therein. (4:20) There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all [countries] beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them. (4:21) Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until [another] commandment shall be given from me. (4:22) Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

(4:23) Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter [was] read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. (4:24) Then ceased the work of the house of the God which [is] at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

(5:1) Then the prophets, Haggai, the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that [were] in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, [even] unto them. (5:2) Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which [is] at Jerusalem: and with them [were] the prophets of God helping them.

(5:3) At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar- boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall? (5:4) Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building? (5:5) But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this [matter].

(5:6) The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar- boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which [were] on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king: (5:7) They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace. (5:8) Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. (5:9) Then asked we those elders, [and] said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? (5:10) We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that [were] the chief of them. (5:11) And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven, and of the God of our fathers, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up. (5:12) But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. (5:13) But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon [the same] king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. (5:14) And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that [was] in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto [one,] whose name [was] Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; (5:15) And said unto him, Take these vessels, and go, carry them into the temple that [is] in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place. (5:16) Then came the same Sheshbazzar, [and] laid the foundation of the house of God which [is] in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and [yet] it is not finished. (5:17) Now therefore, if [it seem] good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which [is] there at Babylon, whether it be [so,] that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

(6:1) Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. (6:2) And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein [was] a record thus written: (6:3) In the first year of Cyrus the king [the same] Cyrus the king made a decree [concerning] the house of God at Jerusalem. Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, [and] the breadth thereof threescore cubits; (6:4) [With] three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expences be given out of the king's house: (6:5) And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, [every one] to his place, and place [them] in the house of God. (6:6) Now [therefore] Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which [are] beyond the river, be ye far from thence; (6:7) Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place. (6:8) Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, [even] of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expences be given unto these men, that they be not hindered. (6:9) And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which [are] at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail: (6:10) That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. (6:11) Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. (6:12) And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter [and] to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

(6:13) Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shethar-boznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily. (6:14) And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophecying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished [it], according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. {6:15} And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

{6:16} And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. {6:17} And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. {6:18} And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which [is] at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. {6:19} And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth [day] of the first month. {6:20} For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them [were] pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. {6:21} And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, {6:22} And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy; for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

{7:1} Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, {7:2} The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, {7:3} The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, {7:4} The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, {7:5} The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest: {7:6} This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he [was] a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him. {7:7} And there went up [some] of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. {7:8} And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which [was] in the seventh year of the king. {7:9} For upon the first [day] of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first [day] of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. {7:10} For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do [it,] and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

{7:11} Now this [is] the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, [even] a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel. {7:12} Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect [peace,] and at such a time. {7:13} I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and [of] his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill will go up to Jerusalem, go with thee. {7:14} Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which [is] in thine hand: {7:15} And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation [is] in Jerusalem. {7:16} And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which [is] in Jerusalem: {7:17} That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which [is] in Jerusalem. {7:18} And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God. {7:19} The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, [those] deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem. {7:20} And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow [it] out of the king's treasure house. {7:21} And I, [even] I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which [are] beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, {7:22} Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing [how much. ]{7:23} Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? {7:24} Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. {7:25} And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that [is] in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that [are] beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know [them] not. {7:26} And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether [it be] unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

{7:27} Blessed [be] the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put [such a thing] as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which [is] in Jerusalem: {7:28} And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God [was] upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

{8:1} These [are] now the chief of their fathers, and [this is] the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. {8:2} Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush. {8:3} Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty. {8:4} Of the sons of Pahath- moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males. {8:5} Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. {8:6} Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. {8:7} And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males. {8:8} And of the sons of Uzziel, the son of Hashum, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. {8:9} Of the sons of Hashum; Obadiah the son of Josiphiah, and with him two hundred and fourscore males. {8:10} And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males. {8:12} And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males. [8:13] And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names [are] these, Phebuel, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them three-score males. [8:14] Of the sons also of Bigvai, Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

[8:15] And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. [8:16] Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. [8:17] And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, [and] to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God. [8:18] And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; [8:19] And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; [8:20] Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

[8:21] Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. [8:22] For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God [is] upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath [is] against all them that forsake him. [8:23] So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.

[8:24] Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, [8:25] And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, [even] the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel [there] present, had offered: [8:26] I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, [and] of gold an hundred talents; [8:27] Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold, [8:28] And I said unto them, Ye [are] holy unto the LORD: the vessels [are] holy also: and the silver and the gold [are] a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. [8:29] Watch ye, and keep [them], until ye weigh [them] before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. [8:30] So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring [them] to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

[8:31] Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth [day] of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. [8:32] And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

[8:33] Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him [was] Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them [was] Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites; [8:34] By number [and] by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time. [8:35] [Also] the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats [for] a sin offering: all [this was] a burnt offering unto the LORD.

[8:36] And they delivered the king’s commissions unto the king’s lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

[9:1] Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, [doing] according to their abominations, [even] of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. [9:2] For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of [those] lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass. [9:3] And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonied. [9:4] Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonied until the evening sacrifice.

[9:5] And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God. [9:6] And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over [our] head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. [9:7] Since the days of our fathers [have] we [been] in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and [our] priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as [it is] this day. [9:8] And now for a little space grace hath been [shewed] from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. [9:9] For we [were] bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. [9:10] And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, [9:11] Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness. [9:12] Now therefore give not thy daughters unto your sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave [it] for an inheritance to your children for ever. [9:13] And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities [deserve,] and hast given us [such] deliverance as this; [9:14] Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed [us.] so that [there should be] no remnant nor escaping? [9:15] O LORD God of Israel, thou [art] righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as [it is] this day: behold, we [are] before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

{10:1} Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore. {10:2} And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, [one] of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. {10:3} Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. {10:4} Arise; for [this] matter [belongeth] unto thee: we also [will be] with thee: be of good courage, and do [it.

{10:5} Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, and all the people of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem; {10:6} and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and [when] he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away. {10:7} And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; {10:8} and that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the congregation and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

{10:9} Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It [was] the ninth month, on the twentieth [day] of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of [this] matter, and for the great rain. {10:10} And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel. {10:11} Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. {10:12} Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. {10:13} But the people [are] many, and [it is] a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither [is this] a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing. {10:14} Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

{10:15} Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this [matter:] and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. {10:16} And of the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, [with] certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by [their] names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. {10:17} And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

{10:18} And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: [namely,] of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. {10:19} And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives: and [being] guilty, [they offered] a ram of the flock for their trespass. {10:20} And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadias. {10:21} And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Shemaias, and Jehiel, and Shalum, and Jozabad. {10:22} And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah. {10:23} Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaia, (the same [is] Keliata,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. {10:24} Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. {10:25} Moreover of Israel; of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeiziah, and Malchiah, and Miommi, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Beniah. {10:26} And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elias. {10:27} And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. {10:28} Of the sons also of Bébai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and [and] Athlai. {10:29} And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, and Malluch, and Adaia, and Jeshua, and Sheal, and Ramoth. {10:30} And of the sons of Pahath-moab; Adna, and Cheal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Beazel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. {10:31} And [of] the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaias, Shimeon, {10:32} Benjamine, Malluch, [and] Shemaria. {10:33} Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Elphhelet, Jeremia, Manasseh, and [and] Shimei. {10:34} Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel. {10:35} Beniaah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, {10:36} Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, {10:37} Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau. {10:38} And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei, {10:39} And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adahiah, {10:40} Machnebedai, Shashai, Sharai, {10:41} Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, {10:42} Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph. {10:43} Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zacab, Zebina, Jadan, and Joel, Beniaha. {10:44} All these had taken strange wives: and [some] of them had wives
The Book of Nehemiah

[1:1] The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, [1:2] That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and [certain] men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. [1:3] And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province [are] in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also [is] broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

[1:4] And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned [certain] days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, [1:5] And said, O Lord God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments: [1:6] Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. [1:7] We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

[1:8] Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, [If] ye transgress, I will scatter ye among the nations: [1:9] But [if] ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them: though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, [yet] will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. [1:10] Now these [are] thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. [1:11] O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

[2:1] And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, [that] wine [was] before him: and I took up the wine, and gave [it] unto the king. Now I had not been [beforetime] sad in his presence. [2:2] Wherefore the king said unto me, Why [is] thy countenance sad, seeing thou [art] not sick? this [is] nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, [2:3] And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, [lieth] waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? [2:4] Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. [2:5] And I said unto the king, If it please the king, let me go to Judah, to the city which [appertained] to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

[2:9] Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. [2:10] When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard [of it,] it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. [2:11] So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

[2:12] And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I [any] man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither [was there any] beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. [2:13] And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire. [2:14] Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but [there was] no place for the beast [that was] under me to pass. [2:15] Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and [so] returned. [2:16] And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told [it] to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

[2:17] Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we [are] in, how Jerusalem [lieth] waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. [2:18] Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me; and they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for [this] good [work. ] [2:19] But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard [it,] they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What [is] this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king? [2:20] Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

[3:1] Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they built the sheep gate: they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hanameel. [3:2] And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri. [3:3] But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenah build, who [also] laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. [3:4] And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto him repaired Meshezabeel the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. [3:5] And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord. [3:6] Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah: they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. [3:7] And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river. [3:8] Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of [one of] the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall. {3:9} And next unto him repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem. {3:10} And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah. {3:11} Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces. {3:12} And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Haloshesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters. {3:13} The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate. {3:14} But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-haccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. {3:15} But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king’s garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David. {3:16} After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto [the place] over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty. {3:17} After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part. {3:18} After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah. {3:19} And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall. [3:20] After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning [of the wall] unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. {3:21} After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koiz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. {3:22} And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain. {3:23} After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house. {3:24} After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning [of the wall,] even unto the corner. {3:25} Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning [of the wall,] and the tower which lieth out from the king’s high house, that [was] by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh. {3:26} Moreover the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto [the place] over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out. {3:27} After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel. {3:28} From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house. {3:29} After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate. {3:30} After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber. {3:31} After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith’s son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner. {3:32} And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

{4:1} But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. {4:2} And he spake before the brethren of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? {4:3} Now Tobiah the Ammonite [was] by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. {4:4} Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: {4:5} And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be bloted out from before thee: for they have provoked [thee] to anger before the builders. {4:6} So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

{4:7} But it came to pass, [that] when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, [and] that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth. {4:8} And conspired all of them together to come [and] to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. {4:9} Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. {4:10} And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and [there is] much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. {4:11} And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. {4:12} And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us [they will be upon you].

{4:13} Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, [and] on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. {4:14} And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, [which is] great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. {4:15} And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. {4:16} And it came to pass from that time forth, [that] the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers [were] behind all the house of Judah. {4:17} They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, [every one] with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other [hand] held a weapon. {4:18} For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and [so] builded. And he that sounded the trumpet [was] by me.

{4:19} And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work [is] great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. {4:20} In what place [therefore] ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. {4:21} So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. {4:22} Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. {4:23} So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, [saying that] every one put them off for washing.

5:1 And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. 5:2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, [are] many; therefore we take up corn [for them,] that we may eat, and live. 5:3 [Some] also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. 5:4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king’s tribute, [and] that upon) our lands and vineyards. 5:5 Yet now our flesh [is] as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and [some] of our daughters are brought unto bondage [already:] neither [is it] in our power [to redeem them;] for other men have our lands and vineyards.

5:6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. 5:7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. 5:8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren, or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing [to answer.] 5:9 Also I said, It [is] not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? 5:10 I likewise, [and] my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury. 5:11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses. 5:12 Then said they, We will restore [them,] and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. 5:13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

5:14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, [that is,] twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. 5:15 But the former governors that [had been] before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. 5:16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants [were] gathered thither unto the work. 5:17 Moreover [there were] at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that [are] about us. 5:18 Now [that] which was prepared [for me] daily [was] one ox [and] six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. 5:19 Think upon me, my God, for good, [according] to all that I have done for this people.

6:1 Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and [that] there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) 6:2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in [some one of] the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. 6:3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I [am] doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? 6:4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. 6:5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand: 6:6 Wherein [was] written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith [it, that] thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. 6:7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, [There is] a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. 6:8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. 6:9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, [O God,] strengthen my hands. 6:10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who [was] shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. 6:11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who [is there,] that, [being] as I [am,] would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. 6:12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 6:13 Therefore [was] he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and [that] they might have [matter] for an evil report, that they might reproach me. 6:14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

6:15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth [day] of [the month] Elul, in fifty and two days. 6:16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard [thereof,] and all the heathen that [were] about us saw [these things,] they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

6:17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and [the letters] of Tobiah came unto them. 6:18 For [there were] many in Judah sworn unto him, because he [was] the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. 6:19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. [And] Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

7:1 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed. 7:2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he [was] a faithful man, and feared God above many. 7:3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar [them:] and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one [to be] over against his house. 7:4 Now the city [was] large and great: but the people [were] few therein, and the houses [were] not builded.

[7:63] And of the priests: the children of Habaijah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai the Gileadite, which was [one] [of] the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, who was called after their name. [7:64] These sought their register [among] those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. [7:65] And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood [up] a priest with Urim and Thummim.

[7:66] The whole congregation together [was] forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore. [7:67] Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom [there were] seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women. [7:68] Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five: [7:69] [Their] camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

[7:70] And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. [7:71] And [some] of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver. [7:72] And [that] which the rest of the people gave [was] twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. [7:73] So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and [some] of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel [were] in their cities.

[8:1] And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that [was] before the water gate: and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. [8:2]
And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. (8:3) And he read therein before the street that [was] before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people [were attentive] unto the book of the law. (8:4) And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiath, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, [and] Meshullam. (8:5) And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: (8:6) And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with uplifted their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with [their] faces to the ground. (8:7) Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people [stood] in their place. (8:8) So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused [them] to understand the reading.

(8:9) And Nehemiah, which [is] the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day [is] holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. (8:10) Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for [this] day [is] holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength. (8:11) So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day [is] holy; neither be ye grieved. (8:12) And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

(8:13) And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. (8:14) And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses unto the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: (8:15) And that they should publish and proclaim in Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; {8:15} And that they should publish and proclaim in Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month. (8:16) So the people went forth, and brought [them,] and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim. (8:17) And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness. (8:18) Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day [was] a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.
Now those that sealed were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, Pashur, Amariah, Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests. And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmieel: And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaia, Hanan, Micha, Rehoeb, Hashabiah, Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Bani, Beninu. The chief of the people; Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, Ater, Hitchijah, Azur, Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, Malluch, Meshullam, Hezir, Meshezaab, Zadok, Jaddua, Pelatiah, Hanan, Aanai, Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, Hallohesh, Pileah, Shobek, Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, Anan, Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, Maatthaeu, Malchijah, Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, Hariph, Hashabiah, Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Bani, Beninu. The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding; They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our God, and his judgments and his statutes; And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons: And [if] the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, [that] we would not buy it of them on the sabbath day, or on the holy day: and [that] we would leave the seventh year, and the exemption of every debt. Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: For the shewbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God. And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as [it is] written in the law: And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD: Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as [it is] written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God: And [that] we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithes of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where [are] the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.
[11:1] And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts [to dwell] in [other] cities. [11:2] And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

[11:3] Now these [are] the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, [to wit.] Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon’s servants. [11:4] And at Jerusalem dwelt [certain] of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaia the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez; [11:5] And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of the son of Shiloni. [11:6] All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem [were] four hundred threescore and eight valiant men. [11:7] And these [are] the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joel, the son of Pedai, the son of Kolai, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaias. [11:8] And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. [11:9] And Joel the son of Zichri [was] their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah [was] second over the city. [11:10] Of the priests; Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, [11:11] Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, [was] the ruler of the house of God. [11:12] And their brethren that did the work of the house [were] eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shimei, the son of Baruch, the son of Ziha and Gispa [were] over the Nethinims. [11:13] And the Levites, the chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shimei, the son of Baruch, [was] the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and his brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and two: and their brethren in the days of Jeshua. [11:14] Moreover the priests, and the Levites, [were] in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

[12:22] The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, [were] recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian. [12:23] The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, [were] written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. [12:24] And the chief of the Levites; Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise [and] to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward. [12:25] Mattaniah, and Bakubukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, [were] porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates. [12:26] These [were] in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

[12:27] And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, [with] cymbals, psalmmes, and with harps. [12:28] And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophahi; [12:29] Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had Nehemiah

12:30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. [12:31] Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great [companies of them that gave] thanks, [whereof one] went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate: [12:32] And after them went Hoshahiah, and half of the princes of Judah, [12:33] And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, [12:34] Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. [12:35] And [certain] of the priests' sons with trumpets; [namely,] Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph: [12:36] And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maasi, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. [12:37] And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward. [12:38] And the other [company of them that gave] thanks went over against [them,] and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall; [12:39] And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate. [12:40] So stood the two [companies of them that gave] thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me: [12:41] And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, [and] Hananiah, with trumpets; [12:42] And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah [their] overseer. [12:43] Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

12:44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited. [12:45] And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, [and] of Solomon his son. [12:46] For in the days of David and Asaph of old [there were] chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. [12:47] And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified [holy things] unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified [them] unto the children of Aaron.

13:1 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; [13:2] Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. [13:3] Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

13:4 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, [was] allied unto Tobiah: [13:5] And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded [to be given] to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. [13:6] But in all this [time] was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king: [13:7] And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. [13:8] And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. [13:9] Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

13:10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given [them:] for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field. [13:11] Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. [13:12] Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. [13:13] And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them [was] Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office [was] to distribute unto their brethren. [13:14] Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

13:15 In those days saw I in Judah [some] treading winepresses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified [against them] in the day wherein they sold victuals. [13:16] There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. [13:17] Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing [is] this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? [13:18] Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath. [13:19] And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and [some] of my servants set I at the gates, [that] there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. [13:20] So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. [13:21] Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no [more] on the sabbath. [13:22] And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and [that] they should come [and] keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, [concerning] this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

13:23 In those days also saw I Jews [that] had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, [and] of Moab: [13:24] And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not understand in the Jews' language, but spake according to the language of each people. [13:25] And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, [saying,] Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.
{13:26} Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin. {13:27} Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? {13:28} And [one] of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, [was] son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. {13:29} Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. {13:30} Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business; {13:31} And for the wood offering, at times
The Book of Esther

1:1] Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this [is] Ahaseurus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, [over] an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:) [1:2] That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which [was] in Shushan the palace, [1:3] In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, [being] before him: [1:4] When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, [even] an hundred and fourscore days. [1:5] And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king’s palace; [1:6] Where were white, green, and blue, [hangings,] fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble. [1:7] And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king. [1:8] And the drinking was according to the law: none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man’s pleasure. [1:9] Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women [in] the royal house which [belonged] to king Ahasuerus.

1:10] On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king. [1:11] To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she [was] fair to look on. [1:12] But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king’s commandment by [his] chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

1:13] Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so [was] the king’s manner toward all that knew law and judgment: [1:14] And the next unto him [was] Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, [and] Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king’s face, [and] which sat the first of the king’s princes:) [1:15] What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains? [1:16] And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that [are] in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. [1:17] For [this] deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. [1:18] Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king’s princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus [shall there arise] too much contempt and wrath. [1:19] If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered. That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she. [1:20] And when the king’s decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small. [1:21] And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan: [1:22] For he sent letters into all the king’s provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that [it] should be published according to the language of every people.

2:1] After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. [2:2] Then said the king’s servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: [2:3] And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women unto the custody of Hege the king’s chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given [them]: [2:4] And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

2:5] [Now] in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name [was] Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite; [2:6] Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. [2:7] And he brought up Hadassah, that [is,] Esther, his uncle’s daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid [was] fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

2:8] So it came to pass, when the king’s commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king’s house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. [2:9] And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, [which were] meet to be given her, out of the king’s house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best [place] of the house of the women. [2:10] Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. [2:11] And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women’s house, to know Esther did, and what should become of her.

2:12] Now when every maid’s turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, [to wit,] six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with [other] things for the purifying of the women;) [2:13] Then thus came [every] maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king’s house. [2:14] In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shashgaz, the king’s chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

2:15] Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king’s chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. [2:16] So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which [is] the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. [2:17] And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. [2:18] Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, [even] Esther’s feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. [2:19] And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king’s gate. [2:20] Esther had not [yet] shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

[2:21] In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king’s gate, two of the king’s chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. [2:22] And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esthercertified the king [thereof] in Mordecai’s name. [2:23] And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

[3:1] After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that [were] with him. [3:2] And all the king’s servants, that [were] in the king’s gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did [him] reverence. [3:3] Then the king’s servants, which [were] in the king’s gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transfreshest thou the king’s commandment? [3:4] Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai’s matters would stand: for he had told them that he [was] a Jew. [3:5] And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. [3:6] And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that [were] throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, [even] the people of Mordecai.

[3:7] In the first month, that [is], the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that [is], the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, [to] the twelfth [month], that [is], the month Adar.

[3:8] And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws [are] diverse from all people; neither keep they the king’s laws: therefore it [is] not for the king’s profit to suffer them. [3:9] If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the king’s treasuries. [3:10] And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews’ enemy. [3:11] And the king said unto Haman, The silver [is] given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. [3:12] Then were the king’s scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king’s lieutenants, and to the governors that [were] over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and [to] every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king’s ring. [3:13] And the letters were sent by posts into all the king’s provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, [even] upon the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which [is] the month Adar, and [to take] the spoil of them for a prey. [3:14] The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day. [3:15] The posts went out, being hastened by the king’s commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

[4:1] When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; [4:2] And came even before the king’s gate: for none [might] enter into the king’s gate clothed with sackcloth. [4:3] And in every province, whithersoever the king’s commandment and his decree came, [there was] great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

[4:4] So Esther’s maids and her chamberlains came and told [it] her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received [it] not. [4:5] Then called Esther for Hatach, [one] of the king’s chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it [was], and why it [was]. [4:6] So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which [was] before the king’s gate. [4:7] And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king’s treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. [4:8] Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew [it] unto Esther, and to declare [it] unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. [4:9] And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

[4:10] Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai; [4:11] All the king’s servants, and the people of the king’s provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, [there is] one law of his to put [him] to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but the law of his to put [him] to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but the law of his to put [him] to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live:

[4:12] And they told to Mordecai Esther’s words. [4:13] Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king’s house, more than all the Jews. [4:14] For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, [then] shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father’s house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for [such] a time as this?

[4:15] Then Esther bade [them] return Mordecai [this answer,]. [4:16] Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go into unto the king, which [is] not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. [4:17] So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

[5:1] Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on [her] royal [ apparel,] and stood in the inner court of the king’s house, over against the king’s house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. [5:2] And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, [that] she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that [was] in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. [5:3] Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what [is] thy request? it shall be even given thee to half of the kingdom. [5:4] And Esther answered, If [it seem] good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. [5:5] Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as the king hath said.

[5:6] And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What [is] thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what [is] thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. [5:7] Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request [is;] [5:8] If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

[5:9] Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai. [5:10] Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. [5:11] And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all [the things] wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. [5:12] Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but herself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king. [5:13] Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.

[5:14] Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

[6:1] On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. [6:2] And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. [6:3] And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king’s servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

[6:4] And the king said, Who [is] in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king’s house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. [6:5] And the king’s servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. [6:6] So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to himself? [6:7] And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour, [6:8] Let the royal apparel be brought which the king [useth] to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head: [6:9] And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king’s most noble princes, that they may array the man [w ithal] whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. [6:10] Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, [and] take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king’s gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. [6:11] Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

[6:12] And Mordecai came again to the king’s gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered. [6:13] And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every [thing] that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai [be] of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him. [6:14] And while they [were] yet talking with him, came the king’s chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

[7:1] So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. [7:2] And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What [is] thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what [is] thy request? and it shall be performed, [even] to the half of the kingdom. [7:3] Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: [7:4] For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not contriveth the king’s damage.

[7:5] Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? [7:6] And Esther said, The adversary and enemy [is] this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

[7:7] And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath [went] into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. [7:8] Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine: and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther [was.] Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face. [7:9] And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king. Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, stoodeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon. {7:10} So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king’s wrath pacified.

{8:1} On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he [was] unto her. {8:2} And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

{8:3} And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. {8:4} Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. {8:5} And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing [seem] right before the king, and I [be] pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hadmedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which [are] in all the king’s provinces: {8:6} For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

{8:7} Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. {8:8} Write ye also for me to the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s ring: for the writing that is written, and sealed with the king’s ring, may no man reverse. {8:9} Then were the king’s scribes called at that time in the third month, that [is,] the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth [day] thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to all the governors of the provinces which [are] from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred and twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. {8:10} And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus’ name, and sealed it with the king’s ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, [and] riders on mules, camels, [and] young dromedaries: {8:11} Wherein the king granted the Jews which [were] in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, [both] little ones and women, and [to take] the spoil of them for a prey. {8:12} Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, [namely,] upon the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which [is] the month Adar. {8:13} The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province [was] published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. {8:14} So the posts that rode upon mules [and] camels went out, being fastened and pressed on by the king’s commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

{8:15} And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. {8:16} The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour. {8:17} And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king’s commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

{9:1} Now in the twelfth month, that [is,] the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king’s commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them:) {9:2} The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people. {9:3} And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. {9:4} For Mordecai [was] great in the king’s house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. {9:5} Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them. {9:6} And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. {9:7} And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspaph, {9:8} And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, {9:9} And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaiezhatha, {9:10} The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil they laid not their hand. {9:11} On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

{9:12} And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? now what [is] thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what [is] thy request further? and it shall be done. {9:13} Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which [are] in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day’s decree, and let the Jews do to morrow also according unto this day’s decree, and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. {9:14} And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman’s ten sons. {9:15} For the Jews that [were] in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the spoil they laid not their hand. {9:16} But the other Jews that [were] in the king’s provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey. {9:17} On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. {9:18} But the Jews that [were] at Shushan assembled together on the fourteenth [day] thereof; and on the fifteenth thereof; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. {9:19} Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar [a day of] gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

{9:20} And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that [were] in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, [both] nigh and far. {9:21} To establish [this] among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly. {9:22} As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. {9:23} And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; {9:24} Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; {9:25} But when [Esther] came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. {9:26} Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and [of that] which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, {9:27} The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their [appointed] time every year; {9:28} And [that] these days [should be] remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and [that] these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed. {9:29} Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim. {9:30} And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, [with] words of peace and truth, {9:31} To confirm these days of Purim in their times [appointed.] according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry. {9:32} And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book. {10:1} And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and [upon] the isles of the sea. {10:2} And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, [are] they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? {10:3} For Mordecai the Jew [was] next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his
There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name [was] Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil. {1:2} And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. {1:3} His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east. {1:4} And his sons went and feasted [in their] houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. {1:5} And it was so, when the days of [their] feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings [according] to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

{1:6} Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. {1:7} And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going forth to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. {1:8} And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that [there is] none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? {1:9} Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? {1:10} Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. {1:11} But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. {1:12} And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath [is] in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

{1:13} And there was a day when his sons and his daughters [were] eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house: {1:14} And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: {1:15} And the Sabeans fell [upon them,] and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. {1:16} While he [was] yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. {1:17} While he [was] yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. {1:18} While he [was] yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters [were] eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house: {1:19} And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. {1:20} Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground; and said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD. {1:22} In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.
prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor. [3:19] The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master. [3:20] Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul; [3:21] Which long for death, but it [cometh] not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures; [3:22] Which rejoice exceedingly, [and] are glad, when they can find the grave? [3:23] Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in? [3:24] For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters. [3:25] For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me. [3:26] I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

[4:1] Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said, [4:2] [If] we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking? [4:3] Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands. [4:4] Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees. [4:5] But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled. [4:6] [Is] not [this] thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways? [4:7] Remember, I pray thee, who [ever] perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off? [4:8] Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same. [4:9] By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed. [4:10] The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken. [4:11] The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad. [4:12] Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof. [4:13] In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, [4:14] Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake, [4:15] Then a spirit passed before my face: the hair of my flesh stood up: [4:16] It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image [was] before mine eyes, [there was] silence, and I heard a voice, [saying], [4:17] Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker? [4:18] Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly: [4:19] How much less [in] them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation [is] in the dust, [which] are crushed before the moth? [4:20] They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding [it]. [4:21] Dost not their excellency [which is] in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

[5:1] Call now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn? [5:2] For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one. [5:3] I have seen the foolish taking root: an image [was] before mine eyes, [there was] silence, and I heard a voice, [saying], [5:4] Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees. [5:5] Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and the oppressor taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth [them. ] [5:6] Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and the oppressor taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth [them. ] [5:7] Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields: [5:11] To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety. [5:12] He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform [their] enterprise. [5:13] He taketh the wise in their own craftiness; and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong. [5:14] They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night. [5:15] But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty. [5:16] So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth. [5:17] Behold, happy [is] the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty: [5:18] For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole. [5:19] He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee. [5:20] In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword. [5:21] Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh. [5:22] At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth. [5:23] For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee. [5:24] And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle [shall be] in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin. [5:25] Thou shalt know also that thy seed [shall be] great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth. [5:26] Thou shalt come to [thy] grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season. [5:27] Lo this, we have searched it, so it [is;] hear it, and know thou [it] for thy good.

[6:1] But Job answered and said, [6:2] O that my grief were throughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together! [6:3] For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are swallowed up. [6:4] For the arrows of the Almighty [are] within me, the poison whereof doth run in my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me. [6:5] Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder? [6:6] Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there [any] taste in the white of an egg? [6:7] The things that [my] soul refused to touch [are] as my sorrowful meat. [6:8] Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant [me] the thing that I long for! [6:9] Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off! [6:10] Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare: for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One. [6:11] What [is] my strength, that I should hope? and what [is] mine end, that I should prolong my life? [6:12] [Is] my strength the strength of stones? or [is] my flesh of brass? [6:13] [Is] not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me? [6:14] To him that is afflicted pity [should be shewed] from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty. [6:15] My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, [and] as the stream of brooks they pass away: [6:16] Which are blackish by reason of the ice, [and] wherein the snow is hid: [6:17] What time they wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. [6:18] The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish. [6:19] The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them. [6:20] They were confounded because of them which sought their life. [6:21] For now ye are no thing; ye see [my] casting down, and are afraid. [6:22] Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of thy substance? [6:23] Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty? [6:24] Teach me, and I will hold my tongue, and cause me to understand wherein I have erred. [6:25] How forcible are right words! but what doth thy arguing prove? [6:26] Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, [which are] as wind?

[7:1] [Is there] not an appointed time to man upon earth? [are not] his days also like the days of an hirpling? [7:2] As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hirpling looketh for [the reward of] his work: [7:3] So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me. [7:4] When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings and fro unto the dawning of the day. [7:5] My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome. [7:6] My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and are spent without hope. [7:7] O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good. [7:8] The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: [for] thine eyes [are] upon me, and I [am] not. [7:9] [As] the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more. [7:10] He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more. [7:11] Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. [7:12] [Am] I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me? [7:13] When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint; [7:14] Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions: [7:15] So that my soul chooseth strangeling, [and] death rather than my life. [7:16] I loathe [it;] I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days [are] vanity. [7:17] What [is] man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou magnifiest him? and that thou shouldst setthi thine heart upon him? [7:18] And [that] thou shouldest visit him every morning, [and] try him every moment? [7:19] How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle? [7:20] I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself? [7:21] And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I [shall] not [be].

[8:1] Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, [8:2] How long wilt thou speak these things? and [how long] shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind? [8:3] Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice? [8:4] If thy children have sinned against him, and [he] doth make their transgression a reproach to them, [8:5] If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty: [8:6] If thou [wert] pure and upright, surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous. [8:7] Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase. [8:8] For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers: [8:9] (For we [are but of] yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth [are] a shadow:) [8:10] Shall not they teach thee, [and] tell thee, and utter words out of their heart? [8:11] Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water? [8:12] Whilst it [is] yet in its greenness, [and] not cut down, [it] withereth before any [other] herb. [8:13] So [are] the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite’s hope shall perish: [8:14] Their hope shall be cut off, and whose trust [shall be] a spider’s web. [8:15] He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure. [8:16] He [is] green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden. [8:17] His roots are wrapped about the heap, [and] setteth the place of stones. [8:18] If he destroyeth him from his place, then [it] shall deny him, [saying,] I have not seen thee. [8:19] Behold, this [is] the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow. [8:20] Behold, God will not cast away a perfect [man; neither] will he help the evil doers: [8:21] Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing. [8:22] They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

[9:1] Then Job answered and said, [9:2] I know [it is] so of a truth: but how should man be just with God? [9:3] If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand. [9:4] [He is] wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened [himself] against him, and hath prospered? [9:5] Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger. [9:6] Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble. [9:7] Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars. [9:8] Which Alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea. [9:9] Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south. [9:10] Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number. [9:11] Lo, he goeth by me, and I see [him] not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not. [9:12] Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou? [9:13] [If] God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him. [9:14] How much less shall I answer him, [and] choose out my words [to reason] with him? [9:15] Whom, though I were righteous, [yet] would he not answer me, but would make supplication to my judge. [9:16] If I had called, and he had answered me; [yet] would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice. [9:17] For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause. [9:18] He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness. [9:19] If [I speak] of strength, lo, [he is] strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time [to plead]? [9:20] If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: [if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse. [9:21] [Though I were] perfect, [yet] would I not know my soul: I would despise my life. [9:22] This [is] one [thing], therefore I said [it.] He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked. [9:23] If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent. [9:24] The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, who, [and] who is he? [9:25] Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good. [9:26] They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle [that] hastes to the prey. [9:27] If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort [myself;] [9:28] I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent. [9:29] [If] I be wicked, why then labour I in vain? [9:30] If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean; [9:31] Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me. [9:32] For [he is] not a man, as I [am, that] I should answer him, [and] we should come together in judgment. [9:33] Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both. [9:34] Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me: [9:35] Then would I speak, and not fear him; but [it is] not so with me.
Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

11:1 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

11:2 No doubt shouldst thou despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked? 11:4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth? 11:5 [Are] thy days as the days of man? [are] thy years as man's days.

11:6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin? 11:7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and [there is] none that can deliver out of thine hand. 11:8 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me. 11:9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again? 11:10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese? 11:10 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

11:12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit. 11:13 And these [things] hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this [is] with thee. 11:14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

11:15 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and [if] I be righteous, [yet] will I not lift up my head. [I am] full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction: 11:16 For it increaseth. Thou hast me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

11:17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war [are] against me. 11:18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me! 11:19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave. 11:20 [Are] not my days few? cease [then, and] let me alone, that I may take comfort a little, and make my end as the rest.

11:20 I would see the Almighty unto perfection? 11:21 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these? 11:24 I am [as] one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright [man is] laughed to scorn.

12:5 He that is ready to slip with [his] feet [is as] a lamp despaired in the thought of him that is at ease. 12:6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly. 12:7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: 12:8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

12:9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this? 12:10 In whose hand [is] the soul of every living thing, and the breath of mankind. 12:11 Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat? 12:12 With the ancient [is] wisdom; and in length of days understanding. 12:13 With him [is] wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

12:14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening. 12:15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth. 12:16 With him [is] strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceived [are] his. 12:17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools. 12:18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

12:19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty. 12:20 He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged. 12:21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

12:22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death. 12:23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them [again]. 12:24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness [where there is] no way.

12:25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like [a] drunken [man].

13:1 Lo, mine eye hath seen all [this,] mine ear hath heard and understood it. 13:2 What ye know, [the same] do I know also: I am not inferior unto you. 13:3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God. 13:4 But ye [are] forgers of lies, ye [are] all physicians of no value. 13:5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.

13:11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you? 13:12 Your remembrances [are] like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay. 13:13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak: and let come on me what [will]. 13:14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand? 13:15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. 13:16 He also [shall be] my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come

[14:1] Man [that is] born of a woman [is] of few days, and full of trouble. [14:2] He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not. [14:3] And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, andbringest me into judgment with thee? [14:4] Who can bring a clean [thing] out of an unclean? not one. [14:5] Seeing his days [are] determined, the number of his months are brought low, but he perceiveth [it] not of them. [14:22] He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword. [15:23] He wandereth abroad for bread, [saying,] Where [is] it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. [15:24] Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle. [15:25] For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty. [15:26] He runneth upon him, [even] on [his] neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers: [15:27] Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on [his] flanks. [15:28] And he dwelleth in desolate cities, [and] in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps. [15:29] He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth. [15:30] He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the spirit of darkness, [the] shadow of death shall go upon him. [15:31] Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence. [15:32] It shall be accomplished before his change come. [15:33] He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive. [15:34] For the congregation of hypocrites [shall be] desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery. [15:35] They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

[16:1] Then Job answered and said, [16:2] I have heard many such things: miserable comforters [are] ye all. [16:3] Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? [16:4] I also could speak as ye [do:] if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you. [16:5] [But] I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should asswage [your grief]. [16:6] Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: and [though] I forbear, what am I eased? [16:7] But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company. [16:8] And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, [which] is a witness [against me:] and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face. [16:9] He taketh [me] from mine heritage: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth: mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me. [16:10] They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me. [16:11] God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked. [16:12] I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken [me] by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark. [16:13] His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground. [16:14] He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant. [16:15] I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust. [16:16] My face is foul with weeping, and my eyelids is the shadow of death; [16:17] Not for [any] injustice in mine hands: also my prayer [is] pure. [16:18] O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place. [16:19] Also now, behold, my witness [is] in heaven, and my record [is] on high. [16:20] My friends scorn me: [but] mine eye poureth out [tears] unto God. [16:21] Oh that one might plead for a man with God, as a man [pleadeth] for his neighbour! [16:22] When a few years are come, then I shall go the way [whence] I shall not return.

[17:1] My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves [are ready] for me. [17:2] [Are there] not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation? [17:3] Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who [is] he [that] will strike hands with me? [17:4] For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt [them]. [17:5] He that speaketh flattery to [his] friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail. [17:6] He hath made me also a byword of the people; and aforesight I was as a tabret. [17:7] Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members [are] as a shadow. [17:8] Upright [men] shall be astonied at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite. [17:9] The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger. [17:10] But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find [one] wise [man] among you. [17:11] My days are past, my purposes are broken off, [even] the thoughts of my heart. [17:12] They change the night into day: the light [is] short because of darkness. [17:13] If I wait, the grave [is] mine. I shall go down to the bars of the pit, when [our] rest together [is] in the dust.

[18:1] Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, [18:2] How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words? [18:3] These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed [that] ye make yourselves strange to me. [18:4] And be it indeed [that] I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself. [18:5] If indeed ye will magnify [yourselves] against me, and plead against me my reproach: [18:6] Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net. [18:7] Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but [there is] no judgment. [18:8] He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths. [18:9] He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown [from] my head. [18:10] He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree. [18:11] He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as [one of] his enemies. [18:12] His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle. [18:13] He hath put me in straits, far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me. [18:14] My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. [18:15] They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight. [18:16] I called my servant, and he gave [me] no answer; I intreated him with my mouth. [18:17] My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children’s [sake] of mine own body. [18:18] Yea, young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me. [18:19] All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me. [18:20] My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth. [18:21] Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me. [18:22] Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh? [18:23] Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book! [18:24] That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever! [18:25] For I know [that] my redeemer liveth, and [that] he shall stand at the latter [day] upon the earth: [19:26] And [though] after my skin [worms] destroy this [body,] yet in my flesh shall I see God: [19:27] Whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another; [though] my reins be consumed within me. [19:28] But ye should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me? [19:29] Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath [bringeth] the punishments of the sword, that ye may know [there is] a judgment.

[20:1] Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said, [20:2] Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for [this] I make haste. [20:3] I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer. [20:4] Knowest thou [not] this of old, since man was placed upon earth. [20:5] That the triumphing of the Job

[21:1] But Job answered and said, [21:2] Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations. [21:3] Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on. [21:4] As for me, [is] my complaint to man? and if [it were so,] why should not my spirit be troubled? [21:5] Mark me, [is] my complaint to man? and if [it were so,] why should not my spirit be troubled? [21:6] Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds; [21:7] Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung; they which have seen him shall say, Where [is] he? [21:8] He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night. [21:9] The eye also [which] saw him shall [see] him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him. [21:10] His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods. [21:11] His bones are full [of the sin] of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust. [21:12] Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, [though] he hide it under his tongue; [21:13] [Though] he spare it, and forsake it; but keep it still within his mouth: [21:14] [Yet] his meat in his bowels is turned, [it is] the gall of asps within him. [21:15] He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly. [21:16] He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper’s tongue shall slay him. [21:17] He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter. [21:18] That which he laboured for shall be restored, and shall not swallow [it] down: according to [his] substance [shall] the restitution [be,] and he shall not rejoice [therein]. [21:19] Because he hath oppressed [and] hath forsaken the poor; [because] he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not; [21:20] Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired. [21:21] There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods. [21:22] In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him. [21:23] When he is about to fill his belly, [God] shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain [it] upon him while he is eating. [21:24] He shall flee from the iron weapon, [and] the bow of steel shall strike him through. [21:25] It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors [are] upon him. [21:26] All darkness [shall be] hid in his secret places: a fire not blown down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a circuit of heaven. [21:27] Hast thou marked the old way of the wicked? [21:28] For ye say, Where [is] the house of the prince? and where [are] the dwelling places of the wicked? [21:29] Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, {21:30} That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath. [21:31] Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him [what] he hath done? [21:32] Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb. [21:33] The clouds of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as [there are] innumerable before him. [21:34] How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked. [22:28] Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways. [22:29] When [men] are cast down, then thou shalt say, [There is] lifting up; and he shall save the humble person. [22:30] He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

[24:1] Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days? [24:2] [Some] remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed [thereof.][24:3] They drive away the ass from the hungry; [24:4] They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge. [24:5] They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter. [24:6] They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold. [24:7] They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold. [24:8] They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter. [24:9] They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor. [24:10] They cause [him] to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf [from] the hungry; [24:11] [Which] make oil within their walls, [and] tread [their] winepresses, and suffer thirst. [24:12] Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them. [24:13] They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof. [24:14] The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief. [24:15] The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguiseth [his] face. [24:16] In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light. [24:17] For the morning [is] to them even as the shadow of death: if one know [them, they are] in the temple of the shadow of death. [24:18] He [is] swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards. [24:19] Drought and heat consume the snow waters: [so doth] the grave [those which] have sinned. [24:20] The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree. [24:21] He evil entreateth the barren that [beareth] not: and doeth not good to the widow. [24:22] He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no [man] is sure of life. [24:23] [Though] it be given him [to be] in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes [are] upon their ways. [24:24] They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all [other.] and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn. [24:25] And if [it be] not [so] now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

[25:1] Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, [25:2] Dominion and fear [are] with him, he maketh peace in his high places. [25:3] Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise? [25:4] How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean [that is] born of a woman? [25:5] Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight. [25:6] How much less man, [that is] a worm? and the son of man, [which is] a worm?

[26:1] But Job answered and said, [26:2] How hast thou helped [him that is] without power? [how] savest thou the even [that hath] no strength? [26:3] How hast thou counseled [him that hath] no wisdom? and [how] hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is? [26:4] To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee? [26:5] Dead [things] are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof. [26:6] Hell [is] naked before him, and destruction hath no covering. [26:7] He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, [and] hangeth the earth upon nothing. [26:8] He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them. [26:9] He holdeth back the face of his throne, [and] spreadeth his cloud upon it. [26:10] He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end. [26:11] The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproo. [26:12] He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smitieth through the proud. [26:13] By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent. [26:14] Lo, these [are] parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

[27:11] I will teach thee by the hand of God: [that] which [is] with the Almighty will I not conceal. [27:12] Behold, all ye yourselves have seen [it]: why then are ye thus altogether vain? [27:13] This [is] the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, [which] they shall receive of the Almighty. [27:14] If his children be multiplied, [it is] for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. [27:15] Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep. [27:16] Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay; [27:17] He may prepare [it], but the just shall put [it] on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. [27:18] He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth [that] the keeper maketh. [27:19] The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he [is] not. [27:20] Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night. [27:21] The east wind carrrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place. [27:22] For [God] shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand. [27:23] Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

[28:1] Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold [where] they fine [it.] [28:2] Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass [is] molten [out of] the stone. [28:3] He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death. [28:4] The flood breakeath out from the inhabitant; [even the waters] forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men. [28:5] [As for] the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire. [28:6] The stones of it [are] the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold. [28:7] There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture’s eye hath not seen: [28:8] The lion’s whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it. [28:9] He putteth forth his hand upon the rock: he overturneth the mountains by the roots. [28:10] He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing. [28:11] He bindeth the floods from overflowing: and [the thing that is] hid bringeth he forth to light. [28:12] But where shall wisdom be found? and where [is] the place of understanding? [28:13] Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living. [28:14] The depth saith, It [is] not in me: and the sea saith, [It is] not. [28:15] It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall it be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the silver be weighed [for] the price thereof. [28:16] It cannot be gotten in the earth, and [in] the rocks. [28:17] The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it [shall not be for] jewels of fine gold. [28:18] No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls; for the price of wisdom [is] above rubies. [28:19] The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with gold. [28:20] Whence then cometh wisdom? and where [is] the place of understanding? [28:21] Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept from men. [28:22] From the heat whereunder the fowls of air are wearied, and the fowl goeth to her nests: [28:23] God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof. [28:24] For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven; [28:25] To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure. [28:26] When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder: [28:27] Then doi he send lightnings, and scattereth them, and saith unto them, Go ye hence. [28:28] And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that [is] wisdom; and to depart from evil [is] understanding.

[29:1] Moreover Job continued his parable, and said, [29:2] Oh that I were as [in] months past, as [in] the days when God preserved me: [29:3] When his hand did shield upon my head, [and when] by his light I walked [through] darkness; [29:4] As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God [was] upon my tabernacle: [29:5] When the Almighty [was] yet with me, [when] my children [were] about me; [29:6] When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil; [29:7] When I went out to the gate through the city, [when] I prepared my seat in the street! [29:8] The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, [and] stood up. [29:9] The princes refrained talking, and laid [their] hand on their mouth. [29:10] The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth. [29:11] When the ear heard [me,] then it blessed me; and when the eye saw [me,] it gave witness to me: [29:12] Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and [him] that had none to help him. [29:13] The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy. [29:14] I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment [was] as a robe and a diadem. [29:15] I was eyes to the blind, and feet [was] I to the lame. [29:16] I [was] a father to the poor: and the cause [which] I knew not I searched out. [29:17] And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth. [29:18] Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply [my] days as the sand. [29:19] My root [was] spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch. [29:20] My glory [was] fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand. [29:21] Unto me [men] gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel. [29:22] After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them. [29:23] And they waited for me as for the rain: and they opened their mouth wide [as] for the latter rain. [29:24] [If] I laughed on them, they believed [it] not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down. [29:25] I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one [that] comforteth the mourners.

[30:1] But now [they that are] younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock. [30:2] Yea, whereto [might] the strength of their hands [profit] me, in whom old age was perished? [30:3] For want and famine [they were] solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste. [30:4] Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and who troubled himself after juniper roots [for] their meat. [30:5] They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;) they were viler than the earth. [30:6] To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, [in] caves of the earth, and [in] the rocks. [30:7] Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together. [30:8] [They were] children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth. [30:9] And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword. [30:10] They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face. [30:11] Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they were viler than the earth, and [in] the rocks. [30:12] They were casual in their songs, yea, I am their byword. [30:13] They put forth a snare for my feet; they put a cord upon my hand; they set forward my calamity, they have no helper. [30:14] They came [upon me] as a wide breaking in [of waters:] in the desolation they rolled themselves [upon me.] [30:15] Terrors are turned upon me: they are multiplied, [it is] for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. [30:16] Those that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock. [30:17] My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest. [30:18] By the great force [of] my disease] is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as with the collar of my coat. [30:19] He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes. [30:20] I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me [not. [30:21] Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposeth thyself against me. [30:22] Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride [upon it], and dissolvest my substance. [30:23] For I know [that] thou wilt bring me [to] death, and [to] the house appointed for all living. [30:24] Howbeit he will not stretch out [his] hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction. [30:25] Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was [not] my soul grieved for the poor? [30:26] When I looked for good, then evil came [unto me]; and when I waited for light, there came darkness. [30:27] My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me. [30:28] I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, [and] I cried in the congregation. [30:29] I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls. [30:30] My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat. [30:31] My harp also is [turned] to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.
